

Index

- adjudication
 - in Athenian law 52–53, 54
 - in Castile 159, 162, 163
 - in Catholic Church 60, 137–138
 - in Deir el-Medina (Egypt) 47–48
 - as hallmark of Western European legal structures 151–153
 - in Hispanic colonial administration 182, 189, 190–191
 - in Japan 40, 55–56, 99–100, 110, 120–127
 - in medieval Europe 129–130, 139, 141–142, 143, 149–150
 - as mode of law making and enforcement 33–34, 55
 - of private and public law rules 18
- Adrian VI (pope) 179
- Adrien, Kenneth 196–197
- Africans in Hispanic America 192–194, 196
- agriculture
 - crops grown by Muslims in Iberia 148, 157
 - cultivator status groups in Japan 110
 - dry-field vs. wet-paddy cultivation 42, 56–58
 - millet 42, 62–64
 - sedentary communities defined by 38, 40, 42–43, 62–63, 98, 101, 130, 136, 144, 165
 - see also* rice
- Alamanic Laws (Lex Alamannorum) 142
- Alaric (Visigoth leader) 135
- Alaric II (Visigoth leader) 140
- Alfonso X (king of Castile) 158–161, 163
- Alfonso XI (king of Castile) 161–163
- Alford, William 94
- Alfred the Great (king of Wessex) 145–146
- Allam, S. 47
- Americas see Hispanic America
- Amerindians
 - recognition of natural rights 181, 182–183, 186–192
 - separate system of governance and 178, 185
- Anglo-Saxon kings
 - territorial division of England 145
- Aquinas, Thomas
 - Summa Theologica* 154–155
- Aragon 31, 128, 130, 133, 148, 155, 156–157, 163, 174, 197
 - see also* Valencia
- arbitration, binding private (Athenian law) 53
- Asakura, Kan'ichi 110
- Ashikaga period 114, 123, 161
- Asia, East
 - authority in sedentary communities 38, 56–58
 - China's contributions to neighboring states 61
 - influence of Tang and Ming Codes 85
 - regional influence of Japan's legal regime 200
 - variations in rice cultures 57–58
 - see also individual countries*
- Asia, Southeast
 - maritime polities subjected to Chinese tributary status 89
- assizes, as alternative to manorial courts 147
- Asturias 148
- Athens
 - ostrakophoria* (exile) 26
 - private law regime 48–55

- taxes 14, 28–29, 51
- Attila's Hunnic domination 134–135
- audiencias* 163, 176–178, 182–184, 194–195
- Augstinians 179
- authority
- of Church 137–138, 139
 - distance from custom and political 31–32
 - extension of law's domain and 43, 59, 139
 - Henry II's augmentation of sheriff's 147
 - legal rules require recognition by political 9
 - to legislate 115
 - in pre-Hispanic America 168–169, 185
 - royal vs. ecclesiastical 180
 - in sedentary communities 38, 56–58
 - sources and boundaries defined by law 131
 - see also* legitimacy; power
- Aztec Empire 166–169
- Babylonia 41
- bafuku see* Kamakura bafuku (tent government)
- Barcelona/Catalonia 148, 156
- Barker, Rodney 9
- Barnes, Gina 103
- Bauer, Brian 170
- Bavarian laws (Lex Baiuvariorum) 142
- Becket, Thomas 147
- Bellah, Robert 124–125
- Bellomo, Manlio 153
- Bendezú, Don Miguel de 188, 189
- Berman, Harold 131
- Black Death, devastation of Barcelona and Valencia 163
- Blakeley, Barry B. 81
- Bloch, Marc 130
- Borah, Woodrow 186–187, 189–190, 191
- Braithwaite, John 24
- Bray, Francisco 78
- bronze see copper and bronze
- Bronze Age 65–66
- Brook, Timothy 88
- Buddhism 75, 103, 104, 107, 111, 118, 124
- bureaucracy see centralization and bureaucracy; officials
- Burg, David 42
- burghal system 145
- Burgos, Laws of 181–182
- Burkholder, Mark 176–177, 195
- Burns, Robert 156
- bushi see* warrior elites
- canon law 131, 138, 152, 154, 158, 163, 176, 179, 186
- Canute see Cnut (king of Denmark, Norway, and England)
- capital cities
- of China 77
 - of Japan 105
- capital punishment, upon emperor's approval 92–93
- Carneiro, Robert 35
- Carolingian Empire 142, 144–145, 148, 156
- Castile
- adjudication in 159, 162, 163
 - as institutionally advanced country 80, 128, 157–163
 - reconquista* (recovery) 147–148, 155–156, 174
 - see also* Hispanic America; Spain
- Catalonia see Barcelona/Catalonia
- Catholicism see Roman Catholic Church
- centralization and bureaucracy
- Castile 157–163
 - China 61, 63, 66–67, 70–77, 84–86
 - Japan 102–109, 111, 113–114, 116–120, 121–124, 126
 - law as means of unification 145–146
 - Spanish Crown reforms 189–192
 - Visigoth unification 147
- Chaffee, John 76
- Chance, John 192, 194
- Charlemagne 142, 144
- Charles I (king of Spain, Charles V, Holy Roman Emperor)
- convened Valladolid assembly 181

