

Figures

2.1	State–local receipts and expenditures relative to GDP, 1950–2000	11
2.2	State–local expenditures relative to personal income, 1952–2000	11
2.3	Government employment relative to population, 1965–2000	13
2.4	Distribution of state–local general expenditure, 1962–1999	16
2.5	Welfare expenditures relative to general expenditure, 1962–1999	18
2.6	Corrections population and spending, 1982–1999	20
2.7	Distribution of state–local general revenue, 1961–62 to 1998–99	21
2.8	Distribution of major own source revenues, 1961–62 to 1998–99	22
2.9	Federal grants to state–local governments, 1961–62 to 1998–99	24
2.10	Changes in the distribution of federal grants, 1950–2000	24
3.1	Changing composition of income (as a percentage of personal income), 1970–2001	39
3.2	Projected resident population of the United States as of July 1, 2000, middle series	44
3.3	Projected resident population of the United States as of July 1, 2025, middle series	44
5.1	Total local general revenue by type of government, 1968–1997	121
5.2	Components of total state and local general revenue, 1965–1999	122
5.3	Total local general revenue components, 1965–1999	123
5.4	Local property tax revenue as a proportion of general revenue, 1968–1997	125
5.5	Charges and miscellaneous revenue as a proportion of general revenue, 1968–1997	126
7.1	The feasibility of offering public services often depends on the ability to exploit scale economies	180
7.2	Internet use by household income group, 1998 and 2000	196
7.3	Household internet access by state, 2000	198
9.1	Net long-term resource flows to developing countries, 1990–1997 (in billions of US dollars)	279

9.2	Total tax revenue, percentage of GDP, 1975–1999	283
9.3	Taxes on income and profits, percentage of GDP, 1975–1999	284