

Index

---

Added to a page number 'f' denotes a figure and 't' denotes a table.

- accountability, ECB 36
- accumulation effects 150–52
  - quantifying 158–9
- Agenda 2000* 131, 132
- agenda setting power, ECB 115–18
- agreements, EMU 121–2
- anti-equilibrium monetary policies 24–5, 27
- anti-monde*
  - integration assessment 153
  - for investment 151
  - asymmetric shocks
  - differing economies and institutions 59, 108
  - disagreement over monetary policy 107
  - exchange rate policy 19–20, 21
  - fiscal policy 37
  - impact of EMU 4–5
  - product mix diversity 22
- Australia, gross public debt 90t
- Austria
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - foreign labour 73t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - wages (1985–96) 75t
- Balassaa-Samuelson effect 139
- bank drafts, Scandinavia
  - agreement (1905) 51–2
  - clearing arrangement 50–51
- banking sector, transition economies 135
- banking supervision 35–6
- banknotes, Scandinavian clearing arrangement 51
- bargaining process, ECB decisions 119
- Barro-Gordon model 26–8
- Belgium
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - GDP, removal of German fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - labour market institution 74t
  - migration (1985–95) 72t
  - wages (1985–96) 75t
- Bretton Woods system 3
- budget deficits
  - convergence criteria 2
  - fiscal policy 36–9
  - Italy, Spain and Portugal 81–2
  - reductions, EU countries 82
  - restrictions on 32
- Bulgaria, exchange rate regime 133
- Bundesbank 32, 92, 104, 108
- Bundesbank Council 119
- business, single currency 3
- Canada
  - core inflation 139
  - exports as % of GDP 59t
  - gross public debt 90t
- capital movements, during Scandinavian union 54
- central banks
  - clearing arrangement, Scandinavia 50–51
  - independence 31–2
  - see also* European Central Bank; European System of Central Banks; national central banks
- centralised model, tendering 93
- Chile, exchange rate and inflation targeting 141

- clearing arrangement, Scandinavian central banks 50–51
- cohesion, social and national 101–2
- coinage, Scandinavian Union 50
- collective bargaining 74t
- collective fiscal retrenchment 88–9
- Community Unemployment Fund 98
- commuters, Germany 72
- comparative advantage, integration 157
- consumption, short-term interest rates 63
- convergence 100
  - interest rates 83
  - transition economies 139–41
  - see also* Maastricht convergence criteria
- core inflation, Canada 139
- cost-benefit analysis, monetary integration 28
- crawling peg exchange rates 133, 135
- credibility 27, 42, 134
- currency boards 135
- customs union, Scandinavian 52–3
- Czech National Bank 138, 139
- Czech Republic, exchange rates 133, 134, 141

- debt see public debt
- decentralised model, tendering 93
- deflation 34–5
- Delors Committee 42, 99, 100, 101
- demand effects, German fiscal shock 62, 63f, 64t
- Denmark
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - shadowing the euro 35
  - wages (1985–96) 75t
  - see also* Scandinavian Currency Union
- Deutsche mark, appreciation of 61
- devaluation 100
- developing countries
  - flexible exchange rates 22–3
  - quantifying integration effects 156
  - distributive model, tendering 93
- Duisenberg, President 117

- East Germany, transfers to 66–7

- Eastern European economies 131–42
  - convergence 139–41
  - exchange rate regimes 132–3
  - exchange rate targeting 134–6
  - inflation targeting 136–9
  - integration with EU economy 131
  - monetary policy 132
  - price stability 132
  - structural adjustment 131–2
  - timetable for EU membership 131
- ECB see European Central Bank
- Economic Policy Council (EPC) 122, 123–4
- economists
  - consequences of EMU 84–6
  - meeting of Scandinavian 48, 49, 52
- employment
  - EMU challenge 39–41
  - see also* unemployment rates
- endogenous trade policy 147–8
- equity values, exchange rates changes 135
- ERM see Exchange Rate Mechanism
- Estonia, exchange rate regime 133
- euro
  - Eastern European economies 131–42
  - external value of 35
  - world currency 42
- Euro-zone 4, 5
- European Central Bank (ECB)
  - credibility 27
  - employment 41
  - mission of 32–6
  - monetary policy decision making
    - agenda-setting power 115–18
    - deciding with large majorities 118–19
  - determinants of voting 105–8
  - voting games 108–12
  - voting in repeated sessions 112–15
  - price stability 3, 104
  - relationship with NCB's 104–5
  - undemocratic nature of 5, 36
  - uniform monetary policy 1–2
- European Community Budget 96–102
- European Investment Bank (EIB) 101–2

