

Index

- Aboca as B corporation 80 absentee property owners, property law 52–3 access rights 12, 16–17, 29, 41, 42–3, 44–8, 50–54
 see also commons; exclusion
Ackerman, B 96
Agostinelli, B 116
Alexander, G 25, 26
Anderson Carpet & Linoleum Sales as B corporation 80
Anderson, J 43
Anderson, P ix
Anglo-American trust law 16
animal rights 82, 84–5
Anthropocene 1–2, 3, 4, 5, 22, 134, 135–7
arbitration agreements 34
Argentina, worker buyouts 76
Aristotle 121, 124, 127
autonomy and self-determination, contract law 92–3, 98–9
- B corporations see under legal personality and sovereignty, eco-commercial law materials
Bailey, S 50
Baker, J 35
bankruptcy law 67, 90
Bauman, Z 137
Benkler, Y 102
Birdsall, D 3
Blackstone, W 15
blockchain technology, contract law 100–101, 104–5
Bobbio, N 20
Bogucki, B 104
Bollier, D 39, 50
Bonilla, D 25
Boyle, J 27
Buckland, W 14, 126
Buckle, S 19
Burri, D 17
Bussani, M 130
Butler, W 37
- Calabresi, G 5, 33, 121, 132, 137, 144
capitalism
 and contract law 96, 101, 102–3, 104, 106, 107, 108, 109–10
 and international human rights movement 156–7 and legal personality and sovereignty 58, 61–2, 63, 68–70, 71–3, 74, 77–80 property law, new frontiers 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30–34, 36–7, 39, 47
 and tort law 125–6, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 137–8, 141, 143, 147–8
 see also neoliberalism
Capra, F viii, 2, 7, 48, 51
Cardozo, B 8
Cassi, A x, 18
causa and consideration, distinction between, contract law 91, 93, 110, 115, 119
 see also public interest issues centralized power of large firms 33–4, 37–8
Cerutti, S 40
Chardeaux, M-A 23
Charter of the Forest, feudal tradition 16, 17 Cipolla, C 3
citizenship
 citizen-consumer movement 138
 citizens' cooperation pacts 112

- as connection between ownership and political agency 136, 138–9
- and democracy 40–41
- climate change see ‘ecological’ headings; environmental law
- Coase, R 62
- Cobb, N 46
- Cohen, J 17
- Cohen, L 138
- collective access see commons
- collective cooperation, ecological requirements for incorporation, working towards 74
- collective to individual responsibility, tort law 122–4, 125–7, 137
- commodities, consumers as 139–40, 141–2
- common law and civil law comparison, property law 14
- common pool resources
 - citizens’ cooperation pacts 112
 - property law, new frontiers 2–3, 19, 31–2, 38–9, 45, 48–9, 50, 51–2
 - and smart contracts 105
 - see also* resources
- commons
 - access rights 12, 16–17, 29, 41, 42–3, 44–8, 50–51
 - B corporations, commoning experimentation 79–80
 - business entities, proximity and liability (locality rule) 83–4
 - citizen involvement in management of public goods 49–50
 - Commons-Private Law-Capital into Capital-Private Law-Commons inversion 148–9
 - feudal tradition 16–17
 - institutional form and ABC Naples 80–82
 - municipalism of 111–12
 - property law 48–50
 - public sector intervention restrictions 46–7
 - social consciousness, need for new 143–4
 - systemic vision of contract as
 - commons institution 109–10
 - and tenure system development 53
 - and tort law see tort law, commons, and sharing decisions on social risks
 - tragedy of the commons 31, 38–9, 63–5
 - urban commons and public/private divide 111–12
- community land trusts 52
- Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA) and ethical purchasing groups 115–17
- commutative justice
 - and just price 88–9, 94, 108, 127–8
 - and tort law 137
- competitiveness
 - and contract law 94, 95, 99, 108, 112, 113, 118
 - and legal personality and sovereignty 78–9
 - and tort law 127, 133
- consideration and causa, distinction between, contract law 91, 93, 110, 115, 119
- consideration and reciprocity, contract law 89–90
- consumer law
 - and asymmetric information 95–6, 99, 100, 103
 - and mercantilism 67–8
 - and platform economy 100, 103–4
- consumers
 - citizen-consumer movement 138
 - as commodities and metadata control 139–40, 141–2
- contract law 87–120, 146, 147–8
 - autonomy and self-determination 92–3, 98–9
 - and capitalism 96, 101, 102–3, 104, 106, 107, 108, 109–10
 - causa* and consideration, distinction between 91, 93, 110, 115, 119
 - commutative justice and just price 88–9, 94, 108, 127–8

