

Index

- Abitur* 151, 296–7
absenteeism 320, 339
Acciones Integradas programme 200
Ackroyd, S. 317 age
 and earnings 231–5, 243–5
 and employment 26, 47–9, 107–14, 120–23, 153, 154, 155, 156, 165,
 167, 178, 186, 187, 188, 189,
 190, 219–24, 226, 237–8, 240, 253–4, 257, 327 characteristics of part-time employment in Spain and UK by age and sex 176–7, 178–9 agriculture
 numbers employed in 255 part-time working in 179, 182 temporary working in 213
AKU (labour force survey – Sweden)
 255
Albert, C. 178
Allfinanz strategy 298
Allison, P.D. 12, 151, 153, 161, 162, 168
Alvarez, F. 199
Alwin, D. 81
annualized working hours 28, 72, 284, 302, 303, 304
annual leave entitlement 27, 208, 209, 211, 257
Anxo, D. 5, 6, 18, 47, 70, 71, 74, 77, 79, 81, 82–3, 251, 253, 256, 258,
 263–4, 286, 318
AP-HP (Assistance Publique Hôpitaux de Paris) 329, 343 apprenticeships 3, 295–7, 300, 307, 313
Arber, S. 3, 55
Arrindell, W.A. 344
Atkinson, A. 150
attrition 8, 200
Aubry Act 17, 54, 64, 71, 72, 260
Audit Commission 324
Australia, job tenure in 38
Automated Teller Machines (ATMs)
 298, 301
Avenel, C. 35
Averitt, R.T. 290
Bach, S. 321
Bae, H. 82, 149
Baglioni, G. 73
Bailey, R. 319, 344
banking sector competition from non-banking organizations 289, 292, 293, 294, 296, 298, 300, 301–2, 310, 312 convergence in strategies adopted in 281 deregulation of 301, 313 direct banking services in 277 employers' objectives and transitions
 in 271
 enterprise culture effect in 261 exclusionary transitions in 312 integrative transitions in 277, 305–8, 312–13
 labour market segmentation in 12, 13, 14, 52, 149, 152, 164, 166, 294–313
 see also internal labour markets maintenance transitions in 308–10, 313 opening hours in 301–4 private, mutual and savings banks 314 solidaristic transitions in 278 technology changes in 289, 292, 293, 298, 301
 telephone banking 294, 297–307, 310–11, 312
 training for employees in 294–300, 307, 309, 313
 voluntary and involuntary working time in 274

- working time reductions and lifestyles of employees in 265, 266, 267, 269
- 'bank' nurses 326–9, 333
- Bankö 262, 265, 266, 267, 271, 274, 277, 278
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 285
 - principal characteristics of 283
- Barclays Bank 295
- Baret, C. 179
- Bartlett, W. 321
- Bastelaer, A. 95, 129
- Beck, U. 54
- Becker, G. 146
- Béhar, P. 72
- Bentolila, S. 213
- Berger, S. 148
- Bettio, F. 50, 176, 179
- Bienefeld, M.A. 26
- black economy 175, 246
- Blank, R. 15, 129, 139, 147, 154, 157, 158, 229
- Blossfeld, H.-P. 45, 160, 161, 162, 168
- Bobine 265–9, 272, 274–6
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
- Bock, G. 28
- Boje, T. 49
- Bollé, P. 173
- Boltanski, L. 32
- Bolton, S. 317
- Bosch, G. 25, 27, 28, 32, 51, 67, 179
- Bothfeld, S. 3, 15, 44, 61, 67, 75, 77, 79, 135, 146
- Bouffartigue, P. 317, 322
- Boulin, J.-Y. 54, 67, 72
- Bourdieu, P. 27
- Boyer, R. 71, 73
- Bradshaw, J. 97
- Brannen, J. 229
- breadwinner systems see male-breadwinner model
- breaks, compulsory 211
- Britain see United Kingdom
- British Household Panel Survey (BHPS) 133, 140, 144, 153
 - analysing data from 162, 168
 - censored data from 139–40, 142, 161–2, 163
 - methodology of 159–60
 - observation period 160–61
- Buchan, J. 326, 344
- Büchtemann, C.F. 230, 232
- building societies 296, 301, 303, 310
- Burchell, B. 39, 157–8
- Burgess, S. 39
- cadres* 32–3
- call centres 299–300, 302–7, 310–11, 312
- Canada, job tenure in 38
- Canary Islands
 - probability of working part-time in 225, 242
 - transition patterns in 189, 191
- capitalism 26–7, 51
- Cappelli, P. 290
- career breaks 148, 308–10, 313
- car industry 51
- Carroll, M. 298
- Casey, B. 49
- cash-wage nexus 78
- Castel, R. 34, 37
- Catalonia, probability of working part-time in 225, 242
- catering industry, part-time working in 179
- CBS-Statline 320, 323
- Cebrián, I. 12, 72, 77, 81, 176, 177, 186, 223, 228, 246
- censored data 139–40, 142, 161–2, 163
- Centre for Surveys, Methods and Analyses (ZUMA) classification 149
- CES 179
- Cette, G. 72
- CFDT (Confédération Française Démocratique du Travail) 262, 282
- CGT (Confédération Générale du Travail) 282
- chambers of commerce 299–300
- Chevandier, C. 320
- child benefit 178
- childcare responsibilities
 - attitudes to 263–4, 266, 276–7, 278
 - and earnings 235–6, 243

- and employment 9, 11, 15, 18, 79–84, 85, 97, 101, 102, 108–18, 120–23, 134–5, 149, 150, 153–8, 165, 167, 176, 178, 186, 187, 188, 190, 191, 198–9, 219–24, 226–8, 238, 240, 241, 263–4, 274–5, 276–7, 278, 340
- facilities to assist with 16, 18, 25, 41, 45, 49–50, 54, 81, 83, 85, 94, 101, 103, 116, 132, 134–5, 149, 155, 158, 178, 198, 223, 238, 263, 303, 341
- see also* parental leave
- children, statistical definition of 186
- CHU (Centre Hospitalo-Universitaire) 336, 343
- cities, numbers employed in 123
- citizenship rights 35, 36, 43, 73, 79, 99, 207
- clerical and secretarial occupations
 - in banking 295–8, 300, 308
 - earnings in 231, 233, 243–5
 - in health-care sector 328
 - probability of working part-time in 225, 240, 242
 - transition patterns for 187, 188, 190
- Clinicö 265, 267–71, 273, 276, 278
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 285
 - principal characteristics of 283
- collective bargaining 30, 41, 50, 62–3, 71–2, 158, 207, 210–11, 212
- in banking sector 300, 301–4, 310–12, 313
- compared with individual agreements 275–81
- decentralization of 28, 30, 39, 51, 64–7, 74, 208, 251, 260–61, 280
- and distribution of working-time patterns 63–7, 84
- in health-care sector 317–21, 324–6, 330, 334–7, 339, 342
- neocorporatism 70, 72, 76, 256, 259, 278
- percentage of workers covered by 86
- pluralist 70–71, 76
- wage bargaining 74, 260
- see also* externally constrained
 - voluntarism; negotiated flexibility; trade unions
- competing risk models 151
- Conditions of Employment Act (Ireland, 1933) 222
- construction industry
 - numbers employed in 254–6
 - temporary working in 213
- contestation 70
- continuous measuring 9, 10
- contracts of employment see employment contracts
- cooperation between public-private partnerships 132, 157, 158
- Corby, S. 321
- corporate lending 298
- corporatist-style solidaristic agreements 75–6
- corporatist welfare regimes 78, 134
- Cousins, C. 33, 73, 133, 147, 149, 176, 222, 246
- craft and related occupations
 - probability of working part-time in 225, 228, 242
 - transition patterns for 188, 190, 191
- Crompton, R. 298
- cross-national comparisons 5–7, 42–3, 45, 46–7, 206
- Crouch, C. 17, 42, 70–71, 72, 74, 76, 133, 256
- cultural beliefs 222
- customer-service only outlets 305
- Cutler, T. 321
- Das, M. 102
- Daune-Richard, A.-M. 74, 77, 81–2, 149, 253, 286
- decommodification, degree of 78, 93, 129
- Dekker, R. 102
- de Koning, J. 1, 55
- Delsen, L. 3, 29, 44, 81, 135, 173
- demographic trends 176
- Denmark
 - employment insecurity in 39
 - extended leave in 49, 54
- dental clinics see Clinicö
- dentists 319, 328
- Department of Health (DOH)
 - Statistical Bulletin* 323
 - Working for Patients* (1989) 320
- Department of Health and Social Security (DHSS)

