

Acknowledgements

A number of people deserve recognition for their help with parts of this book. My thanks are due to my research assistant, Anna Nowak, who has provided helpful research and has been an excellent person to discuss various State aid issues with. My thanks also to Sachin Nair and Charlotte McNally, who have been of great help in getting the chapters into shape. Other colleagues and friends have provided useful comments along the way on parts of the book or on never-published articles which ended up becoming part of the book. I am grateful for comments from Professor Stephen Weatherill, Professor Giorgio Monti, Dominic Robertson, Adrien Giraud, Conor Quigley QC and Dimitrios Kyriazis. If I have forgotten anyone, I sincerely apologise. Any propensity to misuse the English language or any other mistakes are mine alone.
