

Index

- Abramovitz, M.A. 189, 193
- academic spin-offs
- administrative inadequacy
 - future research opportunity 59
 - hypothesis posited 40–41, 43, 45
 - impact on academic job positions 43, 45, 48, 58
 - results 54–8
 - variables 49–50
- alternatives to 40
- heterogeneity in 43–6
- high teaching loads
- hypothesis posited 40, 42–3
 - impact on academic job positions 41, 43, 45, 48, 58
 - results 53–7
 - variables 49–50
- hypotheses development 41–3, 46
- Italian universities as study choice 41
- lack of academic job positions
- future research opportunity 59
 - hypothesis posited 40, 42, 45
 - impact of administrative support 43, 45, 48, 58
 - impact of high teaching load 41, 43
 - moderating effects for 48
 - ratio calculating 48
 - results 52–8
 - variables 49–50
- motivations 39–40, 45, 58–9
- organizational factors 40
- rate of establishment 39
- relevance of age 41–2
- research design
- models and variables 48–9
 - sample 46–8
- results 49–58
- students willing to become faculty members 42
- study conclusions 2–3, 58–9, 251–3
 - team ventures 41–2
- Acs, Z.J. 7, 201, 222–3
- activities of daily living (ADL) 16, 18–20
- Agarwal, R. 71, 222
- agency theory
- assumption that shareholders are risk neutral 156
 - attempting to align interests of agent and principal 189
 - on boards
 - and assessment of risk 174
 - and custodians of shareholder value 163
 - and decision control process 157
 - calls for less negative view of 178
 - effective employment of branches of 177
 - on efficient innovation projects 163–4
 - on investors and firm-related risks 162
 - negative bias against CEO duality 177
 - normative view of 156–7
 - positive 175
 - recognition of different risk preferences 160
 - on separation of decision control and monitoring 177
 - and value appropriation 156, 162–3
- Aggarwal, V.A. 67–8
- aging
- analysis of 19–20
 - commercialization recommendations for 24
 - as receptive market for QoLT 20
 - roadmap 25, 27
 - similarity to Wounded Warrior pathway 28

- Aidis, R. 187, 189, 195–7
 Aldrich, H.E. 115, 157, 220, 237
 Aldridge, T. 43, 187, 199
 Allen, T.J. 121, 150
 Almeida, P. 69, 121
 Alvarez, S.A. 218, 237
 Amburgey, T.L. 130, 148
 American Chemistry Council 116–17
 Anokhin, S. 7, 8, 27
 Antonelli, C. 40, 43
 Arora, A. 65, 68
 aspirations competitive 76–7 historical 76
 organizational vs. personal 87 performance relative to 66–7, 69
 attainment discrepancy 75, 77, 87
 call for incorporation of 89 hypotheses 71–2
 investment banks 72 necessity of search influenced by 70
 results 83, 86–7
 assistive technologies kitchen as desirable site for 19
 previous studies 10
 purchase price influence 20
 suite of 16–18
 transfer of pathways for 27
 tensions existing within 9–10
 Audretsch, D.B. 8, 40, 43, 185, 187–8, 190–191, 193–4, 199–202, 206–10, 221–3, 243
 Autio, E. 66, 221, 234, 238, 241

