

Index

- absorption of external knowledge
 - 32–3, 154–5, 213, 215–16
 - costs of 11–12, 16, 87, 206–8, 212, 216, 218–19, 237
- academic networks 170–71, 237
- adaptive response 1, 4–5, 17, 23, 215
- agent-based simulation model (ABM), endogenous knowledge externalities
 - analytical representation of simulation model 216–20
 - assumptions 210–14
 - conclusions 234
 - detailed presentation of innovation process simulation 214–16
 - results 223–33
 - system dynamics of endogenous knowledge externalities 220–22
- agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 60–72
 - economic interpretation of results 72–6
- agent-based simulation model (ABM), innovation process at system level 28–35, 53–4, 205
- intellectual property rights (IPR) regimes 33, 37–42
- policy implications 51–2
- regional dissemination of knowledge 42–51
- results 35–51
- agents
 - interdependence of 24
 - knowledge interactions between 21–2, 24–5
 - and system dynamics 25–6
- agglomeration externalities 58
- Antonelli, C. 26, 84
- appropriation of knowledge 11, 58, 74, 84, 153, 154, 205–6, 207
- Arrow, Kenneth 154
- Baily, M.N. 179, 180
- Bartelsman, E.J. 113, 179, 180
- behavioural theory of firms 23–4
- biological evolutionary economics 75
- Bottazzi, G. 179–80
- bounded rationality 23, 29, 210
- Bureau Van Dijk
 - Aida database 186
 - Amadeus database 91, 133
- Business Cycles* (Schumpeter) 2–3, 4, 8
- Capitalism, Socialism and Democracy* (Schumpeter) 2, 3, 4, 8, 131, 153
- Cappelli, R. 112
- CDM (constructionist design methodology) model 19, 85–6, 93
- Clausen, T. 182
- Cobb–Douglas specification 19, 84, 85
- cognitive distance (cost of knowledge model) 137, 138, 139, 140–41, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148
- cognitive distance index 99–102
- Community Innovation Survey (CIS) 4 114
- complexity 1, 2–7, 26, 35; see also evolutionary complexity, microfoundations of
- Conte, A. 86
- cost of knowledge 128
 - absorption of external knowledge 11–12, 16, 87, 206–8, 212, 216, 218–19, 237
 - average unit cost 151, 152, 161–2, 163, 167, 170
 - and creative response 6, 12, 15, 19–20
 - evolutionary complexity ABM 62–3
 - knowledge as input and output 129–33
 - knowledge cost function 129, 130, 132–3, 148–9

- knowledge governance 208, 209, 212, 221, 222, 224, 225–7, 229, 233–4, 235
- cost of knowledge, and productivity growth 151–2
 - analytical context 152–6
 - conclusions 172–3
 - descriptive evidence 161–2
 - empirical evidence 161–70
 - estimation strategy 162–7, 175
 - model 156–61
 - policy implications 170–72
 - results 167–70
- cost of knowledge model
 - conclusions and implications for further research 148–50
 - data 133–4
 - methodology and variables 134–9, 140
 - results 139, 141–8
- creative destruction 36, 233
- creative response 1–4, 16–18, 25–6, 153–4
 - and behavioural theory 22–3
 - dynamics of, graphic exposition 13–16
 - endogenous relationship between out-of-equilibrium conditions and innovation 6–7
 - innovative response 4–5
 - interdependence of elements comprising 13–16, 19–20
 - and knowledge externalities 6, 11–12, 13–14, 15
 - levels of knowledge governance 10–12
 - and rationality 5
 - reactivity and research 7–10, 19 see also evolutionary complexity, microfoundations of
- Crépon, B. 19, 85–6, 93
- cycles, growth 68–71
- Da Silva, M.A. 85
- Darwinian selection process 10, 74–5, 77
- David, P.A. 84
- debt, long-term (productivity growth persistence model) 193, 194, 195, 198
- Dhrymes, P. 179, 180
- downstream knowledge flows 113, 114, 115, 116–17, 120, 121, 122–4, 125–6
- Duguet, E. 85–6
- dynamic capabilities approach 177–8, 181–2, 185
- Ebersberger, B. 111
- emergent system property, innovation as 2, 21–2, 205, 208, 234
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM) 28–35
 - conclusions 52–4
 - policy implications 51–2
 - simulation results 35–51
 - theoretical framework 22–8
- emergent system property, productivity persistence as 182, 184, 185, 190–91, 193, 196–7, 199
- endogenous dynamics of pecuniary knowledge externalities, see pecuniary knowledge externalities, endogenous dynamics of
- entrepreneurship 8, 17–18, 59, 60, 72
- equilibrium, Marshallian 15, 29, 58–9, 76–7
- equilibrium economics 1
- European Patent Office (EPO) 92
- evolutionary complexity 1, 2–7
- evolutionary complexity, microfoundations of 56–7
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM) 60–76
 - conclusions 76–9
 - economic interpretation of simulation results 72–6
- Marshallian and Schumpeterian approaches 56–60, 64, 65, 67–79
- role of externalities 57–60
- exogenous innovation
 - Marshallian approach 57–9
 - Schumpeterian approach 73–4
- external knowledge
 - access to 25, 32–3, 35–6, 206, 208, 213, 218–19, 236–7
 - architectural characteristics of interactions network 27–8
 - complementarity with internal knowledge 110–11, 205

