

Index

- academics 11–14, 19, 22, 27, 93, 99, 104, 165
- Accident Insurance Act of 1884 25
- accountability 13–14, 27, 43, 82, 161, 173, 178
 - bottom-up 135
 - democratic 108, 135
 - and loyalty 177
 - problems 123
- actor-based framework 41
- administration
 - doctrines 58
 - failures 8
 - forms of 153
 - governance and 13
 - learning processes 152
 - megatrends 58
 - metagovernors 134
 - public 2–4, 6–7, 12
 - reform policy 6
 - research 1
- administrative reform policy 6–8
 - debate on 7
 - revival of 5–8
- administrative silos 19, 127, 140
- administrative statesmanship 28, 34, 85
- Affordable Care Act 99
- Andersen, L. B. 32, 45–6, 48–9, 111
- Andrews, R. 31, 66, 83
- anti-bureaucratic backlash 13
- ANZSOG see Australia and New Zealand School of Government (ANZSOG)
- arms-length governance 139
- artificial intelligence 95, 99
- assumptions about human behaviour 153, 159–65, 170
- Australia and New Zealand School of Government (ANZSOG) 114
- authorizing environment 115, 117, 122, 173
- Banishing Bureaucracy* (Osborne, D. and P. Plastrik) 65
- behavioural norms 160–61
- Bertelsmann Foundation Sustainable Governance Indicators 82
- big data 91, 93, 96, 99–100, 104, 157, 163
- Blacksburg Manifesto 7, 27, 84, 152
- blockchain technology 104
- bonus wages 128
- bottom-up accountability 135
- bottom-up governance processes 125
- Bouckaert, G. 10, 55, 66–7, 74–8, 81, 88
- Bryson, J. M. 105, 111–12, 121
- budget control 146
- bureaucracy 24–6, 37, 44, 126, 151, 155, 159, 170–71, 173–4, 177–8
 - advantages and disadvantages of 35
 - aspects of 49–50
 - bashing 27
 - classical 106, 126, 155, 170, 172–3
 - classification of 29
 - critique of 31–3
 - debate and dilemmas 32–6
 - description of 24
 - empirical results 30–32
 - in Germany 25
 - governance idea 28–30
 - hierarchies of 171
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 26–8
 - managerial logic of 178
 - paradigm 156

- principles of 26
- professional rule and 51, 179
- separation of 50
- standards of 178–9
- Weberian 151
- Weber's theory of 85
- bureaucratic ethics 152
- bureaucratic governance 27
 - diamond 30
 - paradigm 29, 49
- bureaucratic paradigm 151
- bureaucratic performance 173
- bureaucratic systems 173
- bureaucratization 31–2, 69

- capitalism 64
- centralization 25, 29, 31, 33, 60, 69, 97, 130, 155, 175, 181
 - dynamics of 175
- centralized control 18
 - degree of 19, 43, 61
- centralized decision-making 155
- chain of governance 139–40
- Christensen, T. 25, 66, 76, 81, 88
- civil servants 3, 28–9, 34, 122, 151
 - professional rule by 151
- civil service ethics 78
- civil society 20, 62, 108, 110–12, 119, 127, 129, 136–7, 141, 172, 176
- classical bureaucracy 80, 136, 155, 158–9, 163, 165, 170, 172–3, 175, 179, 183–4
 - basic assumption in 161
 - sectorization of 176
- classical organizational design 182
- classical public sector values 54
- classical theories of organization 59
- clientelism 25
- Clinton, Bill 57, 64
- COCOPS (Coordination for Cohesion in the Public Sector of the Future)
 - research project 82–3
 - survey 83–4
- co-creation 80, 143, 146, 176, 183
 - of local climate solutions 140
 - network governance and 137
- partnerships and processes of 137
- platform and arena for 145–6
- processes 75, 172
 - in public sector 135
 - of public solutions 135, 147–8
 - of public value outcomes 109, 112, 138
- co-evolution 126
- collaboration
 - cross-boundary 112, 127
 - cross-cutting 144, 149
 - degree of 145
 - innovation 131, 145
 - inter-agency 62
 - multi-actor 132
 - public-private 141
- collaborative advantage 139
- collaborative governance 15, 109, 141, 183
 - impact of 145
 - networks 127
 - processes 125–6
- collaborative innovation 135, 145, 150, 176
 - emerging field of 145
 - process 150
- collaborative networks
 - face-to-face interaction in 99
 - formation of 128
- collective actors 37
- compassion 46
- competitive formal education 39–40
- competitive problem-solving strategies 138
- computers 92
- Confucianism, principles of 24
- consumer co-production 113
- contemporary public sector 84
- contracting out 35, 50, 86, 102, 126, 128, 146, 175
- Cook, B. J. 129
- coping behaviours 33
- co-production 80, 131, 143, 146, 176
 - of public goods 112–13
 - of public sector 135
 - of public services 116
 - of public solutions 143, 147
- corporate management approach 127

