
Figures

1	No reswitching	52
2	Reswitching	53
3	The monetary circuit	61
4	The consumption function	74
5	Wolfson's model of credit rationing	81
6	The principle of effective demand and labour market outcomes	107
7	The special case of Say's Law	109
8	The interaction of expected and actual aggregate demand, and aggregate supply	111
9	Determination of the level of investment	137
10	Determination of the level of employment	137
11	A Say's Law economy	231
12	A Keynesian economy	232
13	The liquidity preference function	244
14	Determination of the rate of interest	245
15	Average annual rates of inflation and standardized unemployment for the G7 countries, 1967–1997	324