Figures

4.1 Framework for the study of regulation 107
6.1 Economic growth and poverty reduction 130
9.1 Conceptual framework for capacity building with a regulatory agency 184
9.2 The supplier–input–process–output–customer (SIPOC) model as applied to the regulatory process 190
10.1 Stakeholder relations in ethical trade 204
10.2 Audit-related information flows in ethical trade 205
10.3 Indirect and direct regulatory mechanisms in ethical trade 207
10.4 An institutional model of ethical trade regulation 216
15.1 Institutional arrangements for regulation 307
17.1 Scatterplot of labour regulation index and an index of formalism in the enforcement of commercial contracts 349
17.2 Scatterplot of labour regulation index and the number of procedures required by firm entry regulations 350
17.3 Scatterplot of labour regulation index and the scope of credit information on firms provided by a public credit registry agency 351
17.4 Hierarchical clustering of countries based on regulation indicators and gross national income per capita 352
19.1 Structure of the Philippine electricity industry after first deregulation attempt 386
19.2 Power industry structure after RA 9136 394
19.3 Oil industry segments 396
21.1 GT&T’s gross revenues, advisory fees, cash flow and net income (US$m): 1991–96 428
21.2 Comparative percentage returns to ATN from investment in GT&T: 1991–96 429