
Index

- absolutism, monarchical 51 academic discipline, social policy as an 92 action projects, EU anti-poverty programmes 343, 344 administrative capacity, of state 52 administrative understanding, poverty research, preoccupation with 280 adult-worker family model 194–5 aegis, issue of 311–12, 314 affluence, and crime 283 Africa
dysfunctional aspects of social life 53 pessimism of social scientists 282 pressures of globalization 57 regulatory weakness of state 54 residual social policies 56 see also Sub-Saharan Africa ageing demographic, and housing 364–6 perceptions of successful 143–4 agency, social change 31 agenda-setting, impact of Internet 392–3 aid, Bangladesh and South Asia 252–3
Amsterdam Treaty 353
Anglo-American social science tradition 262 anti-discrimination/equal policy measures, cross-national policy analysis 212 anti-globalization protests 393 anti-poverty programmes (EU) 342–8 appropriateness, research methods 293 Asia
dysfunctional aspects of social life 53
see also East Asia; South Asia assets, social exclusion indicators 348–9 assimilationism 211, 212, 213 atheoretical case studies 309–10
Australia, SPM 68, 70–73, 82, 83–4, 85 autonomy and care failure of practical relevance 135 as guiding moral ideal 132–3 see also bodily autonomy; economic autonomy; moral autonomy Bangladesh, aid and informal security 252–3 basic security model, welfare 158, 159, 161 income inequality
among elderly 169
and poverty 165, 166
strategies of equality 161, 162, 163
biannual bonuses, Japanese wage system 76 biographical approach, intensive interviewing 315 bodily autonomy 208 boundaries, comparative social policy 3, 91–4 Bretton Woods System 33 bubble economy, Japan 75 budget size, income redistribution 164 burying rights, self-consciousness of moral requirement 137 Canada, redistribution 168 capitalism
cross-national policy analysis 206–7
as driving force of welfare states 119–20 see also liberal capitalism; organized capitalism; welfare capitalism care, see long-term care care-giving as an instrumental good 134, 135 as a moral good 139–43 case study approach 204, 266, 308–10 causal relationships, time dimension 334–5
Central America, neo-patrimonial regimes 55–6
Central and Eastern Europe
exclusion from club of welfare states 126

- inclusion in research projects 269, 270
- social policy, influence of IFIs 83
- welfare systems, Westernization of 85
- Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS) 263
- cerebral style research 262
- China
 - informational age impacts 394
 - long-term care, see Confucian perspective of care
 - welfare systems
 - exclusion from club of welfare states 117
 - transitional 118
- choice, long-term care policy 132, 138
- Cisco Systems 389
- cities, mature urbanization 360
- citizen activism, Internet 393, 395
- citizenship
 - and civil society 102–4
 - EU model of 42
 - and gender 34, 185–9
 - gender-sensitive analysis of 191–4
 - global 60
 - growth and expansion of 34
 - residual welfare as alternative to 55
 - rights
 - challenge to class structure 52–3
 - conflict with property rights 120
 - extension of 107
 - and welfare states 181–2
 - understanding nature of poverty 280–81
 - welfare state regimes 182–5
 - see also* civil citizenship; political citizenship; political participation; social citizenship
- civic nations 12
- civic republican tradition 186
- civil citizenship 182
- civil rights 181
- civil service status, French researchers 263
- civil society
 - challenge to comparative social science 112–13
 - and citizenship 102–4
 - emergence of 52
 - global 60–61
- class
 - and citizenship 52–3
 - cross-national policy analysis 206–7
- clientelistic welfare systems 55
- close-up comparisons 270
- closed economies 75–6
- coalition formation, social insurance
 - institutions 154, 162, 163
- coder reliability, statistics 330–31
- coercion, informal security regimes 245
- cognitive models, of nation-state 54
- collaborative research 310–11
- collective assets, social exclusion
 - research 349
- colonialism
 - poverty 225
 - shaping of welfare states 211, 212–13
 - Sub-Saharan Africa 253
- communities, competing definitions 104
- community action, challenge to evolutionary assumption 112
- community development approach 226, 227, 230, 232
- companyism, Japanese 76
- comparative social policy 91–100
 - boundaries 3, 91–4
 - challenges of 273
 - contributions and deficiencies 218–24
 - disciplinary traditions 264–6
 - equivalence of meaning 292–5
 - gains of 285–8
 - growth of 1, 96–9
 - homelessness, see homelessness
 - housing, see housing
 - indirect effects 289
 - interdisciplinarity 289
 - language barriers 266–9
 - linkages between research and policy 270–73
 - mainstream scholarship 217–18
 - methodology 94–6, 276–7, 278–9
 - obstacles to 278–85
 - qualitative, see qualitative methods
 - quantitative, see quantitative method
 - reassessment of state in 2
 - research cultures 261–4
 - selecting countries for 269–70
 - social development approach 231–5
 - social exclusion, see social exclusion
 - states and society 103–13

