Index

accidents and injuries benefits 166–8, 171, 174, 175 age, and dependent self-employment 34, 50, 102–3, 104–6, 112 agricultural sector 28, 53, 108, 110, 115 amnesties for misclassification of workers 12, 143, 153–4, 188 Austria
law and policy 145, 146
social protection 170
bogus self-employment
definition of 181–2
distinction from dependent self-employment 4, 6–7, 40, 41 distribution of 49–51, 52–4 enforcement bodies 152
job satisfaction 59
and precarity 56, 57
prevalence of 42–3, 44, 46–7 terms used for 3
working conditions 60–61, 124, 130
Böheim, R. 4, 43–4, 50, 61
Broughton, A. 56, 61, 130
Burchell, B. 44
care (long-term) benefits 166–8, 171 career and job prospects 137–9 casual work 20
characteristics of dependent self-employment, dominant depictions of 56–63 characteristics of workers in dependent self-employment 10, 101–7, 185–6 collaborative employment 20 collective agreements 155 continuum of employment relationships 3, 4–5 corruption, as explanation for levels of dependent self-employment 87, 89, 92, 93, 96 costs of misclassifying workers 11–12, 142–3, 150–53, 188 crowd employment 20
De Groen, W.P. 165
decent work 41–2, 162
deficits 12, 22, 161, 162–3, 188–9 ‘dependent contractors’ 156, 157, 158
dependent self-employment alternative names for 3, 19, 181 categories of 4
definition of 3–7, 40–41, 69–70, 143, 152, 156–7, 181–2 difficulties of international comparisons 156 motives for 159
negative aspects of 11, 143, 187 positive aspects of 144 discretion and skills, use of 133–7 ‘disguised employment’ 3 dominant depictions of dependent self-employment 1, 8, 12–13, 39–41, 63–4, 183–4 characteristics of dependent self-employment 56–63 distribution of dependent self-employment 49–55
prevalence of dependent self-employment 41–9 downsizing 138, 139
drivers 44, 57, 150
earnings, self-employment 35 economic dependence 6, 40, 44, 69–70, 83, 145 Dependent self-employment education