- creation of viceroyalties 177–178
- New Laws 182–184
- union of Spanish kingdoms 163
- Charles III (king of Spain) 197
- China
 - age of gunpowder 56, 70
 - capital cities usually in north 77
 - coercive power in revenue collection 18
 - continuity of Chinese rule after Mongol invasion 83–89
 - customary commercial order 25
 - dominance of private ordering 200
 - hydraulic society as basis for authoritarianism 64
 - law and the Legalist tradition 70–71, 72, 89–97, 169
 - law of empire 71–77
 - local control and ordering 81–83
 - political/legal influence on Japan 99–100, 103–106, 108–109, 114, 120–121, 125–126
 - as public law regime viii, 15, 39, 199, 201
 - rivers 62–65, 66, 69, 74, 85–86, 88, 133
 - self-governing structures intact 157
 - separation of law and morality 5, 90–91
 - trade with Europe 7–8, 149, 175, 184, 198–199
 - warfare under Shang and Zhou Dynasties 65–69
 - wet-paddy rice impact on political development 56–57, 77–81
 - see also individual dynasties; individual rivers*
- Chu polity of China 69, 81
- Cioffi-Revilla, Claudio 67
- civil officials see officials
- clergy, regular vs. secular 179–180
- Clovis 135, 141
- Cnut (king of Denmark, Norway, and England) 143, 145
- Codex Euricianus* 140
- coercion
 - Chinese and Roman revenue collection 18
 - compelling compliance by use of force 11–12, 33–34
 - element missing from Kenmu formulary 124
 - Incan capacity for 172, 173
 - see also* power; warfare
- colonization and transplantation of Western law 128–129, 173–174
- commerce
 - adjudication as means of ordering 99
 - in Castile set back by reconquista 156
 - commercial private ordering 7–8, 24–25, 29–32, 81–82, 96, 120
 - elite control in Hispanic America 196
 - European city-states and merchant oligarchies 143–144
 - foreign trade limits in Japan 117
 - Mediterranean trade expanded in Aragon 156
 - Ming surplus grain sales 88
 - as mobile means of wealth creation 42
 - Ottoman control over 163
 - practices as judicially enforceable 40
 - Spain's House of Trade 175
 - trade throughout Islamic world 148–149
 - see also* gold; silver
- Common Law see England; ius commune (common law)
- comparative law 2–4, 20, 37–40
- compliance see enforcement
- confession, in Chinese law 92, 93
- Confucian/Neo-Confucian ideology 10, 60, 70–71, 72, 80, 90, 94, 95, 117, 124
- consensus
 - capacity of legal rules to create 11
 - community acceptance of legitimacy 12, 32
 - development of representative assemblies and 136
 - in Japanese judicial law making 58, 124, 126–127
 - supported by legalization 13
- constitutions as frameworks for political orders 22
- contracts 20, 30, 40, 95

- control see authority; power Cook, Sherburne 180–181
 copper and bronze 65–66, 69
Corpus Juris Civilis 128–131, 153–154, 162
 Cortés, Don Juan 187–188
 Council of the Indies (Real y Supremo Consejo de las Indias) 175–176
 Covey, Alan 170
 Creel, Herrlee Glessner 67 criminal law dependence on complaints/accusations 142, 151
 enforcement of 48, 121
 legislation required to apply 71 offenses vary with social values 23, 30 penal command-and-control system in pre-Hispanic America 169, 172–173
 in Siete Partidas 160–161
 see also Ten Abominations customary ordering in Athens 52
 within China's public law system 82–83 in earliest societies 37–38 in international law 20–21 in law's development 23–30, 96–97, 139, 143–144
 see also private ordering

daimyo see warrior elites Damaška, Mirjan I
 Danube River 131, 132, 134
 Davies, Nigel 171 debt-peonage 195–196
Decretum (Gratian) 154
 Deemings (Book of Dooms) 145
 Defenders of the Poor (Defensores de los Pobres) 193
 Deir el-Medina (Egypt) 45–48, 169
 derivative legitimacy 10, 12, 13, 131
 Des Forges, Roger 90, 92
dikai actions (Athenian law) 52–54
 Dominicans 154, 179, 181, 191 dōri (reason) 122, 123, 125 due process vs. natural justice 2