- Inquiry into NHS Management (The Griffiths Report)* (1983) 320
- derived rights 79
- Detzel, P. 292
- de Valera, Eamon 222
- Dex, S. 40, 45, 50, 182, 223
- Directorate-General for Science, Research and Development (DGXII) 1
- D'Iribarne, P. 343
- disability pensions 100
- disabled persons 103–4, 127–8, 147, 177, 189
- discontinuously permanent contracts 211–12
- discrimination gender 222, 311
and social exclusion 34, 35, 36
- dismissal costs of 175, 213
protection from unfair 209
- distribution, hotels and catering sector
probability of working part-time in 225, 241
transition patterns in 149, 152, 155, 164, 166
see also catering industry; hotel/ personal/security occupations; hotels and restaurants
- distribution of working time 63–70, 72, 74, 77, 79, 84–5, 95–9, 102, 111, 116, 120–23, 258
- division of labour, social 36
- doctors 319, 323, 328, 329, 332 junior doctors' working hours 324–5 temporary 326, 329
- Doeringer, P. 147, 290, 294
- Dolado, J.J. 213
- domestic services earnings in domestic service occupations 231–3, 235, 243–5 probability of working part-time in domestic service occupations 225, 227, 228, 241 provision of, under different regimes 5–6
- domestic work, allocation of 265–6, 278–9
- Doris, A. 228, 229
- Doudeijns, M. 3, 40, 83, 149, 150
- Driessen, J. 344 dual-earner households 79–82, 277–8, 332
- Dumazedier, J. 268
- Durieux Agreement (1991) 284, 336
- Durkheim, E. 26
- Dutch Socioeconomic Panel 104, 127–8 descriptive statistics for 120, 122
methodology of 118–19
'dynamic unemployment' 40
- earnings of bank employees 298, 300–304, 306–7, 311 female gross hourly wages by transition status and working-time category in Ireland and Spain 12, 177, 229–30 analysing wage differences 230–37, 238–9, 243–5
nurses' 335, 336
overtime premiums 27, 28, 179, 211, 271, 273, 301–4, 311, 338 of temporary workers 213 trade-off between free time and 268, 273, 274, 279, 285, 326
wage bargaining 74, 260
- economic growth 161
- Economist, The* 76
- education and training access to 337, 338
costs of 292
and earnings 231–5, 243–5
effect on employment 9, 11, 15, 16–18, 40, 44, 45, 50, 52, 54, 107–15, 117, 120–23, 133–4, 146–7, 151–2, 155, 156, 158, 164, 166, 176, 186–90, 219–24, 226, 228, 237–8, 240, 295–7, 336 expansion of 178
gender differences in 97, 117, 120–23, 146 leave for 41, 263, 295, 309 needs 17–18 probability of working part-time in education industry 225, 227, 241 systems 15, 46, 47, 48, 50, 105, 112, 133–4, 142, 147, 154, 253, 254, 263

- for bank employees 294–300, 307, 309, 313
 - transition rates to/from 125–8, 135, 141–2, 147, 151, 189
 - see also* teachers
- EIRR 67, 70, 72, 77, 86
- elective affinities 71
- electronics firms 12
 - employers' objectives and transitions in 271, 272
 - voluntary and involuntary working time in 274, 275
 - winning transitions in 276–7
 - worker involvement in 262
 - working-time reductions and life-styles in 265–9, 275
- Elias, N. 26, 51
- Elias, P. 186
- Elvander, N. 100
- 'employability' 40–42
- employee-choice theory 146–7, 151, 154, 164, 166, 176, 290
 - see also* education and training; work experience, previous
- employers' incentives 17, 54, 71
- employers' objectives 252, 269–73, 275, 284–5, 309
- employers' organizations 260, 318–19
- employment career, information on 160
- employment contracts 28–9, 30, 36, 41, 62, 74, 210
 - discontinuously permanent 211–12
 - distribution of employees by contract status and full- and part-time work in Spain and UK 175–6
 - and distribution of working-time patterns 63, 66
 - government-sponsored, for young workers 287
 - part-time 211–12
 - temporary see temporary employment
 - type of, and transition patterns 185, 186, 189, 192, 193, 198, 210
- employment dynamics and working-time transitions 135–9
- employment insecurity 38–40, 53, 150, 175
- Employment Relations Act (UK) 200
- employment-status stability 11, 142–5, 157, 162, 168, 192–7, 198, 215–23
 - and earnings 234–5, 237, 239
- Employment Survey (Ministry of Labour and Employment, France) 255
- empowerment, individual 132, 157, 158
- engineering firms 12
 - employers' objectives and transitions in 270, 271, 273
 - voluntary and involuntary working time in 275
 - working-time reductions and life-styles of employees in 265, 266, 267, 269
- enterprise culture effect 261
- Entrepö 265, 266, 267, 269, 270, 271, 273
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 285
 - principal characteristics of 283
- entry model approaches 9, 10–11
- EPA (labour force survey – Spain) 8, 9, 174, 175, 177, 181, 183, 184, 186, 189, 191, 192, 193, 194
 - advantages and disadvantages of 200
 - structure and content of 199–200
- Equal Opportunities Commission 295
- Esping-Andersen, G. 5, 42, 47, 50, 78, 93, 129, 134
- ESRI (Economic and Social Research Institute (Ireland)) 246
- estimation methods 9, 11–12
- Estryn-Behar, M. 330
- ethnic background, and employment 107–11, 113–15, 120–23
- European Commission 39, 75, 223, 343
 - Directives of 66, 70, 75, 86, 208, 318
 - Directorate-General for Science, Research and Development (DGXII) 1
 - and social exclusion 33
- European Community Household Panel (ECHP) 8, 9, 10, 12, 207, 213–14, 234, 239–40
 - advantages and disadvantages of 207
- European Labour Force Survey (ELFS) 8, 135, 137, 199
- Eurostat 68, 70, 118, 179, 214, 222, 236, 257, 259
- EU Working Time Directive 66, 86, 208

- exclusionary transitions 4, 15, 42, 61, 65, 140
 in banking 312
 in Germany 140–41, 145, 152–3, 155–7, 166–7, 312
 in Netherlands 104–6
 in Sweden 104–6
 in UK 140–41, 145, 152–3, 155–7, 164–5, 312
- exit model approaches 9, 10–11
- extended families 178, 179
- extended leave 25, 49, 54, 275
see also sabbaticals
- external labour markets 148
- externally constrained voluntarism 6–7, 66, 70, 75–6, 84, 134, 318
- Eyraud, F. 47
- Fagan, C. 4, 6, 29, 44, 45, 49, 50, 54, 61, 70, 73, 77, 80, 82, 83, 86, 146, 149, 155, 159, 176, 180, 299
- Faichnie, C. 303
- family networks 81
- Felstead, A. 29
- females average working hours of 258 career breaks for 148, 308–10, 313 characteristics of part-time employment in Spain and UK by age 176–7 childcare responsibilities and employment of 79–84, 85, 97, 101, 108–12, 116–18, 120–23, 149, 153–8, 165, 167, 178, 198–9, 219–24, 226–8, 238, 240, 241, 263–4, 340, 341
 distribution of employees by contract status and full- and part-time work in Spain and UK 175–6 earnings of see earnings educational attainment level of 117, 120–23, 146, 151–2, 155, 156, 157, 158, 164, 166, 219–24, 226, 228, 231–5, 237–8, 240, 243–5 employment distribution by sector 254–6 employment-status stability for 144–5, 157, 162, 168, 192–7, 198, 215–23, 234–5, 237, 239
- factors explaining probability of being in various employment states 107–12, 116–17, 120–23, 218–28, 237–8, 240–42
- job tenure of 39, 49, 181, 193, 198, 234, 239, 245
- leisure activities of 266
- net return of female employment on disposable household income 82–3
- participation rates for 6–7, 29, 74, 77, 78, 79, 82, 94–5, 97, 100, 103, 106, 116, 120–23, 137–8, 146, 174, 176, 178, 191, 206, 215, 222–3, 237, 253
- part-time employment rates contrasted with other labour market indicators 137–8
- part-time workers in health-care sector 322–4, 327–8, 331–2, 335
- political recognition of 262–3
- reasons for part-time working by 177, 180
- recruits into banking 295, 297–8
- trajectories out of and into part-time work by reason of working part-time 194–7
- transition rates and patterns for 15–16, 49–50, 64–6, 101, 104–6, 113–18, 126, 128, 135, 145, 151–9, 164–7, 182–5, 194–9, 215–18, 237
- unemployment benefits received by 100, 154, 156
- unemployment rates for 97, 100, 120–23, 137–8, 156, 256–7
- welfare regimes and employment of 78–9, 82–4, 85, 97–103, 149–50, 154, 156, 158, 176
- working-time distribution for 67–70, 77, 79, 95–7, 98–9, 111, 116, 120–23, 258
- Fennell, C. 209
- Ferrera, M. 175
- Finland
 extended leave in 54
 household employment structures in 146
 job tenure in 38

