

Acknowledgments

I would like to specially thank Professor Peter Hay, my professor and mentor, for his countless hours of reflecting, reading, encouraging, and most of all patience, throughout the entire process of researching and writing this book. This book would not have been possible without his insightful comments and academic support. I also wish to thank Professor Richard Freer and Professor Paul Zwier, who were also generous with their expertise and precious time in commenting on my work.

I would like to use this opportunity to thank all my teachers and professors who planted the seeds of knowledge in me during my K-12, Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral degrees.

I am grateful to my family and friends, with a special feeling of gratitude to my beloved parents, Ali and Sedigheh, whose words of encouragement still ring in my ears. They have been my best cheerleaders. Thanks to my grandparents for keeping me always in their prayers. My brother, Masoud, has never left my side and is very special.