- comparison of 105–8
- criticisms, as unit of comparison 108–11
- re-conceptualizing 111–13
- welfare states, see welfare states
- composite indices 331–2
- concepts, equivalence of meaning 292–5
- conceptual stretching 310
- conflicts of interest, comparative research 283
- Confucian perspective of care
 - dependency and care-giving 139–43
 - human dignity and moral autonomy 136–9
 - as moral framework for 147–8
 - human need and social provision 143–7
- Confucian welfare states, support for 117
- connectedness, of networks 389
- conservative welfare state regimes 124, 183, 184, 242
- conservative-informal welfare regimes 250
- consistency, of networks 389
- consociational governments 12
- consumer subsidies
 - capitalist countries 83
 - state socialism 78, 79, 82
- context, in research 310
- contextual poverty 281
- contextualization, grey literature 314
- Copenhagen Declaration 229
- corporations, cross-shareholding, Japan 76
- corporatist regimes, social policies in 55
- cosmopolitanism 60–61
- countervailing force, social policy as 247
- country-specific knowledge, through comparative studies 287–8
- courts, role, substandard medical advice 398
- crime
 - changing nature of 373–4
 - defending societies against 374
 - global village 373
 - globalization
 - crime control 377, 379–80
 - linking 376–8
 - terminology 375–6
 - practitioner and criminologist discourses 374
- crime control 377, 379–80
- criminal law, inability to globalize 381
- criminology, see globalizing criminology
- critical IPE, world order 26, 30–32
- critical structural analysis 203–4
- critical structured diversity 201–14
- cross-country comparisons, homelessness 298
- cross-national social policy analysis 201–14
 - class 206–7
 - diversity 204–5
 - gender 207–10
 - race 210–13
 - societal approach 265–6
 - structure 202–4
 - structured diversity 205–6, 214
- cross-sectional comparisons 95
- cross-sectoral research designs 309
- cross-tabulations 326
- A Cross-Polity Survey* 330
- cryptography, government use of 380
- cultural backgrounds, researchers 261–4, 268
- cultural impact, formulation of research questions 278
- cultural nations 12
- culturalist approach, comparative research 265
- customs frontiers, elimination of 376–7
- cyberspace, governance of 18
- data collection, political and institutional influence on 272
- data processing 319
- databanks, poverty research 278–9, 284–5
- de-commodification 119, 123, 183
 - and access to the labour market 191–2
 - comparison of welfare states 107
 - informal security model 247
 - for self-development 243
- de-statization 15–16
- defamilization perspective 209–10
- demarcation, of states 12–13, 15–16

- democracy
 as driving force of welfare states 119–20 electoral 59
 global 60–61
 in information age 400–402
 sovereignty 52
- demographic ageing, and housing 364–6
- denationalization, of statehood 15
- dependency
 Confucian perspective of 139–43 in long-term care 135
- deregulation
 Australia 72
 Japan 78
- developing countries
 economic development and exploitation of women 35–6 economic difficulties and social provision 228 globalization, impact on women 40, 41 perception of under-development 37 policy analysis, international structuralist theory 222 rural–urban migration 360 social inequality statistics 325
 welfare state regimes 239–56
- development, see economic development; social development; under-development
- DG Employment, social exclusion research 352
- diachronic comparisons 95
- digital divides 400, 401
- diversity, in cross-national analyses 204–5
- division of labour
 and citizenship 185
 informal security regimes 245
- documentary research 313–14, 320
- documentation, in research 262
- domestic defence strategy, Japan 82
- domestic economy, Japan 75–6
- donors, vested interests, poverty research 285
- e-democracy 401
- e-governance 390–92
- earnings-related benefits 153, 154–5, 161, 162, 163, 168, 171
- East Asia
 e-governance 391
 informational age impacts 394
 welfare state regime 250–52
see also China; Hong Kong; Japan; Taiwan
- East Asian welfare systems comparative analysis exclusion from 117 use of Western taxonomies 221–2 increased interest in 116
- East–West comparisons, research 262–3, 272
- Eastern Europe, see Central and Eastern Europe
- economic, expanded definition of 16–17, 19
- economic autonomy 208
- economic development exploitation of women 35–6
 Global South commitment to 226 investment in human capital 234
- economic growth
 Australia 71
 KWNS 14
 social development 230–31
- economic integration, state socialist countries 79–80
- economic liberalization, Australia 72, 73
- economic policies global ethical framework 61–2 see also neoliberal economic policies
- economic protectionism, Australia 70, 71, 73
- economic status, gender analysis 210
- economic transition, impact on women 39
- economic uncertainty, residential property markets 361–4
- economies Japanese 75–8, 82
 under state socialism 79
see also informal economy; market economy; shadow economy
- educational policies, comparative social science 112
- egalitarian principle, of welfare 153, 162
- elderly dignity as important goal of care 131–2