- firm size
 and labour market segmentation 148–9, 152, 154, 156, 164, 166, 213, 290
 and probability of working part-time 225, 228, 242
 and transition patterns 9, 148–9, 152, 154, 156, 164, 166
- fiscal principle 41
- Five-Year Employment Act (France) 271
- fixed-term contracts see temporary employment
- flexible coordination 132, 157, 158
- ‘flexible’ economies, ideal types of societal time in 30–31
- flexible working hours 17, 25, 28, 303
- Flood, L. 82–3, 258, 263–4
- FO (Force Ouvrière) 282
- food processing industry 12
 employers’ objectives and transitions
 in 271, 272
 voluntary and involuntary working time in 275
 winning transitions in 276
 working-time agreements in 261 working-time reductions and lifestyles of employees in 265, 266, 267, 269
- food retail-trade sector 51–2
- Fordism (Taylorism) 4, 27, 30–31, 47, 48, 52–3
- forward rotation of working hours 325
- France attitudes to children in 263–4, 266 cadres in 32–3
 childcare provision in 263
 educational attainment levels in 336
 education system in 253, 254, 263
 employers’ incentives in 17, 54
 employers’ objectives and transitions
 in 252, 269–73, 275, 284
 employment distribution by gender in 254–6 employment distribution by sector in 254–6
 employment insecurity in 39
 female participation rates in 7, 77, 253 household and individual transitions
 in 274–9
 household employment structures in 80 industrial relations in 7, 64, 67, 70–72, 73, 86, 251, 259–62,
 275–81, 282, 318, 319–20, 330, 334, 336
 internal labour markets in 47
 job tenure in 38
 legal rights for part-time employees in 77 male participation rates in 253
 parental leave in 18, 49
 part-time employment rates in 259
 policy orientation in 64, 72, 280 political recognition of women in 262–3 public and private sector comparisons
 in 280–81
 qualitative approach used for 13
 retail sector in 52
 social exclusion in 34–6
 statist flexibility in 64, 71–2, 73, 318
 statutory regulation of working time
 in 17, 54, 64, 67, 71–2, 251, 257, 260
 unemployment in 16, 39, 62, 64, 71–2, 133, 251, 256–7, 260, 336
 union density rates in 86, 259–60, 261, 262, 319, 330
 welfare system in 73, 271
 working-time distribution in 64, 67–9, 72, 74, 77
 working-time reductions in 17, 54, 62, 64, 67, 71–2, 251, 257–8, 260, 284
 and lifestyles 264–9 working-time transitions and employment statuses in health-care sector in 317, 319–27, 329–31, 334, 336–7, 339–40, 342, 343
see also health-care sector
- franchising 29
- Franco (Bahamonde), Francisco 176, 222
- freelance work 29
- fringe benefits 307
- ‘full employment’, lifetime conceptualization of 4, 40–41, 42, 61, 205

- Gaillard, A. 264
- Galicia, probability of working part-time in 225, 242
- Gallie, D. 39–40
- García-Serrano, C. 175
- Garrido, L. 200, 201, 222, 223
- Gazier, B. 1, 3, 16, 33, 40, 41, 61, 254, 314
- gender equality, working-time flexibility to promote 65, 273, 278, 285
- gender regimes and labour market transitions 26, 49–50
- gender segregation 157–8
- German Socio-Economic Panel 133, 140, 144, 153
- analysing data from 162, 168
- censored data from 139–40, 142, 161–2, 163
- methodology of 159–60
- observation period 160–61
- Germany
- annual growth in full- and part-time employment in 136–7
- banking sector in see internal labour markets
- childcare provision in 134, 155
- educational attainment levels in 147, 155, 156
- for banking recruits 296–7
- education and training system in 15, 133, 142, 147, 154
- for bank employees 295, 296–7, 299–300, 307, 309, 313
- employers' incentives in 17
- employment system in 133
- female employment rate in 138
- female participation rates in 78, 82, 138
- female part-time employment in 138
- household employment structures in 79–82, 146, 153, 332
- industrial relations in 6, 65, 67, 70, 73–4, 300, 302, 304, 311, 312, 313
- job tenure in 38
- male employment rate in 138–9
- male part-time employment in 138–9
- maternity leave in 134, 147, 149
- negotiated flexibility in 65, 73
- parental leave in 18
- policy orientation in 65, 74, 134
- quantitative approach used for 8, 9, 10–11
- retail sector in 52
- service-sector employment in 78
- statutory regulation of working time in 65
- survival analysis of full- and part-time episodes in 142–5, 157, 162, 168
- tax system in 82–3, 134, 155
- transition rates and patterns in 15, 50, 65, 135, 140–42, 145, 151–9, 166–7
- unemployment in 15, 16, 40, 62, 74, 138, 139, 304
- union density in 86
- wage differentials in 230, 232
- welfare system in 6, 16, 18, 74, 79, 82, 134–5, 154, 332
- working-time distribution in 65, 67–70, 74, 77
- working-time reductions in 17, 62, 65, 67, 74
- Gershuny, J. 55
- Giddens, A. 29
- Ginn, J. 3, 55
- globalization 46, 51
- Goodin, R.E. 332
- Gore, C. 34, 37, 40
- Granovetter, M. 180
- Gregg, P. 40, 75, 80, 82, 140, 149–50, 155, 178
- Gregory, A. 51
- Griffiths Report (1983) 320
- Grimshaw, D. 47, 292, 299, 300, 321, 324
- Gustafsson, S. 82–3, 101–2, 129, 134, 149
- Hakim, C. 45, 49, 140, 228
- Hall, P. 67
- Halpin, B. 160
- hazard rate 151, 153, 162, 168
- HBV (Handel, Banken und Versicherung) 311
- health-care sector
- convergence in strategies adopted in 281
- employers' objectives and transitions in 270, 271, 273

- integrative transitions in 278
- internal labour markets in 12, 52, 317, 326
- matching-needs transitions in 279
- occupational groups in 261
- probability of working part time in 225, 241
- solidaristic transitions in 278
- voluntary and involuntary working time in 274, 275
- winning transitions in 276
- working-time reductions and life-styles in 265–9
 - composition of workforce 322–4
 - Dutch case-study 343
 - workforce 331
 - working-time arrangements 331–2
 - French case-study 343
 - workforce 329–30
 - working-time arrangements 330–31
- industrial relations traditions
 - compared 318–19
- internal decision-making processes and procedures 332–5, 341–2
- labour market conditions and working-time arrangements 335–7, 341
- quality and evaluation of working-time transitions and employment statuses 337–41
- recent policy initiatives 320–22
- regulation of employment in health-care sector 319–20
- UK case study 342
 - workforce 327–8
 - working-time arrangements 328–9
- working-time policies and practices 324–7
- health insurance, private 207
- health visitors 319
- Heckman, J. 12
- Hemerijck, A. 74, 78, 102, 319
- Hirdman, Y. 146, 262
- Hirsch, W. 308
- Hoffmann, R. 54
- Hoffmann, S. 72
- Hofstede, G. 344
- holiday entitlements 27, 208, 209, 211, 257
- Hollingsworth, J.R. 51, 70
- Holst, E. 82, 168
- Hôpital 261, 265, 266, 267, 269, 273, 274, 275, 278
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
- horizontal career progression 299
- hotel/personal/security occupations
 - transition patterns for 188, 190
 - see also* hotels and restaurants
- hotels and restaurants
 - probability of working part time in 225, 241
- see also* hotel/personal/security occupations
- household employment structures
 - childcare responsibilities and 79–84, 85, 149, 176, 178
 - and probability of working part time 224, 227, 241
 - and transition patterns 9, 11, 53, 146, 149–51, 153, 155, 165, 167, 177–8, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190
 - welfare systems and 40, 76, 78–9, 82–4, 85, 149–51, 176, 178, 187, 189, 332
- household head, relation to 186–90
- household income
 - net return of female employment on 82–3
 - and probability of working part time 214, 224, 227, 241
 - transfer payments based on 40
 - and transitions 9, 11, 150, 153, 155, 165, 167
- household panel surveys 8, 9, 94, 103, 118–19
 - analysing data from 162, 168
 - censored data from 139–40, 142, 161–2, 163
 - observation period for 160–61
 - see also* British Household Panel Survey (BHPS); Dutch Socio-economic Panel; European Community Household Panel (ECHP); German Socio-Economic Panel; HUS