- and competitiveness 94, 95, 99, 108, 112, 113, 118
- consumer law and asymmetric information 95–6, 99, 100, 103
- consumer law and platform economy 100, 103–4
- contractual justice 94–7
- and cooperation 93, 94, 111, 112, 115
- deregulation, privatization and pricing of everything 98
- distributive justice and social inequalities 95, 96–7, 108, 109–10, 127–8, 147–8
- Economic Analysis of Law (EAL) 97, 98, 100
- ex ante* measurement 114–15, 146–7
- and exchange value 92, 96, 107, 109, 112
- freedom of contract 92, 96–7, 98, 99, 103, 115
- and future generation interests 101, 114, 115
- mercantilism 90, 91
- modernity effects 107, 117
- ‘money back’ guarantees 96, 131
- natural law 88, 91–2, 95
- neoliberalism and efficiency 88, 94–5, 97–9, 101, 108
- new principles for 117–20
- pacta sunt servanda* principle 91–2, 106
- Pareto-efficiency 94, 97, 98, 108
- partnerships 113, 115
- profit motive 96, 109–10, 117, 118
- reciprocity and consideration 87, 89–90, 94, 102, 105
- religious influence, canon law and mutual consent 90–91
- Roman law and gift-exchange system 89, 90, 92
- self-enforcement 13, 100–101, 104–5, 110, 153–4
- taxation or trickle down effects on distribution 99
- technology and distributive justice 100–101
- unconscionability doctrine 108–9, 153, 154–5
- use value 87, 89, 90, 94, 107, 109
- contract law, ecology of 107–20
- Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA) and ethical purchasing groups 115–17
- cooperation and concurrence 93
- counter-hegemonic interpretation 109, 113
- and distributive justice 108, 109–10
- and distributive justice, green procurement and environmental interest 94, 113–15, 118
- motives consideration 110
- municipalism of the commons 111–12
- systemic vision of contract as commons institution 109–10
- urban commons and public/private divide 111–12
- welfare function 109–10
- contract law, platform economy and logic of peers (sharing economy) 101–7
- blockchain technology 100–101, 104–5
- information capitalism transition 102–3, 104–5
- productive equality and open network structure of the Internet 102
- prosumers 102, 103, 104
- reputational systems 102, 103
- smart contracts 104–7, 108–9
- smart contracts, legal concerns 106–7
- cooperation, and contract law 93, 94, 111, 112, 115
- Coquillette, D 66
- Cornell, N 105
- corporations
 - as makers of global private law see legal personality and sovereignty, corporations as makers of global private law
 - as right bearers 73–4