- family support, Hong Kong 139–40
- state role, provision of care 145
- welfare state institutions and income inequality 168–70
 - see also* ageing; pensions
- Electoral Behaviour* 326
- eligibility criteria, welfare 157–61, 192
- empiricism 95
- employment
 - importance of state to women's 191–2
 - opportunities, for women 38, 39
 - state socialism 79
 - see also* unemployment
- encompassing model, welfare 158, 159, 161
 - income inequality
 - among elderly 168
 - and poverty 165, 166, 168
 - strategies of equality 162, 163, 164
- English, international research 266–7, 312–13
- Enlightenment 52
- enterprise, under state socialism 79
- entitlements to benefits, eligibility 157, 158
- epistemological problems, poverty
 - research 279–81
- equivalence of meaning, in research 292–5
- equivalence scales, smoothing out
 - cultural differences 278
- ethical issues
 - human dignity 147–8
 - poverty research 282
 - see also* global ethical framework
- ethnic identity 12
- ethnic minorities, cross-national policy
 - analysis 210–13
- ethnocentric bias, Western conception of
 - welfare states 116–17, 118–22
- Europe
 - estimate of homeless persons 298
 - see also* Central and Eastern Europe; European Union; Northern Europe
- European Community Household Panel (ECHP) 344, 345
- European Coordination Centre for Research and Documentation in Social Sciences 262
- European Federation of National Organisations Working with the Homeless (FEANTSA) 298
- European Research Area 261, 267, 269, 271, 273
- European Union
 - anti-poverty programmes 342–8
 - commonly agreed indicators 346–8
 - conceptualization of poverty 344
 - measuring poverty 344–5
 - theoretical and policy purposes 345–6
 - employment opportunities for women 39
 - homelessness 297–8
 - institutional role, social exclusion
 - research 352
 - interscalar management 18
 - multi-level governance 21–2
 - police forces, non-democratically accountable 381–2
 - Social Charter 42
 - SWPR 23–4
- evaluative research 317–19
- exchange relationships, parent–child
 - relationships as 141
- exclusion, see social exclusion
- exclusionary regimes, cross-national
 - policy analysis 212
- extra-economic, redefining of boundaries 16–17, 19
- extraterritorial spaces, governing of 18
- familial ideology, cross-national social
 - policy 209
- family
 - as safety net 365
 - welfare state regimes 184, 193
- family relationships, importance of 137–8
- family support
 - for elderly, Hong Kong 139–40, 145
 - feedback mode 141–2
 - Japan 74
- favours 140
- feedback mode, family support 141–2
- feminist analyses
 - social policy 35, 213–14
 - welfare states 189–90
- feminist IPE, world order 26, 32–3

- feminist movement
 - transnational 29–30
 - and welfare provision 43
- filial piety 142
- filial respect 138
- financial poverty lines 343, 347
- Finland, social insurance 168
- fiscal pressures, state provision of care 56
- fit for purpose 313, 320
- flat rate benefits 160, 161, 162, 163
- Fordism 13, 14, 38, 364
- foreign trade, under state socialism 79
- formal equivalence 293
- Foundations of the Metaphysics of Morals* 132
- Fourth World 295, 370
- France
 - legitimacy, statistical institutions 272
 - researchers
 - civil service status 263
 - independence and critical stance of 271
- Franco-British cooperation, in research 263
- free associations 52
- Freedom in the World* 331
- full employment
 - Australia 81
 - Japan 73, 74, 77, 81–2
 - KWNS 14
 - organized capitalism 33
 - state socialism 78, 79, 81
- functional analysis 309
- functional approach, theorizing welfare states 123
- functional equivalence 293
- Gallic style research 262
- GDP per capita
 - Australia 71
 - home ownership 359
- gender 26–44
 - and citizenship 34, 185–9
 - globalization 27–8, 37–41
 - multi-layered governance, citizenship and welfare 41–4
 - organized capitalism 27, 33–7
 - post-war social settlement 27
 - world order 26–7, 30–33
 - see also* women
- gender analysis
 - of citizenship and welfare state regimes 191–4, 195, 196–7
 - cross-national social policy 207–10
- gender differentiation 192–3
- gender inequality 193
- gender politics, and governance 43–4
- general knowledge, through research 285–7
- general theories, comparative research 264–5
- geographical diversity, national averages 325
- German legalism, statistics 272
- Germany, transitional social policy 62–3
- global context, criticisms of state-centred analyses 109
- global ethical framework, socio-economic integration within 61–2
- ‘global public goods’ 61
- global social policy, human insecurity 59–63
- Global South
 - alternative discourses, comparative inquiry 220–21
 - human insecurity
 - global social policy solutions 59–63
 - globalization and state 56–9
 - neoliberalism 40–41
 - social welfare and development 40, 224–31
 - state formation and social policy 53–6
- globalization
 - consumer subsidies 83
 - and crime, see crime
 - critical IPE 30–31
 - feminist IPE 32–3
 - gender 37–41
 - human security, crisis of 63–4
 - impact on NGOs policy making process 44
 - migrant workers 106
 - nation-states
 - differing responses to 13
 - erosion of functions of 2–3
 - new questions, poverty research 287
 - and social policy
 - interest in relationship between 2

- need for sustained attention to 28–9
- SPM 68, 85
 - Australia 71–2
 - post-socialist countries 81
- and the state
 - human insecurity 56–9
 - role as provider of security 41–3
- transnational feminist movement 29–30
- UN agencies, work of 29
- unregulated
 - opposition to 43
 - problems of 42
- welfare regime development 255–6
- and welfare state, interest in relationship between 2
- globalizing criminology 380–85
 - criminal law 381
 - global penal gaze 382–3
 - implications for state crime control 383–5
 - police forces, non-democratically accountable 381–2
- GNP, as fallacious indicator 328–9
- governance
 - compensation of market failures 24
 - and gender politics 43–4
 - shift from government to 15–16, 19
 - see also* e-governance; multi-level governance; states
- 'governance without government' 11
- governance-centred approaches 20–21
- grey literature 314
- guarantee of basic minimum income, inclusion into club of welfare states 124–5
- guaranteed full employment 78, 79
- health care, community development approach 227
- healthcare policy, information age 396–400
- historical structures, welfare states 211
- 'hollowing out', of states 11, 15
- home ownership 356, 359, 361, 364, 366, 369
- homelessness
 - causes 300–303
 - conceptualizing and quantifying 295–9
- construction of, UK 299–304
 - social exclusion 358
- Hong Kong
 - human need, cultural interpretation 144–5
- ill health 143
- long-term care
 - dignity of elderly 131, 138
 - dwindling network of community care 146
 - eligibility for 132
 - family support of the elderly 139–40
 - role of state 145
- personal characteristics and ageing 143–4
- state welfare
 - exclusion from club of welfare states 117, 124
 - lack of explanatory theories 222
 - residualism 121
 - use of Western taxonomies 221
- household conditions, social exclusion research 348–9
- household trajectories, social exclusion research 351
- housing 355–71
 - commodification and social disadvantage 366–70
 - international comparative research 358–61
 - nature of 355
 - policy debate 356–8
 - social change and economic uncertainty 361–4
- Housing (Homeless Persons) Act (1977) 300
- housing risks 364
- housing standards 360
- human capital, economic development 234
- human dignity
 - and care of elderly 131–2
 - Confucian account 136–9
 - as moral framework for care 147–8
- human factor, social development projects 228
- human insecurity
 - global social policy solutions in South 59–63