- (Household Market and Non-market Activities)
- housekeeping, transitions to/from 105–6, 115, 125–8, 146
- Hübinger, W. 150
- human-capital theory 146–7, 151–2, 154, 164, 166, 176, 290
see also education and training; work experience, previous
- Humphries, J. 28, 159
- HUS (Household Market and Non-market Activities) 104, 121, 123, 125–6 descriptive statistics for 121, 123
 methodology of 119
- 'ideal types' 30–31, 51–2
- IDS 321
- income principle 41
- incomes
 household see household income information on 118, 119, 207, 214 sustainable 132, 157, 158
see also earnings
- individual agreements, compared with collective agreements 275–81
- individual taxation 16, 82, 99–103, 116, 178
- individualization 54, 99–100, 103, 116, 118, 257
- industrial classification systems 149
- INSEE (Institut National de la Statistique et des Etudes Economiques) 323
- Institute of Bankers 295
- integration regimes 37
- integrative transitions 3, 14–15, 19, 41, 43, 53, 61, 64, 65, 66, 139–40
 in banking 277, 305–8, 312–13
 characteristics required to support 132–3, 157, 158 employers' objectives and 270–72
 in France 270–72, 277–8
 in Germany 141–2, 145, 151–5, 157–8, 166–7, 305–8, 312–13
 in Netherlands 104–6 in Spain 185, 198–9
 in Sweden 104–6, 270–72, 277–8
 in UK 141–2, 145, 151–5, 157–8, 164–5, 185, 198–9, 305–8, 312–13
- internal labour markets (ILMs) 44, 47–8, 147–9 in banking in Britain and Germany 12, 13, 14, 52, 149, 294–313 incentives for and barriers to the development of transitional labour markets 310–12, 313 integrating new forms of labour 305–8, 312–13 maintaining employment continuity: leave and reduced hours arrangements 308–10, 313 recruitment, training and promotion 294–8, 299–300, 307
 telephone banking 294, 297–307, 310–11, 312 working-time reorganization 301–5 growth of non-standard employment and breakdown of 292–3
 in health-care sector 12, 52, 317, 326
 internal coherence assumed in 290
 'justified' and 'unjustified' 290–91 transitional labour markets and 292, 305–13 see also labour market segmentation
- International Labour Organization standards 86
- International Standard Industry Classification (ISIC) 149
- involuntary part-time working 274–5, 281
 and earnings 235–6
- Ireland
 childcare provision in 83, 223, 238
 discriminatory legislation in 222
 educational attainment levels in 16–17, 219–24, 226, 228, 231–5, 237–8, 240, 243–5
 employment insecurity in 39
 employment-status stability in 215–23, 234–5, 237, 239
 externally constrained voluntarism in 75–6 factors explaining probability of being in various employment states in 218–28, 237–8, 240–42
 female gross hourly wages by transition status and working-time category in 12, 177, 229–30

- analysing wage differences 230–37, 238–9, 243–5
- female participation rates in 6, 77, 206, 215, 222–3, 237
- foreign multinationals in 76
- household employment structures in 79–81, 83, 224, 227, 241
- incidence of female part-time working in 218
- industrial relations in 66, 70, 75–6, 207, 208
- involuntary part-time working in 235–6
- job growth in 15
- job tenure in 234, 239, 245
- legal rights for part-time employees in 208–9
- part-time earnings in 177
- policy orientation in 66
- quantitative approach used for 8, 9, 11
- statutory regulation of working time in 66, 75–6, 208–9
- transition rates and patterns in 15, 66, 215–18, 237
- unemployment benefits in 209
- unemployment in 6, 39, 206
- welfare system in 18, 207, 209
- working-time distribution in 66, 77
- Italy
 - birth rate in 50
 - female participation patterns in 50
- IWD 299, 300
- Japan
 - employment insecurity in 38
 - job tenure in 38
- Jencks, C. 34
- Jimeno, J.F. 213
- Jobert, B. 286
- 'jobsearch' variable 187, 190, 191
- job tenure 9, 38–9, 49, 119, 121, 180–81, 186, 187, 188, 193, 198
 - and earnings 234, 239, 245
- job-to-job mobility 140
- Joint Labour Committees 208
- Kalleberg, A. 229
- Katz, H. 51
- Kergoat, D. 320
- Kirsch, J.-L. 19
- Kolb, J. 156
- Kruppe, T. 54
- Labit, A. 51
- labour force surveys 8, 9, 129, 323, 324
 - advantages and disadvantages of 200
 - structure and content of 199–200
 - see also* AKU (labour force survey – Sweden); EPA (labour force survey – Spain); European Labour Force Survey (ELFS); UK labour force survey
- labour hoarding 48
- labour market conditions 335–7
- labour market flow data, usefulness of 43–4, 45, 54
- labour market regulation, degree of 13, 28, 45, 47, 51–2, 173, 175–6, 206–7, 313
- labour market segmentation 32–3, 35, 44, 147–9
 - firm size and 148–9, 152, 154, 156, 164, 166, 213, 290
 - and wage inflation 213
 - see also* internal labour markets
- labour turnover, in banking 299–300, 306, 307, 312–13
- Lallement, M. 4, 28, 32, 51, 61, 67, 71, 73, 82
- Lane, C. 42, 46, 47
- Lanot, G. 102
- Laux, R. 199, 200
- Lázaro, N. 177, 179, 223
- Lefèvre, G. 32
- Leira, A. 49
- leisure activities, effect of working-time reductions on 266–8
- Lessors, J. 330
- LEST (Laboratoire Economie et Sociologie du Travail) 46
- LET (Ley del Estatuto de los Trabajadores) 180, 199, 210–12
- Lewis, J. 27, 79
- Lewis, S. 33
- liberalism 35–6, 43, 134
- liberal welfare regimes 78
- life-cycle approach 3
- lifelong working time 303–4
- lifestyles, effect of working-time reductions on 264–9, 275, 279, 281