- corruption 25, 28, 31, 69, 71
- creative thinking 138
- crisis management 143
- Crosby, B. C. 105, 111–12, 121
- cross-boundary collaboration 112, 127
- cross-boundary coordination 61
- cross-boundary networks 140
- cross-cutting collaboration 144, 149
- cultural differences 59, 160
- cultural norms 133
- cultural theory 153
- customer-orientation 128
- cybersecurity 99, 101

- de-bureaucratization 32–3
- decentralization 60, 155, 181
 - dynamics of 175
- decision-making
 - power 172
 - principles 134
 - process 180
- DEG see Digital Era Governance (DEG)
- democracy 25, 31, 35, 77–8, 80, 86, 103, 122–3, 125, 143, 177
- democratic accountability 108
- democratic control 148
- democratic legitimacy 133–4
- demotivation of public employees 68–9
- Denmark 42, 48, 50, 56, 71, 76, 81–2, 84, 91, 94–6, 101, 137
- deregulation 13, 128
- design fit 169
- destructive conflicts 134–5, 138
- differentiation strategy 109
- digital change 93, 96–7, 104
- Digital Era Governance (DEG) 14–15, 75, 89–92, 130, 151, 155, 157, 163, 171, 176, 182–3
 - classification of 97
 - combinations of 102
 - conceptualization of 90
 - debate and dilemmas 100–104
 - degree of societal involvement 98
 - development of 91
 - elements of 90, 96
 - emergence of 89–90
 - empirical results 99–100
 - governance diamond 98
 - governance idea 96–9
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 92–5
- digital governance 94
- digitalization 3, 89–92, 103, 163, 181
 - arguments for 155
 - aspect of 177
 - ‘dark side’ of 100–101
 - developments in 93
 - growth of 103
 - of public governance 95
 - of public services 89, 99
 - study of 100
- digital rankings 103–4
- digital services 95, 102
- digital solutions 90, 103, 176
 - structure and use of 155
- digital technology 94, 130, 151, 157, 163
 - integration of 95
 - strategic use of 94
- dilemmas, types of 182
- distributed leadership 176
- dominant governance paradigm 72–3, 152
- dual closure 42
- Dunleavy, P. 9–10, 58, 66, 89–91, 96, 102
- dynamic change 12, 162

- economic basis 40, 49
- economic globalization, competitive pressures from 16
- economic incentives 28, 46, 60, 162, 175, 184
- economic profession 41
- economic stagflation 55
- education 12–13, 27–8, 38–40, 47, 57, 77–8, 95, 100, 112, 143, 161–2
- efficiency drive 58
- e-government 83, 90, 94–5, 120
- emergency response 143
- employees 149, 169–70, 174, 177

- employment
 - policy 97
 - procurement 120
- entrepreneurialism 123
- entrepreneurial leadership 59–60
- entrepreneurial public managers 109, 122–3
- entrepreneurship 162
- environmental sustainability 141
- European Citizens' Consultations (ECC) 137
- European Commission 84, 95
 - White Paper on Governance 6–7
- European Research Council 7
- European Union (EU) 137
- evaluation 65
 - Hood and Dixon 67
 - systematic 66
- evolutionary learning process 151
- exclusion 42
- executive accountability 82
- executive capacity 82