- globalization and state 56–9
- human need, Confucian account of 143–7
- human security
 - Nobel Laureates' statement 50
 - state as provider of 41–2
 - UN definition 50
- humans, distinguished from animals 136
- hybrid multinational states 12

- identity, see national identity
- ideology, globalizing criminology 385
- illegal immigration, and crime 377–8
- illegal trade 376
- imagined communities 18, 20, 52
- immigration
 - control, Australia 70, 73
 - see also* illegal immigration; migrant workers
- immigration/citizenship policy, cross-national policy analysis 212
- implementational problems, poverty research 281–3
- import substitution strategy 250
- In the Service of Democracy* 401
- income
 - space standards 359
 - women, OECD countries 38–9
- income inequality
 - pension systems 154–5
 - social insurance institutions 164–8
 - among elderly 168–70
- income poverty 347
- income security, Australia 70–71, 72–3, 85
- income testing 184
- independence
 - French researchers 271
 - long-term care policy 132, 138
- independence movements 225–6
- Index of Targeting Transfer* 175
- indicators, social exclusion 346–8
 - limitations 348–9
- indigenous influences, social development 232
- informal economy 32
- informal security regimes 244–9
 - Bangladesh and South Asia 252–3
- information age
 - e-governance 390–92
 - impacts on society 388–90
 - policy process in 392–6
 - public participation, social policy 400–402
- information technology, facilitation of crime 380
- insecurity regimes 249
 - Sub-Saharan Africa 253–5
- insider trading 378
- insider–outsider (IO) evaluation 318–19
- institutional processes, social exclusion research 349
- institutional redistributive welfare state 122, 123
- institutional strategies, social exclusion research 350
- institutional typology, welfare states 156–61
- institutionalist approach, cross-national analysis 204
- institutionalization
 - of care 133–4
 - of modern state 51, 52
- institutions, informal security regimes 246
- instrumental good, care-giving as 134, 135
- intellectual styles, research 261–4
- interdependence 147
- intergenerational relations, housing 362
- internal diversity, national averages 324–5
- international agencies, vested interests, poverty research 285
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development 36
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights* 281
- International Criminal Courts 378
- international financial institutions (IFIs), influence of 80–81, 83
- International Labour Organization (ILO) 54, 227
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 80–81, 83, 223, 228, 254, 371
- international organizations, standardized social security legislation 54
- international political economy
 - issue of welfare in 26
 - see also* critical IPE; feminist IPE

- international structuralist theory, policy analysis 222
- international victim survey (UN) 382–3
- internationalization, policy regimes 17
- Internet
 - Impacts, see information age
 - spread of crime 380
 - see also* cyberspace
- interpretation 319
- interpreters 312
- interscalar management 18–29
- interviewing 315–16, 320
- intrusive research 320
- investments, social exclusion indicators 348–9
- isolated indicators 331, 332
- Japan
 - homelessness 296–7
 - housing 362
 - inclusion in club of welfare states 123
 - information age and policy process 394
 - SPM 68–9, 73–8, 84
 - job security, Japan 73, 74
 - justice, and care 133–4
- Keynesian welfare national state (KWNS) 13–15, 23
- Keynesianism 1
- labour, social division of 32
- labour force
 - feminization of 39
 - KWNS social policy 14
- labour market
 - de-commodification and access to 191–2
 - flexibility 83
- labour unions, women's issues 43
- ladder of abstraction 310
- language, translation and interpretation 312–13
- language barriers, cross-cultural analyses 266–9
- large-n studies 94
- Latin America
 - dysfunctional aspects of social life 53
 - power of state 53–4
- scepticism of Western social scientists 282
- welfare state regime 249–50
- LEADER initiative 318
- leadership, IO approach 319
- 'least similar' methods 313
- legislation (UK), homelessness 303
- liberal capitalism 30–31
- liberal conception, of citizenship 188
- liberal internationalism, socio-economic integration 61–2
- liberal welfare state regimes 121, 125, 183, 184, 190, 242
- liberal-informal welfare regimes 250
- life processes 243
- life trajectories, social exclusion research 348
- lifetime employment, Japan 73, 76
- linguistic equivalence 293–4
- Lisbon process 345–6, 353
- literature
 - comparative social policy 218–19
 - see also* publications
- livelihood strategies, social exclusion research 348
- livelihoods, informal security regimes 245
- living standards, defining poverty relative to 343
- loans, transition countries 81
- local authority homeless acceptances, UK 300, 301
- local contexts, criticisms of state-centred analyses 109–10
- local entrepreneurship 230
- local non-profit organizations, social development projects 228
- Locke, John 141
- lone mothers, equivalence of meaning in research 294–5
- long-distance perspective, research 269–70
- long-term care
 - Chinese tradition, see Confucian perspective of care
 - paradox of care
 - and autonomy 132–3
 - challenge to moral foundation of care 134–6
 - and dignity 131–2

