

Index

---

- abortive entrepreneurship 37 academic knowledge 7–8 academic narratives 116, 117, 128 Ackroyd, S. 82–3 action-enabling coherence 94 activity enclaves 82–3 aestheticism 113 affection 48 affiliation 57–9 Alvesson, M. 21, 22, 31, 88 ambiguity of identity 22, 108 ambition 91–5, 96 American Pastoral 105 antagonism 57–9 anxiety, autonomy from 96, 98–9 artefacts 59–62
atomistic coping strategies 113 atomistic self-sufficiency 51
attitudinal similarities 36 authentic intimacy 45 authentic self-identity 78 authenticity of interviews 123
    search for 51
Authority 98 authority, opposition to 96–7 autonomy 95–9
    desire for 100
    search for 103–4
- back regions 74–5, 77, 78, 79, 81, 84–5
background assumptions 58
‘baggage’ 108
Bagnall, N. 104
Baudolino 1
Berger, P.K. 25, 31
biographical narratives 124 boredom 91–2
boundary spaces 73–5, 79, 81–4
Bourdieu, P. 25, 75, 78
bravery 89–91
Brubaker, R. 31
bureaucracies 99–102
Burgess, R. 122, 123
Burkitt, I. 26
Burrell, G. 31
business failure, imponderables of 94–5
- Casey, C. 20, 26
categorisation techniques 26
characterisation 30 ‘characters’ 22 choice enhancement of 96 plurality of 45 clarity, lust for 116
clichés 109–10
    features of 89–102 function of 87–9
co-presence 70, 84
    desire for 76
cognitive psychology 16
Cohen, L. 81, 82 collective/social identity 22
colliding identities/roles 79–81
Collinson, D. 72 communities of practice 57–9, 61–2, 65 community, sense of 64–5 compatibility 35–6, 41 complementarity 34–5, 41 conceptual ordering 6 conflicts 41–3 consciousness theory 21, 67 contemporary culture, modes of 51
Contingency, Irony and Solidarity 1 contingency-shaped constructions 27–8 continuity 64, 65 continuous observation 121 control 26 across boundaries 82 regional expansiveness of 84
Cooper, F. 31

- coping strategies 113 corporations 99–102
 cosiness, rejection of 100 critical realists 26–7 cultural narratives 88 culture 59–62, 100–102
- Davies, B. 66
 Davis, M.S. 87
 deductive positivist logics 15 deference 71–3
 definitions 8–9, 18–24 Dennett, Daniel 21–2, 117
 dense identities 108 depth-psychological identity 21, 107 Derrida, J. 31 destructive creators 93
 difference
  - boundaries for creating 36
  - generational 59–62
  - identity as 22–4, 64, 66
  - use of clichés 88
- disciplinary space 83 disclosure 73, 74–5
 discourse 24–8 discursive practice 9 discursive pragmatism 27
 disembedding mechanisms 111 distance 48–50
 diversification 92–4, 96–7 division of labour 39, 41–2 dominant narratives 103 Down, Simon 1–2
 dyadic relationships 43 dynamic narratives 40, 43
- Eco, Umberto 1 emblematic use of objects 61–2 emotional investment in research 125, 126 emotional refuge 49–50 empirical studies, need for 17 employed themes 20 employees
  - engagement with 46–9
  - management of 77–9
  - relations with 68–71
  - separation from 90
- emulation 110–13
Enduring Love 118
- entrepreneurial
  - activity 70–71
  - attributes 99–102
  - beginnings 37–40
  - clichés 89–102
  - cognition 16
  - distinctiveness 58
  - event 65
  - identity 62–5
  - stories 88
- entrepreneurs
  - definitions of 9
  - as destructive creators 93
  - investigations of 4–8
  - of the self 115
  - transience of 114
- enterprise culture/discourse 17–18 enterprise studies 14 enterprise, rise of 5, 113–14 epilogue 105–8
 equal relationships 50, 51
 Erikson, E.H. 31
 ersatz intimacy 45, 51
 ethnographic research 3, 10, 15–16
Existentialism and Humanism 13 expansion 91–5 expansive managerial self-identity 78–9 experience
  - ordering of 88
  - safe interpretation of 91
  - transformation of 119
- familial
  - influences 99
  - similarities 35–6
- family culture 49 fieldwork 119–24
 fixed identities 80–81
 fixed models 23
 Flaubert, G. 19
 Foucault, Michel 26, 83 fraternal management control 46 fraternity 44 freedom 95–6, 98 ‘freedom of insecurity’ 5 friendship 124–5
  - formation of 37
  - and research 120–21, 127
- front regions 77, 78, 79, 81, 84–5 fulfilment

