

Contents

---

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
Editorial review board	ix
List of contributors	xi
Foreword	xiii
Mikael Skou Andersen
Preface	xiv
List of abbreviations	xv

PART I CARBON TAXES AND EMISSIONS TRADING

1. A template for the world: British Columbia's carbon tax shift Thomas F. Pedersen and Stewart Elgie	3
2. The cost of enforcing carbon pricing mechanisms: a comparison of the British Columbia carbon tax and the Québec emissions trading system Nathalie Chalifour and Jacques Papy	16
3. Fault lines between fees and taxes: legal obstacles for linking Stefan E. Weishaar	32
4. Policy changes on Ecological Tax Reform/carbon tax in Germany and Japan Shinji Onoda and Kai Schlegelmilch	46
5. The EU emission trading scheme: first evidence on Phase 3 Claudia Kettner	63
6. The Regensburg Model: emission trading between countries based on a global CO <sub>2</sub> budget, national emission pathways and gradual climate justice Manfred Sargl, Andreas Wolfsteiner and Günter Wittmann	76
7. Carbon tariffs and developing countries: the case for special and differential treatment Selina Cheng and Bill Butcher	93

PART II ENERGY AND EXCISE TAXES

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 8.  | Reforming the EU VAT system to support the transition to a low-carbon and resource efficient economyBettina Bahn-Walkowiak and Henning Wilts                            | 111 |
| 9.  | Long-term climate mitigation and energy use in Austria: the impacts of carbon and energy pricesKurt Kratena, Ina Meyer and Mark Wolfgang Sommer                         | 127 |
| 10. | Urban road pricing: the experience of MilanEdoardo Croci and Aldo Ravazzi Douvan  | 141 |
| 11. | Motor fuel taxation in Central Europe and international tax competition: simulation of motor fuel tax harmonizationJan Brůha, Hana Brůhová-Foltýnová and Vítězslav Píša | 159 |

PART III ANALYZING POLICY CHOICES

- |     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 12. | Climate change law and policymaking: the utility of the Delphi methodEvgeny Guglyuvatyy and Natalie P. Stoianoff                           | 177 |
| 13. | Motivating environmental tax reform through coalitions of like-minded countriesSirini Withana and Patrick ten Brink                        | 191 |
| 14. | Developments and opportunities for an ecological tax reform in SpainIgnasi Puig Ventosa, Eike Meyer, Marta Jofra Sora and Maria Calaf Forn | 208 |
|     | Index  | 221 |