- financial sustainability 117
- formalization 27, 29, 31, 34
- fragmentation 13, 15, 61–2, 75, 90, 126–7

- German Federal Employment Agency study (Meynhardt and Metelmann) 119
- German postal system 10
- good governance 6, 35, 80–82
- Gore, A. 57, 64
- governability theory 133, 141
- governance 84–5
 - quality of 81
- governance category 82
- governance diamond 158
 - dimensions of 43
 - model 158, 159
- governance networks 102–3, 133, 140
 - processes and outcomes of 134
 - research 133
- governance paradigms 2–3, 8–9, 12, 20, 125, 150, 158, 169, 179
 - assumptions about human behaviour 159–65
 - behavioural assumptions of 160
 - 'centralized control' dimension 154
 - co-existing 2–3, 166–7, 181–2
 - comparing 153–9
 - competing 166, 182
 - development and discovery of 152
 - emerging 4
 - evolution, devolution and revolution 151–3
 - liberal-democratic 5
 - manifestations of 167
 - ranking of 154, 154
 - 'rationale' of 166
 - roles and expectations 172
 - specific constellations of 167–8
 - working logic 166
- governance research 132–3
- governmentality theory 133
- government coalition 152
- government, formal institutions of 132
- grid-group theory 153

- harmony for systems 169
- Health Insurance Act of 1883 25
- hierarchical loyalty 28–9
- hierarchy 24, 26–9, 34–5, 49, 140, 151, 154–5, 157, 177–9
- historical institutionalism 133
- homo economicus* model of social action 20
- Hood, C. 10, 54, 66, 153
- horizontal coordination 18, 141, 155
 - degree of 19, 44, 61, 97, 116–17
 - formation of networks for 97
- horizontal interagency 29, 79
- human behaviour 160–62, 169–70
 - assumptions about 161, 165
 - homo economicus* model of 164–5
 - paradigmatic stipulations about 165
- hybrid governance paradigm 163
- hybridization 12
- hybrid leaders 48, 52
- hybrid managers 79–80, 175
- hybrid professionalism 47–8

- IKEA model 118
 implicit managerialism 130 incentives 45 economic 28
 use of 18, 20, 156
 inconsistency, degree of 169 individualism 70–71
 individualization of societal risks 71 individual professionals 37, 39–45, 49 individual public managers 155 information asymmetry 38–41, 43, 56, 175 infrastructure partnerships 127
 innovation 183
 collaborative 135 partnerships 127
 service, development of 134 theories of 169
In Praise of Bureaucracy (du Gay, P.) 27 institutional barriers 128 institutional governance 167 institutionalism 17, 70, 131, 133
 institutionalization 17, 40, 136 institutional setup 159, 166, 184 institutional theory 131
 integrity 52, 80, 110, 184 intellectual skills 161
 interactive governance 125–6, 133, 139–40, 146, 148–9 inter-agency collaboration 62 interdependency theory 133, 141 intra-occupational norms 51–2 intra-organizational communications 92 intrinsic task-motivation 144 joined-up government 127 joint problem-solving 140

 Keynesian economic policy 55 knowledge 44–6, 51–3, 56, 94, 100, 102, 111–12, 114–15, 128, 130, 135, 138–40 asymmetry 38
 professional 37
 sharing 138