- transnational see transnational corporations
- Costa, P 40
- counter-hegemonic interpretation
 - contract law, ecology of 109, 113
 - lawyers and legal interpretation role 155–6
 - legal personality and sovereignty 76–7, 79, 84
 - property law 31–4, 42, 46–7, 52
- criminal law, and tort law 123–4
- damages payments, tort law 123–4, 141, 142, 143
- Dan-Cohen, M 38
- Dardot, P 20
- Davis, T 44
- Dawson, J 6, 14
- De Jong, J 104
- defendant position, tort law, strict liability 124, 127–8, 129–30, 131, 132, 133, 142
- democracy
 - and capitalism 61–2
 - citizenship and democracy, property law 40–41
 - and Internet 2.0 140
 - representative 4, 5
- Descartes, R 36
- Dezalay, Y 69
- Di Robilant, A 25, 36, 52
- digital frontier and Internet monopolists 74–6
 - see also* Internet
- distributive justice 151–2
 - and contract law see under contract law, ecology of
 - and resources 124, 127, 130
 - and social inequalities 95, 96–7, 108, 109–10, 127–8, 147–8
 - and technology 100–101
 - and tort law, strict liability 129–30
- Domat, J 92, 129
- dominium*, Roman tradition 14–15, 18
- Duguit, L 25, 26
- Dutch East Indian Company (VOC) 58–60, 65, 67
- eco-commercial law materials see legal personality and sovereignty, eco-commercial law materials
- ecological community and rise of new subjects 84–6
- ecological footprint and imbalance 1–2, 4
- ecological private law, bottom-up approach 6–7
- ecological requirements for incorporation see legal personality and sovereignty, ecological requirements for incorporation, working towards
- ecological trans-generational justice 152
- ecologically literate interpretations, property law, new frontiers 32
- ecology of contract law see contract law, ecology of
- Economic Analysis of Law (EAL), contract law 97, 98, 100
- economic efficiency, and tort law 130, 137
- efficiency and neoliberalism 88, 94–5, 97–9, 101, 108
- environmental damage, and resources 134
- environmental law
 - collective interests of ecological communities 134–5
 - and polluter pays principle 133–5
 - see also* ‘ecological’ headings
- ethical purchasing groups, Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA) 115–17
- EU
 - Civil Codes role 5
 - Environmental Action Programmes 113–14
 - green procurement 113–14
 - products liability 138
 - see also* individual countries
- European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), social function clause exclusion 29–30

- European Court of Justice (ECJ), Asociación Profesional Elite Taxi v. Uber Systems Spain 75–6
- exchange value 2, 6–7
and contract law 92, 96, 107, 109, 112
legal personality and sovereignty 61, 73
property law 29, 32
and tort law 122, 126, 142–3
see also use value
- exclusion
gentrification 51–2, 152
and legal personality and sovereignty 57, 63, 64
and property law 12–13, 14, 16–17, 29–30, 41, 42–8, 51–2, 53–4
see also access rights
- Fairfield, J 33, 47
- Farber, D 82
- fault principle see tort law, fault principle
- Ferrando, T 12, 45, 48
- feudal tradition see property law, feudal tradition
- fiction theory, legal personality and sovereignty 56, 60
- Foster, S 25, 41
- Foucault, M 123
- France
Civil Code reform 93, 119
fault principle 128
mercantilism 67
Napoleonic Code 21–4, 35, 92
strict liability principles for manufacturers 152
- Franciscan school and self-determination 17
- free trade agreements 27–8, 29, 59, 117
- freedom of contract, contract law 92, 96–7, 98, 99, 103, 115
- Friedelbaum, S 45
- Friedman, M 28
- Fukuyama, F 28
- future generation interests 6, 148, 151, 153
and contract law 101, 114, 115
legal personality and sovereignty 80, 81–2, 84
and property law 32, 48, 49, 52
and tort law 122, 130, 131–2, 133, 134, 142
- future research, eco-commercial law materials 82
- Gaffney, T 104
- Gambaro, A 26, 35
- Gansey, P 13
- Garth, B 69
- gentrification 51–2, 152
- Germany
compensation to victims of compulsory vaccination 152
fault principle 128
Herrenreiter 141
- Gerratana, V ix
- gift-exchange system, Roman law 89, 90, 92
- Gilmore, G 106
- Glorious Revolution and sovereign State power 58
- good faith principle 108, 119, 150–51
- Gordley, J 12, 21, 23, 45, 88, 89, 127, 129–30
- Grande, E 153
- Greece, worker buyouts 77
- green procurement and environmental interest 94, 113–15, 118
see also ‘ecological’ headings
- Grey, T 29
- Grossi, P 22, 23
- Grotius, H 19, 58, 59, 61, 65, 67, 74, 91–2, 127, 128
- Hansmann, H 55
- Hardin, G 38, 64
- Hardt, M 31
- Harvey, D 27, 28
- Hertz, N 73
- Hesselink, M 87–8
- Hicks, J 97