 Balkin, D.B. 166
 Barnett, W.P. 116, 151
 Barney, J.B. 218, 237
 Bauer, S.M. 9–10, 20
 Baughn, C. 188–9, 198
 Baum, J.A.C. 67, 70, 72, 130
 Baumol, W. 189, 193
 Baysinger, B. 155, 160–162, 166–7, 174
 Beach, S.R. 10, 20
 Bessette, R.W. 206, 210, 212
 biopharmaceutical industry see
 biotechnology industry;
 pharmaceutical industry
 biotechnology industry
 characteristics as evaluation elements 101–2 constituents 99–102
 development largely based on SMEs 93
 as important part of world economy 110 model for 103–5
 reliance on research-intensive life sciences sector 94 support ability to access 100 policies for 93
 technology credit scoring model for data and variables 102–5
 introduction 93–4
 literature review 94–9
 overview 3
 results of logistics regression 105–9 study conclusion 110–111
 ventures in data sample 72–4
 empirical analyses 74–80
 introduction 65–7
 overview 3
 results 80–85
 study discussion and conclusion 86–9 theory and hypotheses 67–72
 white, red and green 100–101
 Bock, A.J. 218–19, 221, 223, 237
 Boeker, W. 89, 160–161, 174
 Bonacich measure 80, 129
 Bonardo, D. 46, 59
 Borisoff, J.F. 7, 10
 Boyd, B.K. 163, 165, 178
 Bramwell, A. 207, 209
 Brandt, E.N. 117–18, 121, 123
 Burt, R.S. 122, 129, 150
 business licenses, obtaining 194–5

 Cameron, A.C. 125–6 capabilities to evaluate, develop and transfer technologies 192 lack of effective technical and social 192 social, to make institutional changes 193

- Carroll, G.R. 116, 151
 Carver, C.S. 237, 241
 Casper, S. 157, 159–60
 CEO duality ability to erode board independence 162–3
 as measure 165
 negative bias of agency theory 177 positive correlation with ownership concentration 177 positive implications for risky decisions 175 positively related to R&D expenditure 4 relation with innovation 163, 174
 results 170–173
 Certificate Program in Leadership and Ethics (CPLE)
 Class of 2015 15, 21–2 competency of civic/social engagement 14 leadership course as integral part of 12 raison d'être 15–16
 undergraduate team 12–13
 Certo, S.T. 155, 160
 change in R&D
 assimilation of new inventors analytical techniques and dependent variables 127
 control variable 130
 independent variable 128–9
 as process 122–3
 results 143–6, 148–9
 carriers of analytical techniques and dependent variables 126–7
 independent variable 128
 as process 120–121
 results 141–3, 148–9
 content of analytical techniques and dependent variables 125–6
 control variable 129
 independent variable 127–8
 leading, following or inertia 118–20
 results 130–140, 147–8
 control variables 129–30
 vs. organizational inertia 117–18 performance implications 120
 analytical techniques and dependent variables 126
 control variable 129–30
 independent variable 128
 results 140–141, 148
 Chrisman, J.J. 207, 210
 Chung, K.H. 157, 159–60, 169
 Clark, B.R. 207, 209
 Clarysse, B. 42, 219, 222
 Cobb-Douglas production function 208
 Cohen, G. 188, 192
 Cohen, S. 121, 150
 Cohen, W.M. 119, 130, 240
 collaborative knowledge 233–4, 235–6, 239–40, 243
 Colombo, M.G. 39, 69, 209, 235
 commercialization academic entrepreneurs usually lacking expertise in 222, 235 of academic research administration affecting 54 focus on technology 44 teaching load affecting 58 challenges to 10
 and decision to invest in R&D 174 development requiring time and costs 110 of intellectual property for profit 159 modes for misfit technologies 27 of new products 65, 67–8, 158–9, 177–8 novel paths for R&D alliances 66–9, 71–2, 86, 88, 252
 at odds with traditional academic culture 232 pathways to 10
 CSR/CSP concepts in 15
 as dependent on multiple factors 29–30 resources and staffing needs 23
 roadmaps for 23–7
 for technology transition of assistive technologies 27 potential of technological 97, 101
 recommendations
 for Smart Kitchen technologies 22 for target populations 24