- and justice 133–4
- low-income targeting 162, 164, 166
- Luxembourg Income Study (LIS) 156, 164–8, 174, 210
- macro-development planning, UN
 - emphasis on 227
- mainstream comparative inquiry
 - challenges for 220–24
 - dominance of Western perspective 217, 220
 - neglect of normative and practical issues 218, 233
- male-breadwinner family model 34–5, 194
- market, welfare state regimes 184, 193
- market economy, welfare state as
 - complementary to 120–21
- market failures, reliance on governance to compensate 24
- market forces, social solidarity 104
- Marxian class analysis 214
- mass education state (US) 243
- Matthew principle, of welfare 153, 162
- means-testing 160, 184
- medical advice, courts' role in sub-standard 398
- meta-governance
 - shift from government to 19
 - struggle over 22
- micro enterprises 230
- micro studies 204
- micro-credit 230
- migrant workers, concept of society 106
- 'mixed economy of welfare' 122
- mobilization, see political mobilization
- modern state, institutionalization of 51, 52
- modern state model, imposition of 53–4
- modernization theory
 - lack of regard for women's role and status 36
 - social evolution 105
- Momence, perception of ageing 143
- moral autonomy, Confucian account 136–9
- moral nature, of human beings 136
- moral obligation, to parents 140–41, 142
- moral panics, globalizing 378
- mortgage arrears, homelessness 303
- mortgaged home ownership 356, 361
- 'most similar' methods 313
- multi-disciplinarity 92–3, 308
- multi-level governance 20, 21–2
- multi-level government 20, 21
- multiculturalism
 - prescribed 212
 - weakening of nation-states 14–15
- multinational consortia, in research 273
- multinational corporations (MNCs)
 - regulation of activities 42–3
 - violation of human rights 40
- nation-states
 - crime and re-legitimizing of 379
 - cross-sectional analyses 95
 - debates over the future of 11
 - distinguished from national states 12
 - erosion of functions 2–3
 - inability to exercise sovereignty 109
 - multiculturalism 14–15
 - radical predictions 11
- national action plans, to combat poverty 346
- National Assistance Act (1948) 300
- national averages 324–5
- national debt, Japan 75
- national household budget surveys 344
- national identity 12, 52
- 'National Political Development: Measurement and Analysis' 330
- national states
 - distinguished from nation-states 12
 - six countertrends 18–20
 - six trends in restructuring of 15–18
 - see also* Keynesian welfare national state
- nationalist movements 225–6
- nationhood, social policy discourse 211
- negative equity 368–9
- neo-evolutionist approach, comparative research 264–5
- neoGramscian IPE, concept of 'world order' 30, 32
- neo-patrimonial regimes 55–6
- neoliberal economic policies
 - globalization 37–8
 - Third Wave of Democracy 59
- neoliberalism
 - community development approach 230

- Global South 40–41
 - hegemony of 44
 - home ownership 356
 - housing policy 359
 - increasing influence of 220
 - power organizations 29
 - social developments' statism 231
- netizens 380
- network enterprise 389
- networks, informational 389–90
- New Dimensions of Human Security* 50
- New Zealand, SPM 70
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
 - female 29, 43
 - impact of globalization on policy making 44
- non-regular employees
 - Japan 73–4
 - United States 84
- Nordic model, welfare states 121
- normative issues, mainstream comparative inquiry 218, 223
- North
 - globalization, state and human insecurity 56–9
 - state formation and social policy 51–3
- Northern Europe, mature urbanization 360
- Norway, social insurance institutions and redistribution 168
- obligation
 - citizenship as 186
 - and rights 188–9
- Observatory 343
- occupational benefits
 - Japan 73, 84
 - United States 84
- OECD countries
 - globalization, impact on women 41
 - women's employment and pay 38–9
- old age pensions, see pensions
- 'On Citizenship and Social Class' 154, 181
- ontological security 50
- open method of coordination (OMC) 345–6
- oppressive, welfare state as 190
- organizational impacts, information technology 389
- organizational strategies, social exclusion research 351
- organized capitalism 27, 33–7
- palliative transitional social policy 62–3
- panel surveys, poverty 344
- parallel methods 311
- parent support, Hong Kong 140
- parent–child relationships
 - as exchange relationships 141
 - moral obligation 140–41, 142
 - respect for parents 138
 - self-consciousness of moral requirement 137
- part-time employees, Japan 77
- participation, see political participation
- paternalistic interventions 133
- path dependence
 - case study research 266
 - housing policies 358–9
 - informal security model 247
 - policy change 204–5
 - racialized welfare states 211
- patriarchy
 - cross-national policy analyses 208
 - women's citizenship 34
- penal gaze, global 382–3
- pension funds, bankruptcy of Japanese 77
- pensions
 - earnings-related 154–5
 - partial privatization 80, 81
 - social insurance institutions 157–61
 - inequality 168–70
- personal characteristics, successful ageing 143–4
- Pew US survey 396
- physical status 143
- physician–patient relationships, in information age 399–400
- Plan of Action, social development 229
- policy actors
 - in the information age 402
 - and researchers 272–3
 - vested interests in poverty research 284
- policy making 393–4
- policy networks 392