- factors affecting 264
 - use of non-working time 265–8
 - value of time and alternation between work/non-work 268–9
- life-table analysis 144, 162
- LO (Landsorganisation Sverige) 260, 283
- local authorities 12
 - employers' objectives and transitions in 272, 273
 - matching-needs transitions in 279
 - regulatory functions of 259
 - solidaristic transitions in 278
 - voluntary and involuntary working time in 274
 - winning transitions in 276
 - working-time reductions and life-styles in 265, 266, 267, 268, 269
- location decisions, for call centres 305–6
- Loi Aubry* 17, 54, 64, 71, 72, 260
- Loi Robien* 17, 72
- longitudinal panel data see household panel surveys
- Lynch, I. 209
- Macran, S. 162, 223
- Madrid
 - probability of working part time in 225, 242
 - transition patterns in 189, 191
- Maier, F. 180, 298, 311, 314
- maintenance transitions 3–4, 16, 41, 43, 53, 133, 140
 - in banking 308–10, 313
 - employers' objectives and 270–73
 - in France 270–72
 - in Germany 141–2, 145, 157, 308–10, 313
 - in Netherlands 104–6
 - in Sweden 104–6, 270–73
 - in UK 141–2, 145, 157, 308–10, 313
- Mairie Centre 266, 267, 272, 273, 278
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
- male-breadwinner model 6, 16, 27–8, 31, 53, 74, 77–84, 97–9, 103, 118, 134, 146, 155, 176, 178, 198
- males
 - characteristics of part-time employment in Spain and UK by age 177, 178–9
 - childcare responsibilities and employment of 102, 108–12, 116, 117, 120–23, 187, 188, 190, 191
 - distribution of employees by contract status and full- and part-time work in Spain and UK 175–6
 - educational attainment level of 117, 120–23, 187, 188, 189, 190
 - employment distribution by sector 254–6
 - employment-status stability for 192–7
 - factors explaining probability of being in various employment states 107–12, 120–23
 - job tenure of 39, 181, 187, 188, 193
 - leisure activities of 267
 - occupational status of 187, 188, 190, 191
 - parental leave taken by 263
 - participation rates for 95, 120–23, 253
 - part-time working by 3, 15, 29, 44, 81, 95, 102, 104–5, 109–10, 112, 117, 135, 142, 173, 175–6, 178–9, 180, 259
 - contrasted with other labour market indicators 138–9
 - in health-care sector 322–4, 327–8, 331
 - reasons for 177, 180, 189, 190
 - trajectories out of and into part-time work by reason of working part time 194–7
 - transition rates and patterns for 104–5, 125, 127, 135, 140–42, 145, 182–5, 187–92, 194–7
 - unemployment benefits received by 100
 - unemployment rates for 97, 120–23, 138–9, 257
 - working-time distribution for 67–70, 77, 96, 98–9, 111, 116, 120–23
- Malo, M.A. 213
- managerial and professional occupations
 - part-time employees in health-care sector 328

- probability of working part time in 225, 240, 242
transition patterns for 188, 190
see also professional and technical occupations
- manufacturing sector decline in 76
earnings in 231, 233, 235, 243–5 employers' objectives and transitions
in 270–71
foreign multinationals in 76
numbers employed in 121, 138, 254–6
probability of working part time in 225, 240, 241
transition patterns in 149, 152, 155, 156, 164, 166, 188
voluntary and involuntary working time in 281
- marital status
and earnings 235, 243
and employment 9, 107–15, 120–23, 153, 165, 167, 219–21, 224,
226–8, 238, 240
- market failures 36
- Marry, C. 133
- matching-needs transitions 19, 279
- maternity benefits 101, 149
- maternity leave 39, 100, 101, 134–5, 147, 209, 308
- Maurice, M. 5, 42, 46, 47, 51, 133
- McCulloch, A. 40, 182
- McGinnity, F. 17, 75
- McLaughlin, E. 178
- McRae, S. 50
- means-tested benefits 178, 187, 189, 209–10, 212
- Mekanö 261, 265, 266, 267, 270, 271, 275 arrangements for restructuring working time in 285
principal characteristics of 283
- men see males
- metal industry 12, 52
- Meulders, D. 29
- midwives 319, 322–4, 327–8
- Mikrozensus 137, 168
- military service 147, 151
- mining industry, probability of working part time in 225
- Moltó, M.L. 176, 178
- monopoly paradigm 35, 36, 43
- moral community 35, 36
- Moreno, G. 12, 77, 176, 200, 228, 246
- Morris, L. 150, 155
- Morris, T. 310
- Mosley, H. 1, 54, 55
- multi-entry points, in banking 295–6
- multinomial logit analysis 9, 10, 11–12, 94, 106–18, 185–92, 200, 219–28, 240–42
model specification 119, 124
- Municipö 265, 268, 269, 272, 273, 274, 276, 278, 279
arrangements for restructuring
working time in 285
principal characteristics of 283
- Mutz, G. 40
- National Health Service (NHS)
numbers employed in 322–3 trusts 320, 321, 326, 327–9, 333–9, 342
- national insurance contributions 18, 76, 79, 82, 85, 100, 134, 148, 180,
209–10, 212, 271
- negotiated flexibility 6–7, 64, 65, 70, 73–4, 84, 102–3, 318–19, 341–2
- negotiated orders 13
- neocorporatism 70, 72, 76, 256, 259, 278
- Netherlands
childcare provision in 83, 101, 116, 223, 341
educational attainment levels in 16–17, 97, 107–15, 117, 120, 122
employment insecurity in 39 factors explaining probability of being in various employment states in 106–12, 116, 120, 122
female participation rates in 7, 74, 94–5, 97, 116, 120, 122
household employment structures in 79–81, 83, 146, 332
industrial relations in 6, 7, 65, 70, 73–4, 86, 318–19, 320, 325, 326, 335, 337, 341–2
job growth in 15, 32
job tenure in 38
legal rights for part-time employees in 78

- male participation rates in 120, 122
- negotiated flexibility in 6, 65, 73, 318–19, 341–2
- net return of female employment on disposable household income in 82–3
- policy orientation in 65–6, 102
- public sector employment in 122
- quantitative approach used for 8, 9
- statutory regulation of working time in 65–6, 325
- tax system in 82–3, 99–100, 101, 102
- transition rates and patterns in 45, 65, 103–6, 112–18, 127–8
- unemployment in 39, 78, 97, 100, 102, 120, 122
- union density in 86, 320, 335
- welfare system in 16, 74, 78, 82–3, 93, 97–103, 332
- working-time distribution in 65–6, 70, 77, 95–7, 98–9, 102, 111, 116, 120, 122
- working-time reductions in 65
- working-time transitions and employment statuses in health-care sector in 317, 320–27, 331–2, 334–5, 337, 340–43
 - see also* health-care sector
- work-sharing in 32
- Newspell 160
- night working 208, 260, 266, 267, 269, 270, 271, 274–5, 277, 302, 326
 - by nurses 261, 265, 273, 277, 279, 282, 284, 322, 324, 326, 328–31, 334, 335, 336, 338, 339–41
- NIVEL (Netherlands Institute for Primary Health Care) 323
- non-wage costs 179–80, 280
- non-working time
 - individual control over 269
 - use of 265–8
- NOW '91 trade union 320, 343
- nurses 282
 - 'bank' nurses 326–9, 333
 - group cohesion among 261, 267
 - internal decision-making processes and procedures for 332–5, 341–2
 - labour market conditions for 335–7, 341
 - leisure activities of 266, 267
 - night working by 261, 265, 273, 277, 279, 282, 284, 322, 324, 326, 328–31, 334, 335, 336, 338, 339–41
 - part-time employment rates for 322–4, 327–8, 330, 332
 - pay determination for 319, 321
 - quality and evaluation of working-time transitions and employment statuses of 337–41
 - working hours of 324–6, 328–9, 330–31
 - see also* 'nurses' movement'
 - 'nurses' movement' 320, 330, 334
 - nursing homes 331–2, 343
 - NZI (Institute for Research, Information and Training in the Care Sector (Netherlands)) 323
 - observation periods, choice of 160–61
 - occupational effect 261
 - occupational groups 13, 261
 - occupational insurance 209
 - occupational labour markets (OLMs) 48
 - occupational status 9
 - and earnings 231–4, 239, 243–5
 - and probability of working part time 225, 227–8, 240
 - and transitions 186, 187, 188, 190, 191
 - O'Connell, P.J. 1, 17, 55, 75, 154, 206, 207, 209, 210, 222, 292
 - O'Connor, P. 223
 - O'Donoghue, C. 102
 - OECD 3, 15, 19, 38, 39, 40, 44, 86, 95, 96, 99
 - Optech 262, 265, 267, 271, 272, 276–7
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
 - optometrists 328
 - ordinary least squares, analysing wage differences using 12, 230–37
 - O'Reilly, J. 3, 4, 5, 6, 15, 17, 18, 19, 43, 44, 47, 61, 62, 67, 70, 75, 77, 79, 86, 133, 135, 146, 159, 168, 176, 180, 206–7, 251, 256, 297, 299, 310, 318, 330
 - organizational principle 41
 - organizational restructuring 17