 duties see private law regimes; rights

 Ebro River 133–134
 Egypt
 Inca empire's resemblance to 170, 171
 Pharaonic regime 43–48
 as public law regime 41, 43–48, 169
 Eisenstadt, S.N. 125
 Eltis, David 192–193
encomienda system 174, 175, 180–186, 188
 enforcement
 by community disapproval or shaming 24 distinction between authority and power 10–13 of law required by Zhou 68 in Legalist tradition 89 modes of 32–34, 55
 of norms and sanctions 6–10, 19, 26–28, 30 public vs. private law regimes ix, 13–21 of Spanish law in colonies 182–184 status of local officials responsible for 80 see also adjudication; coercion England
 Common Law 129, 154
 legal and administrative development 145–147
 rivers 42, 133
 Enrique II (king of Castile) 163
Espéculo 158–159
 Espinal, Alonso de 181
 Ethelbert (king of Kent) 141
 Euric (Visigoth king) 140

 Fairbank, John 77
 Fang, Qiang 90, 92
 Feldman, Eric 31
 Ferdinand II (king of Aragon, king of Spain) 155, 163, 174, 181–182
 Fernando III (king of Castile) 158 feudalism 143–144
 fiscal systems see revenue; taxation

- Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, period of 76, 80
- Flynn, Dennis 184
- France
- Abbey of Cluny canon law reforms 151
 - ascent of Bourbon kings to Hispanic thrones 197–198
 - Frankish duchies unified by Louis XIV 144–145
 - rivers 42, 133
- Franciscans 179
- Franks, Kingdom of the 135, 141, 144–145
- Fuero Juzgo (Liber Judiciorum)* 129, 140–141, 150
- Fuero Real* 158–159
- General Indian Court of New Spain (Juzgado General de Indios) 190–191
- geography
- ancient Greece 49–50
 - Japan 100–101
 - protection for Inca 171
 - see also* rivers
- German legal science 14, 200
- Gesetz*, use of term 3
- Giraldez, Arturo 184
- Glanvill, Ronulf 147
- Glick, Thomas 156
- Go-Daigo, Kenmu Restoration 114
- gold
- deposits in Japan 117
 - measurement of tribute 183
 - trade between China and Europe 149, 175, 184, 198–199
- Goldman, Merle 77
- Góngora, Mario 183
- Goths 134–135, 140–141
- see also* Ostrogoths; Visigoths
- governance
- appropriation of Roman models 140
 - legal institutions as product of systems of ix
 - local participation in 81, 162
 - patterns in China 61, 63, 94, 95–96
 - of politically advanced societies 38
 - privatization and militarization 112
 - separate system envisioned for Amerindians 178, 185–186
 - see also* adjudication; centralization and bureaucracy; Confucian/Neo-Confucian ideology; officials
- Grand Canal of China 62, 72, 74, 79, 88
- graphai* actions (Athenian law) 52–53, 54
- Gratian, customary rules as law 154–155
- Great Ming Code 85
- Great Wall of China 72, 74
- Greece 49–50, 51, 52
- see also* Athens
- Gregory I (pope) 139
- Gregory VII (pope) 151
- guilds 88–89, 96, 120, 162, 175
- gunpowder age, in China 56, 70
- habitual legitimacy 9
- Hall, John Whitney 110–111
- Hamilton, Gary 58
- Han Dynasty 73–74, 77
- Han Wudi 73
- Hansen, Valarie 75
- Hart, H.L.A., rules of recognition 2–3, 8
- Hawai'i, penalty for shirking 26, 27, 28
- Hegel, Robert 93
- Heijdra, Martin 64
- Henry II of Anjou (king of England) 146–147, 159
- hereditary succession see kinship
- Hicks, Frederic 167
- Hideyoshi, Tototomi 116–117, 118
- Hildebrand see Gregory VII (pope)
- Himiko (Kofun queen) 102
- Hispanic America
- convergence of empires (China and Spain) 198–199
 - the Inca 167, 170–173, 189
 - Mesoamerica 165–169
 - transplantation of Western law 128, 164, 173–174, 186
- Hispanic colonial administration
- encomienda* system 174, 175, 180–186, 188