- European Monetary Union (EMU) 1–5
  - community budget 96–102
  - comparison with
    - German Monetary Union 64–75
    - Scandinavian Currency Union 52–4
  - effects on the real economy 144–60
  - monetary policy 104–24
  - paradoxical progress towards 81–6
  - policy challenges 31–42
    - employment 39–41
    - fiscal policy 36–9
    - formal construction 31–2
    - mission of the ECB 32–6
    - political economy of 86–94
- European Parliament (EuP) 36, 118
- European Payments Union (1950) 86
- European System of Central Banks (ESCB) 92–4
  - discipline of fiscal behaviour 81
  - EPC 123–4
  - monetary policy 104–5
- ex ante* estimates, quantifying integration 153
- ex post* estimates
  - quantifying integration 153–4
  - trade prices 158
- Excessive Deficit Procedure 37, 39
- Exchange Rate Mechanism
  - convergence criteria 2
  - ERM-2 arrangement 35, 141
  - fixed exchange rates 62
- exchange rates
  - changes in 100
  - developing countries 22–3
  - ECB, commitment on 35
  - effects on economy 41
  - Europe (1990) 65f
  - financial markets 135
  - need for realignment, GEMU 61
  - niGEM 62
  - pro-equilibrium role 18–21
  - targeting
    - combined with inflation targeting 140–41
    - transition economies 134–6
    - transition economies 132–3
    - see also* fixed exchange rates
- expectations-augmented Phillips curve 23–6
- exports
  - Denmark 54
  - diversity of, and adverse shocks 22
  - integration effects 155–6
    - as % of GDP 59t
- external allies, ECB agenda setting 117–18
- external relations 11–13
  - EMU and rest of the world 144–60
  - Euro and Eastern European economies 131–42
- externalities, of EMU on fiscal policy 120–21
- factor mobility 20–21
- feasible currency areas 22
- Federal Reserve System (US) 92, 108, 117
- financial institutions
  - asymmetric shocks 59–60
  - conflict between national and supranational 55, 56
  - employment 41
- financial markets, exchange rate regimes 135
- Finland
  - adjustments for EU membership 136
  - banking crisis, exchange rate change 135
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
- fiscal policy
  - convergence criteria 2, 4
- EMU
  - challenges for 5, 36–9
  - co-ordinating monetary policy and 119–24
  - GEMU comparison 66–7
  - interaction between monetary policy and 105
- fiscal retrenchment, collective 88–9
- fiscal shock, Germany 61–2, 63f, 64t
- fixed exchange rates 3, 21, 62
- fixed-rate dollar standard 86–7
- foreign direct investment 65, 70–71
- foreign labour 73
- foreign trade 53

- France
- channels of monetary policy 41t
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - FDI (1985–95) 71t
  - foreign labour 73t
  - GDP
    - exports as % of 59t
    - removal of German fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - labour market institution 74t
- free trade, Denmark 53
- free-rider problem, Scandinavian Union 50
- Friedman-Phelps Phillips curve 24
- GDP
- annual growth rates, Europe 75t
  - community budget as % of 99
  - government financial balances as % of 82t
  - gross public debt as % of 90t
  - per capita
    - adjusted for purchasing power parities 65, 66t
    - at constant price and exchange rates (1990) 64–5
  - ratio of investment to
    - Europe (1985–95) 71f
    - Germany (1991–97) 70f
  - removal of fiscal shock
    - Europe 64t
    - West Germany 63f
- German Monetary Union (GEMU) 47, 48, 58–76
- creation of 60–64
  - EMU compared to 64–75
- Germany
- channels of monetary policy 41t
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - FDI (1985–95) 71t
  - foreign labour 73t
  - GDP
    - exports as % of 59t
    - removal of fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - inflation (1952–97) 34f
  - labour market institution 74t
  - migration (1985–95) 72t
  - gold francs 49
  - gold shipments 51
  - gold standard 3, 54–5
- Greece
- government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - shadowing the euro 35
- growth pact see Stability and Growth Pact
- Heckscher, Eli 55
- historical precedents 7–9
- German Monetary Union 58–76
  - Scandinavian Currency Union 47–54
- housing markets, interest rates 62–3
- Housing New Zealand 138–9
- Hungary, exchange rates 133, 135–6
- hysteresis, labour markets 40
- immigrants, West Germany 60
- imperfect competition, integration effects 148–50
- EMU 152
  - quantifying 156–8
- income, regional inequality 96–7
- inflation
- anti-equilibrium monetary policy 26–7
  - convergence criteria 2
  - Europe, (1980–98) 33f
  - exchange rate targeting 134
  - Germany (1952–97) 34f
  - opportunistic approach 140
  - price stability 32–5
  - targeting
    - combined with exchange rate targeting 140–41
    - transition economies 136–9
  - unemployment 23–6
  - uniformity of 83–4
- information, ECB agenda setting 116
- institutional framework, co-ordination in EMU 121–3
- instrument choice, monetary policy 117