- technology transfer implications
 - for 22
- slow speed of product 106
- translation phase of development
 - cycle 1, 6
 - of university technologies 8
- coping strategies, entrepreneurial
 - 237–41, 243
- Cornell University 19–20
- corporate governance
 - board independence 162–4
 - and innovation 4, 159–60
 - estimation 168–70
 - input decisions 156
 - linkage 155–6, 162, 164, 177–8
 - measures and variables 165–7
 - results 170–174
 - link with performance 155
 - ownership concentration 160–162
- credit scoring models 95–6
 - see also* technology credit scoring model
- Cueing Kitchen 17, 24, 27
- Cyert, R.M. 70, 121
- Daily, C.M. 155, 160, 163, 165–6, 174–5
- Dalton, D.R. 155, 160, 163, 165, 174–5
- D'Aveni, R.A. 163, 175
- Decker, R. 12, 14
- Decter, M. 222–3
- Deeds, D.L. 65, 68, 79, 100
- Degroof, J. 39, 59
- developing and transitioning countries (DTCs)
 - accessing accurate information 194
 - discrimination against women 197–8, 202
 - education and training systems 190–192, 198, 201–2
 - entrepreneurs facing risk and uncertainty 191
 - as failing to create competitive advantages 185
 - law enforcement 189–90, 196–7, 200
 - misuse of talent 193–4
 - need for functioning formal and informal institutions 187
 - need to build social capabilities 193, 200
 - obtaining business licenses 194–5
 - policy recommendations for 200–202
 - social networks 195–6
 - technical and social capabilities 192–3
 - technology transfer
 - capability for 192
 - facing unique challenges in 200
 - missing links in developing 186
 - recognizing importance of 186
 - tribal/group identities 196
 - trust and cooperation 199
- DiMaggio, P.J. 115, 120, 148, 189, 192, 195
- DiMasi, J.A. 70, 101
- Ding, D. 8, 16, 19
- disabled people see aging; assistive technologies; mass market users; physically disabled; quality of life technologies (QoLT); Wounded Warrior/Traumatic Brain Injury
- Dow Chemical
 - analytical techniques and dependent variables 125–7
 - change in R&D 117–23
 - control variables 129–30
 - defining environment 124–5
 - independent variables 127–9
 - research design 123–4
 - results 130–147
 - study discussion 147–50
 - study limitations and conclusions 150–151
- Dranove, D. 66, 69
- DTCs see developing and transitioning countries (DTCs)
- economic development (technology-driven), constraints see institutional inertias
- economic impact of public universities
 - methods
 - data and variables 210–212
 - estimations 212–13
 - overview 5
 - previous studies 206–7
 - results 212–14
 - study conclusions 214–15
 - theoretical background 207–9

- ecosystem development in regenerative medicine
- entrepreneurial ecosystems
- 220–221
 - characteristics 238–40
 - coping strategies and institutional culture 237–8
 - development paths 240–243
 - differences across 232–4
 - differences between informant roles across 236–7
 - and informant role comparisons 229, 232
 - investigating 224–5
 - knowledge spillover and creation 222–3
 - regenerative medicine 223–4
 - university-centric 221–2
- findings 229–37
- introduction 218–19
- limitations and research directions 243–4
- methods
- investigation 224–5
 - long interview 225–7
 - procedures 227–9
- overview 5–6
- study conclusion 244
- study discussion 237–43
- education and training systems
- lack of effective 190–192
 - opposing discrimination 198
 - policy recommendations for 201–2
- entrepreneurial ecosystems see ecosystem development in regenerative medicine
- entrepreneurship capital
- as conduit 209
 - explanations about level of 213–14
 - representing capacity to engage in and generate entrepreneurial activity 206
 - and role of universities 207
 - universities associated with outcomes of 208–9
- entrepreneurship, technology-driven, constraints see institutional inertias
- Estrin, S. 187, 189, 195–7
- Etzkowitz, H. 218, 221
- Fama, E. 156, 160, 163
- Feldman, M.P. 218, 221–3, 243
- Fini, R. 40, 46–7
- Finkelstein, S. 130, 163, 175
- Fleming, L. 124, 130, 167
- Folta, T.B. 67, 78–9, 84, 88
- Freeman, C. 186, 188–9
- Freeman, J. 115, 120, 147–8, 150
- Fukuyama, F. 187, 196, 199
- future research
- directions for 251–3
 - suggestions for
 - academic spin-offs 59
 - change in R&D 150
 - corporate governance model building 178
 - economic impact of public universities 215
 - ecosystem development 244
 - mechanisms to effect changes in institutional inertias 202
 - novelty in product development 88
- Gans, J.S. 65–6, 68
- Genetics Institute 73–4
- George, G. 218–19, 223, 237, 240
- Goldberg, M.R. 10, 12
- Greve, H.R. 66, 70, 75–7, 87, 89
- Guerrero, M. 208–9, 213
- Gugler, K. 157, 159–60
- Hagedoorn, J. 69, 72
- Hambrick, D.C. 130, 148
- Hannan, M.T. 115–16, 120, 147–8, 150
- Hansen, G.S. 156, 161–2
- Haveman, H.A. 115–16, 147
- Hayter, C.S. 39, 221
- Helfat, C. 118, 129
- Hensley, S. 168, 170
- Hernandez, E. 79, 223
- Hill, C.W.L. 155–7, 160–162, 166
- Hoang, H. 71, 220
- Hofstede, G. 195, 237
- Holmquist, C. 67, 70, 78–9
- Hsu, D.H. 67–8
- human capital
- as driver to growth of start-ups 235
 - education and training to develop 253

