Index

account management, advertising industry 19–21 ‘accumulation’ 15, 57, 75–6 acquaintances, view of network as 61–2, 67–72, 74–5 Adie, K. 49
advertising 15, 17 account management 19–21 as constituent material practice 18 historical development of 17–28, 29–30 media planning 21–4 research by industry 24–8
Alexanderson, O. 80–81
Alvesson, M. 82
Angell, A. 49, 50
Atkinson, J. 46

Barker’s (advertising agency) 21–2
Baudrillard, J. 14
Bauman, Z. 14, 62–3, 154
BBC (British Broadcasting Corporation) 40, 46
Beck, U. 13, 154 belonging, and identity 57–8
Björkman, I. 82
‘boundary object’ 95
Bourdieu, P. 41–2
Bowker, G.C. 95
Bromley, M. 45
Browne, R. 19, 23, 25
Buckley, S. 36
Burns, T. 40

Calcutt Committee 39
Carlyle, T. 37
Castells, M. 9, 11–13, 15, 34–5, 42, 56, 81 chain, view of network as a 60–61, 62, 64–7, 70–72 chaos (Peters) 150–51
club, view of network as a 59–60, 62, 64–70
Cochoy, F. 27–8 commodity-signs 14 communities of practice 57–8 company, as source of identity 127, 130, 131, 136–8, 139, 141 consumption 14–15, 29–30, 148, 154 ‘cultural intermediaries’ 41–2, 44 culturalization of work 147–50 historical view of 9–17, 28–30 advertising industry, development of 17–28
Czarniawska, B. 83, 95, 101

Delano, A. 47–8
DiMaggio, P. 149–50
epochal analysis 2–4, 9–17, 79–81, 147–53 and work identity 153–6
Evers, G.E. 115
Execency, see talent agency case study (Execency) flexible working patterns growth of 1–2, 11–12, 13 and stability 122–3

    see also IT workers case study (identity in the flexible economy) Foucault, M. 58, 74, 149
fragmentation of society, and identity construction 101–2 Franklin, R. 46
freelance work, see graphic designers case study (self-employment and identity); IT workers case study (identity in the flexible economy)
Gay, P. du 16, 34
Giddens, A. 101, 102
Index

globalization, effects on journalism 35, 42, 49–50 Gorz, A. 9
graphic designers case study (self-employment and identity) 99–100 conclusion 119–20
discourses of other identities 117–19 ‘freelance discourse’ 105–8, 112–16, 118–19 future careers, discourses on 111–12 identity construction at art college 104–8 ‘professional community discourse’ 108–11, 116–17 research context/method 102–4 theoretical perspective 100–102

Habermas, J. 36
hackers 128–9
Hall, S. 123
Halloran, J.D. 44, 47
Hanna, M. 48
Harcup, T. 38
Henderson, H. 21
Henningham, J. 47–8
Himanen, P. 128
homepages 59
Hopkins, C. 24–5
Hower, R. 20

identification (identity construction) 101 identity as a ‘boundary actor’ 95–7
belonging, and identity 57–8
company, as source of identity 127, 130, 131, 136–8, 139, 141 conceptualization of 30, 34–5, 57–8, 73–6 construction of (theory) 4, 82–3, 100–102, 123–5 epochal analysis and work identity 153–6 field identity stories 127–31
practice identity stories 132–42
‘legitimizing identity’ 34, 35, 36–7
‘resistant identity’ 34, 35, 37–41
self-employment, and identity 73, 127–8 stories, social construction of identity through 123–5

and working life, summary of issues 1–4 ‘individualization’ 11–12, 13, 29, 34–5
‘informationalism’ 11
Institute of Journalists (IOJ) 37–8
IT workers case study (identity in the flexible economy) 122–5 ‘Citizen in the Company’ 127, 130, 131, 136–8, 139, 141
conclusion 142–4
field identity stories 127–31
‘Free Agent in the Market’ 127–8, 130, 131, 134–6, 139, 140–42
‘Open-Source Grassrooter’ 128–9, 130, 131, 132–4, 138–40
practice identity stories 132–42
‘Project Maker in a Professional Community’ 129, 130, 131, 139, 141 research design 125–6

