Index

Abdulkadiroglu, A. 169, 175 academic performance see educational achievement accountability policies, and educational outcomes, US 172–4 activation policies, Korea 63–5, 70–71 active labour market policies, Korea 63–5, 70–71 ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act 1990) 111 AFDC (Aid to Families with Dependent Children) 237–8
after-school classes, Korea 12–14, 181–228, 184–6 and academic performance 183, 193, 214–25, 226–7 costs 185–6, 196
and demand for private tutoring 182–3, 205–11
participant characteristics 199–205
participation by school category and region 194–9 after-school classes, US, and student outcomes 171 age and compliance with National Pension Scheme, Korea 146 and employment rates 93–4 aging population and disability insurance, US 115–16
and employment, US 87–8
Korea 3, 263
United States 27–8, 30
see also older people Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) 237–8 alcohol addiction, and SSDI 120 ALMP (active labour market policies), Korea 63–5, 70–71 American Recovery and Reinvestment Act 2009 (ARRA) 29, 239, 243 impact on poverty 248, 250, 252–3
Americans with Disabilities Act 1990 111 Angrist, J. 175
antipoverty policies benefits of 24–5
effectiveness 243–59
means-tested transfers 240–43 social insurance 238–40
United States 14–15, 21–5, 235–60
antitax preferences, United States 20, 31–7 impact on poverty 248, 250, 252–3
Auerbach, A.J. 30
Autor, D. 102, 110, 113, 123, 126–9, 239 aversion to tax increases, United States 20, 31–7
Baker, D.P. 229
Barrow, L. 171
Basic Old-Age Pension (BOAP) 15–16, 54, 63, 264, 269–70
effect on poverty 271–81
Ben-Shalom, Y. 22, 23
Black, D. 125
Blanchard, O. 101
BOAP (Basic Old-Age Pension) 15–16, 54, 63, 264, 269–70
effect on poverty 271–81
Borman, G.D. 171
Burkhauser, R. 123, 241
Burman, L.E. 40
Bush, H.W. 32
business support
Korea 16–17, 284–95
Poland 286
UK 286
Venture Investment Subsidy Program (vISP) 286–95
Byeon, Jong-Im 183
Byeon, Sooyong 183

CAI (computer-aided instruction), and educational outcomes, US 171 Canada, job growth 95–101 and health insurance 100–101 and immigration 99
and industry distribution 97–9 central government, and social service delivery, Korea 66
Chae, Jae-Eun 183
Chetty, R. 165
children
effects of poverty 24
in poverty, US 249–50, 251–2 see also education; educational achievement
Chodorow-Reich, G. 41
Chung, W. 281
class sizes, and educational outcomes,
US 168–9
Cohen, J.P. 41
compliance rate, National Pension,
Korea 137–40
individually insured persons 140–44 and matching contribution subsidy 152–8
wage workers 144–9 computer-aided instruction, and educational outcomes, US 171 contribution subsidy National Pension Scheme 158–60 see also matching contribution subsidy
costs
after-school classes, Korea 185–6, 196
private tutoring, Korea 187–8
Daly, M. 123, 241
Dee, T. 173
Dehejia, R. 295, 296
dehindustrialization and poverty, Korea 47–8
Diamond, P. 35
disability benefits, US 27, 239, 241 workers compensation 240 see also Social Security Disability Insurance
disabled people, US and employability, US 110–11 employment rates 116
incentives to stop work 118–19 share of population 114–15 disincentive effects of taxes 34–5 Dobbie, W. 176
drug and alcohol addiction, and SSDI 120
Duggan, M. 110, 113, 114, 115, 123, 126–9, 239
Earned Income Tax Credits (EITC)
antipoverty effectiveness 249
Korea 53–4
US 243
earnings, and education, US 165 Earnings Support Insurance (ESI)
129–30
EBS (Educational Broadcasting System), Korea 192 effect on demand for private tutoring 207 Eckstein, Z. 40
education
and compliance with National Pension Scheme, Korea 146
and employment 88
see also after-school classes; schools education costs
after-school classes 185–6, 196
private tutoring 187–8 small businesses 285
education policy
and equality, Korea 73
United States 11–12, 25, 165–77
educational achievement and after-school classes, Korea 183, 193, 214–25, 226–7
and class size 168–9
and effect of after-school classes on demand for private tutoring 211 improvement policies 168–76
US 18, 25, 165–7
Educational Broadcasting System (EBS), Korea 192
and demand for private tutoring 207
effectiveness