 Kuhn, Thomas 9
 theory of scientific paradigms 10

 labour
 division of 174
 ideal division of 170
 Lægreid, P. 25, 66, 76, 81, 88 leadership 47, 130, 176 case-based studies of 119 and management 19, 114, 130
 ‘Lean’ technologies 175 liberal democracy 126
 aspects of 125–6
 Likert scale 142

 management crisis 143
 leadership and 19, 114, 130
 performance see performance management
 professional 175, 179
 public see public management quality 175 strategic 105 value-chain 175
 managerial behaviour 160
 managerial control 162
 managerial deliberation 180 managerial dilemmas 68, 167, 181–3 managerial discretion 167
 managerialism 47–8, 52, 60, 79–80, 85, 127 managers 169, 172
 manoeuvring between paradigms 171, 173, 178–84
 Margetts, H. 9–10, 89, 91, 96, 99–100, 102 approach 90
 market-based allocation 127 market-based competition 138 market-based governance 88
 marketization 60, 85, 128, 176
 of public sector 59
 market mechanisms, introduction of 50 masculinity 70–71
 medical criteria 45

- medieval public organization 151
- mega-reform cycle 55
- megatrends, relevance of 86
- metagovernance 125, 131, 134
 - exercise of 135, 147
- Metelmann, J. 119
- Meynhardt, T. 119
- Milward, B. 84
- modernization
 - programmes 68
 - of Weberian tradition 77
- modern public managers 184
- Moore, M. H. 70, 105–6, 108, 112–15, 118, 123
 - entrepreneurial types 119
 - managerial action approach 120–21
 - for mimicking neoliberalism 122
 - notion of Public Value Management (PVM) 78
 - original formulation 117–18
 - original version of PVM 109
 - strategic triangle and approach 114
 - version of PVM 121
- multi-actor collaboration 132
- multiple governance paradigms 159
- multiple stakeholders 107
- mutual learning 138

- national culture 70–71, 161
- needs-based holism 90, 96–7, 104
- neoliberal critics 107
- neoliberalism 63, 108
 - consequences of 122
 - hegemony of 63
- neoliberal philosophers 55–6
- Neo-Weberian State (NWS) 14, 40, 74–5, 106, 130, 152, 154–7, 177
 - characteristics of 76
 - classification of 79
 - conceptualization of 74
 - debate and dilemmas 84–8
 - degree of societal involvement 80
 - descriptive term of 77
 - diamond shapes of 159
 - empirical results 81–4
 - exemplars 74
 - explicit centralization of 130
 - faith in government 78
 - features of 77
 - governance diamond 79
 - governance idea 76–80
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 76
 - international debate on 76
 - model 88
 - ‘northern variant’ of 78
 - paradigm 171
 - recommendations 78
 - theory 85
- network governance 128, 131, 138
 - and co-creation 137
 - emergence of 113
 - forms of 146–7
 - recommendation of 155
- neutrality 28
- New Public Governance (NPG) 15, 74, 125–31, 151, 153, 155–7, 159, 164–5, 170–71, 175–6, 179–80, 182–4
 - argument against 147
 - argument in favour of 147
 - background for 129
 - compatibility of 126
 - debate and dilemmas 145–50
 - development of 126, 138
 - direction of 106
 - elements of 135, 137–8
 - empirical prevalence and outcomes of 142–3
 - empirical research on 145
 - empirical results 142–5
 - governance idea 138–42
 - and governance network researchers 133
 - implementation of 149
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 131–8
 - interactive forms of governance 148
 - location of 140
 - motives and evaluation criteria of 183
 - paradigm 162, 175
 - perspectives on 136
 - prevalence of 142
 - problems and challenges 148–9