- Hobbes, T 19–20, 57
 Hohfeld, W 14, 15, 33
 Holmes, O 37, 128
 Honorè, T 121
 Horwitz, M 72, 126
 human rights
 European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), social function clause exclusion 29–30 international movement 156–7
 humanism 17–18, 91
 see also individualism
- Iaione, C 41
- India, Ganges legal personality 85–6
- individualism
 autonomy decline concerns 32–4 collective to individual responsibility, tort law 122–4, 125–7
 free will and culpability, tort law, fault principle 125–6 and humanism 17–18, 91
 ownership based on power of individual exclusion 16–17
 possessive individualism 20, 135–6, 137, 141–2
 and property law 32–8, 39
- industrial era, property law 24–6, 29–30, 36
- information, asymmetric, and contract law 95–6, 99, 100, 103
- information capitalism transition 102–3, 104–5
- Internet
 digital frontier and Internet monopolists 74–6
 metadata see metadata productive equality and open network structure 102 revolution and technological progress 135, 136–7, 139–41
 smart property and Internet of things 47–8
 and technical innovation 68, 74
 of things 33, 47–8, 100, 108, 139
- interpretation
 commons, as powerful interpretive tool 48–9, 51–2
 legal see lawyers and legal interpretation role
- Italy
 agricultural cooperatives and vacant land 52
 municipalism of the commons 111–12
- Jones, E 16
- just price
 and commutative justice 88–9, 94, 108, 127–8
 and ethical purchasing groups 116–17
- Kaldor, N 97
- Kantorowicz, E 56
- Katyal, S 8, 44
- Kennedy, D 68, 70
- Keynesianism, reaction to 28
- Kiviat, T 104
- Kotz, H 128
- Kramer, M 20
- Kronman, A 94, 96, 97
- Lanier, J 139–40
- Laval, C 20
- Lawson, F 16
- lawyers and legal interpretation role 7–9, 11, 149–52, 155
 counter-hegemonic use of the law 155–6 international human rights movement 156–7 law ‘as such’ concept 155
 legal positivism 155
 systematic interpretation 152
- Lefebvre, H 52
- legal personality and sovereignty 55–86
 absolute sovereignty development 56
 abstraction and extraction 55–7

- aggregate value of the top 10 corporations and social inequality 62
- animal rights 82, 84–5
- Canon law 56
- and capitalism 58, 61–2, 63, 68–70, 71–3, 74, 77–80
- captured political institutions and opportunistic behaviour 62, 64
- commons business entities, proximity and liability (locality rule) 83–4
- and competitiveness 78–9
- corporate investment in legislation 62
- counter-hegemonic interpretation 76–7, 79, 84
- digital frontier and Internet monopolists 74–6
- digital frontier and Internet monopolists, platform economy sharing 75–6
- Dutch East Indian Company (VOC) 58–60, 65, 67
- ecological community and rise of new subjects 84–6
- exchange value 61, 73
- and exclusion 57, 63, 64
- fiction theory 56, 60
- free trade agreements 59
- future generation interests 80, 81–2, 84
- Glorious Revolution and sovereign State power 58
- international law and transnational corporations, foundation of 58–60
- limited liability privilege 70, 84
- modernity effects 58, 59
- moral personality of organizations 56
- natural law 59
- neoliberal corporate law as 57
- Peace of Westphalia 57
- profit motive 59–60, 61, 64, 66, 67, 68–9, 70–71, 72, 74, 78, 80–81, 83
- public impact of corporate decision-making 65
- public opinion control by corporations 62, 69
- State as anthropomorphic legal person 57
- tragedy of the global commons 63–5
- use value 63, 73
- legal personality and sovereignty, corporations as makers of global private law 65–70
- capital accumulation and extraction 69–70, 72–3
- consumer protection 67–8
- corporate governance and competitive advantage 64–5
- mercantile law 66–7
- neoliberalism and domination of global corporations 68–70, 71
- privatization increase 69
- social phase 67–8
- stare decisis* development 66
- technical innovation and the Internet 68, 74
- legal personality and sovereignty, eco-commercial law materials 76–82
- B corporations 77–80
- B corporations, commoning experimentation 79–80
- B corporations, corporate form in a counter-hegemonic manner 79
- B corporations, social and environmental performance 78
- B corporations, survival chances 78
- commons institutional form and ABC Naples 80–82
- future research 82
- worker buyouts and platform cooperativism 76–7
- legal personality and sovereignty, ecological requirements for incorporation, working towards 70–74
- collective cooperation 74
- corporate bylaws in pursuit of shareholder value 71–3