- Orloff, A. 78
- OSA (Organization for Strategic Labour Market Research (Netherlands)) 323
- Ostner, I. 79
- overtime premiums 27, 28, 179, 211, 271, 273, 301–4, 311, 338
- overtime working 72, 211, 257, 260, 286, 328, 329, 334
- Painfrais 261, 265, 266, 267, 269, 271, 272, 275, 276
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
- paper industry, wage bargaining in 260
- paradigms of social exclusion 35–7, 42–3, 134
- parental leave 18, 41, 42, 49, 53–4, 85, 94, 101, 116, 149
 - in Sweden 15–16, 18, 45, 49, 79, 94, 100–101, 103, 106, 108, 110, 111, 114, 116, 117–18, 263
- partial likelihood Cox regression
 - analysis 9, 11–12, 133, 151, 158
 - model formula for 168
 - partial likelihood coefficients 151, 153, 164–8
- Paugam, S. 34
- pauperism 33–4
- pay-related welfare states 207, 209, 212
- pensions 31, 49, 86, 99, 100, 109, 209–10, 212–13
 - income from 224, 227, 241
 - private 207
- Pérez-Díaz, V. 175
- performance-related pay 298, 307
- Pfau-Effinger, B. 74, 81, 83, 146, 149, 155
- pharmacists 328
- philanthropic movements 27–8
- Pichault, C. 101
- Piore, M. 147, 148, 290, 294
- Pitrou, A. 264
- Plantenga, J. 102
- Polachek, S. 290
- postal services 52
 - convergence in strategies adopted in 281
 - employers' objectives and transitions in 271, 272
 - integrative transitions in 277
 - matching-needs transitions in 279
 - solidaristic transitions in 278–9
 - voluntary and involuntary working time in 274–5
 - working-time reductions and lifestyles of employees in 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 275
- Poste 265, 266, 267, 268, 271, 272, 274–5, 277, 278–9
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 - principal characteristics of 282
- Postö 264, 271, 278
 - arrangements for restructuring working time in 285
 - principal characteristics of 283
- Pouvoirs* 319
- poverty line 150
- poverty relief 134
- primary sector
 - numbers employed in 121
 - transition patterns in 149, 152, 155, 164, 166, 188
- private employment agencies 176
 - nursing 326
- private households, part-time working in 179, 182
- private insurance market 207
- private property, access to 266
- privatization 317
- productivity increases, working-time flexibility and 252, 270–71, 272, 284–5
- professional and technical occupations
 - earnings in 231–3, 243–5
 - see also* managerial and professional occupations; technicians and associated professionals
- professional employment, expansion of 29
- professional organizations 259, 294–5, 319
- proportionality principle 211, 213
- public administration
 - earnings in 231, 233, 235, 244–5
 - probability of working part-time in 225, 227, 228, 240, 241

- public sector
 numbers employed in 78, 122, 123, 134, 254, 258
 pay freeze in (UK) 321
 probability of working part-time in 225, 227, 228, 242 rights for employees in 102
 transition patterns in 186, 187, 188
 working-time reductions and life-styles of employees in 267, 269, 281 see also health-care sector; local authorities; postal services
- Quack, S. 46, 230, 232, 295, 296–7, 311
- qualifications see education and training
- qualitative approaches 12–14
- quantitative approaches 7–8 types of data 8–9 types of measurement 9, 10 types of transition patterns observed 9, 10–11 types of variables and estimation methods used 9, 11–12
- Ragin, C.C. 5, 207
- Rainbird, H. 48
- Ranade, W. 320
- rationality assumption 290
- redundancies 209, 303, 304, 308–9, 312, 321
- regional differences in probability of working part-time 225, 242 in transition patterns 187–9, 191
- regional hospital agencies 321
- religious movements 27–8
- republicanism 35–6, 43
- rest days 208, 211, 284, 340
- retail sector comparative analysis of 51–2 concentration of part-time workers in 179 legislation in 75, 208, 301 structure of firms within 179
see also sales occupations
- retirement, transitions to/from 2, 29, 47, 48–9, 105, 112, 114, 117, 125–8, 141, 147, 151, 253, 258
- programmes to assist with 3, 42, 49, 65, 67, 109, 134, 142, 275, 304, 309, 327
- Reynaud, J.D. 13
- Rifkin, J. 54
- Robien Act 17, 72
- Robin, J.M. 102
- Rodgers, G. 34, 43, 44, 149, 176
- Rodríguez, J.C. 175
- Rohwer, G. 160, 161, 162, 168
- Room, G. 33, 34
- Rose, M. 46
- Rosenfeld, R. 229
- Rottman, D.B. 207, 209, 210
- Rubery, J. 28, 29, 32, 42, 44, 45, 46, 47, 49, 50, 51, 54, 62, 83, 86, 134, 148, 149, 159, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 290, 292, 293, 294, 298, 303
- Ruivo, M. 77, 82, 149
- rural economies, ‘ideal types’ of societal time in 30–31
- sabbaticals 17, 41, 49, 303
- SACO (Sveriges Akademikers Centralorganization) 283
- safeguarding jobs, working-time flexibility and 252, 269, 270, 272, 273, 275, 284, 309
- SAF (Swedish Employers’ Federation) 260
- Sainsbury, D. 42, 74, 78, 79, 93, 97, 100, 101, 129
- Salais, R. 27
- sales occupations
 earnings in 231, 233, 243–5
 probability of working part time in 226, 228, 240
- Salmon, K. 179, 201
- Saturday opening, for banks 301–3, 311
- SCELI (Social Change and Economic Life Initiative) 157–8
- Schettkat, R. 82
- Schmid, G. 1, 2–3, 4, 16, 26, 33, 37, 40, 41, 42, 54, 132–3, 135, 156–7, 158, 169, 174, 205, 314, 317
- Schmitter, P. 51–2
- Schömann, K. 1, 17, 55, 154, 292
- school-to-work transitions 2
- Schor, J. 26
- Schupp, J. 82, 168

- scientists 328
 SCP (Social and Cultural Planning Office) 101 sectoral approach 13, 26 national societal systems and 43, 46–7, 50–52 sectoral effects 51 Segrestin, D. 286 selectivity bias 8 self-employment 29, 120–23, 193, 326
 income from 224, 241
 service sector concentration of part-time workers in various areas of 179 legislation in 208
 numbers employed in 75, 78, 121, 134, 138, 179, 254–6, 258
 probability of working part time in 225, 241
 transition patterns in 149, 152, 155, 164, 166, 187, 188
 voluntary and involuntary working time in 281
 see also banking sector; distribution, hotels and catering sector; retail sector; wholesale sector
 SESI (Service des statistiques des études et des systèmes) 323
 Sexton, J.J. 206 shift working 265, 267, 269, 270, 271, 274, 284, 328–31, 336, 339–40 forward rotation of 325 night shifts see night working shop opening hours 75, 208, 301 Shortall, S. 223
 short-time working 72, 100 sickness benefits 99, 258
 Siebert, S. 290
 Silver, H. 35–7, 73, 82, 134, 313 single parents 97, 100, 135, 224, 226, 241
 Skocpol, T. 207
 Smith, M. 67, 70, 75, 77, 82, 149–50, 173, 179, 180
 Social and Cultural Report (1998) 322 Social Chapter 75 social democracy 35–6, 43 social democratic welfare regimes 78, 134 social exclusion 33–7 and integration regimes 37 paradigms of 35–7, 42–3, 134
 TLM approach to see transitional labour markets (TLMs) ‘work-poor’ households and 40, 53, 80, 82, 149–50, 178 see also exclusionary transitions social expenditure, as percentage of GDP 129 ‘social meaning’ of time 32–3 social policy, typologies in 5–6 social policy principle 41
 Social Policy Statute (Netherlands) 325 social well-being, working-time flexibility and 252, 269, 270, 272–3, 285 societal effects 51 ‘societal systems’ approach 46 solidaristic transitions 19, 278–9 solidarity contracts 72 solidarity paradigm 35, 36, 43
 Soskice, D. 70
 SOU 100
 Spain
 characteristics of part-time employment by age and sex in 176–7, 178–9
 childcare provision in 83, 178, 223, 238
 distribution of employees by contract status and full- and part-time work in 175–6
 educational attainment levels in 16–17, 187, 188, 189, 190, 219–24, 226, 231–5, 237–8, 240, 243–5
 employment insecurity in 39, 175, 181
 employment-status stability in 192–7, 198, 215–23, 234–5, 237, 239
 factors explaining probability of being in various employment states in 218–28, 237–8, 240–42
 female gross hourly wages by transition status and working-time category in 12, 177, 229–30 analysing wage differences 230–37, 238–9, 243–5
 female participation rates in 6, 77, 174, 176, 191, 206, 215, 222–3, 237

