

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
About the cover image	ix
1 Framing the spatial dimension of social imaginaries	1
2 Concept 1: social imaginaries and space	14
3 Case 1: competing imaginaries of nature in Yosemite	29
4 Concept 2: state imaginary of territory	39
5 Case 2: England at the time of the Tudors and Stuarts, or the self-representation of the modern state	70
6 Case 3: science and state imaginary in colonial Indochina	80
7 Concept 3: the singularity of the national imaginary	89
8 Case 4: nationalist rhetoric of space and of time in Paris, Washington and some other places	112
9 Concept 4: post-national political imaginaries of space	129
10 Case 5: post-national imaginary of New York Italianness	160
11 Case 6: post-national imaginaries of nature	168
12 Epiphany: Leviathan at the border	178
Bibliography	185
Index of concepts	203
Index of names	207