- as indispensable input 84, 85, 88–91, 130
- and relocation 33–5, 216, 219–20
- sources of 112–14, 115
- see also* absorption of external knowledge; cost of knowledge; knowledge generation function, external and internal knowledge in
- external knowledge, role in
 - introduction of product and process innovations 109–10
 - data 114–16, 117
 - hypotheses 112–14, 115
 - implications and conclusions 125–7
 - methodology 116–18
 - results 118–24
 - theoretical framework and hypotheses 110–14
- external learning 214, 226
- externalities, see imitation externalities; knowledge externalities; pecuniary knowledge externalities; endogenous dynamics of
- firms
 - behavioural theory of 23–4
 - as myopic agents 22–3
 - see also* size of firms
- foreign direct investment (FDI) 52
- Furman, J.L. 85
- GDP per capita (cost of knowledge and productivity growth model) 165, 166, 168, 170
- Gehring, A. 87
- general equilibrium, static 223
- generation of knowledge, see knowledge generation; knowledge generation function, external and internal knowledge in
- Geroski, P. 180
- Giannangeli, S. 179, 180
- Gomez-Salvador, R. 179, 180
- Griliches, Z. 83
- Grimpe, C. 111
- growth, and Darwinian selection process 10, 74–5
- Herstad, S.J. 111
- horizontal external knowledge 112–13, 114, 115, 117–18, 120–24, 125
- Howells, J. 111
- human capital
 - cost of knowledge and productivity growth model 165, 166, 168
 - mobility 237
 - and productivity growth 177
- imitation externalities 58–9, 74, 76
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 64, 65, 67, 68, 71
- innovation persistence 177, 180, 184–5
- innovative response 4–5
- intangible assets 183
- intellectual property rights (IPR) regimes 26–7, 33, 37–42, 47, 51, 171–2, 229, 236–7; see also patents
- Intergovernmental Preparedness for Essential Records (IPER) database 91, 133
- internal knowledge
 - complementarity with external knowledge 110–11, 205
 - see also* cost of knowledge; external knowledge, role in introduction of product and process innovations; knowledge generation function, external and internal knowledge in
- internal learning 32, 214, 218, 224, 226, 229
- internal slack competence 32
- Inverse Mill's Ratio (IMR) 95
- Jaffe, A. 84, 87, 101
- Johansson, B. 88
- Kaiser, U. 111
- knowledge 24–5
 - characteristics of 84, 129, 154
 - as input and output 129–33, 154, 205–10
- knowledge absorption, see absorption of external knowledge
- knowledge appropriation 11, 58, 74, 84, 153, 154, 205–6, 207
- knowledge centres 34, 52

- knowledge coherence (cost of knowledge model) 136, 138, 139, 140–41, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148
- knowledge commons 203–4, 207–8, 209
 - endogenous dynamics of pecuniary knowledge externalities model 211–12, 213, 216, 217–22, 223–33, 234–5
- knowledge complementarity 89–90, 96, 110–11, 129, 130, 205
- knowledge connectivity 155–6, 203–4, 206, 233–4
- knowledge costs, see cost of knowledge; cost of knowledge, and productivity growth; cost of knowledge model
- knowledge cumulability 129, 130, 154, 181, 184
- knowledge density 207–8, 218–19
- knowledge dissemination
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), innovation process at system level 42–51, 54
 - policies 51–2, 170–71, 236–7
- knowledge externalities 24–5, 59–60, 130
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 62, 63, 64, 68, 73–4, 75–6
 - and creative response 6, 11–12, 13–14, 15
 - localized character of 91
 - nature of 154
 - and productivity-enhancing innovations 152–6
 - see also* pecuniary knowledge externalities; pecuniary knowledge externalities, endogenous dynamics of
- knowledge generation 24, 110
 - architectural trade-off (network of interactions) 27–8
 - basic inputs 154
 - and creative response 13–14
 - and intellectual property rights (IPR) 27, 37
 - Marshallian approach 132
 - nature of knowledge inputs 130–31
 - over time 181–2
 - path dependency of 130
 - policy 149–50
 - Schumpeterian approach 77–8, 131–2, 141–2, 149
 - as specific economic activity 129
 - see also* cost of knowledge, and productivity growth; external knowledge, role in introduction of product and process innovations; pecuniary knowledge externalities, endogenous dynamics of
- knowledge generation function, external and internal knowledge in 19, 82–3
 - cognitive distance index 99–102
 - conclusions 106–8
 - datasets 91–3
 - emergence of knowledge generation function 83–8
 - hypothesis (external knowledge as essential input) 88–91
 - knowledge generation function 96–7, 156–8
 - methodology and variables 93–102
 - R&D equations 94–5
 - recombinant approach 88–91
 - results 102–6
 - variables' measurement methods 97–9, 100
- knowledge governance
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 65–8, 71–2, 74
 - costs 208, 209, 212, 221, 222, 224, 225–7, 229, 233–4, 235
 - and creative response 10–12, 14, 15–16, 17, 18
 - policies 236
- knowledge intensity (productivity growth persistence model) 190
- knowledge-intensive businesses (KIBs) 52, 170–71
- knowledge interactions 10–11, 21–2, 23, 24–5, 155, 170–71, 203–4, 206, 210
- knowledge producers (KPs) (agent-based simulation model,