- enabling network ties and diverse social networks 219–21
- investment in 207
- nature of 208
- study supports attraction of 214–15
- universities associated with outcomes of 209, 213
- Human Engineering Research Laboratories (HERL) 8, 13–16, 20–23, 25–6, 28–9
- iCorp program 1
- industrial biotechnology
 - advances dependent on knowledge 100
 - also known as white biotechnology 100
 - association with technology and marketability attributes 3, 102, 108, 110
 - domestic economy as factor 111
 - growth reliant on investment in innovation projects 100
 - high R&D costs 100, 107, 110
 - nature of 100
 - reason for studying 94
 - requirements for firms 110–111
 - ROC curve applied to 109
 - role of market demand 100
 - sample 103
 - stepwise logistic regression model for non-default 106
 - variables 105
- inertia see institutional inertias; organizational inertia
- informants
 - coping strategies 234
 - differences in collaborative knowledge 233–4
 - emphasis and preference for outcomes 234, 237
 - motivations 232–3
 - role
 - differences between 234–6
 - differences between, across ecosystems 236–7
 - and ecosystems comparisons 229, 232
 - types, in study 228–9
 - selection and interview 225–7
 - information, lack of accurate 194, 200
 - innovation
 - as catalyst for entrepreneurship and economic development strategies 186
 - and corporate governance 159–60
 - CEO duality 163, 173–4
 - influence of inside board members 174–5
 - institutional owners 161–2, 173
 - linkage with 155–6, 162, 164, 177–8
 - theoretical model 164
 - estimation 168–70, 175–6
 - external and internal 157
 - measures 166–7, 173
 - in pharmaceutical industry 157–9
 - risky investment in 156–7, 178
 - Innovation Institute 13
 - institutional culture 237–41, 243–4
 - institutional inertias
 - formal 189–90
 - capability to evaluate, develop and transfer technologies 192
 - diminishing incentives and misuse of talent 193–4
 - lack of accurate information 194
 - lack of effective education and training systems 190–192
 - lack of effective technical and social capabilities 192
 - obtaining business licenses at minimum cost and time 194–5
 - social capability to make institutional changes 193
 - informal 195
 - bypassing the law 196–7
 - discrimination against women 197–8
 - social networks 195–6
 - tribal cultural values and norms 196
 - trust and social capital 199
 - introduction 185–8
 - overview 4–5
 - policy recommendations 200–202
 - study conclusions 202
 - theory 188–99
 - Interactive Display 17–18, 24–5