- judicial and administrative organs 175–178, 182–184, 194–195
- largest fully structured colonial empire in history 173–174
- private rights of Amerindians 186–192
- race and class 185, 192–197
- religion 174–175, 178–180
- reorganization of institutions on French patterns 197–198
- rights in regulatory colonial regime 164
- Hoebel, Adamson 27
- Holy Roman Empire 142, 144–145
- Hongwu 84–89
- House of Trade (Casa de Contratación) 175
- hōritsu*, use of term 3
- Hsu, Cho-Yun 67
- Hsün Tzu see Xun Zi (Hsün Tzu)
- Huai River 62
- Huang, Philip 95
- Hulsewé, A.L.P. 72
- Huns 134–135
- hunting and gathering societies 25–26
- Hymes, Robert 81–82
- Iberian Peninsula see Muslims; Portugal; Spain; Visigoths
- Inca 167, 170–173, 189
- Indus-Ganges river valleys, no lasting politics 41
- institutional ordering, private and public (legal) 30–36
- international law 2, 20–21, 59–60
- iron weapons and tools 69, 102
- Isabella (queen of Castile) 155, 163, 181
- Italy
 - commerce 82, 130
 - control of medieval 135, 140, 143, 144
 - surviving settlements 157–158
 - universities 152–153
 - see also* Rome/Roman Empire
- ius civilis* (Roman private law) 15
- ius commune* (common law) 30–31, 129, 138, 153, 186, 188
- James I (king of Aragon) 156–157
- Japan
 - adjudication 120–127
 - community ordering 58, 119–120
 - comparison with Western Europe 129–131
 - development of private law system viii, 109
 - geography 100–101
 - influences from Asian mainland 103–109
 - land use and proprietorship 105–112
 - money suits 40
 - murahachibu* (ostracism) 26
 - post Paleolithic periods 101–103
 - private law and private ordering 29, 98–100
 - rise of warrior ruler houses 111–116
 - ritsuryō* period 103–109, 111, 113, 121
 - sato (village) 108
 - self-governing structures left intact 157
 - shōen* (tax-exempt estates) system 107, 108, 109–111, 113, 114
 - shiki* (entitlements of office) 39, 107, 108–111
 - Siete Partidas* remarkably similar to formularies of 159–160
 - sō* (agricultural communities) 108, 115, 119
 - transplantation of Western law viii, 200
 - Tuna Court for Tokyo fish market 31
 - unification under Tokugawa shogunate 116–120
 - wet-paddy rice impact on political development 56–57
- Jōei* formulary (Goseibai Shikimoku) 123, 161
- Jin Dynasty 79
- justice
 - as legal and moral norms 60
 - righteousness vs. 5, 90–91
 - universal and morally binding applicability 131

- kabu nakama*, counterpart of guilds 120
- Kamakura bafuku (tent government) 113–114, 121–124, 161
- Kellogg, Susan 186
- Kenmu* formulary (Kenmu Shikimoku)
123, 161
- Kenmu* Restoration 114
- Khitans, Song Dynasty and 76
- kinship
familial and clan influences under Song Dynasty 81–83
family hierarchy as source of legitimacy 104
political orders based on 12, 35–36, 38 sedentary communities defined by 101–102
Shang Dynasty 65–66
warriors' local ties 112
- Kiyomihara* Code 103
- Kleisthenes 51
- knbt (municipal council in Deir el-Medina) 46–48
- Kofun Period (Japan) 101–103
- Kohler, Josef 167–168, 169
- Korea
Hideyoshi's invasion of 116 influence of Chinese models of governance 61
rice culture 57–58
South Korean criminal offense based on Imperial Chinese law 23
- Kumon Shumpei 107, 112
- labor
China 66, 72, 74, 86
corvée 18, 42, 145
Hispanic America 174, 180–186, 191
Japan 106–107, 108
see also encomienda system; slaves;
tribute
- Lai, David 67
- land
landholders in Egypt 44 lineage property 68 ownership in Athens 50, 51 regional and local variations in productivity 86–87
rents based on control of 39, 141–142, 146–147
Tang equal-field system 75 tenure in Japan 105–112 tenure in northern vs. southern China 77–79
- language, law as 1–6
- Las Casas, Bartolomé de 181
- Latin maxims on criminal penalties 71 origins of legal language in Roman law 2–4, 137, 149
- law
adjudication see adjudication aims 22–23, 90
canon law see canon law criminal law see criminal law development of x, 23–36 elements of 6–10
enforcement of see enforcement function of 4–6 making of 19–20
as matter of words 1–6
private law regimes see private law regimes
private ordering see private ordering public law regimes see public law
regimes
Tang, Ming, and Qing codes and European codes 93–94
see also individual countries;
individual laws and codes
- lawsuits, Amerindian 186–192
- Legalist tradition
Aztec system as legalistic 169
Castilian echoes of Chinese Legalists 160
Chinese law and 70–71, 72, 89–97, 169
- legality, principles of 71
- legitimacy
of Amerindian leaders eroded by litigation 187 consent of governed as basis for legal 60 derivative 10, 12, 13, 131
as essential for authority to rule 29, 33, 59