- innovation process at system level) 42–51
- knowledge sharing 209
- knowledge spillovers 11–12, 83–4, 88, 206, 219–20
- knowledge stickiness 206
- knowledge stock, see stock of knowledge
- knowledge variety (cost of knowledge model) 136, 138–9, 140–41, 142–3, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148

- large firms, advantages of 131–2
- Lazonick, W. 4–5
- learning 32, 214, 218, 224, 226, 229
- Lévy flight* traits 213, 216, 223–4
- Lööf, H. 88
- Love, J.H. 87–8

- Mairesse, J. 85–6
- management
 - and entrepreneurship 17–18
 - and productivity growth persistence 181–3
 - reactivity 8
- March, Jamie 23
- market equilibrium, Marshallian approach 15, 29, 58–9, 76–7
- markets 29–30, 35
- Marshallian approach 56–60, 74–5
 - cost of knowledge 142
 - externalities 58, 59, 76, 132
 - interactions among heterogeneous agents 72–3
 - knowledge generation 132
 - market equilibrium 15, 29, 58–9, 76–7
 - output growth 69–71, 73
 - reactivity 72
 - see also* imitation externalities
- microeconomic foundations of
 - innovation, see evolutionary complexity, microfoundations of
- Mokyr, Joel 131
- multinational companies 52

- Nelson, R.R. 84, 154
- Nesta, L. 86

- OECD REGPAT database 92, 133
- open innovation strategies 111–12
- out-of-equilibrium conditions 1–2, 16–18
 - and cost of knowledge 155–6
 - dynamics of creative response, graphic exposition 13–16
 - endogenous knowledge externalities 234–6
 - and innovation 2–7, 31, 77–8, 209, 212–13, 215, 234
 - levels of knowledge governance 10–12
 - reactivity and research 19
 - see also* pecuniary knowledge externalities, endogenous dynamics of
- outsourcing 111, 183

- Parisi, M.L. 86
- passive reactions (Schumpeter) 153
- patents 26–7, 33, 37–42, 47, 84, 86
 - and academic research 87
 - cost of knowledge and productivity growth model 164, 165, 166, 168, 175
 - cost of knowledge model 133–4, 135–6, 137–9, 140–42, 143–5, 146, 147, 148, 149
 - datasets 92, 133–4
 - distribution across technological classes 87
 - knowledge generation function model 92, 93, 96–8, 99, 100, 101, 104–5
 - limits as source of information 133
 - policies 236–7
- path dependence 31
 - knowledge generation 130
 - pecuniary knowledge externalities 209–10, 212, 221, 236
 - productivity growth persistence 182, 195, 199–200
- Patrucco, P. 85
 - pecuniary knowledge externalities 63, 75–6, 77–9, 87, 152, 153–4, 155–6
 - cost of knowledge and productivity growth model 156–61, 162–3, 164, 173
 - definition of 207