- international R&D alliances 84–5 benefits of 66, 68–9
 biotechnology with highest density 72 boundary conditions for 87–8 caution due to uncertainty and operational challenges 66 choice to pursue 66
 empirical analyses
 attainment discrepancy 77
 control variables 78–80
 dependent variables 74–5
 estimation 80
 independent variables 75–7
 firms in study 72–3 example case 73–4
 verification of national origin 74 formation of 65–6
 vs. licensing out 65, 67–8, 86 management perceptions of 69
 novel commercialization path 66–9, 71–2, 86, 88, 252 overlooking opportunities for 87 partner choice 71–2
 performance relative to aspirations 66–7, 69–72, 75–8, 83, 86–9
 and problemistic search 69–72, 78, 86, 88
 results 80, 83
 descriptive statistics 81–2 regression 84–5
 as strategy to access technological knowledge 69
 underperforming ventures' trouble forming 88–9
- Italian universities possibility that results are specific to 59 sample composed of spin-offs from 46–8, 58 statistics 49
 as study choice 41
- Jennings, P.D. 224, 238
 Jensen, M.C. 155–7, 159–60, 162–3, 175, 177
 Johnson, D. 237
- Katila, R. 67, 101, 223
 Keilbach, M. 207–10
- KitchenBot 17, 24–6, 28
 knowledge capital
 nature of 208
 as source of competitive advantage 206 universities associated with outcomes of 209
 universities contributing to 208–9 knowledge, collaborative 233–4, 235–6, 239–40, 243
 knowledge spillover and creation 222–3
 Kochhar, R. 161, 178
 Kohlbacher, F. 19–20
 Kroll, M. 157, 159–60
- Lane, J.P. 9–10
 Lant, T.K. 76–7
 Lavie, D. 72, 87
 law, bypassing 196–7
 Leahy, J.A. 10, 27
 Ledford, H. 219, 223
 Lehmann, E.E. 207, 222
 Levin, R.C. 123, 150
 Levinthal, D.A. 119, 130, 240
 Liang, H. 189, 191
 licensing agreements for international markets 24, 65, 67–8, 86
 Link, A.N. 40, 43
 loan defaults 94–6, 98–9, 102–3, 105–8, 110–111
 Lockett, A. 40, 54, 233
 Lucas, R., Jr. 207–8
 Lundvall, B.-K. 192, 195
- Mahajan, H.P. 8, 16–17, 19
 Mangematin, V. 11, 42, 93–4, 100–101
 March, J.G. 70, 121–2, 195
 Markman, G.D. 155, 158, 166, 186
 Martinez, M.A. 220, 237
 mass market users
 analysis of 20
 commercialization recommendations for 24
 roadmap 27
 suggested partnership opportunities 28
- Matraves, C. 157, 159–60
 McCracken, G. 224, 227
 McDougall, P.P. 68, 87, 209
 Meckling, W. 157, 160, 162–3, 177