- policy process, informational age
 - impacts 389, 392–6
- policy regimes, internationalization 17
- policy relevance, in research 271–2
- Political Action* 326
- political activity 186
- political arithmetic 272
- political citizenship 119, 181, 182
- political communities, re-imagining 18, 20, 52
- political hierarchies, re-ordering of 17
- political mobilization
 - informal security regimes 245–6
 - social citizenship rights 187
 - via the state 247
 - welfare state regimes 193–4
- political participation
 - exercise of rights 188–9
 - in information age 400–402
 - and political space 186–7
 - welfare state regimes 193–4
- political power
 - capability for exercising 13
 - de- and re-territorialization 15
 - deficit, and human insecurity 58
 - in information age 401
 - Latin America 53–4
 - retreat of the state 16
 - territorialization 12
- political relationships, informal security regimes 246
- political space, and participation 186–7
- political structures, cross-national analyses 203
- politicization, of research 272
- Poor Law 55, 279, 300
- Population Census Thematic Report – Older Persons* (2001) 139
- post-colonialism, shaping of welfare states 211, 212–13
- post-slavery, shaping of welfare states 211
- post-socialist societies, SPM 69, 78–81
- postmodernization, Inglehart's account 105–6
- postnational aspect, SWPR 23–4
- poverty
 - colonial territories 225
 - comparative research
 - gains of 285–8
 - obstacles 278–85
 - disproportionate affect on women 36
 - exclusion from informational society 401
 - gendered nature, in old age 365–6
 - housing tenure 366
 - national averages 325
 - public rented accommodation 369
 - social insurance institutions 164–8
 - see also* anti-poverty programmes
 - poverty lines 279, 343, 347
- power
 - gendered dimensions 33
 - informational networks 389
 - see also* political power
- pragmatism, transnational social policies 63
- prescribed multiculturalism 212
- priority need, homelessness 300
- private insurance 169–70
- private rented accommodation, decline in 366–7
- privatization policies, housing 359
- productivist commitment, social development 231, 233–4
- productivist social development regime 251
- professional interests, poverty research 284
- progress 52, 231
- property crime 283
- property markets 356
- property owning regimes 356–7
- property rights 120
- propinquity factor 309
- public funding, of research 271
- public pensions 168–70
- public policy, social exclusion research 350
- public rented accommodation, poverty 369
- public–private divide
 - and citizenship 188
 - de-statization 15–16
- public–private networks, growth of 24
- public–private partnerships 16, 19
- publications
 - international research 266–7
 - see also* literature
- purchasing power parities (PPP) 329

- qualitative methods 307–20
 - choosing 313–17
 - comparative evaluation 317–19
 - data processing and interpretation 319
 - managing collaboration, aegis and language 310–13
 - methods, context and theory 308–10
 - multi-disciplinary input 308
 - sampling 313
- 'quality of life' questionnaires 314
- quantitative method 324–36
 - composite indices 331–2
 - GNP as fallacious indicator 328–9
 - link between data and method 335–6
 - national averages 324–5
 - scoring and scaling 329–31
 - shadow economy 334–5
 - survey research, limits of 325–7
 - temporal lag between cause and effect 333–4
 - world-wide statistical analysis 327–8
- questionnaires 314–15
- race, cross-national policy analysis 210–13
- rationality, and autonomy 133
- re-statization 15–16
- re-territorialization, state power 15
- recipient good 142
- reciprocity, Confucian 142, 146
- redistribution
 - paradox of 171–3
 - strategies of equality 161–4
 - outcomes in terms of poverty and inequality 164–8
- regime analysis 205–6, 266
- regional diversities, national averages 325
- regional social policy regimes 249–55
- regulatory power, of state 52
- rental tenure 366, 369
- research cultures 261–4
- research questions
 - arising from existing research 286–7
 - cultural impact 268, 278
- research tasks 261
- researchers
 - asymmetrical relationship, between 282–3
 - British 264, 266, 267
 - formation of multinational consortia 273
 - French 263, 271
 - and policy actors 272–3
 - residual welfare systems 55–6, 121
 - respect, for one's parents 138
 - retirement, social exclusion research 349
 - retrenchment of social programmes, comparative inquiry into 220
 - Review on Care for the Elderly (1994) 146
 - 'right to work', state socialism 79, 81
 - risk pools, social insurance 162
 - Robin Hood principle, of welfare 153, 162
 - rough sleeping 296, 297
 - rural–urban migration 360
 - safari method 310–11
 - sages, human beings' likeness to 136–7
 - sampling, qualitative research 309, 313, 320
 - Saxonic style research 261–2
 - scaling, statistical 329–31
 - Schumpeterian workfare post-national regime 23–4
 - scoring, statistical 329–31
 - sectoral approach, qualitative research 308–9
 - security, see human insecurity; human security; social security
 - segregation, housing provision 357
 - self-awareness, of moral nature 136, 137
 - self-consciousness, moral requirement to treat with dignity 137
 - self-determination
 - national 225
 - personal autonomy 132
 - self-help 41
 - seniority, Japanese pay based on 77
 - settler regimes, cross-national policy analysis 212
 - sexual division of labour, and citizenship 188
 - shadow economy 334–5
 - 'shock therapy' policy 80
 - sickness benefits, social insurance institutions 157–61
 - The Silent Revolution* 326