and dependent self-employment 50, 103, 104–7, 112 and self-employment 35
employee sharing 20
employment participation rates 16–18, 22, 25, 178–9
Employment Relationship
Recommendation (No. 198) 144 employment status, ILO’s proposed classification of 156, 157, 158
Eurobarometer surveys 55
Eurofound 5, 21, 42, 45–6, 48, 49–50, 52, 59, 60, 61–2, 63, 69, 70, 126, 130, 137, 171 European Agency for Safety and Health at Work (EU-OSHA) 55
European Institute for Gender Equality 49
European Labour Force Survey
(EU-LFS), definition of self-employment 19, 25–6
European Social Policy Network
(ESPN) 6–7, 25, 43, 152
European Working Conditions Survey (EWCS) 44–5, 46, 49–50, 52, 59–60, 63, 69, 120; see also trends in/prevalence of dependent self-employment; working conditions family benefits 166–8, 171, 174 France
law and policy 146
social protection 165, 176–7
fraud 42–3
full employment 16, 18
gender, see men, dependent self-employment; women
Germany
bogus self-employment 47
law and policy 144–5
social protection 169, 170, 175
gig economy 20, 21, 54, 61 governance quality 99
Greece
law and policy 146, 151
social protection 170 ‘grey zone’ (between genuine self-employment and dependent employment) 3–5, 7, 69–70, 144, 187–8
national examples 146–50 occupational and sectoral distribution 110, 111
prevalence of 72, 73, 77, 79
socio-demographic characteristics 103–4
structure of 82–4, 86
working conditions 122, 123, 125, 126, 128–9, 130–31, 132, 135–6 see also dominant depictions of
dependent self-employment
Haake, G. 155
Hastings, T. 46, 47, 54, 55, 149, 154 health and safety issues 62, 120–24 health and social care sector 53 health care benefits 166–9 health care systems 169
Heyes, J. 46, 47, 54, 55, 149, 154
Horodnic, I.A. 52, 153
households, number of people in and income of, and likelihood of engaging in dependent self-employment 103, 104–6, 107, 112
Hungary, bogus self-employment 47 hybrid employment status 11, 142, 144–5, 146, 155, 156, 187–8
ILO (International Labour Organization) 5, 55, 57, 61, 130, 143, 144, 145–6, 147, 156–7, 158, 163, 173
incentives for employing workers appropriately 12, 143, 153–4, 188 income
distribution 90, 98–9
household, and likelihood of engaging in dependent self-employment 103, 104–6, 107, 112
link with employment 16
universal basic income 179 ‘independent contractors’ 55, 61 inequality 90, 98–9
injuries and accidents benefits 166–8, 171, 174, 175
interim management 20
International Classification of Status in Employment (ICSE) 156, 158
International Conference of Labour Statisticians (20th) 156 International Labour Conference 2006 144 invalidity benefits 166–8, 171, 174 Ireland
bogus self-employment 47
law and policy 146, 148–9, 151
Italy
bogus self-employment 47
law and policy 12, 145, 151, 152, 153–4, 188
prevalence of dependent self-employment 44, 45
social protection 175
job and career prospects 137–9
job satisfaction 59
job security 138, 139
job sharing 20
Jorens, Y. 46–7
Klosse, S. 46–7
Lapeyre, F. 45, 50, 52, 60, 69–70, 71
Latvia, law and policy 149
legal systems 144, 152
Leonardi, S. 44
long-term care benefits 166–8, 171 Malta, law and policy 146, 147 marginalized groups 10, 49–51, 101, 102–7, 117, 184, 186 Maselli, I. 165
maternity benefits 164, 165, 166–8, 169, 174, 175 men, dependent self-employment 49–50, 102, 103, 104–6, 112; see also women migrants
bogus self-employment 50–51
dependent self-employment 50
self-employment 36
Millán, A. 59, 130
misclassification of employment 2–3 misclassification of employment, approaches towards addressing 11–12, 142–3, 159–60, 187–8 collective responses 154–5 policy responses 143–54 research on effectiveness 157, 159 towards a common definition for dependent self-employed workers 156–9 mobile device applications, see online platforms Mühlberger, U. 4, 43–4, 50, 61 multi-party employment relationships 19 neo-liberal perspective, explanation of levels of dependent self-employment 87, 88–9, 90–93, 95–7, 99
Nerinckx, S. 150
Netherlands
bogus self-employment 46–7
law and policy 146, 151, 154
social protection 162–3, 169, 175, 177
‘non-standard employment’ (NSE) forms of 18–21 fraudulent use of 42–3 insecurities and risks of 58 problems with 21–2
social protection coverage 165–72
trends in 22–5
Norway, law and policy 151 occupational accidents and injuries benefits 166–8, 171, 174, 175 occupational and sectoral distribution of dependent self-employment 51–4, 107–17, 186 old-age benefits 166–8, 170, 174 older workers 34, 50, 102–3, 104–6 online platforms 20–21, 41, 47–8, 54–5, 62, 107–8, 115, 116–17, 184, 186 social protection for workers 165, 177 status of workers 150 worker representation 155
working conditions 61–2, 126, 130, 133, 134
Dependent self-employment