- regime-centred perspectives on 136
- scholars 132
- supporters 130
- New Public Management (NPM) 13, 54–5, 74, 105, 125–8, 151–3, 155, 157, 159, 163–5, 177, 179, 182–3
 - actual effects of 67
 - ambiguity of 62
 - ambivalent relation to 106
 - arguing against 68
 - aspects of 62
 - beliefs and values of 72
 - compartmentalization of 176
 - comprehensive application of 57
 - criticism of 68–9
 - critique of 14
 - debate and dilemmas 67–73
 - doctrinal components of 58
 - economic and managerial components of 65
 - economic component of 162
 - economic logic of 62
 - economic side of 175
 - elements of 60
 - empirical results 63–7
 - features of 58
 - fierce criticism of 103
 - focus of 127
 - fragmentation caused by 75
 - fundamental idea of 70
 - governance diamond 63
 - governance idea 58–63
 - governance paradigm 61
 - grain of 108
 - headlines of 183
 - Hood's definition of 65
 - Hood's initial article on 68
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 55–7
 - intellectual source of inspiration for 56
 - management ideas of 65
 - managerial aspect of 162, 180
 - managerialism marriage in 60
 - managerialist component of 52
 - managerial side of 179
 - marketization aspect of 58–9, 130
 - markets and managerialism 85
 - motives and evaluation criteria of 183
 - old public administration 29
 - paradigm 172, 183–4
 - performance indicators in 173
 - popularity of 85
 - positive effects of 66
 - predominance of 68
 - prescriptions 74
 - principal aspects of 59
 - principles of 64, 127–9
 - quasi-paradigm of 92
 - reaction to 175
 - reforms 55, 63–5, 67–8, 126
 - research on 163
 - revolution 6
 - scepticism towards 64
 - societal actors in 62
 - theoretical roots of 58, 68
- Noordegraaf, M. 46–8
- Nordic Administrative Reforms 83
- norm-based governance 174
- norm-based professional rule 13
- norm-guided behaviour 48
- NPG see New Public Governance (NPG)
- NPM see New Public Management (NPM)
- NWS see Neo-Weberian State (NWS)
- OGI see Open Government Initiative (OGI)
- Old Public Administration (OPA) 12
- on-the-job training 162
- OPA see Old Public Administration (OPA)
- Open Government Initiative (OGI) 137
- operational capacity 115
- opportunistic behaviour 162
- organizational capacity 15, 47, 115–16
- organizational culture 161
- organizational development theories 169
- organizational performance 120

- organizational reform 115
- organizational schizophrenia 181
- organizational strategy 106–7
- organizational structure 31
- organizational theory 92
 - basic assumptions in 169
- organized anarchy 130
- The Oxford Handbook of American Bureaucracy* (Durant, R.) 27
- paradigmatic reform programmes 3–4
- parliamentary democracy 122
- participation, dialogue-based forms of 143
- participatory selection bias 147
- pendulum metaphor 152
- pendulum swings 153, 175
- performance
 - effects on 168
 - evaluation criteria for 168
 - positive impact on 144–5
 - standards and measures of 50
- performance management 64, 75, 78, 86, 126, 139–40, 146, 163, 175–6
 - system 85, 108
 - use of 50
- policymaking 180
- policy partnerships 127
- political accountability 13–14
- political metagovernors 134
- political system 143
- Political Turbulence: How Social Media Shape Collective Action* (Margetts) 99–100
- politicians 169–71
- Pollitt, C. 10, 27, 55, 66–7, 74–8, 81, 86, 88
- power 126
 - distance 70–71
 - poststructuralist theories of 133
- predominant governance paradigm 4
- principal-agent theory 13, 56, 60, 68, 135–6
- private contractors 141
- private firms 157
 - strategic management in 105
- private organizations 126
- private sector
 - governance 16
 - management styles 54
 - management techniques 54
- private shareholders 70
- private stakeholders 125, 149–50, 159
- privatization 69–70
- problematization 132
- professional associations 45, 47, 50, 55, 62, 80, 155, 157, 174
- professional autonomy 43, 136
- professional behaviour 46
- professional bureaucracy 49
 - traditional skills of 153
- professional discretion 13
- professional education 46–7
- professional employees 162
- professionalism 44, 46–8, 52
- professionalization 77–8
- professional knowledge, valuation of 37
- professional management 175, 179
- professional norms 37–40, 44–7, 49–50, 53, 109, 155, 157, 162, 175, 182
 - and competences of 109–10
- professional quality 48
- professional rule 13, 37–8, 43–4, 72, 151, 156–9, 161–3, 165, 170–71, 174, 179
 - and bureaucracy 49, 179
 - debate and dilemmas 49–53
 - empirical results 45–9
 - governance idea 43–5
 - inspiration, theoretical positions and exemplary countries 38–42
 - knowledge element of 52
 - separation of 50
- professional standards 175, 179
- professional status 38, 51
 - level of 40
- professions
 - concept of 38
 - delegate governance to 38–9
 - identity and motivation of 46