- and corporation as right bearer 73–4
- limited liability of extractive corporations, avoidance of 71
- partnerships 70
- public interest proof requirement 71
- legal positivism 11, 155
- Lessig, L 106
- Levy, E 15
- limited liability privilege 70, 71, 84
- Linebaugh, P 16
- Lobban, M 18
- Locke, J 20, 24, 57
- Luhmann, N 46

- McNair, A 14, 126
- Macpherson, C 19, 135
- Maine, H 122–3
- Mancall, M 20, 31
- Marella, M 48
- Marx, K 24
- Mason, P 27
- mass production, tort law 136–7, 138
- Mauss, M 87, 89
- Melamed, D 33
- mercantilism 66–8, 90, 91
- meritocracy 20
- Merrill, T 12, 42
- metadata
 - consumers as commodities 139–40, 141–2
 - and contract law 74, 99, 100, 104, 108, 118
 - see also* Internet
- Milsonm, S 35
- modernity effects 2–3, 7, 8
 - contract law 107, 117
 - legal personality and sovereignty 58, 59
 - property law 17, 18–19, 26–7, 32–3, 34–5, 36
 - tort law 125, 128–9, 130, 135–7, 141–2
- ‘money back’ guarantees 96, 131
- Mont Pelerin Society 28
- moral personality of organizations 56
 - see also* legal personality and sovereignty
 - municipalism of the commons 111–12
 - see also* commons
 - Murray, C 22
 - Nader, L x, 8, 9, 18, 138
 - Nader, R 79, 95, 138
 - Naruto selfie 85
 - natural law
 - contract law 88, 91–2, 95
 - legal personality and sovereignty 59
 - property law 18–21, 22
 - and tort law 125, 127, 129, 130
 - Negri, A 31
 - neoliberalism
 - and domination of global corporations 68–70, 71
 - and efficiency, contract law 88, 94–5, 97–9, 101, 108
 - property law see property law, neoliberal reaction and modern property law
 - see also* capitalism
 - new subjects, ecological community and rise of 84–6
 - New Zealand, Whanganui River’s legal personality 85
 - Nicola, F 96
 - Nozick, R 28
 - nuisance law 143–4

 - Occupy movements and political motivation 39, 45
 - Olivetti as B corporation 80
 - Ollman, B 156–7
 - O’Mahony, L 46
 - opportunism, and captured political institutions 62, 64
 - O’Shields, R 105
 - Ostrom, E 31, 64, 83

 - pacta sunt servanda* principle, contract law 91–2, 106
 - Palmer, V 130
 - Pareto-efficiency, contract law 94, 97, 98, 108