- of legal norms 9–10
- Mandate of Heaven 67, 68, 91
- religion as source of 51, 59, 60, 138, 139, 149–150
- sources for Japanese rulers 104, 109–110, 112–113, 117–118, 122–125
- Léon 148
- letrados* (university graduates) 80, 163, 176–177, 186
- Levy, Ernst 140
- lex mercatoria* (merchant law) 7–8
- Lex Romana Visigothorum* (Breviarium Alarici) 140
- Li Feng 67, 68
- Li Yuan (Gaozu), promulgation of Tang Code 75
- Linduff, Katheryn M. 67
- Liu Pang 74
- loans 51, 106, 107, 114, 125–126
- Lowie, Robert 26
- Lynch, John 176

- MacCormack, Geoffrey 90
- Magellan, Ferdinand 198
- Mahayana Buddhism see Buddhism
- Mair, Victor 63
- Malinowski, Bronislaw 25–26
- Mandate of Heaven 67, 68, 91
- Maya 165, 166
- McDowell, Andrea, on Deir el-Medina 46
- McKnight, Brian 80
- mediation
 - in early Japan 105
 - as mode of law making and enforcement 27, 32–33
- Mediterranean Sea, as natural highway 132–133
- mendicant orders 179–180, 185–186
- Mendoza, Don Antonio de 174, 184
- merchants see commerce
- Mesoamerica, succession of polities 165–169
- Mesopotamia, no lasting polities 41
- Mexica/Tenochtitlán, dominance in Central Mexico 166, 168
- Mexico see Hispanic America

- military see warfare; warrior elites
- millet 42, 62–64
- mines and mining
 - China 60, 65
 - Greece 51, 52
 - Hispanic America 181, 184, 189, 193, 198
 - see also* copper and bronze; gold; silver
- Ming Dynasty 82, 84–85, 126
- Mixteca 168
- money suits 40
- Mongols see Yuan Dynasty (Mongols)
- Montesinos, Antonio de 181
- Moore, Sally Falk 172
- morality
 - joining of law and 10, 29, 59–60
 - separation from law in China 5, 90–91
 - see also* Confucian/Neo-Confucian ideology
- Morga, Antonio de 198–199
- Mote, Frederick 76
- Murakami Yasusuke 107, 112
- Muromachi period see Ashikaga period
- Muslims
 - expulsion from Spain 157
 - reconquista* (recovery from) 147–148, 155–156
 - rising threat 144
 - rule of Iberia 147–149
 - self-governance in Valencia 57

- natural justice vs. due process 2
- natural law
 - Chinese notions of law and nature vs. 90
 - theory of natural rights 131, 138, 154, 162, 186
- Navarre 148
- Needham, Joseph 91
- New Laws issued by Charles V 182–184
- Nile River see Egypt
- Nobunaga, Oda 116
- Norman kings 145–146
- norms
 - changing 28
 - as core element of law 6–10

- enforcement of 6–10, 19, 26–28, 30
 no Japanese notion of universally applicable 124
see also Confucian/Neo-Confucian ideology
 North, Douglass 96–97
 North and South dynasties 77–78
Nueva Recopilación de Castilla 173
 Núñez Vela, Potasco 183–184
- Obayashi, Taryo 112
 O’Callaghan, Joseph 159
 O’Connor, Richard 56
- officials
 elites under Tang Dynasty 75 examinations vs. appointments 72–73, 76, 80
 in Hispanic colonial administration
 175–178, 179–180, 184, 189–191, 194–195, 196
 in Japan 39, 106, 107, 108–111, 113–114
 merit-based bureaucracy 61, 79–80, 85, 96, 177, 194
 in pre-Hispanic America 167–169, 171
 see also letrados (university graduates); shiki (entitlements of office)
- Offner, Jerome A. 169
 Olmec 165
Ōmi Code 103
Omnimoda 179
Ōnin wars 114
Ordenanza del Patronazgo 180
 Osborne, R.G. 53
 ostracism/out-casting 26
 Ostrogoths 134–135, 140
 Ottoman Empire 129, 163
- Pactus Legis Salicae* 141
 Padden, Robert 180 path dependency, in development of legal systems x
 Paul III (pope), Sublimis Deus 182
 Peisistratos 51
 Peru
 beheading of Crown’s delegate 183–184 case of Don Miguel de Bendezú 188 establishment of vicereignty 177 labor services replaced by individual payment system 183
 silver mines 184, 189, 198
 subordination of Amerindians 195
 see also Inca
 Philip II (king of Spain) 180, 190, 194–195, 197
 Philip V (king of France) 197 Philippines
 addition to Spain’s colonies 173, 198–199
 audiencia established in Manila 176
 Ifugao monkalun (mediator) 27
 Manila and Chinese-Spanish trade
 7–8, 175, 184
 Piggott, Joan 104, 106
 political development as factor in formation of legal traditions 1
 legal institutions rest on political institutions 37–40
 legal systems and maintenance of political order 22–23 role of rivers in 40–43, 45
 see also individual countries poor in Hispanic America 193 see also debt-peonage population determination of tribute via census 183, 188
 diversity in Western Europe 134 growth in southern China 79
 Hispanic colonial empire’s depopulation 173, 180–181, 185–186, 188–189, 192
 hundreds and tithings 85, 145 Portugal
 introduction of musket 116
 under León and Castile rule 148
 rivers 42, 133
 power authority see authority capacity to enforce compliance 10–13, 36, 136

