

Contents

---

List of tables	ix
List of figures	xi
Notes on contributors	xiii
Acknowledgements	xix

PART I GENERAL AND MACRO ASPECTS

1 Introduction: the role of small and medium-sized enterprises in achieving and sustaining growth and performance Charles Harvie and Boon-Chye Lee	3
2 Small, diversified and sustainable: small enterprises in a sustainable production system Hock-Beng Cheah and Melanie Cheah	28
3 The contribution of micro-enterprises to regional economic recovery and poverty alleviation in East Asia Charles Harvie	72
4 The new national accounts and international standards in the assessment of enterprises and sectors of the economy Dudley Jackson	99
5 On the evolution of firm organization, SMEs and economic growth in the USA and Japan Elias Sanidas	117
6 The East Asian financial crisis in Thailand: distress and resilience of local SMEs Philippe Régnier	148

PART II INTERNAL (MICRO) ASPECTS

7 Managing knowledge development in SMEs: no longer the poor cousins, as training changes to learning? Llandis Barratt-Pugh	163
---	-----

8	Ethical values in business: a study of Malaysian small and medium-sized enterprises Za'faran Hassan and Arawati Agus	187
PART III STRATEGIC ASPECTS
9	Key issues in understanding the internationalization process of the small firm: an Australian perspective Susan Freeman	209
10	Entry mode decisions of Indonesian small and medium-sized manufacturers in the export market Heru Satyanugraha	234
11	Technological sourcing in small and medium-sized Australian manufacturing firms Paul L. Robertson, Thomas Keil and Erkko Autio	253
12	SMEs and the Internet: a comparative study – China and the UK Bob Ritchie and Clare Brindley	277
PART IV POLICY ASPECTS
13	Public policy and SME development Charles Harvie and Boon-Chye Lee	301
14	The changing role of local government in promoting China's collective township and village enterprises Russell Smyth	327
15	Supporting SMEs through venture capital policy Barbara Cornelius and Sandra Van der Laan	341
	Index	359