of antipoverty policy, US 21–5, 243–59 of welfare programs, Korea 71 EIS (Employment Insurance System),
Korea 52
gaps in coverage 57
EITC (Earned Income Tax Credits)
antipoverty effectiveness 249
Korea 53–4
US 243
elderly people see older people employer incentives, SSDI program 117–18
Employment Insurance System (EIS),
Korea 52
gaps in coverage 57
employment rates, US 85–90, 88 and age 87–8, 93–4
disabled people 116
and education 88
and gender 89–90, 94
international comparisons 90–94 young people 88, 101–2 employment status, and compliance with National Pension, Korea 142–4
Employment Success Package Program (ESPP), Korea 65, 70–71 employment termination incentives, SSDI program 117–19
Engen, E. 41
equalisation policy, education, Korea 181 equality
and after-school classes 227
see also inequality
ESI (Earnings Support Insurance)
129–30
ESPP (Employment Success Package Program) 65, 70–71
ethnicity and educational attainment,
US 166–7
exhibition and convention project funding, Korea 285
expenditure
on after-school classes, Korea 185–6, 196–9, 200–203, 207–8
antipoverty measures, US 21–3
Korea 69–70
Medicaid 241
on schools, and educational outcomes, US 168
social safety net, US 235–6
United States 20, 28–9
experience rating SSDI payroll tax 123–6
family income
and after-school class participation,
Korea 194–6, 200–203
and educational outcomes, US 167
and effect of after-school classes on demand for private tutoring 211
and effects of after-school classes on academic performance 222–5 Farm Bill 2002 242
farmers, pension contribution subsidy, Korea 152–8
fiscal environment, United States 28–31
fiscal illusion 33
fiscal imbalances, United States 5, 30–31
fiscal policy, US reluctance to raise taxes 31–7 and social policy 4–5, 18–40 fishermen, pension contribution subsidy, Korea 152–8
Food Stamps Program (US) see SNAP Fryer, R.J. 176
funding
after-school classes, Korea 185
schools, and educational outcomes,
US 168
Gale, W.G. 30, 33–4, 40, 41
Gatekeeper Protocol 131
GDP, and job growth 91–3 genre
and employment, US 89–90, 94
and National Pension Scheme,
Korea 146
government attitudes to, US 39
and social service delivery, Korea 66 government spending
Korea 69–70
United States 20, 28–9
government subsidies
  after-school classes, Korea 185 effects on investment by small companies 284–95
Great Recession
  effect on employment, US 86–7 and fiscal imbalance, US 30
Gu, X. 114–15
Guryan, J. 168

Hanushek, E.A. 168, 173, 176
Harris, B.H. 40
Hastings, J. 175
health insurance
  and job growth, USA and Canada 100–101
  Korea 48, 52, 70
health of population, and SSDI expansion 113–15
Heckman, J.J. 295
Hong, Sungwoo 182–3 housing assistance program, US 243
Hoxby, C.M. 175
Hubbard, R.G. 41
Imberman, S. 114, 115
immigration, and job growth, USA and Canada 99
incentives
  and SSDI program 117–19 teachers, and educational outcomes 176
income
  and after-school class participation,
  Korea 194–6, 200–203
  and compliance with National Pension Scheme, Korea 142
  and educational outcomes, US 167
  and effects of after-school classes on academic performance 222–5
Income Contingent Loan Program,
  Korea 73
income distribution
  effect of safety net 253–7
  Korea 45–8
income volatility, effect of safety net 257–9
industrial structure and employment, Canada and USA 97–9
  and poverty, Korea 45–8 inequality education, US 25, 165–7 effect of social safety net 253–7
  Korea 45–8
infrastructure deficit, United States 18, 26–7
instructors, after-school classes, Korea 186 intensity of poverty, and safety net effectiveness, US 250–52 investment gap for infrastructure,
  United States 18
in-work support, for disabled people 126–9
Jacob, B.A. 170, 173
job growth, US 7–8, 83–102 compared with Canada 95–101
  and education 88
  and gender 89–90, 94
  international comparisons 90–94
  trends 85–7
K-12 education, United States 18, 25–6
Kane, T. 176
Katz, L. 101
Kim, Hisam 227, 229, 230
Kim, Sunwoong 181
Knowledge is Power Program (KIPP) schools 25–6, 175–6
Korea
  after-school classes 12–14, 181–228
  Basic Old-Age Pension (BOAP)
  15–16, 263–81
  business subsidies 16–17, 284–95
  income distribution 45–8
  National Pension Scheme 10–11, 137–60, 264–9