- household employment structures in 79–81, 83, 176, 178, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 224, 227, 241
- incidence of female part-time working in 218
- industrial relations in 64, 71–2, 207, 210–12
- involuntary part-time working in 235–6
- job growth in 15
- job tenure in 38, 180–81, 187, 188, 193, 234, 239, 245
- labour market segmentation in 213
- legal rights for part-time employees in 77, 180, 211–12
- part-time earnings in 177
- part-time employment contracts in 211–12
- pensions in 212–13
- policy orientation in 64
- public sector in 186, 187, 188, 225, 228, 242
- quantitative approach used for 8, 9, 11
- reasons for part-time working in 177, 180, 181, 186, 187, 189, 190
- regional differences in 187, 188–9, 191, 225, 242
- regulatory environment in 173, 175–6, 206–7, 210–13
 - statutory regulation of working time 64, 180, 199, 210–12
- role of part-time work in 181
- service sector in 179, 187, 188, 225
- statist flexibility in 64, 71, 72
- temporary employment in 173–6, 179, 183, 192, 193, 198, 212, 213
- trajectories out of and into part-time work by reason of working part time in 193–7
- transition rates and patterns in 15, 64, 173–5, 182–99, 213, 215–18, 237
- unemployment benefits in 187, 190, 211, 212
- unemployment in 6, 14, 39, 173, 175, 178, 206, 212
- union density rates in 86
- welfare system in 18, 175, 179, 180, 199, 207, 212–13
- Workers' Statute in 180, 199, 210–12
 - working-time distribution in 64, 77
- specialization paradigm 35, 36, 43
- Spee, C. 43, 62, 70, 133
- spouse's employment see household employment structures
- spouse's working time 11, 107–11, 113–15, 120–23, 150, 153
- SPSS (Statistical Package for the Social Sciences) 160
- Stancanelli, E. 129
- standard hours
 - adoption of 26–8, 30
 - shift away from 28–33, 52–3, 292–3, 299, 300–301, 311
- standard worker 73
- standardization of unsociable hours 337–8
- state-market relations 78
- statist flexibility 6–7, 64, 66, 70, 71–3, 84, 318
- Statistical Office of the European Communities see Eurostat
- statutory regulation of working time 17, 27, 54, 62–3, 71–2, 75–6, 206–7, 208–9, 251, 257, 258, 260–61, 301, 324, 325
 - and distribution of working-time patterns 63–7, 84–5, 86
 - EU Working Time Directive 66, 86, 208
 - see also under names of individual countries, e.g. France*
- Storrie, D. 74
- strategy effects 51
- stratification, principles of 78
- Strauss, A. 13
- Streeck, W. 51–2, 70, 133
- students
 - medical 326, 329
 - part-time working by 177, 178, 180, 186, 189–91, 194–8, 302, 305, 306, 308
- subsidiarity principle 74
- SUD (Solidaires Unitaires Démocratiques) 260, 282
- Sullivan, T. 338
- Sunday opening
 - banks 302
 - shops 75
- supermarket banking 298, 300, 310, 312

- survival analysis 11, 142–5, 157, 162, 168 see also employment-status stability
- sustainable employment and income 132, 157, 158
- Sutherland, H. 102
- Sweden
 attitudes to children in 263–4, 266
 childcare provision in 101, 103, 116, 263, 274
 educational attainment levels in 16–17, 97, 107–15, 117, 121, 123
 education system in 253, 254, 263
 employers' objectives and transitions in 252, 269–73, 285
 employment distribution by gender in 254–6
 employment distribution by sector in 78, 254–6, 258 factors explaining probability of being in various employment states in 106–12, 117, 121, 123
 female participation rates in 7, 77, 78, 82, 94–5, 97, 100, 103, 106, 116, 121, 123, 253 household and individual transitions in 274–9
 household employment structures in 79–80, 82, 85, 146
 industrial relations in 65, 73–4, 102–3, 256, 259–62, 275–81, 283 legal right to working-time flexibility in 280
 male participation rates in 121, 123, 253
 negotiated flexibility in 6, 65, 73, 102–3
 parental leave in 15–16, 18, 45, 49, 79, 94, 100–101, 103, 106, 108, 110, 111, 114, 116, 117–18, 263
 part-time employment rates in 259
 policy orientation in 65, 74, 102, 103, 279–80
 political recognition of women in 262 public and private sector comparisons in 280–81 qualitative approach used for 13
 quantitative approach used for 8, 9
 sectoral distribution of employees in 78, 121, 123, 134
 social exclusion in 35, 36
 statutory regulation of working time in 65, 258, 260–61
 tax system in 82, 99–100, 101, 103, 116, 258
 temporary employment in 286
 transition rates and patterns in 45, 49–50, 103–6, 112–18, 125–6
 unemployment in 94, 97, 102, 121, 123, 254, 256–7
 union density rates in 86, 259–60, 261, 262, 283
 welfare system in 74, 79, 82, 97–103, 109, 116
 working-time distribution in 65, 74, 77, 79, 95–7, 98–9, 111, 116, 121, 123, 258 working-time reductions in 258, 285 and lifestyles 264–9 youth participation rates in 253–4
- Tanguy, L. 48
- Tate, C. 200
- tax systems 18–19, 76, 82–4, 85, 94, 149, 150, 155, 258 individual taxation 16, 82, 99–103, 116, 178
 tax splitting 134
- Taylor, M. 82, 135, 159
- Taylorism (Fordism) 4, 27, 30–31, 47, 48, 52–3
- TCO (Tjänstemännens Centralorganisation) 283
- teachers 274, 279, 283
- technicians and associated professionals
 part-time employees in health-care sector 328, 332 probability of part-time working by 225, 228, 242 see also professional and technical occupations
- technology changes, in banking sector 289, 292, 293, 298, 301
 telephone banking 294, 297–307, 310–11, 312
- Télébanque 265, 267, 269, 271, 275, 277
 arrangements for restructuring working time in 284
 principal characteristics of 282

- telephone banking 294, 297–307, 310–11, 312
- temporary employment 72, 134, 173–6, 179, 183, 185, 192, 193, 198, 209–10, 212, 213, 272, 276, 286, 305 earnings for 213
 in health-care sector 326–9, 333, 336
- territorial effect 261
- Thane, P. 28
- Thatcher, Margaret 75
- Théret, B. 5
- Thomas, S. 326
- Thompson, E.P. 26, 27
- Tienari, J. 297, 311
- time appropriation 268
- time-discrete measuring 9, 10
- time off in lieu 211, 334
- time, value of 268–9
- Titmus, R. 129
- Toharia, L. 12, 176, 178, 200, 206, 213, 246
- Tonks, E. 199, 200
- Touraine, A. 54
- trade/tourism
 earnings in 231–3, 235, 243–5
 probability of working part time in 240
- trade unions 12, 13, 25, 27, 52, 282–3 density rates 71, 74, 86, 259–62, 283, 319–20, 330, 335 employer-union relations 70–76, 260–62, 282–3, 318–20 involvement in working-time system design 158, 270, 282–3, 334, 335 and labour market segmentation 148, 290, 300, 301–4, 310–12, 313 objectives of 273
 power of 70–71, 75, 134, 260, 282, 321 white-collar 260, 283 women in 262, 283
see also collective bargaining; externally constrained voluntarism; negotiated flexibility
- traffic-light accounts 304
- training see education and training
- transaction costs 321
- transitional employment, definition of 40–41, 44
- transitional labour markets (TLMs) 2–4, 40–45, 205–6 aim of developing 2 components of 40–42 concept of 1, 2, 26, 174, 205 cross-national comparisons and 5–7, 42–3, 45, 46–7, 206 developing TLM framework in relation to working time 43–5
 and earnings 239
 entry and exit pathways 2–3, 4 health-care sector and 317 institutional arrangements and 15, 26, 41–3, 45–54, 71, 93–4, 101–2, 112, 116, 132–3, 135, 157, 158–9, 206 and internal labour markets 292, 305–13 key variables for 9, 11–12, 26 policies supporting transitions 17–19, 83–4, 85, 102–3, 134–5, 158–9 qualitative approach and 12–14 quality of transitions 3, 43, 132, 307–8, 337–41 research agenda for 17–19, 43, 54 types of transitions see exclusionary transitions; integrative transitions; maintenance transitions;
 matching-needs transitions;
 solidaristic transitions; winning transitions usefulness of TLM approach 26
- transition matrices 11, 94, 103, 106, 140, 157
 Dutch females 128
 Dutch males 127
 Irish females 216–18
 Spanish females 216–18
 Swedish females 126
 Swedish males 125
 UK males and females 141
 West German males and females 141
- TRANSLAM 1
- Trinder, C. 319, 344
- UK labour force survey 8, 9, 168, 174, 175, 177, 181, 183, 184, 186, 189, 191, 192, 193, 194