- integration
  - decomposition of welfare effects 145–52
  - European 1–5
  - quantifying effects 152–9
- intellectual history, monetary integration 17–18
- interest rates
  - convergence of 83
  - effects on economy 41
  - GEMU 61
  - housing market 62–3
  - monetary policy differences 107–8
  - uniform 1–2
- intermediate targets, monetary policy 116–17
- internal balance, monetary integration 23
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 87
- investment
  - effects of EMU 150–51, 152
  - see also* foreign direct investment
- Ireland
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - FDI (1985–95) 71t
  - foreign labour 73t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - migration (1985–95) 72t
- Italy
  - channels of monetary policy 41t
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - fall in risk premia 83
  - fiscal deficits 81–2
  - GDP
    - exports as % of 59t
    - removal of German fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - labour market institution 74t
  - migration (1985–95) 72t
- J-curve 100
- Japan
  - exports as % of GDP 59t
  - gross public debt 90t
- karoliners 49
- kroners 50
- labour markets
  - asymmetric shocks 108
  - German unification 74–5
  - hysteresis 40
  - institutions, Euro Area 73, 74t
  - policies, Germany 69
  - reforms 73–4
- labour mobility
  - asymmetric shocks 4–5
  - EMU and Germany 72–3
  - lack of 40
- labour productivity, Germany 67–8
- Länderfinanzausgleich 98
- Landeszentralbanken 117
- Latin Monetary Union 47, 48
- Latvia, exchange rate regime 133
- Lithuania, exchange rate regime 133
- loans, regional development 102
- long-term Phillips curve 24
- Maastricht convergence criteria (MCC) 2, 4
- Maastricht Treaty 32, 66
- MacDougall Report 96
- McKinnon and Kenen 21–3
- macroeconomic goals, transition countries 133
- macroeconomic policies, ECB 42
- market-preserving federalism 93–4
- Marshall Plan 86, 89
- MCC see Maastricht convergence criteria
- Mercosur, integration effects 159
- migration, as % of labour force (1985–95) 72t
- monetary policy 104–24
  - anti-equilibrium 24–5, 26–7
  - channels of, in Europe 41t
  - decision making in the ESCB 105–19
  - EMU
    - challenges for 5
    - coordinating fiscal policy and 119–24
  - loss of control over 4
  - optimal currency areas 58–9
  - transition countries 132
  - uniform 1–2, 4

- monetary transmission mechanisms 106, 107
- monetary union
  - intellectual pre-history 17–29
  - see also* European Monetary Union; German Monetary Union; Scandinavian Currency Union
- money illusion 20, 28
- money targeting 137–8, 141
- moral hazard
  - banking supervision 36
  - fiscal transfers 67
- multicommodity partial equilibrium estimate, integration 155–6
- MULTIMOD 61
- Mundell 18–21

- national central banks (NCBs)
  - institutional identities 92
  - open market operations 93
  - relationship with ECB 104–5
  - voting on monetary policy 105–6
- National Institute Economic Review 60
- National Institute Global Econometric Model 62
- national propensity to inflation (NPI) 24
- national views, monetary policy 106
- NCBs see national central banks
- Net Inflation 139
- Netherlands
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - foreign labour 73t
  - GDP, removal of German fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - labour market 74
  - migration (1985–95) 72t
  - wages (1985–96) 75t
- New Zealand, inflation targeting 137–8
- NiGEM see National Institute Global Econometric Model
- non-participation 5
- non-tradeables, inflation targeting 139
- Norway
  - gross public debt 90t
  - see also* Scandinavian Currency Union
- Open Market Investment Committee (OMIC) 108
- open market operations 92, 93
- optimum currency areas
  - McKinnon and Kenen 21–3
  - monetary policy 58–9
  - Mundell 18–21
- output effect 146, 149

