Figures and tables

Figures
1.1 Price and output under simple monopoly  4
1.2 Price and output under competition and monopoly with organizational economies  14
1.3 Price discrimination and allocative efficiency  17
1.4 Welfare losses from market dominance  20
4.1 Monopoly price and welfare loss  62
4.2 The dominant firm and the competitive fringe  64
4.3 Excess profits and market power  70
5.1 First degree price discrimination  87
5.2 Third degree price discrimination  91
5.3 Price and cost of the dominant firm  104
5.4 Price strategy of the dominant firm  107
6.1 Contestability and entry  130
7.1 Collusion to raise price  151
7.2 Duopoly with differing costs  153
8.1 The welfare trade-offs in horizontal mergers  174
9.1 Incentives to integrate under different production conditions  211
9.2 Double monopoly mark-ups and vertical integration  213
10.1 Welfare effects of resale price maintenance  237
12.1 Dumping and price  294

Tables
2.1 Average five-firm concentration for a sample of 121 manufactured products in the UK, 1958–77 (unadjusted and adjusted for imports)  37
2.2 Long-run shares of market leaders in six UK industries  39
2.3 Entry barriers and market structure  42
8.1 Calculation of the Herfindahl (H) index in a market with six firms  179