

Author biography

---

Barbara Linder holds a PhD in human rights law of the University of Vienna and a Master's degree in Human Rights and Democratisation (E.MA) of the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights in Venice, Italy. Prior to joining the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights (BIM) in Vienna in 2007 she worked in development cooperation with the UNICEF and the Austrian Development Agency. Her areas of expertise include human rights in development cooperation and business, access to justice and procedural rights, economic, social and cultural rights, human trafficking and labour exploitation.