- Meltzer, D. 66, 69
 Meoli, M. 40
 Miller, S.R. 72, 87
 Miner, A. 218, 221, 241
 misfit technologies 27
 Mizruchi, M.S. 155–7
 Moon, T.H. 96–9, 102, 107–8, 111
 Mosey, S. 219–20
 motivation
 to create academic spin-offs 39–40, 45, 58–9 diminishing, in DTCs 193–4 of organizational inertia assumption 147 for technology transfer 222
 at UI boundary 223, 230, 232–3, 236
 Mueller, P. 206, 209–10, 212
 Mustar, P. 44, 209, 222
- Nath, V. 7, 21
 Nelson, R.R. 115, 118–22, 148–9, 185, 189
- non-technology spin-offs abnormal spin-off activity 59
 administrative inadequacy 40–41, 43, 45, 54–5, 58
 as common among academic spin-offs 44 effect of teaching load 53–4
 explanatory case 45
 joint effect of moderating variables 57
 lack of academic job positions 52–3
 organizational deficiencies 41
 in sample 47–8
 taxonomy and hypotheses 46
 technology transfer offices 55–6, 58
- North, D.C. 186–90, 193
- organizational inertia assumption of differentiating various organizational theories 151 motivated by 147
 and performance implications 120
 rejection of 141
 vs. change in R&D 117–20
 hypothesis of
 and performance implications 124–5
 in sourcing 121, 126
 institutionalized goals and routine activities leading to 148 inventors embedded in routine leading to 121 notion of 115–16
 possibly dominant characteristic in organizational populations 150
- O'Shea, R.P. 210, 222
 Oviatt, B.M. 68, 87
 Oxley, J.E. 69, 72
- Paruchuri, S. 115
- patents
 academic institutions
 preference for research and publications 223 region comparison 226
 TTO and RM comparison 242 chemicals industry filings 117 disputes over 71
 Innovation Institute for 13, 23 knowledge transfer 208–9, 233
 as measure
 in academic spin-offs study 49–57 in change in R&D study 123–51
 in corporate governance study 157–8, 164–9, 172–3, 176–8 in international R&D alliances study 79, 82–3, 85–6 in technology credit scoring model study 97–8, 100, 107, 110–111 protection, for assistive technologies 24 and speed to market 70
 time and monetary cost of registering 194–5
- Pearlman, J.L. 10, 12
 performance relative to aspirations 66–7, 69–72, 75–8, 83, 86–9
- Pfeffer, J. 115, 119–20, 148
 Phan, P.H. 8, 157
- pharmaceutical industry
 corporate governance and innovation in introduction 155–6
 methods 164–70

- results 170–174
 - study discussion and conclusions 4, 174–8
 - theory and hypotheses 156–64
- innovation in 157–9
- pharmaceutical development firms
 - domestic economy as factor 111
 - management factors and firm-specific characteristics 3, 101–2, 110
 - nature of 100–101
 - reason for studying 94
 - requirements 102
 - ROC curve applied to 109
 - sample 103
 - stepwise logistic regression model for non-default 106–8
- research and development in 115–17
 - see also* Dow Chemical
- physically disabled
 - analysis of 19
 - commercialization recommendations for 24
 - focus on KitchenBot technology 28
 - roadmap 25–6
- Pirnay, F. 40, 44–5
- Pisano, G.P. 70, 76, 79
- Podolny, J.M. 122, 126, 129–30, 150, 199
- Porter, M.E. 80, 115, 190, 218, 220, 240
- Powell, W.W. 73, 115, 120, 123, 148, 189, 192, 195
- problemistic search 69–72, 78, 86, 88
- public universities in United Kingdom
 - see* economic impact of public universities
- quality of life technologies (QoLT)
 - aging, as receptive market for 20
 - function and purpose 9
 - often not coverage by insurance 10
 - partnership's mission 13
 - widespread use of 29–30
- R&D see research and development (R&D)
- Rajagopalan, N. 116, 151
- regenerative medicine see ecosystem development in regenerative medicine
- research and development (R&D)
 - biotechnology expenditures in Canada 93
 - certification of venture companies 100
 - and commercialization 174, 178
 - as complex and costly process 158
 - continuous 110–111
 - costs for new products 100
 - expenditure
 - board involvement in 159–62, 164, 177–8
 - CEO accurately assessing risk/returns 174
 - and corporate governance 156
 - discussion of appropriate levels of 178
 - efficiency 157
 - estimation 168–70
 - as indicator of innovation 166–7
 - leading to patents 157
 - results of study 170–174
 - funding from external institutions 100
 - investment
 - increasing knowledge absorptive capacity 158
 - innovation cycle beginning with 158
 - in pharmaceutical chemicals industry 115–17
 - research-based innovation factors 100
 - SMEs, difficulty in affording 94, 107
 - see also* change in R&D; international R&D alliances
 - roadmaps
 - aging 25, 27
 - co-ordinated 24–5
 - mass market 27
 - physically disabled 25–6
 - technology 11–12, 21–2
 - Wounded Warrior/Traumatic Brain Injury 25–6
- Roberts, E.B. 39, 42, 44–5, 59
- Roessner, D. 206, 209–10
- Romer, P. 207–8
- Rose, A. 93, 99
- Rosenkopf, L. 72, 158
- Rothaermel, F.T. 65, 68, 71, 79, 89