- institutionalist sociology of 41
- internal organization of 39
- neo-Weberian sociology of 39
- sociology of 51
- traditional sociology of 37–8
- pro-social motivation 165
- PSM see public service motivation (PSM)
- public administration 3
 - challenges of 153
 - form and function of 6
 - politics 16
- public bureaucracy 12–13, 72, 77
 - alleged problems of 1
 - consequences of 56
- public choice 13, 56, 60, 68
- public decision-making 133
- public employees 13–14, 159
 - demotivation of 68–9
 - professional norms and competences of 109–10
- public governance 2, 9–11, 16, 44, 62, 85, 88–9, 103, 105, 126–7, 132–3, 145, 150, 156
 - analysis and evaluation of 5
 - aspects of 4
 - challenge for 128
 - definition, content and development of 9–18
 - democratic legitimacy of 139
 - digitalization of 95
 - dimensions of 141–2
 - efficiency of 144
 - emergence of 6
 - interorganizational view of 129 and management 1
 - marketization and contractualization of 110–11
 - ‘moving target’ of 182
 - outcomes of 108
 - paradigms 1–4
 - phases of 118
 - system of 9
 - transformations of 153
- public governance diamond 18–22, 118, 141, 153–4
 - axes of 21
 - centralized control 18
 - horizontal coordination 18
 - societal involvement 19–20
 - use of incentives 18
 - use of value articulation 18
- public interest 161
- public management 10, 69, 84, 108, 144–5
 - importance for 180
 - reform 55, 84, 86–7, 90
 - reorganization 56
 - transformation of 180
- Public Management Reform* (Pollitt and Bouckaert) 74
- public managers 6, 15, 17, 61, 67, 69, 72, 76, 78, 82, 84, 86, 88, 100, 102, 105, 108–29, 135, 149–50, 159, 179, 182
 - actions of 167
 - definition of 122
 - preferences of 110
 - style of management 123
- public organizations 107–8, 111, 113, 181
 - ability of 165
 - characteristics of 107
 - daily operations of 109–10
 - one-size-fits-all solution for 156
 - stability of 3
- public policy, influence on 132
- public–private collaboration 141
- public–private partnerships 66, 127, 129, 175
- public school system 2
- public sector 2–3, 24, 37, 54–5, 67–8, 70, 89, 91, 100–102, 107, 129–30, 139–40, 166–7, 169, 171, 176–8, 181
 - changing and overlapping paradigms 178–84
 - contemporary 84
 - context 167–8
 - contribution of 110
 - co-production and co-creation in 135
 - definition of 166
 - development of 1, 5, 12
 - features of 142