- single cause models, poverty research 284
- single homeless households 303–4
- slavery/post-slavery, shaping of welfare states 211
- small-n studies 94–5
- snowballing 311, 314
- social administration tradition, welfare states 122–3
- social capital theory 230
- social change
 - critical IPE 31
 - residential property markets 361–4
- Social Charter (EU) 42
- social citizenship 181
- Social Citizenship Indicator Programme* (SCIP) 156
- social contracts, housing provision 364
- social control, centralization of 384
- social democratic welfare state regimes 182–3, 184, 190, 242
- social development
 - Global South 224–31
 - indigenization and normative relevance 231–5
- social evolution, idea of 105
- social exclusion
 - comparative analysis 341–53
 - EU agenda 352–3
 - EU anti-poverty programmes 342–8
 - methodology 341–2
 - possibilities for future research 348–51
 - housing 369–70
 - informal security regimes 245
 - research, government agenda 351
- social expenditure, Japan 74
- social insurance
 - contributions 184
 - early schemes 120
 - institutions, see welfare states, institutions
- social integration, welfare states 108
- social polarization 108
- social policy
 - and autonomy 133
 - changing discourse around 1–2
 - globalization and 2
 - public participation, in information age 400–402
 - and state formation 51–6
 - strategies of equality 153–6
- SWPR 23
- welfare regime approach 239–40
 - see also* comparative social policy; cross-national social policy analysis; global social policy; healthcare policy
- social problems, global 28–9
- social processes, shaping of welfare states 211–13
- social protection by other means (SPM) 68–85
 - Australia 68, 70–73
 - Japan 68–9, 73–8
 - post-socialist societies 78–81
- social provision, Confucian account of 143–7
- social reform, women's political participation 187
- social relations
 - social change 31
 - state regulation of 51–2
 - welfare state 183–4
- social rented accommodation 367
- social rights
 - distinguished from civil and political rights 181
 - welfare capitalism 53
 - women's political mobilization 187
- social security
 - standardized legislation 54
 - Western economies 34
- social settlement, post-war 27
- social solidarity 104
- social stratification, welfare states as systems of 192–3
- social welfare, Global South 224–31
- Social Welfare Department Report on Services for the Elderly (2002) 131
- social work, social development approach 226
- societal approach, comparative research 265–6
- societies
 - comparative social policy
 - competing definitions 104
 - criticisms, as unit of analysis 108–11
 - difficulty in defining 103

- imprecision of concept 105–6
 - re-conceptualizing 111–13
- distinction between states and 103
- Society, Politics and Economic Development: A Quantitative Approach* 331
- socio-economic integration, global
 - ethical framework 61–2
- socio-economic outcomes, cross-national policy analysis 212
- Sostris project 315–16
- South, see Global South
- South Asia
 - aid and informal security 252–3
 - weakness of state 54
- South Korea, possible inclusion in club of welfare states 123
- Southeast Asia, e-governance 391
- Southern European welfare regime model 185
- sovereign states 21
- sovereignty
 - early modern idea of 51
 - popular 52
- 'spatialization of time and experience' 52
- SPM, see social protection by other means
- stakeholders, involvement in research 318–19
- state
 - formation and social policy 51–6
 - globalization
 - and human insecurity 56–9
 - and role as provider of security 41–2
 - globalizing criminology 384–5
 - importance to women's employment 191–2
 - reassessment in social policy analysis 2
 - role in welfare 34–5
 - welfare state regimes 184, 193
- state corporatist model, welfare 158, 159, 160–61
 - income inequality
 - among elderly 168, 169
 - and poverty 165, 166
 - strategies of equality 161–2, 163
- state housing assistance, erosion of 364
- state intervention
 - in economy 17
 - housing 367–8
 - social welfare 224–5
- state socialist countries
 - SPM 69, 78–9
 - welfare systems, exclusion from
 - comparative analyses 117
- state welfare, Japan 75
- state-centred approaches 20
- states
 - comparative social policy
 - comparison of 103–4, 106–7
 - criticisms of, as unit of analysis 108–11
 - re-conceptualizing 111–13
 - distinction between societies and 103
 - five conceptual clarifications 12–13
 - see also* governance; nation-states; national states
- statism, social development 230, 231
- statistical units, poverty research 284–5
- statistics
 - political and institutional influence 272
 - see also* quantitative method
- strategies of equality
 - social insurance institutions 161–4
 - social policy 153–6
- Structural Adjustment Loan 81
- structural analysis 202
- structural change 202–3
- structural constraints, social change 31
- structure, in cross-national analyses 202–4
- structured diversity 205–6, 214
- structured qualitative comparison 319
- Sub-Saharan Africa, regional insecurity regime 253–5
- subsidiarity 16, 358
- supranational arena 20
- surveillance, through technology 380
- survey methods 314–15, 325–7
- Survey Research in the Social Sciences* 326–7
- SWPR, see Schumpeterian workfare post-national regime
- Taiwan, Internet and healthcare 398, 399