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 5, 19, 25, 45 part-time and on-call employment 19, 22, 23–4, 25, 31–4 paternity benefits 166–8, 169 pay-as-you-go (PAYG) statutory public pension schemes 170 pensions 170
personal dependence 6, 40 Perulli, A. 3
physical environment 120–24
platform work, see online platforms Poland, law and policy 151 political economy perspective, explanation of levels of dependent self-employment 87, 90–92, 94–5, 97–9 portfolio work 20
poverty 56, 90, 91, 98–9 precarious work 49, 56–63, 62, 184 Precarious Work and Social Rights (PWSR) project/survey 42, 56–7
prevalence of dependent self-employment 41–9 pure dependent self-employment 9, 71, 72–3, 74, 77, 79 see also trends in/prevalence of dependent self-employment protective rights 2, 36 pure dependent self-employment occupational and sectoral distribution 110, 111 prevalence of 9, 71, 72–3, 74, 77, 79
socio-demographic characteristics 103–4
structure of 81–2, 86
working conditions 122, 123, 125, 126, 128–9, 130–31, 132, 135–6 Romania law and policy 147, 149–50, 151, 153
prevalence of dependent self-employment 44
social protection 175
sanctions for misclassifying workers 11–12, 151–2, 188 sectoral distribution of dependent self-employment 51–4, 107–17, 186 self-employed, characteristics of 34–6
self-employment 183
challenges arising from 36–7 cost savings and benefits to employers 42, 43 definition of 6, 19, 25–6, 41, 152
extent of 25, 26, 27
full- and part-time 31–4 representative organizations 155 skill level of occupations 35
types of 26, 28–34
with and without employees 26, 28–31 self-employment–employment ratio 92, 93 sickness benefits 164, 165, 166–9, 174 skills and discretion, use of 133–7 Slovakia, bogus self-employment 47
social environment 60, 63, 131–3 social inclusion 16, 18, 178–9 social partners, involvement in responses to misclassification of employment 154–5
social protection 12, 161–2, 179–80, 189 categories of countries 171–2 contributions, issues 173, 178 coverage 162–3, 164–78
expenditure 90–91, 95, 96–8 improvement of 162
individual accounts 176–7 need for systems modernization 176–8 rethinking relationship with employment 178–9
self-employment 36–7
types of 163–4
Spain bogus self-employment 47
distribution of dependent self-employment 52
law and policy 145
prevalence of dependent self-employment 44
social protection 175–6, 177
Index

Spasova, S. 6, 36–7, 43, 47, 50, 52, 56, 165–72, 177, 178
'standard employment relationship' decreasing importance of 2
definition of 18
trends in 22, 23–4
state interference/intervention, and levels of dependent self-employment 87, 90–92, 95, 96–9 structural conditions associated with
dependent self-employment 92–9 survivors’ benefits and pensions 166–8, 174 Sweden
law and policy 151
social protection 170–71
taxation, as explanation for levels of
dependent self-employment 87, 88–9, 93, 96 temporary employment 18, 22, 23–4, 25 trade unions 154, 155 training 134, 136, 137
transport sector 53
trends in employment 7–8, 15–16, 37–8, 182–3 beyond 'standard employment relationship' (SER) 18–25
employment participation rates 16–18, 22, 25, 178–9 self-employment, extent and characteristics 25–37 trends in/prevalence of dependent self-employment 8–10, 67–8, 99–100, 184–5 authority to hire staff 80, 81–3, 84, 85, 86 authority to make business decisions 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86 composition/nature of self-employment 77, 78–9 cross-national variations 75–86 explaining cross-national variations 87–99 more than one client 80–81, 82–4, 85, 86 prevalence and nature of dependent self-employment 69–75 self-employed criteria met 77, 80–86 undeclared work 19, 25

unemployment benefits 164, 166–8, 170–71, 172, 174
United Kingdom (UK)
bogus self-employment 47, 49
distribution of dependent self-employment 50
law and policy 145–6, 147, 151, 153
prevalence of dependent self-employment 43–4
universal basic income 179
unpaid work 57, 179
voucher-based work 20
who engages in dependent self-employment 10, 101–7, 185–6 Williams, C.C. 45, 50, 52, 60, 69–70, 71, 153 women
bogus self-employment 51
dependent self-employment 49–50, 102, 103, 104–6, 112
self-employment 34–5
social protection 175
Wood, A.J. 61
work intensity 60, 62, 63, 124–6
working conditions 10–11, 56–63, 118–19, 139–40, 184, 186–7
job and career prospects 137–9 measuring 119–20, 121
physical environment 120–24
skills and discretion 133–7
social environment 131–3
work intensity 124–6
working time quality 127–31
working time 59, 60, 62, 63, 127–31 atypical working time
World Economic Forum 88, 89