- advantages and disadvantages of 200
- structure and content of 199–200
- underclass 34, 35
- underemployment see involuntary part-time working
- underground labour market 175, 246
- unemployment
 - 'dynamic' 40
 - rates of 6, 14, 15, 39, 53, 94, 120–23, 336
 - gender differences in 97, 99, 100, 120–23, 137–9, 256–7
 - and household employment structures 149–50
 - institutional explanations for 256
 - part-time employment rate contrasted with 137–9, 173–4, 206
 - working-time flexibility to reduce 2, 16, 61–2, 64, 71–2, 74, 102, 173, 205, 211, 212, 251, 252, 254, 257, 260, 304, 305, 308
 - transition rates to/from 125–8, 135, 140–41, 147, 152–3, 156–7, 159, 164–7, 173, 182–5, 191–2, 197, 198, 216–18
 - welfare reform adapted to 78
 - youth 133, 175, 178, 254, 257
- unemployment benefits 31, 100, 154, 156, 187, 190, 209–10, 211, 212, 307
- Unfair Dismissals and Redundancy Payment Acts (Ireland) 209
- United Kingdom
 - annual growth in full- and part-time employment in 136–7
 - banking sector in see internal labour markets
 - characteristics of part-time employment by age and sex in 176–7, 178
 - childcare provision in 83, 85, 134–5, 155, 178, 198
 - distribution of employees by contract status and full- and part-time work in 175–6
 - educational attainment levels in 16–17, 147, 151–2, 156, 158, 187, 188, 189, 190
 - for banking recruits 295–6
 - education and training system in 48, 133–4, 147
 - for bank employees 294–6, 297–8
 - employment insecurity in 38, 39
 - employment-status stability in 142–5, 157, 162, 168, 192–7, 198
 - employment system in 133–4
 - externally constrained voluntarism in 75–6, 134, 318
 - female employment rate in 137–8, 175
 - female participation rates in 6, 7, 174
 - female part-time employment in 137–8, 175–6
 - household employment structures in 79–83, 153, 155, 176, 177–8, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190
 - industrial relations in 6, 7, 63, 66, 70–71, 75–6, 301, 302–3, 310–11, 313, 318, 319, 321, 324, 342
 - internal labour markets in 47
 - in banking sector see internal labour markets
 - job growth in 15
 - job tenure in 38, 39, 49, 180–81, 187, 188, 193, 198
 - legal rights for part-time employees in 175
 - male employment rate in 138, 175
 - male part-time employment in 138, 175, 178
 - maternity leave in 147, 149, 308
 - net return of female employment on disposable household income in 82–3
 - policy orientation in 66, 134
 - public sector in 186, 187, 188, 321
 - see also* health-care sector
 - qualitative approach used for 8, 9, 10–11
 - reasons for part-time working in 177, 180, 186, 187, 189, 190
 - regional differences in 187, 188–9, 191
 - regulatory environment in 28, 45, 75–6, 173, 175–6, 313, 318
 - statutory regulation of working time 66, 84–5, 86, 324
 - retail sector in 179
 - role of part-time work in 182

- social exclusion in 35
- tax system in 82, 134, 178
- trajectories out of and into part-time
 - work by reason of working part time in 193–7
- transition rates and patterns in 15, 45, 50, 135, 140–42, 145, 151–9, 164–5, 173–5, 182–99
- unemployment in 39, 138, 139, 156
- welfare system in 6, 18, 79, 82, 134–5, 156, 178, 180, 187, 189, 307
- working-time distribution in 66, 67–70, 77, 84–5
- working-time transitions and employment statuses in health-care sector in 317, 319–29, 333–9, 342
 - see also* health-care sector
- United States
 - employment insecurity in 38
 - household employment structures in 332
 - job tenure in 38
 - social exclusion in 34, 35, 42
 - transition patterns in 157, 158
 - welfare system in 332
- unskilled occupations
 - employment insecurity in 39, 40
 - in health-care sector 336–7
 - pool of labour available for 306
 - probability of working part time in 225, 228, 242
- Urry, J. 29
- vacation/leave, transition rates to/from 125–6
- Van den Broek, I.M. 317
- van Liempt, Adriaan 344
- van Ruysseveldt, J. 318
- Van Soest, A. 102
- Viklund, B. 260
- Villa, P. 50, 176
- Visser, J. 74, 78, 102, 318, 319
- vocational training 254, 295–6, 297, 309
- Volkswagen, four-day week at 17, 62
- voluntary work 267
- Wadsworth, J. 40, 75, 80, 82, 140, 149–50, 155, 178
- wages see earnings
- Waine, B. 321
- Wakisaka, A. 82, 149
- Walby, S. 178
- Walsh, B.M. 222
- Walwei, U. 3, 32, 44, 83
- Wassenaar Agreement (1982) 325, 343
- Weber, M. 26–7, 28, 52
- weekend working 75, 265, 267, 269, 270, 277, 300, 301–3, 311, 337
 - pay premiums for 302, 303, 311, 338
- welfare systems 16, 18–19, 27, 31, 41, 46, 47, 50, 73, 74, 132, 134, 156, 158, 175, 179, 180, 199, 207, 209–10, 212–13, 271, 307
 - and household employment structures 40, 76, 78–9, 82–4, 85, 149–51, 176, 178, 187, 189, 332
 - Netherlands and Sweden compared 97–103, 116
 - pay-related 207, 209, 212
 - typology of 37, 78, 93, 134
 - see also* unemployment benefits; and under names of individual countries, e.g. Sweden
- WHAW (Work Pressure and Recovery given Unsocial Working Hours) 325, 335
- Whitley system 319
- wholesale sector, part-time employees in 179
- Wilkinson, F. 82
- Wilson, J. 34
- Wilthagen, T. 86, 325
- Winchester, D. 321
- winning transitions 19, 275–7
- women see females
- women's movements 28
- Worker Protection (Regular Part-time Employees) Act (Ireland, 1991) 209
- Workers' Statute (Spain) 180, 199, 210–12
- work experience, previous 121, 152, 154–8, 164, 166, 187, 190, 191, 199, 236, 307
- 'working age' period, compression of 27, 29
- working hours, weekly
 - distribution around norm 63–70, 72, 74, 77, 79, 84–5, 95–9, 102, 111, 116, 120–23, 258

- in health-care sector 324–6, 328–31
- information on 119
- reductions in 25, 27, 61–2, 64, 71–2, 74, 103, 205, 257–8, 260, 284–5
 - and lifestyles 264–9, 275, 279, 281
- short-time working 72, 100
- statutory restrictions on see statutory regulation of working time
- Working Hours Act (Sweden, 1982) 65, 260–61
- Working Time Act (Netherlands, 1996) 325
- working-time flexibility, concept of 28
- working-time intensities in the Netherlands and Sweden 106–12, 116–17
- ‘work-rich’ and ‘work-poor’ households 40, 53, 80, 82, 149–50, 178
- work-sharing 25, 32, 42, 44, 49, 251, 272, 335
- works councils 302, 304, 311, 341
- young workers
 - government-sponsored employment contracts for 287
 - integrative transitions by 277–8
 - participation rates for 253–4
 - restrictions on 66
 - unemployment of 133, 175, 178, 254, 257
 - see also* age
- Zerubavel, E. 26
- ZUMA classification 149