- Parisi, F 125
 Parker, W 16
 partnerships 70, 113, 115, 122
 Pashukanis, E 30, 146
 Peace of Westphalia 57
 Peñalver, E 8, 44
 perpetual growth ideology 143, 147, 148–9
 platform economy
 and consumer law 100, 103–4
 and contract law see contract law, platform economy and logic of peers (sharing economy)
 legal personality and sovereignty
 75–7
 Polanyi, K 7, 29, 63, 135, 147 political agency, citizenship as connection between ownership and law 136, 138–9
 political motivation, and Occupy movements 39, 45
 polluter pays principle, and
 environmental law 133–5
 Posner, R 97–8
 possessive individualism 20, 135–6, 137, 141–2
 see also individualism
 Pothier, R 92
 precautionary principle 133, 153
 pricing
 deregulation and pricing of everything 98
 just price see just price
 privatization 28, 41, 49, 69, 73, 98, 144 productive equality and open network structure of the Internet 102
 see also Internet
 profit motives 28, 49
 contract law 96, 109–10, 117, 118
 legal personality and sovereignty
 59–60, 61, 64, 66, 67, 68–9, 70–71, 72, 74, 78, 80–81, 83
 tort law 140–41
 Progressive Era 37
 property law 11–54
 absentee property owners 52–3
 access rights 12, 16–17, 29, 41, 42–3, 44–8, 50–54
 Anglo-American trust law 16
 citizenship and democracy 40–41
 common law and civil law comparison 14
 commons 48–50
 commons, citizen involvement in management of public goods 49–50
 commons, as powerful interpretive tool 48–9, 51–2
 commons, and tenure system development 53
 community land trusts 52
 default rules of access and inclusion, shifting 50–54
 dominant idea of property 11–13
 ex ante measurement 11, 26, 146–7
 and exclusion 12–13, 14, 16–17, 29–30, 41, 42–8, 51–2, 53–4
 French Napoleonic Code 21–4, 35, 92
 and future generation interests 32, 48, 49, 52
 gentrification and exclusion 51–2, 152
 and illegal trespass 12, 13, 124, 152–3
 individual and collective 32–8, 39
 industrial era 24–6, 29–30, 36
 legal positivism 11
 modernity effects 17, 18–19, 26–7, 32–3, 34–5, 36
 natural law 18–21, 22
 object of property distinctions 35–6 Occupy movements and political motivation 39, 45
 organizational revolution 37
 owner's irrational behavior and burden of proof 51, 53–4 personal property and socialist property of the means of production, distinction between 36–7
 possessive individualism 20
 private property, reasons for 38–9
 probabilistic function of law 11–12

- Progressive Era and welfare state and liberal capitalism 37
- public imperium* and private dominium, differences between 34–5
- right to roam 43–4
- rights to access someone else's property 42–4
- Roman tradition 13–15, 18, 19
- smart property and Internet of things 47–8
- squatters and property occupation 11–12, 45–6
- subjective right 23–4, 25, 27, 29
- temporary uses with property rights 14, 51–2
- and tragedy of the commons 38–9
- urban space, development and exclusion zones 41
- and use value 31, 32, 36, 38
- wealth accumulation and social inequality 39
- property law, feudal tradition 15–18, 35
- and Charter of the Forest 16, 17
- commons and collective access 16–17
- Franciscan school and self-determination 17
- humanism and individualization 17–18, 91
- ownership based on power of individual exclusion 16–17
- res nullius* (a thing belonging to no one) and occupation 18
- Scholastic doctrine 17, 18, 19
- property law, neoliberal reaction and modern property law 26–30
- capture of the political system 28–9, 32, 49
- exchange value of things 29, 32
- free trade 27–8, 29
- Keynesianism, reaction to 28
- Mont Pelerin Society 28
- Washington Consensus 28
- see also* neoliberalism
- property law, new frontiers 30–34
- arbitration agreements 34
- and centralized power of large firms 33–4, 37–8
- common pool resources 2–3, 19, 31–2, 38–9, 45, 48–9, 50
- counter-hegemonic interpretation of existing property 31–4, 42, 46–7, 52
- ecologically literate interpretations 32
- individual autonomy decline concerns 32–4
- prosumers, contract law 102, 103, 104
- provider liability, tort law 140–41
- public imperium* and private dominium, differences between 34–5
- public interest issues 4, 9, 25, 43, 45, 49, 70–71, 112, 114, 131
- causa* and consideration, distinction between 91, 93, 110, 115, 119
- public opinion control by corporations 62, 69
- public/private divide, and urban commons 111–12
- Pufendorf, S von 91–2, 129
- Purdy, J 135
- Quigley, J xi, 68
- reciprocity and consideration, contract law 87, 89–90, 94, 102, 105
- reductionist strategy effects, tort law 142, 144
- refund policy and “no question asked”, tort law 131, 138
- Reich, C 29
- Reisman, W 13
- religious influence, canon law and mutual consent 90–91
- Renner, K 25
- reputational systems, contract law and platform economy 102, 103
- res nullius* (a thing belonging to no one), feudal tradition 18
- resources
- common pool see common pool resources

