

Contents

---

About the author	ix
Introduction	1
1 Large law firms and the success of the growth model	5
1.1 Introduction	5
1.2 Firm growth	5
1.3 Specialization	7
1.4 Client relationships	8
1.5 Rising billing rates; billing alternatives	9
1.6 Recruiting; mobility	10
1.7 Pressure on lawyers to bill more hours	13
1.8 Consolidation	14
1.9 Firm culture and governance	16
1.10 Profitability	18
1.11 The legal marketplace of today and the future	20
1.12 In-house legal departments	21
1.13 Government lawyers	23
1.14 Evolution of the legal talent pool	25
1.15 Financial rewards	26
2 New business models for the future	30
2.1 Introduction	30
2.2 The right strategy for the changed legal market	32
2.3 The advantages and disadvantages of large size	32
2.4 Geographical scope	34
2.5 The advantages and disadvantages of controlling or restraining growth	36
2.6 Financial disadvantage of ungainly size	37
2.7 Strategy for firms that need to pare back	39
2.8 Why certain firms are not facing overcapacity	41
2.9 Establishing priorities; even-handedly evaluating practices and offices	42
2.10 Evaluating lawyers at all levels	45

2.11	The importance of a high partnership elevation standard	46
2.12	The importance of a fair compensation system	47
3	The key building blocks of a lasting and successful law firm	49
3.1	Introduction	49
3.2	The key building blocks	49
3.3	Logically and objectively setting strategy	51
3.4	Building an attractive firm culture	52
3.5	Building a lasting institution	52
4	Effective governance	54
4.1	Introduction	54
4.2	Comparison of the governance structures of large law firms and business corporations	54
4.3	Setting strategy	58
4.4	The critical role of practice leadership	59
4.5	Listening to partners	60
4.6	Individual partner leadership	61
4.7	Motivating partners to be leaders	64
4.8	Who sets the strategy?	65
4.9	The balance between the management committee and the managing partners	66
4.10	Should the firm revise the governance structure to charge someone with setting strategy?	67
4.11	Implementing changes in strategy	68
4.12	Presenting the firm strategically	69
5	Client service	70
5.1	Introduction	70
5.2	Negative comments from clients	71
5.3	Positive comments	73
5.4	Learning from other client service businesses	75
5.5	Delivery of value to clients	76
5.6	Practice management	76
5.7	Setting and meeting a budget	78
5.8	Providing free benefits to clients	79
5.9	Forgoing work that doesn't add value	79
5.10	Diversity and advancement of women	79
6	Assessing firm performance	81
6.1	Introduction	81
6.2	Review of performance of a practice or an office	81
6.3	Department and practice group leaders	83
6.4	Office leadership	84

6.5	Assessment from an institutional firm-wide viewpoint	85
6.6	Supporting strong practice groups and offices; withdrawing support from weak ones	86
7	Evaluating lawyers	87
7.1	Introduction	87
7.2	Evaluating associates	87
7.3	Evaluating partners	91
7.4	Evaluating lateral partners	92
7.5	Compensation consistent with evaluation	93
7.6	Explanation of the evaluation to the lawyer; firm standards	94
8	Fair compensation	95
8.1	Introduction	95
8.2	Associate compensation	96
8.3	Partners' compensation	97
8.4	Feedback to partners	102
8.5	Information statement or business plan	102
9	Strong administrative staff	105
9.1	Introduction	105
9.2	Executive director	105
9.3	Other essential support staff	106
9.4	High-level managers	109
9.5	Practice management	110
10	Treating everyone professionally	111
10.1	Introduction	111
10.2	Encouraging positive behavior	111
10.3	Smoothing the rough edges	113
11	Balancing professionalism and quality of life	115
11.1	Introduction	115
11.2	Maintaining a healthy non-professional life	116
11.3	Building a culture of consideration for the individual	117
11.4	Policies to foster a sense of support from the institution	118
11.5	A culture of training and mentoring	119
11.6	Respecting the individual	120
12	Succession planning	122
12.1	Introduction	122
12.2	Involving many partners in management	122
12.3	Developing young partners' management skills	123
12.4	Creating a firm worth preserving	124

12.5	Facilitating succession	125
12.6	The nature of the continuing firm	127
13	Retirement policies	129
13.1	Philosophy of retirement; prevalent attitudes	129
13.2	Rationale for mandatory retirement policies	130
13.3	Range of attitudes regarding retirement	133
13.4	Early retirement	135
13.5	Managed withdrawal	135
13.6	The importance of a retirement policy to firm strategy	136
14	The future of the profession	138
14.1	Introduction	138
14.2	Hiring patterns; associate compensation	139
14.3	Elevation to partnership	141
14.4	Flexibility of legal roles	142
14.5	Size of the law firm; economies of scale	143
14.6	Marketing a firm's authentic strengths; recruiting lawyers to a strong practice area or office	144
14.7	Attitudes of lawyers	146
14.8	Future consolidation of law firms	147
14.9	The profitable business model for today's market	149
14.10	The future marketplace	150
15	Conclusion	152
15.1	Introduction	152
15.2	Make your firm distinctive	152
15.3	A culture of excellence	153
	Index	155