

Contents

---

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| List of contributors  | vii |
| Introduction: conceptual directions for privacy in public spaceTjerk Timan, Bryce Clayton Newell and Bert-Jaap Koops  | 1   |
| PART I PHILOSOPHICAL AND EMPIRICAL INSIGHTS  |     |
| 1 Conceptualizing space and place: lessons from geography for the debate on privacy in publicBert-Jaap Koops and Maša Galič   | 19  |
| 2 Hidden in plain sightMichael Nagenborg  | 47  |
| 3 Privacy in public and the contextual conditions of agencyMaria Brincker   | 64  |
| 4 A politico-economic perspective on privacy in public spacesKarsten Mause  | 91  |
| 5 Visually distant and virtually close: public and private spaces in the Archives de la Planète (1909–1931) and Life in a Day (2011)Julia M. Hildebrand | 112 |
| PART II LAW AND REGULATION   |     |
| 6 Exposure and concealment in digitalized public spacesStephen B. Zhao  | 139 |
| 7 Covering up: American and European legal approaches to public facial anonymity after SAS v. FranceAngela Daly  | 164 |
| 8 Privacy Impact Notices to address the privacy pollution of mass surveillanceA. Michael Froomkin   | 184 |
| 9 Privacy in public spaces: the problem of out-of-body DNAAlbert E. Scherr  | 211 |

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 10 | The Internet of other people's thingsMeg Leta Jones         | 242 |
| 11 | Conclusion: the need for privacy in public spaceTjerk Timan | 269 |
|    | Index   | 291 |