James Walter Thompson (JWT, advertising agency) 20, 21, 24, 25, 26–7
Jenkins, R. 100, 101
Johansson, J. 83–5
Johnson, T. 35, 39
Jones, N. 47 journalism case study (identity formation) 34–6, 50–51 21st century 41–2 autonomy and status of journalists 44–9 institutionalization (‘legitimizing identity’) 36–7 mobility, geographical 49–50 professionalization (‘resistant identity’) 37–41 social and cultural role of journalists 43–4
Julier, G. 102, 107

Kant, I. 62, 63
Kelly, K. 79–80
Lash, S. 14, 15, 24, 148–9, 150
Law, J. 16, 59
‘legitimizing identity’ 34, 35, 36–7
Eyberard, J.F. 42
Index

Maddocks, J. 20–21
Mansfield, F.J. 38 marketing 21; see also advertising meaning creation 124–5, 155 media planning, advertising industry 21–4
Mitchell, C. 22
Mol, A. 59
'multi-activity society' 13
Murphy, D. 46

Nance, J. 21
National Union of Journalists (NUJ) 37–9
Negus, K. 41
'network society' 42
networking case study (United Spaces) 76 analytical procedure 63–72 conceptualizations of identity 57–8, 73–6 environments 55–6
'filled space' (Bauman/Kant) 62–3 forms of networking 59–62 network-as-a-chain 60–61, 62, 64–7, 70–72 network-as-a-club 59–60, 62, 64–70 network-as-acquaintances 61–2, 67–72, 74–5 reconciliation of different network versions 72–3 tensions between different network versions 64–72
Nixon, S. 41

One of a Kind, see graphic designers case study (self-employment and identity) organization, and construction of identity 2–3, 82–3, 94–7; see also IT workers case study (identity in the flexible economy) organizational change, and epochal analysis 147–53
Osborne, T. 147, 149

Paine, T. 37
Pattison, S. 151
personal histories, as conceptualization of identity 57, 75

Peters, T. 150–52
Pink, D.H. 73
Piore, M. 46
polarization of work 12, 151
Press Association (PA) 45–6
Press Complaints Commission (PCC) 39–40 Press Council 39
'project identity' 34–5, 49
Pryke, M. 16
Puffelen, F. van 115

Rado, G. 47
Ray, L.15–16
Raymond, C. 19, 23
'reflexive accumulation' 15
Reich, R.B. 42
research, by advertising industry 24–8
'resistant identity' 34, 35, 37–41
Rose, N. 30, 155

Sabel, C. 46
Samson Clark (advertising agency) 23–4
Sayer, A. 16
Schlesinger, P. 44
Schmitt, C. 152
Schumacher, B. 115
'scientific advertising' 24–5
self-employment, and identity 73, 127–8; see also graphic designers case study (self-employment and identity); IT workers case study (identity in the flexible economy)
Sell’s (advertising agency) 19, 20–21, 22, 23
Sennett, R. 13–14, 57, 75, 122–3
'sense making’ 101, 119
Smart, B. 14
Smulders, P.G.W. 115 stability, and flexibility 122–3 Star, S.L. 95
stories, social construction of identity through 123–5
subjectification 58, 155–6
'symbolic analysts’ 42 talent agency case study (Execency) 79, 83–5 agency as a boundary actor 94–7 clients 90–91
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr> </thead> <tbody>
<tr>
<td>demise of agency 91, 93–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>diagrammatic representation 92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>industrial change 87–9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>labour market change 85–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>operation of agency 91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘talents’ 89–90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trossmark, P. 80–81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tulloch, J. 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Turner, C. 10, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United Spaces, see networking case</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>study (United Spaces)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Urry, J. 14, 15, 24, 148–9, 150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>visibility 74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wainwright, M. 47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weber, M. 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weick, K. 83, 101, 119, 124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work ethic, demise of 13–14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work identity, and epochal analysis 153–6</td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>