- Church and law as source of authority and 139
- coercion see coercion
- Confucianism and Legalist emphasis on prosperity and 71
- constraints on native rulers 185
- enforcement of see enforcement
- independent bases of 121
- local opposition to New Laws 182–184
- need for resources and control ix, x, 1, 18, 23, 33–35, 41–42, 57, 63–64
- political regimes require authority and 22, 27, 32–36, 39
- warfare see warfare
- see also individual countries*
- private law regimes
- adjudication see adjudication
- Chinese lack of rules regarding private relationships 94–95
- convergence with public law system 199
- Deir el-Medina (Egypt) 46–48, 169
- Enforcement of see enforcement
- extension of law's domain within 39–40
- parallels between Valencia, southern China, and village Japan 157
- primacy and global reach 129–131
- primacy as essential to ius commune 188
- public law regimes vs. 13–21
- rights and see rights
- rights and duties requirement 14–15, 17–18
- rights applicable to public law regimes 4, 94, 164
- Roman private law in twelfth century Europe 151–155
- see also* Athens; Japan; Western Europe
- private ordering
- China now dominated by 200
- institutional ordering 30–36
- Japan 98–103, 105–112, 119–120, 126–127
- local control and 81–83
- for matters not of state concern 94–95
- substitute for both public and private law regimes ix–x
- see also* customary ordering; social ordering
- Protestantism's self-governing congregations 60
- public (legal) ordering and private ordering 30–36
- public law regimes
- convergence with private law system 199
- depend on control over resources ix, 35
- enforcement of see enforcement
- extension of law's domain within 39
- within Hispanic colonial regime 164
- Inca 171–173
- judicial ordering in 186
- private law regimes vs. 13–21
- private law rights applicability 4
- see also* China; Egypt
- Putnam, Robert 82
- Qin Dynasty 71, 72–73, 77
- Qing Dynasty 88, 93
- quipu* (counting system) 171–172
- race and class see Hispanic colonial administration; social ordering
- Ramírez, Susan 194
- reconciliation for violation of norms 27
- reconquista* (recovery) 147–148, 155–156, 174
- Recopilación de Leyes de las Indias* 173–174
- regulation
- as mode of law making and enforcement 33–34
- replacement of civil law by regulatory state 201
- regulatory regimes see public law regimes
- religion
- local deities subordinated by Aztec and Inca 167, 171
- morality see morality
- no deistic claims for Chinese law 90, 92

- no deistic claims to legitimacy in Athens 51, 54
- political/legal development and 59–60
- priestly governing elite in Egypt 43–44
- Protestantism 60
- tax exemptions for Japan's temples and shrines 106
see also Buddhism; Confucian/
Neo-Confucian ideology; Mandate of Heaven; Roman Catholic Church
- revenue
accommodation of Muslims to preserve Valencia's production of 157 appropriation of wealth from producers 18–19
based on proprietary lands in early Europe 141–142, 145, 146–147
Ming system as ineffective 86–88 need for access to wealth 22–23, 136 principal sources of wealth for Athens 51
regulatory rules foremost for all regimes 38–39
shiki (entitlements of office) 108–109
Zhou sources of 68
see also taxation; wealth
- Rhine River 132, 134
- Rhône River 131, 132
- rice
as basis of private ordering in China 78–79, 81–83, 96–97
as basis of private ordering in Japan 98–103, 105–112, 119
legal legacy of 201
wet-paddy cultivation 38, 42, 56–58, 77–81, 98, 108
- rifles see warfare; warrior elites
- righteousness vs. justice 5, 90–91
- rights
of Amerindians 181, 182–183, 186–192
as basic feature of private law regimes
4, 14–15, 17, 129, 131, 164, 174
- evangelization and Western European understanding of law 154–155
see also natural law
- ritsuryō* period see Japan
- rivers
Japan's lack of sizable 98 role in political development 40–43, 45
Western Europe 42, 131–135
see also individual countries;
individual rivers
- roads, Inca system of 172
- Roman Catholic Church
canon law reforms 151–152 competition with state 138 evangelization as overriding aim of Hispanic colonial enterprise 174–175
God's law as supreme 154–155
hierarchical structures in colonies 178–180
monastic orders as self-contained communities 143
role in European political and legal development 60, 137–138, 139
- Rome/Roman Empire
coercive power in revenue collection 18
Latin as origin of legal language 2–4, 137, 149
law as basis for claims by rulers 143 rediscovery of classical Roman private law 152–153
rivers as northern boundaries 132–133
withdrawal from the northwest 134–135
- Rule of Law vs. Rule by Law 90, 92, 96
- sacrifice, human 166, 172
- Saline, Martin 64
- Sánchez León, Pablo 162
- sanctions
Athenian law 53–54
by community disapproval 26–28, 30, 95
as core element of law 6–10