- and distributive justice 124, 127, 130
- and environmental damage 134
- myth of unlimited 147
- and social inequalities 95, 96
- and sustainable production 143–4
- transnational corporations and profit motives 61, 62, 64
- Rifkin, J 103
- right to roam 43–4
- rights to access see access rights
- Rodotà, S 26, 137
- Roman law 13–15, 18, 19, 89, 90, 92, 121
- Rosanvallon, P 40
- Rose, C 31
- Rota, G-C 149
- Rozental, A 21
- Rudden, B 16
- Ruggeri, A 76
- Russi, L 41

- Savelyev, A 105
- Scandinavia
 - Allemansrätt* (exclusion from the immediate surroundings of a home) 47
 - right to roam 44
- Schlatter, R 13
- Schlesinger, R 129
- Scholastic doctrine 17, 18, 19
- self-determination 17, 92–3, 98–9
- self-enforcement 13, 100–101, 104–5, 110, 153–4
- self-ownership, French Napoleonic Code 22–3
- self-regulation 153–5
- serial defendants, tort law 131–2, 133
- shareholder value, corporate bylaws in pursuit of 71–3
- sharing economy, and contract law see contract law, platform economy and logic of peers (sharing economy)
- Singer, J 12
- smart contracts 104–7, 108–9
- smart property and Internet of things 47–8
- Smith, A 70, 115, 147
- social connotations, tort law 121–2
- social consciousness of the commons, need for new 143–4
- social inequalities
 - and aggregate value of the top 10 corporations 62
 - and distributive justice 95, 96–7, 108, 109–10, 127–8, 147–8
 - and wealth accumulation 39
- social risks, and tort law see tort law, commons, and sharing decisions on social risks
- sovereignty
 - and legal personality see legal personality and sovereignty
 - and transnational corporation powers 4–5, 9
- Soviet Union, personal property protection 47
- squatters and property occupation 11–12, 45–6
- standing restriction, tort law 126, 130, 134, 142
- stare decisis* development, corporations as makers of global private law 66
- state as anthropomorphic legal person 57
- strict liability
 - and collective responsibility 125, 137
 - tort law see tort law, strict liability
- subjective right, property law 23–4, 25, 27, 29
- sustainable production, and resources 143–4

- taxation or trickle down effects on distribution 99
- technology
 - blockchain systems and self-enforcing contracts 100–101, 104–5
 - and Internet see Internet