- per capita incomes 96–7
- perfect competition, integration effects
  - 146–7
  - quantifying 154–6
- peso problem 134
- Phillips curve 23–6
- Poland
  - exchange rate regime 133
  - FDI (1985–95) 71t
  - policy challenges, EMU 31–42
  - policy consequences, EMU 9–11
  - policy tastes 23, 25
  - political economy, of EMU 86–94
- Portugal
  - EMU membership and budget deficit (1998) 38f
  - FDI (1985–95) 71t
  - fiscal deficits 81–2
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - preference dilution 148
  - price stability 3, 32–6, 104, 132, 134, 137
  - price-cost margin, output effect 149
  - price-wage flexibility 4–5, 21
  - prices, inflation targeting, New Zealand 138–9
  - privatization, banks 135
  - pro-equilibrium role, exchange rates 18–21
  - product mix diversity, currency areas 21–3
  - productivity levels 64, 65f
  - protectionism, Sweden 53
  - public debt
    - collective fiscal retrenchment 89
    - convergence criteria 2
    - Europe and US comparison 90t, 91t
    - explosion 86–8
  - public expenditure 96, 98

- public finances, % of nominal GDP 82t public opinion, external allies 117–18
- quantitative estimates, integration
152–9
- rational expectations 26–8
reference value, monetary developments
104
Reserve Bank of New Zealand 137–8
rest of the world (RoW), and EMU 144–60
rigsdaler 49
risk premia, budget tightening 83
The Role of Public Finance in European Integration 96
- scale effect 146, 149–50
Scandinavian Currency Union
(1875–1914) 50–52
background to 47–9
compared with EMU 52–4
Scandinavian Economic Meeting (1872)
48, 52
short-term interest rates, consumption 63
short-term Phillips curve 26
silver/gold price 55
single currency see European Monetary
Union
Single Market Programme (SMP) 65,
66
Slovakia, exchange rates 133, 134
Slovenia, exchange rate regime 133
SMP see Single Market Programme snake-in-the-tunnel system 17
soft loans 102
Spain
channels of monetary policy 41t
EMU membership and budget deficit
(1998) 38f
fall in risk premia 83
FDI (1985–95) 71t
fiscal deficits 81–2
foreign labour 73t
GDP
exports as % of 59t
removal of German fiscal shock
64t government financial balance
(1993–98) 82t
gross public debt 90t
labour market institution 74t
migration (1985–95) 72t
speciedaler 49
spill-overs, national fiscal policies 120, 121 stability council 89
Stability and Growth Pact
budget deficits 2, 32, 37–9
policy co-ordination 121
use of fiscal policy 40, 67
steady-state gains, common currencies 85 strategy choice, ECB agenda setting 116–17
structural adjustment, Eastern European economies 131–2
structural policies 42
Subcommittee on Economic and Financial Affairs (EuP) 118 supply-side policies 41
Sweden
channels of monetary policy 41t
government financial balance
(1993–98) 82t
gross public debt 90t
shadowing the euro 35
see also Scandinavian Currency
Union
- tendering, by central banks in open-market conditions 92
terms of trade effect 146, 147, 154–5 theoretical considerations 6–7 monetary integration, intellectual pre-history 17–29
policy challenges, EMU 31–42
time consistent equilibrium 26 trade, Scandinavian union 52 trade costs effect 146, 147 trade prices, ex post estimates 158 trade union density 74t trade volume effect 146, 147
transfers, to East Germany 66–7 transition economies see Eastern European economies transition to EMU, viability of 85
- unanimity, ECB decisions 118–19
unemployment benefits 73, 74t

- unemployment rates
  - double digit 32
  - Europe (1980–98) 33f
  - Germany (1991–97) 69, 70f
  - inflation rates 23–6
  - see also* employment
- United Kingdom
  - channels of monetary policy 41t
  - GDP
    - exports as % of 59t
    - removal of German fiscal shock 64t
  - government financial balance (1993–98) 82t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - inflation targeting 140
  - labour market institution 74t
  - shadowing the euro 35
- United States
  - exports as % of GDP 59t
  - gross debt as % of GNP 91t
  - gross public debt 90t
  - labour market institution 74t
  - market for state and municipal bonds 93
  - open market operations 92
- variety effect 146, 150
- voting, monetary policy 105–15
- wages
  - Europe (1985–96) 74, 75t
  - Germany (1991–97) 68t
  - growth rates 75t
  - see also* price-wage flexibility
- wages illusion 22
- Wallenberg bank 54
- welfare effects, integration 145–52
- Werner Report 17
- West Germany, immigrants 60