

---

Contents

---

Foreword by Bob Kirk	ix
Preface by Léo-Paul Dana	x
List of contributors	xii

PART ONE REFLECTIONS

1 Emerging paradigms of international entrepreneurship Léo-Paul Dana and Richard W. Wright	3
2 An accidental international foray Frank Hoy	16
3 Women in international entrepreneurship Nancy J. Adler	30
4 Women, age and money: international entrepreneurship theory in the work of Candida G. Brush Candida G. Brush and Tatiana S. Manolova	41
5 The new globetrotters Laurel J. Delaney	58
6 International entrepreneurship and Chinese business research Henry Wai-chung Yeung	73
7 A typology Hamid Etemad	94

PART TWO CONCEPTUAL CHAPTERS

8 Internationalization: motive and process A. Bakr Ibrahim	129
9 International entrepreneurship and internationalization: common threads Lawrence S. Welch	137
10 The praxeological concept of international entrepreneurship J. Patrick Gunning	150
11 Entrepreneurship and marketing: issues for independent inventors Len Tiu Wright and Celia Harvey	172

vi Contents

- 12 Learning, innovation and globalization: the competitive advantage of collaborative entrepreneurship 190
Harry Matlay and Jay Mitra
- 13 Marshalling relations 213
Hamid Etemad
- 14 Entrepreneurial capabilities: a resource-based systemic approach to international entrepreneurship 248
Jean-Jacques Obrecht

PART THREE GEOGRAPHIC PERSPECTIVES OF INTERNATIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

- 15 Asia-Pacific perspectives of international entrepreneurship 267
John Milton-Smith
- 16 East Asian perspectives of international entrepreneurship 292
Chew Soon Beng and Rosalind Chew
- 17 Two types of self-employed in Canada 308
Louis Jacques Fillion
- 18 Canadian perspectives of international entrepreneurship 330
Martine Spence
- 19 The case of Canadian computer software firms 338
Rod B. McNaughton and Peter Brown
- 20 Business support for internationalization in England 352
Leigh Sear and Robert T. Hamilton
- 21 Estonian perspectives of international entrepreneurship 370
Tiit Elenurm
- 22 Finnish perspectives of international entrepreneurship 383
Reijo Luostarinen and Mika Gabrielsson
- 23 Three case studies from Finland 404
Niina Nummela
- 24 French perspectives of international entrepreneurship 431
Alain Fayolle
- 25 Greek perspectives of international entrepreneurship 455
Pavlos Dimitratos and Spyros Lioukas
- 26 Indian perspectives of international entrepreneurship 481
Shameen Prashantham

27	Irish perspectives on developing international entrepreneurs Jim Bell, David Demick, Ian Callaghan and Aidan O'Reilly	499
28	Japanese perspectives of international entrepreneurship Paul W. Beamish and Jane W. Lu	512
29	New Zealand perspectives of international entrepreneurship Howard H. Frederick, John Thompson and Peter J. Mellalieu	533
30	International expansion of New Zealand firms Heather I.M. Wilson, Sylvie K. Chetty and Gurvinder S. Shergill	549
31	Swedish perspectives of international entrepreneurship Anders Blomstermo, Kent Eriksson and D. Deo Sharma	564
32	The internationalization process of firms in the United Kingdom Dave Crick	580
33	Internationalization and size, age and profitability in the United Kingdom Graham Hall and Ciwen Tu	596
34	United States perspectives of international entrepreneurship Bella L. Galperin	614
35	Internationalizing European IPOs in the United States Boyd D. Cohen	635

PART FOUR FRANCHISING PERSPECTIVES

36	The internationalization of franchising systems into industrialized economies Dianne H.B. Welsh and Ilan Alon	655
37	The internationalization of franchise systems into emerging and transitional economies Dianne H.B. Welsh and Ilan Alon	667
38	A model for the choice of organizational form in international franchising V. Nilakant, Callum J. Floyd and Mary Ellen Gordon	688

PART FIVE TOWARDS FUTURE RESEARCH IN INTERNATIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

39	A network perspective of international entrepreneurship Susanna Hinttu, Maria Forsman and Soren Kock	715
----	--	-----

viii Contents

40	Emerging research issues in international entrepreneurship Shaker A. Zahra, Peggy Cloninger, Ji Feng Yu and Youngjun Choi	732
41	An action research approach for internationalization Claudio Vignali	748
42	Family business successions: toward future research Robert H. Brockhaus Sr.	765
43	On field research methods for theory building and testing Thierry Volery	781
	Index	793