- temporary uses with property rights 14, 51–2
- tenure system development 53
- Thomas, P ix, x
- Thompson, E 148
- Toffler, A 102
- tort law 121–45
 - and capitalism 125–6, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 137–8, 141, 143, 147–8
 - citizen-consumer movement 138
 - citizenship as connection between ownership and political agency 136, 138–9
 - collective to individual responsibility 122–4, 125–7
 - and commutative justice 137
 - and competitiveness 127, 133
 - consumers as commodities and metadata control 139–40, 141–2
 - and criminal law 123–4
 - damages payments 123–4, 141, 142, 143
 - and economic efficiency 137
 - ex ante* measurement 133, 135, 142, 143, 144, 146–7
 - ex post* evaluations 126, 132–3, 135, 136, 137, 141, 142
 - and exchange value 122, 126, 142–3
 - and future generation interests 122, 130, 131–2, 133, 134, 142
 - mass production 136–7, 138
 - modernity effects 125, 128–9, 130, 135–7, 141–2
 - and natural law 125, 127, 129, 130
 - possessive individualism 135–6, 137, 141–2
 - profit motive 140–41
 - reductionist strategy effects 142, 144
 - social connotations 121–2
 - standing restriction 126, 130, 134, 142
 - sustainable production and resources 143–4
 - technological progress and Internet revolution 135, 136–7, 139–40
 - tort reform 138–9
 - use value 122, 126, 142–3, 144
 - tort law, commons, and sharing decisions on social risks 141–4
 - nuisance law 143–4
 - social consciousness of the commons, need for new 143–4
 - tort law, fault principle 124–8
 - collective responsibility and strict liability 125, 137
 - collective responsibility to individual fault 126–7
 - individual free will and culpability 125–6
 - tort law, strict liability 128–35
 - defendant position 124, 127–8, 129–30, 131, 132, 133, 142
 - and distributive justice 129–30
 - and economic efficiency 130
 - environmental law, collective interests of ecological communities 134–5
 - environmental law and polluter pays principle 133–5
 - environmental law and precautionary principle 133, 153
 - refund policy and “no question asked” 131, 138
 - serial defendants 131–2, 133
 - stakeholders risks, costs transfer 130–31
 - tragedy of the commons 31, 38–9, 63–5
 - see also* commons
 - transnational corporations 58–60
 - and profit motives 61, 62, 64
 - see also* corporations; profit motives
 - Trebilcock, M 98
 - trespass 12, 13, 42–4, 124, 152–3
 - trickle down, taxation or trickle down effects on distribution 99
- UK
 - Anglo-American trust law 16

- Aslam, Ferrar & others v. Uber* 75
 fault principle 128
 mercantilism 67
 right to roam 43
 worker buyouts 77
 unconscionability doctrine, contract law 108–9, 153, 154–5
 Unger, R ix
 urban commons and public/private divide 111–12
 see also commons
 urban space, development and exclusion zones 41
 see also exclusion
 US
 Anglo-American trust law 16
 Berwick v. Uber Technologies 75
 Burwell v. Hobby Lobby 73–4
 citizen-consumer movement 138
 Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission 73
 Constitution and right to property 22 corporation as right bearer 73–4
 Douglas O' Connor v. Uber Technologies 75
 fault principle 128
 San Francisco underground trains and seat allocation 154
 Sierra Club v. Morton 134–5
 use value 2, 6–7, 150, 153
 contract law 87, 89, 90, 94, 107, 109
 legal personality and sovereignty 63, 73
 and property law 31, 32, 36, 38
 tort law 122, 126, 142–3, 144
 see also exchange value
 Valguarnera, F 43
 Van Ittersum, M 58
 Vercellone, A 52
 Vieta, M 76
 VOC (Dutch East Indian Company)
 58–60, 65, 67
 Von Gierke, O 56
 Von Hayek, F 28
 Von Savigny, F 56
 Vyshinsky, A 30
 Washington Consensus 28
 Watson, A 121
 wealth accumulation and social inequality 39
 Weitzman, M 17
 welfare function, contract law,
 ecology of 109–10
 Werback, K 105
 Werro, F 130
 Windscheid, B 23
 Wolff, E 18
 Wood, E 57, 136, 148
 work job insecurity, digital frontier and Internet monopolists 75–6 worker buyouts and platform
 cooperativism 76–7
 Zweigert, K 128

