

Tables

2.1	Geographical variations in the hidden enterprise culture in England: by deprived, affluent area and urban versus rural	32
2.2	Why do informal entrepreneurs decide to set up their enterprise?	33
2.3	Motives of informal entrepreneurs following additional probes	34
2.4	Do informal entrepreneurs' motives change over time?	34
3.1	Elaboration of the dependent and independent variables	49
3.2	Size and change in total and local cooperation contacts, and reasons for cooperation, between 2008–2014	54
3.3	Results of ordered logistic regression of number (2008) and change in number (2008–2014) of total, neighbourhood and municipality inter-firm cooperation contacts	57
5.1	Types of spaces of collective innovation by type of governance and innovative approach	83
6.1	Description of social capital of male and female entrepreneurs (n = 431)	112
6.2	Regression models on social capital indicators	113
6.3	Summary of regression models for effects of social capital on annual turnover and income, separately for men and women	115
A6.1	Description of key characteristics of the sample	123
A6.2	Positions mentioned by gender (n = 431, in per cent)	124
12.1	A brief overview of the case studies	256