- non-compensatory 151 punishment should fit crime 71, 89–90 ruler-imposed 33
see also enforcement
 Sandoval, Francisco Tello de 184
 sato (village) 108
 Satō Seisaburō 107, 112
 Savigny, Friedrich Carl von 14
 Schwaller, John 178–179
scutage (monetary payment in lieu of military service) 147
 Sepúlveda, Juan Ginés de 181 Service, Elman 32, 34, 64
 shaming 24
 Shang Dynasty 65–66
 Shang Yang 71
shōen (tax-exempt estates) system see Japan Shi Huangdi 71–73
shiki (entitlements of office) see Japan shire administration and courts 145–146 shirking, as unacceptable 26–27, 28
 Shotoku (Japanese prince) 104
Siete Partidas 128–129, 151, 158–162, 192–194 silk 88, 105, 184
 silver
 Chinese goods exchanged for Spanish 7, 149, 184, 198–199 decline of shipments and new tax levies 196 mines of Laurion (Greece) 51, 52
 Peruvian mines 184, 189, 198 surplus grain sold for 88 tax payable in 87
 tribute payments in gold or 175
 Silverblatt, Irene 172
 Simpson, Lesley 183–184
 Single Whip Reform 87 slaves
 Aztec forced labor and 167 citizens of Athens vs. subordinates and 49, 52, 55 in Hispanic America 181–184, 192–194
 in Korea 57
 not major source of labor in Japan 105
 Smith, Julia 139–140
sō (agricultural communities) see Japan social ordering 23–26, 35, 61, 71, 95, 99, 110, 119
 see also private ordering social status and castes, in Tokugawa Japan 118
 Solon, and Athenian reforms 50–51
 Song/Southern Song Dynasties 76, 79–84, 85, 92–93
 Spain
 advanced legal order in Castile and Aragon 128–129 control of Ebro and Tagus headwaters 133 independent kingdoms beyond Muslim control 148 political consolidation and law (1200–1492 CE) 155–163 political restructuring under Bourbon rule 197–198 trade with China 7–8, 149, 175, 184, 198–199 union of Ferdinand of Aragon and Isabella of Castile 163
 see also Barcelona/Catalonia; Castile; Hispanic America; Valencia Steenstrup, Carl 102
 Stern, Steve 186, 188
 stratification 33–34, 119, 127
Sublimis Deus 182
 succession, problem assuring orderly 35–36, 136
 Sui Dynasty 74–75
 Sumer 41
Summa Theologica 154–155
 surveys
 China 87
 Japan 105, 115, 116, 119
 suzerain system 67
 taboo see sanctions
 Tagus River 133
 Taihō ritsuryō 104
 Taika reforms 103, 115