- Sakhartov, A.V. 67, 78–9, 84, 88
- Salancik, G.R. 115, 119–20, 148
- Sampson, R.C. 69, 72
- Saxenian, A.L. 121, 219
- Schulz, R. 8–10
- Scott, J.T. 40, 43
- Scott, W.R. 159, 188–9, 192, 195
- search behavior see problemistic search
- Seelman, K.D. 7, 9–10, 20
- service-learning project
- benefits of 29
 - CPLE undergraduate team 12–13
 - Human Engineering Research Laboratories 13
 - Innovation Institute 13
 - project participants 12
 - purpose of 14–16
- Shane, S. 39–40, 43, 67, 206
- Siegel, D.S. 7–8, 40, 43, 186, 201, 206, 210
- Simha, O. 208, 212–14
- Singh, J.V. 118, 130
- Smart Kitchen technologies
- analyses 20–21
 - deliverables 21–7
 - introduction 2, 16–18
 - methods 18–20
 - service-learning project 12–16
 - study
 - approach to 8–12
 - conclusions 29–30, 251
 - discussion 27–8 - technology transfer
 - of assistive technologies 9–10, 27
 - university-industry 7–8
- SMEs (small and medium-sized enterprises)
- biotechnology industry development
 - based on research-intensive 93
 - and competitiveness 106
 - cooperation with high-tech firms 110
 - difficulties affording R&D 94, 107
 - difficulties arising from capital problems 100
 - economic indicators 99, 108
 - funding problems 110
 - influence of government financial systems on 95, 110
 - and market potential 107, 110
 - profits generated from technology transfer 106–7
 - specific attributes 98, 106, 108
 - support necessary for 111
 - technology-based 102–3
 - technology factors 108, 110
- Snell, S. 155–6, 160, 166
- social capital and trust 199
- social networks 195–6, 220–221
- Sohn, S.Y. 94, 96–9, 102, 107–8, 111
- Somaya, D. 65–6, 68, 71
- Spreitzer, G.M. 116, 151
- stepwise logistic regression model 105–9
- Stern, S. 65–6, 68
- Stuart, T.E. 122, 126, 130
- Swamidass, P.M. 8, 42, 221
- SWOT analysis 22–3
- talent, misuse of 193–4
- TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury) see Wounded Warrior/Traumatic Brain Injury
- technology commercialization see commercialization
- technology credit scoring model for biotechnology industry 3, 94, 252
- data and variables 102–5
 - economic attributes 98–9
 - first developed 94, 96
 - need for recent biotechnology data 111
 - ROC curves 109
 - SME specific attributes 98
 - stepwise variable selection scheme for 105–9
 - technology-oriented attributes 96–7, 110
- technology-driven economic development, constraints see institutional inertias
- technology roadmap 11–12, 21–2
- Technology Roadmapping (TRM) 10–11
- technology spin-offs
- administrative inadequacy 54–5
 - creation requirements 45
 - distinguished from others 44
 - effect of teaching load 41, 45, 53–4, 58

