ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Andrew Keay is Professor of Corporate and Commercial Law at the University of Leeds and is a barrister practising from Kings Chambers and 9 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn. He has published widely on both corporate governance and insolvency law, including Board Accountability in Corporate Governance (Routledge, 2015) and McPherson and Keay's Law of Company Liquidation (5th ed, Sweet and Maxwell, 2021). His work has been cited in many superior courts including the UK Supreme Court, the Privy Council, the High Court of Australia and the NZ Supreme Court. He holds several editorial posts including Commonwealth editor of Gore-Browne on Companies and an editor for Bankruptcy and Personal Insolvency Reports.

Peter Walton is Professor of Insolvency Law at the University of Wolverhampton. He has published widely on all aspects of insolvency law. His work has been cited judicially overseas and domestically including by the UK Supreme Court. His research has been cited in UK Parliamentary debates and been the subject of two House of Commons Early Day Motions. He co-authors a number of student and practitioner texts and is an editor for Bankruptcy and Personal Insolvency Reports. He sits on both of the UK's principal insolvency law technical committees. He currently leads INSOL International's Global Insolvency Practice Course.

Joseph Curl QC is a barrister practising at 9 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn. He specialises exclusively in insolvency and restructuring and has appeared in many reported cases. He was appointed a Deputy Insolvency and Companies Court Judge in 2020 and Queen's Counsel in 2021. Between 2018 and 2021 he was an elected member of the Council of R3 and continues to sit on the R3 Technical Committee. He is one of the general editors (with Louis Doyle QC and Professor Andrew Keay) of Doyle, Keay and Curl: Annotated Insolvency Legislation published by LexisNexis (10th edn, 2021).