- Taira, defeat by Yoritomo 113
- Taiwan
 investors in China 96–97
 reciprocity based on shared ties 58
- Tang Code (Tang-lü shu' yi) 75, 85, 104
- Tang Dynasty 75–76, 79
- taxation
alcabala sales tax as centralized surplus extraction 162
 Athens 14, 28–29, 51
 colonial obstruction of Crown's levies 196–197 corvée labor as earliest form of 42 law not needed to justify 18–19 may be customary 28–29 non-resident citizen income 20–21
 under Qin Dynasty 72 taxes paid in commodities 81, 86, 105
see also revenue
- technology capacity of rulers to control new x development through warfare 55–56, 116
- Ten Abominations 18, 22, 23, 94
- tent government see Kamakura bafuku (tent government)
- Tepaneca 166
- Tetsuji Okazaki 120
- Theodoric (Ostrogoth) 135, 140
- Thomas, Lillian 168, 187
- three son approach, in Song Dynasty 82–83
- Todd, S.C. 53
- Tokitaka, Tanegashima 116
- Tokugawa Ieyasu/Tokugawa regime 100, 116–120, 125–127
- Toledo, Francisco de 189
- Toltec 165–166
- tribute
 Castilian desire for gold or silver 175 census to determine what native rulers were paid 183 diverted to personal use 187–188 as form of labor (mit'a) 172, 184, 188–189
see also revenue; taxation
- trust
 as basis for commercial ordering 24–25
 as basis of private ordering in China 96
- Twitchett, Denis 74
- uji* (clan-based chiefdoms) 101–102
- Unger, Roberto 29
- unification see centralization and bureaucracy
- United States
 as constitutional model for Latin America 200 replacement of civil law by regulatory state 201
 taxation of non-resident citizen income 20–21
- universal human rights 59
- universities
 in Hispanic America 195
 on Iberian peninsula 161–162 law as primary discipline taught 152–154, 158 law library rules at public vs. private 7
- Valencia
 absorbed by Castile 197
 Black Death 163
 Ebro's wetland delta 133
 as prosperous port city 156–157 rice cultivation 42, 57
 Tribunal of Water of Valencia 31
see also Spain
- Vandals 135
- Vélasco, Luis de 189–191
- viability 12–13, 19–20, 24
- viceroyalties 177–178
- Vietnam
 city of Annam recaptured by Ming China 89 influence of Chinese models of governance 61
 new rice strains introduced to China 79
- Vinogradoff, Paul 27, 31
- violence, Weber on legitimate use of 34–35

- Visigoths
 conquered by Islamic Berbers 143 control of southern Gaul and Iberia 135 first lawmakers of Western Europe 129, 140–141, 150 written laws as means of national unification 147
- Waley, Daniel 157–158
- warfare
 age of gunpowder 56, 70
 bronze weapons 65–66 capacity to enforce rules and maintain organized armies 33 civil war in England 146 governments' capacity to rule and 201
 Greek phalanx a formidable advantage 50
 Inca conquests 170–171 invasions on all sides of Europe 142–144 iron weapons 69
 matchlock rifle and Japanese victory 116 pivotal in defining politics 55–56 political development of China and 65–73, 76, 84–85, 89 political development of Western Europe and 128, 136 as prime mover in process of change 35 rivers enabled military conquest 40–42, 55
scutage (monetary payment in lieu of military service) 147
 tribal conquests in Mesoamerica 165–168 see also warrior elites
- Wari polity of South America 170
- warrior elites
 dominance of Chinese governance under Han Dynasty 73–74 of Japan 19, 98–100, 107, 111–118, 121–124, 126, 129–130
 Tang emperors as pawns of 76 warrior retainers in Western Europe 19
- wealth
 concentration in Hispanic America 193–197 of Nile Valley, Egypt 45 in return for loyal service 113 sources and uses determine political institutions 37–43, 129–130 stratification and diffusion in Tokugawa Japan 119, 127
see also revenue; rice
- weapons see warfare
- Weber, Max 34–35
- Wei-Jin Dynasty 77–78
- wergeld* (restitution) 142, 146
- Western Europe
 commercial rules 30–31
 law and the early kingdoms (c. 450–650 CE) 139–142 law's eleventh century foundations and adjudication 149–150, 151–155 political consolidation, fragmentation, and reconsolidation (700–1200 CE) 142–149 primacy of private law in Western Europe 128–131
 religion 137–138
 rifles and warfare 128, 136, 142–144
 rivers 42, 131–135
 transplantation of Western law viii, 100, 128, 164, 174, 186, 199, 200
see also Spain; individual countries
- wet-paddy cultivation see rice
- Wigmore, John H. 126
- Wittfogel, Karl 64
- Wu polity of China 69
- Xun Zi (Hsün Tzu) 89–90
- Yamato kings 103
- Yangzi River 62, 64, 69, 74, 85–86, 88
- Yayoi Period (Japan) 101
- Yellow River (Huáng Hé) 62, 65, 66, 69, 74

- yi* settlements 67
Yoritomo Minamoto 113
Yōrō Code 104
Yuan Dynasty (Mongols) 83–84, 85
Yue polity of China 69
Zapotec 165, 168
Zeitlan, Judith 168, 186, 187
Zhao Dingzin 70
Zhao Kuangyin 76
Zhao Zheng see Shi Huangdi
Zhou Dynasty 66–68, 70–71, 81
Zhu Yuanzhang (Taizu) see Hongwu
Zorita, Alonso de 187, 188