- pecuniary knowledge externalities, endogenous dynamics of 203–5
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM) 210–33
 - conclusions and policy implications 233–7
 - knowledge externalities as input and output of system dynamics 205–10
 - simulation results 223–33
 - system dynamics 220–22
- procedural rationality 5, 29
- process and product innovations, see external knowledge, role in introduction of product and process innovations
- production function, technology 20, 82, 83, 85–6, 158–61
- productivity
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), endogenous knowledge externalities 220–22, 224, 226–31, 232, 235
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 61–5, 66–8, 71–2, 73
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), innovation process at system level 30–35, 36, 37–42, 43, 44, 46, 47–51
 - and patents 37–42
 - and R&D 85–6
 - reactivity and research 10
- productivity growth, and cost of knowledge, see cost of knowledge, and productivity growth
- productivity growth persistence 176–80
- productivity growth persistence model
 - conclusions 197, 199–200
 - dataset 186–8
 - empirical analysis 186–97, 202
 - hypotheses and research design 181–5
 - modelling structure 191–3
 - results 194–7, 198
 - transition probability matrices (TPM) on TFP growth rates 188–91, 202
- public policy 18, 52
- public research infrastructures 18, 170–71, 237
- R&D 83–8, 110–11
 - choice of sites for 150
 - cost of knowledge and productivity growth model 164, 165
 - cost of knowledge model 133, 135, 138, 139, 140–41, 142, 144–8, 149
 - knowledge generation function model 19, 90, 91, 92–5, 97, 98, 99, 100, 102–5
 - as long-term investment 183
 - and out-of-equilibrium conditions 3, 6, 7–10, 14–15, 19
 - outsourcing 111, 183
 - productivity growth persistence model 190–91, 193–4, 196–7, 198
 - public research infrastructures 18, 170–71, 237
 - role of external knowledge model 115, 116–27
- rationality 5, 23, 29, 210
- reactive agents 21–2
- reactivity 4–5, 7–10, 13, 14, 16–17
 - agent-based simulation model (ABM), evolutionary complexity 60, 64, 65–6, 67, 68, 71–2, 73–4
- recombinant knowledge approach 88–91, 136–7, 205
 - cognitive distance index 99–102
- relocalization 33–5, 216, 219–20
- Roper, S. 87–8
- royalties 171–2
- satisficing approach to innovation 214–15
- Saviotti, P.P. 86
- Schumpeterian approach 75–6, 78
 - entrepreneurship 8, 59, 60, 72
 - exogenous innovation 73–4, 77
 - externalities 6, 59–60, 76, 77, 153–4, 208
- interactions among heterogeneous agents 72–3
- knowledge generation 77–8, 131–2, 141–2, 149

- and Marshall 57, 59, 76–7
- output growth 68–71
- performance and innovation 2–4
- rationality 5
- reactivity 4–5, 72
- summary of different dynamic levels 74
- see also* creative response
- selection process, Darwinian 10, 74–5, 77
- sequential phases of innovation 215–16
- Simon, Herbert 5, 23
- size of firms
 - and cost of knowledge 131–2, 137–8, 139, 142, 145–6, 148, 149
 - and exploitation of knowledge 146–7
 - and productivity growth 176, 178, 183–4, 189–90, 193, 194, 197, 198, 199
- slack competence 32, 215
- SMEs, and productivity growth 176, 184, 189, 199
- spillovers, knowledge 11–12, 83–4, 88, 206, 219–20
- stock of knowledge 86, 89, 90, 129–31
 - access to 156
 - knowledge generation function model 19, 97–9, 100, 105–6, 107–8
 - and knowledge governance 11
 - and size of firms 131–2
 - see also* cost of knowledge; cost of knowledge, and productivity growth
- Strumsky, D. 87
- system, organization and structure 24, 25
- system dynamics 25–6
 - knowledge externalities 205–10, 213–14, 220–22
- system property, emergent, see emergent system property, innovation as; emergent system property, productivity persistence as
- technological proximity 101–2
- technology policy 149–50
- technology production function 20, 82, 83, 85–6, 158–61
- Theory of Economic Development* (Schumpeter) 57, 59, 77
- Theyel, N. 111–12
- Thomson Reuters Datastream 91, 133
- total factor productivity (TFP) growth, see cost of knowledge, and productivity growth; productivity growth persistence; productivity growth persistence model
- trade openness (cost of knowledge and productivity growth model) 165, 166, 168
- upstream knowledge flows 113, 114, 115, 116–17, 120, 121, 122–4, 125–6
- value chains, knowledge flows within 113–14, 115, 116–17, 120, 121, 122–4, 125–7
- variety 9–10, 15, 58, 74–5, 77
- variety, knowledge (cost of knowledge model) 136, 138–9, 140–41, 142–3, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148
- vertical external knowledge 113–14, 115, 116–17, 120, 121, 122–4, 125–7
- vertical integration (productivity growth persistence model) 193, 194, 195, 198
- view parameter 33
- Vivarelli, M. 86
- Weitzman, M.L. 84, 88
- Wooldridge, J. 95, 103, 104, 105
- Youn, H. 87
- zero-inflated regression models 97