- explanatory case 44–5
- joint effect of moderating variables 57
- lack of academic job positions 52–3, 251–2
- in sample 47–8
- taxonomy and hypotheses 46
- technology transfer offices 56
- technology transfer
 - and administrative activity 54, 58
 - in areas of technological sophistication and high levels of uncertainty 237
 - in assistive technology industries
 - difficulties 20
 - impact on 9–10
 - and capability 192
 - as complex, non-linear process 185
 - drivers of motivation for 222
 - and DTCs
 - facing unique challenges in 200
 - missing links in developing 186
 - policy recommendations for 200–202
 - problems in capturing benefits of efforts 190
 - recognizing importance of 186
 - women's level of involvement in 197–8
 - implications for commercialization
 - recommendations 22
 - objectives of 192–3
 - SMEs generating profit through 106–7
 - students learning about 15, 29
 - university-industry, benefits of 7–8
 - use of scoring models for effective 111
- technology transfer offices (TTOs)
 - and academic spin-offs 42–3, 54–5, 58
 - activity in universities studied 226, 230, 233, 244
 - DTC opening, in engineering schools 186
 - as important engines of economic growth 221
 - in Smart Kitchen technologies study 23, 28
- Teece, D.J. 115, 148, 240
- Telson, J. 8, 16–17
- 'third mission' 40, 42, 45, 59
- Thomas, L.D.W. 224, 241
- translation project see Smart Kitchen technologies
- Traore, N. 93, 99
- tribal cultural values and norms 196
- Trivedi, P.K. 125–6
- trust and social capital 199
- Tsang, E. 12, 14
- Tushman, M.L. 150, 158
- United Kingdom see economic impact of public universities
- universities
 - as drivers of regional economic outcomes 218
 - entrepreneurial 206–15, 240
 - Italian 41, 46–9, 58–9
 - role in knowledge creation 222
 - university-centric ecosystems 221–2
 - university-industry technology transfer 7–8
 - university-industry (UI) boundary ecosystems 218–44
 - see also* economic impact of public universities
- University of Edinburgh 218–44
- University of Wisconsin-Madison 218–44
- Urbano, D. 208–9, 213
- value appropriation
 - and agency theory 156, 162–3
 - and innovation expenditures 156
 - link with value creation 156, 174, 177
- value creation
 - activities, less is more 159
 - and CEO duality 162–3
 - and corporate governance role 174, 178
 - indicator of potential 167
 - insiders for evaluation of strategies 175
 - linkage with value appropriation 156, 174, 177
 - outside ratio of board members 163
 - principal method of 157
 - and routine decision-making 177

- Van de Ven, A.H. 155, 163
 Van Vught, F. 208, 212
 venture development
 associated with knowledge creation and collaboration 240 clustered, benefits of 220 comparison of factors across ecosystems 239
 coping strategies 234
 data structure 230
 de novo 243
 differences between informant roles 234–6 different emphasis on 237, 239 disproportionately driven 239 ecosystem and informant role comparisons 232 funding linked to 235
 gaining knowledge through human capital and spillovers 219
 under irreducible uncertainty 223–4, 240 learning about 233
 motivation toward 232, 236
 regenerative medicine 222–4, 242
 role of social networks 220–221
 TTO personnel influencing 233
 at university-industry boundary 218, 222, 241, 243
 Verheul, I. 200–202
 Vuong, Q.H. 125–6
 Vuong statistic 125–6, 131–40
 Wang, J. 8, 16, 19
 Welter, F. 188, 197–8
 Wennberg, K. 67, 70, 78–9
 White, H. 125, 127
 Whitehead, D. 117–18
 Whittington, K.B. 65, 87
 Williamson, O.E. 148, 191
 Winter, S.G. 115, 118–22, 148–9
 Wolfe, D.A. 207, 209
 women, discrimination against 197–8, 202
 Wounded Warrior/Traumatic Brain Injury
 analysis of 18–19
 commercialization recommendations for 24
 Cueing Kitchen for 17
 roadmap 25–6
 similarity to aging pathway 28
 Wright, M. 41, 209, 218, 219–20, 222–3, 233, 243
 Wright, P. 157, 159–60
 Yiin, W. 8, 16
 Zahra, S.A. 86, 155, 160, 166, 170, 174, 178, 218, 240
 Zucker, L.G. 121, 189, 219