  policy reform for welfare distribution 69–73
  population aging 3
  social safety net 5–7, 48–69
Krueger, A.B. 83, 169, 171
Krugman, P. 83
labour market programs, Korea 63–5, 70–71 language school participation, Korea 193
and demand for private tutoring 207
Lee, Byung-Hee 45
Lee, Ju-Ho 181
Lefgren, L. 170
Levitt, S.D. 173
local government, and social service delivery, Korea 66 low wages, Korea 45
MacDonald, B.R. 129–30
macroeconomic policy, Korea, impact on poverty 72 Manton, K.G. 114–15 marginal tax rates, United States 35 market-based incentives, education, US 171–6 matching contribution subsidy, National Pension, Korea 150–52, 159–60 effectiveness 152–8
means-tested transfers, US 235, 240–43
Medicaid 22, 240–41
Medicare 27–8, 239
mental illness, and SSDI 114
Moon, Hyungpyo 281
Murarka, S. 175
National Basic Livelihood Security Program (NBLSP) 52–3, 59–63
National Health Insurance (NHI), Korea 52
National Pension Scheme, Korea 10–11, 137–60, 264–9 compliance rates 137–9 encouraging compliance 139–40 individual compliance 140–44 matching contribution subsidy 150–58 sustainability 269
wage workers’ compliance 144–9
NBLSP (National Basic Livelihood Security Program) 52–3, 59–63
NCLB (No Child Left Behind) 172–4
Neal, D. 173
Netherlands, disability benefits 131–2
NHI (National Health Insurance), Korea 52
No, Dae Myung 77
No Child Left Behind (NCLB) 172–4 noncompliance
National Pension Scheme, Korea 137–9
see also compliance rate
NPS see National Pension Scheme
O’Neil, M. 129–30
OASI (Old-Age and Survivors Insurance) 27 Obama, Barack 165
occupational status, and compliance with National Pension Scheme, Korea 142–4, 148 Old-Age and Survivors Insurance (OASI) 27 older people
and employment 93–4
in poverty, Korea 45
in poverty, Korea, effect of BOAP 273–8
in poverty, US 249–50, 251–2 see also aging population; pensions Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) 1981 238 Orszag, P.R. 34, 41
parental choice of schools, and educational outcomes 174–6 parental education, and child’s participation in extra tuition 203 Park, Soyoung 182
participation rate
after-school classes, Korea 184–5 pensions, Korea see compliance rate, National Pension Scheme social insurance programs, Korea 57–9 Paul, C.J.M. 41
payroll tax for SSDI, experience rating 123–6 PDI (private disability insurance) 126–9 pensions, Korea 52, 263–81
Basic Old-Age Pension 15–16, 54, 63, 264, 269–70
National Pension Scheme 137–60, 264–9 poverty reduction effect 271–81
Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act 1996 238, 242
Phaup, M. 40
Pischke, J.-S. 83
Poland, special economic zones 286 policy coordination, Korea 72–3 policy implications, National Pension Scheme, Korea 158–60 population aging see aging population population health, and SSDI expansion 113–15 poverty harmful effects 24–5 measurement, US 244–5
see also antipoverty policies; poverty rates poverty depth, and effectiveness of safety net, US 252–3 poverty gap 250, 271
and antipoverty policies, US 250–52
effect of BOAP 278
poverty inequality 253–7 poverty measurements 244–5, 246, 250, 271–2 poverty rates
effect of antipoverty measures 21–5, 248–50
effect of BOAP 273–8
US 21, 246–8
private disability insurance (PDI) 126–9 private service providers, Korea 66–7 private tutoring, Korea 181–2
costs 185–6, 187–8, 196
effect of after-school classes 182–3, 205–11 effects on academic performance 218–25 participant characteristics 199–203
participation by school category and region 194–9 propensity score matching (PSM) 288, 289 PRWORA (Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act 1996) 238, 242 PSM (propensity score matching) 288, 289 public assistance programs, Korea 52–4, 59–63 public health insurance, Korea 48, 52 public pension programs
Korea 52, 57
see also National Pension Scheme pupil performance see educational achievement race and educational attainment, US 166–7 Rachuba, L.T. 171
Rajan, R.G. 41
Raymond, M.E. 173
Reback, R. 173
recession
and employment, US 86–7
and fiscal imbalance, US 30
regional variations
after-school class participation, Korea 194–9 effect of after-school classes on academic performance 222 retirement benefits see pensions Röller, L.-H. 41