- targeted model, welfare 153, 154, 155, 158–60 income inequality and poverty 165
 strategies of equality 161, 162, 163 tariffs, Australian economic protectionism 70, 71 taxonomic exercises 219 taxonomies, use of Western 221–2 temporal dimension, cause and effect 333–4 temporary workers, Japan 77 territorialization, political power 12 terrorism 374
 Teutonic style research 262 theft 282–3
Thematic Household Survey Report No. 11 (2003) 140
 theme coding, of text 319
 theoretical knowledge, about poverty 279–80
 Third Wave of Democracy 59
 three-worlds framework, welfare states 112, 123
The Three Worlds of Welfare Capitalism 182 topic diversity, comparative social policy 219 trading blocs, lack of social provision and environmental safeguards 42 transitional social policy, palliative 62–3 translations 268, 312, 315 transnational crime 374, 381 transnational political action, human insecurity 58 transnational social policy 62–3 transnational space, cosmopolitanism 60–61 transparency, in research 320 tree analysis 326 typological preoccupation 219–20 typologizing 112
- under-development 37 unemployment
 Australia (1960–73) 71
 Japan 75
 post-socialist countries 80 social exclusion research 349 see also employment
- unified socio-economic development 227, 230
 United Kingdom
 construction of homelessness 299–304 domestic policy and crime control 379–80 healthcare policy in information age 397–8
 home ownership 361, 366
 linkages between research and policy 271, 272 long-term care 131, 138, 145
 researchers market and policy driven 264 as project co-ordinators 267 social insurance institutions and redistribution 168
 United Nations
 Centre for Human Settlement 297, 357
 Centre on Transnational Corporations 42
 Commission on the Status of Women 36 Development Reports
 globalization (1999) 58
 human security (1994) 50 global solutions to world problems 29 global survey of crime and control 382–3, 384–5 social development approach 226–7, 228–9
 United States
 e-governance 391
 healthcare policy making 397 mass education state 243
 occupational benefits 84 poverty and public rented accommodation 369 welfare state 121, 125, 166 units of analysis 94–5, 103, 268–9, 278, 309 universal concept, crime as 382 universal welfare 153, 154–5 inclusion into club of welfare states 125
 state socialism 78–9 urbanization 359–60

- value consensus 294
- values, nationalistic 52
- variable coding, of text 319
- 'variable distance', in research 269–70
- vested interests, poverty research 283–5
- victim surveys 282, 283
- vignettes 316–17
- voluntarism, global social policy 61
- voluntary sacrifice 140–41
- voluntary subsidized model, welfare
 - 158, 159, 160
 - strategies of equality 161, 162, 163
- wage arbitration, Australia 70, 72, 73, 83–4
- wage flexibility 83
- wages, Japanese 76
- welfare
 - in international political economy 26
 - state role in 34–5
 - see also* social protection by other means
- welfare capitalism 1, 53, 82, 182
- welfare efforts, growth of comparative studies 97
- welfare productivism 231
- welfare society, co-existence of welfare state and 122
- welfare state
 - changing discourse around 1–2
 - feminists' ambivalence towards 35
 - relationship between globalization and 2
 - terminology 180–81
- welfare state regimes 241–4
 - case study research 266
 - citizenship 182–5
 - comparative social policy
 - analytical problem 110–11
 - as unit of analysis 107–8
 - cross-sectoral research 309
 - developing countries 239–56
 - gender-sensitive analysis of 191–4
 - multi-faceted analysis 196–7
- welfare states
 - ethnocentric construction 116–28
 - abolition of 127
 - elastic definition of 122–7
 - exclusions from comparative analyses 117
 - underlying institutional assumptions 118–22
 - western bias 116–17
 - feminist analyses 189–90
 - growth of comparative studies 97–9
 - institutions
 - income inequality among elderly 168–70
 - redistribution 164–8
 - paradox of 171–3
 - strategies of equality 161–4
 - struggle between elites 61–2
 - typology 156–61
 - need for scientific construction 127–8
 - social integration 108
 - strategies of equality 153–6
 - structured diversity, in comparing 201–14
 - three-worlds framework 112
 - use of Western explanatory theories to account for 222
 - use Western taxonomies 221–2
- welfare systems
 - Global South 54–6
 - Westernization of 85
- Western bias, construction of welfare states 116–17
- Western discourses, criminology 385
- Western explanatory theories, evolution of welfare states 222
- Western taxonomies, classification of welfare programmes, non-Western societies 221
- With Respect to Old Age: Long Term Care – Rights and Responsibilities* (1999) 131, 138
- women
 - homelessness, Japan 296–7
 - political and civil citizenship 182
 - poverty in old age 365–6
 - see also* gender
- Women and the Welfare State* 190
- women-friendly policies 187
- women-friendly welfare states 190
- women's autonomization 208
- women's work, distortion in GNP statistics 328
- workfare 125
- workfare regime, Schumpeterianism as 23

- Working Group on the Care of the Elderly 145
- Workplace Industrial Relations Panel Survey (WIRS) 350
- World Bank 42, 80–81, 83, 223, 227, 228, 254, 278, 371
- World Handbook of Political Indicators* 332
- World Health Organization (WHO) 227, 314
- 'world order', gendering 26–7, 30–33
- World Social Summit on Social Development 29, 229
- world society 60
- world-wide statistical analysis 327–8
- young people
 - housing opportunities 363
 - New Labour and crime control 379–80