- fragmentation and
 - compartmentalization of 127
- governance 25, 96, 156
- managerial challenges within
 - paradigms 172–8
- marketization of 59
- match/mismatch between roles in
 - 169–72
- motivation and competences of 145
- parts and levels of 2
- performance management in 135–6
- public sector reform 1, 5–6, 13,
 - 16–18, 55–6, 65–6, 68, 83–5,
 - 102, 120, 166
- public service 53, 102, 108–9, 112,
 - 128, 135, 155
 - co-production of 126
 - digitalization of 89
 - individual professional providers of
 - 45
 - professionals in 37
 - strategic management in 105
- public service motivation (PSM) 46,
 - 52, 111, 120, 125, 128
- public service production 136–7, 151
- public solutions, co-producers of
 - 129
- public value 105, 112, 114–15,
 - 123–4
 - articulation of 117–18
 - concept of 109
 - consensus about 122
 - formulations 117
 - governance 105–6, 111
 - outcomes 109, 113, 172
 - production of 15, 106, 108–10, 112
 - propositions 115–16, 164
 - research on 110
 - solicitors of 124
 - strategic pursuit of 113
 - study of 110
- Public Value Management (PVM) 3,
 - 14–15, 105–9, 116–17, 119–20,
 - 151, 155–7, 164–5, 171, 177
 - achievement of 107
 - collaborative governance approach
 - to 111–12
 - debate and dilemmas 120–24
 - development of 106
 - diamond shapes of 159
 - elaborations of 106
 - empirical results 119–20
 - favourable conditions for 114
 - framework 121
 - governance diamond for 116, 118
 - governance idea 114–18
 - inspiration, theoretical positions
 - and exemplary countries
 - 109–14
 - managerial perspective of 113
 - original development of 113
 - perspective objects 105
 - public leadership based on 114
 - public value outcome in 173
 - relevance and impact of 120
 - stakeholder perspective in 157
 - status of 106, 120–22
 - understanding and analysing 112
- PVM see Public Value Management (PVM)
- quality management 175
- ‘quality of democracy’ category 82
- rational choice institutionalism 133
- rational choice theory 131
- reaffirmation 77
- Reagan, Ronald 6, 55, 64, 107
- re-budgeting 115
- red tape literature 32
- reformulation 149
- regulated self-regulation 143–4
- regulative bargain 51
- reintegration 90, 96
- Reinventing Government* (Osborne and Gaebler) 64
- reinventions 12
- relational governance 132–3
- relational systems of concepts 11
- representative democracy 80
 - Weberian notions of 83
- research-based education 39–40
- research-based organizations 1
- research communities 76
- resource 129

- coordination of 134
 - mobilization 138, 148
 - strategic mobilization of 129
- Rhodes, R. A. W. 121–2, 153, 171
- risk aversion 70–71
- ruled-based governance 27
- rules 24–9, 31–5, 44, 49, 51, 81, 108, 131, 143–4, 151, 157, 161, 163–4
- salary systems 60
- schizophrenic organization 181
- schools 129
- sectorization 174
- self-evaluation 43, 143
- self-interested utility optimizers 156
- service-delivery systems 143
- service partnerships 127
- service production 126–7, 150, 180
- service quality, drivers of 128–9
- shadow of hierarchy 140
- shareholders
 - private 70
 - profits by 107–8
- sharing power 180
- Sillince, J. A. A. 34
- silos 61, 127, 139–40, 155
- situational interpretation 131
- socialism 64
- socialization 162
- social media 91, 93–4, 104
 - policy 93–4
 - practices 100
 - role of 99–100
- social reality 158
- social science 152
- social security 71
- social support networks 146
- societal involvement 19–20, 156–7
- society 168
- sociological institutionalism 133
- sociology of professions 39
- specialization 31
- stakeholders 1, 32, 107, 111–12, 117–18, 168, 172–3, 183
- state-crafting 86–7
- stateness 42
- stewardship theory 136
- strategic development 180
- strategic management theories 105, 109, 111, 169
- strategic triangle 115–16
- street-level bureaucrats 33
- structural coupling 126
- structural differentiation 176
- systematic evaluations 66
- systems theory 126
- tax payments 101
- technological change 89–90, 92
- technological innovations 90
- theology 37
- third-order governance 9, 134
- top-down government, hierarchical
 - model of 132
- transformational leadership 19, 120
- Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index 81
- Trilateral Commission 55
- trust-based learning processes 138
- trust-based self-organization 149
- unanimity 169
- urban development partnerships 127
- value articulation 80, 117
 - use of 18–19
- value-chain management 175
- value congruence studies 120
- value propositions 119
- value systems of politics 177–8
- Wanna, J. 121–2, 171
- Weberian bureaucracy 3, 5, 77, 151
 - characteristics of 28
- Weberian notions of representative democracy 83
- Weber, M. 10, 26–8, 151
 - analysis of bureaucratic organization 153
 - bureaucracy model 12
 - model of bureaucracy 85
 - theory of bureaucracy 85

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Western democracies 55 | Wilsonian bureaucracy 5 |
| Westminster model 113–14, 122 | work environment 181–2 |
| wickedness of problems 128 | workplace well-being 144 |
| willing hybrids 47–8 | world economy 1 |