Romer, C.D. 33, 34
Romer, D.H. 33, 34
Rosenbaum, P. 288
Rothstein, J. 176
Rouse, C.E. 171, 173
Rubin, D. 288
Saez, E. 35, 41
safety net see social safety net Schanzenbach, D.W. 173 school category, Korea
and after-school class participation 194–9, 203
and effect of after-school classes on demand for private tutoring 211 and effects of after-school classes on academic performance 222 and private tutoring participation 203
schools
accountability and educational outcomes 172–4 and after-school classes 227–8 attendance time and educational outcomes 171 funding and educational outcomes 168 parental choice and educational outcomes 174–6 Self-Reliance Program (SRP) 65, 70 SEZs (special economic zones), Poland 286 shared fiscal responsibility 33–4 Shimer, R. 102
Shoag, D. 41
single mothers, US 237–8 skill gaps, US 165–7
SMEs, effects of government subsidies 284–95
Smith, J.A. 295
SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) 242, 249 social insurance programs, US 235, 238–40 social safety net, Korea 5–7, 44–77 delivery problems 65–7 development 48–54
gaps in coverage 57–63
impact on poverty 55
improving effectiveness 71 problems 55–69
sustainability 67–9, 69–70
see also pensions
Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) 8–9, 27, 107–34 expenditures 108–9
growth in applications 111–13
incentives 117–19
and population and aging and health 113–17 reform proposals 123–30 reforms 119–23
Social Security Retirement Benefits 238 Social Security Survivors Benefits 238 special economic zones (SEZs), Poland 286 Spence, M. 97, 99
spending see expenditure SRP (Self-Reliance Program), Korea 65, 70
SSDI see Social Security Disability Insurance
SSI (Supplemental Security Income) 27, 241
Staiger, D. 176
Stapleton, D. 116
starve the beast hypothesis 33–4 structural reforms, Korea 72 student financial support, Korea 73 student outcomes see educational achievement Suarez-Serrato, J.C. 41 subsidies
after-school classes, Korea 185 effects on investment by small companies 185 Sung, Nagil 182–3
Supplemental Children's Health Insurance Program 238 Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) 242
antipoverty effectiveness 249
Supplemental Security Income (SSI) 27, 241 Survey on Private Tutoring Costs 187–8
sustainability
National Pension Scheme, Korea 269
welfare spending, Korea 67–9 TANF (Temporary Assistance to Needy Families) 238, 241–2 taxation, US
aversion to 20, 31–7
tax revenues 20, 29–30 Teach for America 170
teachers
after-school classes, Korea 186 incentive pay and educational outcomes 176 teacher quality and educational outcomes, US 169–71 Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) 238, 241–2 three indexes of poverty (TIP) curve 278 Ticket to Work Program 121–2 time in school, and educational outcomes, US 171 TIP (three indexes of poverty) curve 278
Todd, P.E. 295
tutoring see private tutoring Tuttle, C.C. 175

unemployment, United States 18–19, 27 unemployment insurance, US 240 unification, Korea, impact on welfare spending 68–9 United Kingdom, venture support policies 286 United States antipoverty policies 14–15, 235–60
education policy 11–12, 165–77 fiscal and social policy 4–5, 18–40 job growth slowdown 7–8, 83–102
SSDI see Social Security Disability Insurance

Venture Investment Subsidy Program (VISP) 284–5, 286 effects on business investment 287–94 venture support policies 285–6 VISP (Venture Investment Subsidy Program) 284–5, 286 effects on business investment 287–94
volatility of income 257–9 vulnerable people, and effectiveness of safety net 249–50, 251–2 wage workers, and National Pension Scheme, Korea 144–9 wages, Korea 45

Waerman, L. 41
welfare policy reform, Korea 69–71
Wilson, D. 41
Wingender, P. 41
Wittenberg, D. 116
Wong, M. 173
work support, for disabled people 126–9 workers’ compensation, US 240 working-age poverty, Korea 45 working status of parents, and after-school class participation, Korea 203 workplace characteristics, and compliance with National Pension Scheme, Korea 147, 148–9 years of schooling, and educational outcomes, US 171 youth employment, US 88, 101–2 Ziliak, J.P. 242, 245, 257