

Acknowledgements

Over the last two decades it has been my privilege and pleasure to work with many inspiring anti-corruption compliance professionals who are dedicated to implementing robust programmes and ethical practices in their organizations. In connection with this book I would particularly like to thank the following for their insights, experiences and discussions on some of the knotty questions in this field: Isabel Cane, Vincenzo d'Imperio, Hentie Dirker, Fernando Dyer, Penelope Eberhart Freeman, Karen Eryou, Ulrich Grauert, Regina Hoermanseder, Gamini Jayasinghe, Jessica Kaplan, Florian Lair, Cecilia Müller Torbrand, Martin Petrovic, Meinhard Remberg, Michael Silverman, Oscar Solorzano and Laurie Waddy. For sharing their anti-corruption legal expertise on the national laws of France, USA, Peru and Malaysia, my thanks go to Emmanuel Breen of Laurent Cohen-Tanguy Avocats, Matteson Ellis of Miller & Chevalier, and Caesar Loong of Raslan Loong, Shen & Eow. For her excellent editing skills and cheerfulness at all times I am most grateful to my colleague Monica Guy, although all errors and omissions are mine alone. Gretta Fenner, the Managing Director of the Basel Institute on Governance, has kindly encouraged this book. And finally, my deepest thanks to my husband Sergio Aiolfi and our sons Fabian and Philip for all their support and kindnesses.
