

Figures and tables

---

FIGURES

2.1	Information and incentives	20
2.2	Opportunism and contracts with asset specificity	27
2.3	An application of social control to the cryptoeconomy	34
4.1	Institutional economics and institutional cryptoeconomics	56
5.1	Tokens as deity	87
5.2	Cryptocurrencies in the dictatorship–disorder trade-off	89
5.3	High-frequency barter vs money exchange	93
6.1	Basic model of supply chain identity information	101
6.2	Production chain	110
6.3	Broadcast chain	113
6.4	Platform chain	114
6.5	The relationship between supply chain models and ledgers	116
7.1	U-form organisation	123
7.2	M-form organisation	123
7.3	V-form organisation	127
7.4	A spectrum of trust on a supply chain	132

TABLES

2.1	Williamson's contracting processes	25
3.1	Economic goods and their governance mechanisms	39
3.2	Blockchain economic characteristics	40
3.3	The new economic institutions of capitalism	43
3.4	Blockchains as constitutional protocols for catalactic ordering	44
4.1	The evolution of economic thought	55
4.2	Characteristics of a perfect ledger	61
5.1	Is money a public good?	80
6.1	Trust and models of information sharing in supply chains	105
7.1	Models of logistics in- and outsourcing	129
8.1	Degrees of crypto-friendliness	143
9.1	A historical dynamic of the supply and demand for policy	155