- in action 113
- search for 98–9
- Gartner, W.B. 114–15
- generational
  - difference 59–62
  - encounters 62–5
  - identity resources 103
  - narratives 55–6
- generations 53–5, 57–9, 65–7, 109, 110
- Gergen, K.J. 30
- Giddens, A. 18–19, 21, 25, 26, 31–2, 43–4, 50, 83–5, 91, 94, 111, 112
- Goffee, R. 97
- Goffman, E. 31, 81, 83, 84–5
- growth 91–5
  - desire for 95–6
- Hall, S. 31
- Harré, R. 66
- heroism 12
- historic notions of entrepreneurship 3–4
- Hobbs, D. 124, 125
- Holliday, Ruth 120
- Hughes, G. 87
- human life, dialogical character of 50–51
- human nature, socially mediated nature of 14
- identity 21
  - adoption of 124
  - ambiguity of 22
  - blurring of 74–5, 83
  - construction of 127–8
  - definition of 30
  - dividing types of 25
  - formation 122
  - narrative constitution of 19–20
  - portable 77–81
  - re-definition of 72
  - role constraints on 83
  - as sameness/difference 23–4, 64
  - self-management 124
- illegitimate information 126
- immediacy 101
- impersonal forces of modernity 44–5
- individual construction of self-identity 4–5
- individual/personal identity 22
- individualisation 84
- individualism 50–51
  - rise of 5
- information, limits to 125–6
- institutional obligations 44
- interaction systems 25
- interpretive research 4, 7, 15–16
- interviews 122–4
- intimacy
  - between males 50
  - desire for 44–5
  - search for 84
- intuitive approaches 42
- inwardly generated identity 112
- Japanese companies 4
- Jenkins, R. 24, 25, 26, 27, 30, 31
- job-related negative displacements 63
- Kärreman, D. 21, 22, 88
- knowledge
  - environments 94–5
  - free application of 95–6
  - techniques 26
- Kondo, Dorinne 4, 26, 28
- language 24–5
  - approaches to 26–8
- learning
  - mutual engagement in 64
  - process 5–6
- Lefebvre, H. 79
- legitimate information 126
- Lewis, Yvette 16
- lifespan 56, 59, 66
- loyalty 48, 49
- Luckman, T. 25, 31
- MacIntyre, A. 22–3, 31, 81
- male relationships 36, 50
- management control 46–9, 77–9, 82
- Mannheim, Karl 61, 62, 67
- McEwan, Ian 118, 126
- ‘me’ 22
- mechanical stability 94–5
- methodological
  - appendix 118–28
  - deficiencies 14–18
- middle management 100
- Mills, C.W. 28
- mimetic pre-modern narratives 110–13

- modern relationships 43–5
- modernity
  - central concepts of 103
  - conditions of 94–5
  - counter-reaction to 110–13
  - impersonal forces of 45
- Monder, Ram 120
- monological expression of self-creation 50–51
- moral choice, identity as 20, 31
- moral definitions 22–3
- moral judgements 112–13
- Morgan, G. 31
- motivation for entrepreneurship 36–7
- Moule, Chris 85, 120
- multitasking narratives 56
- mundane realities
  - rejection of 100–101
  - talking-up of 97
- mutual engagement 59, 64
- mutual knowledge 8, 22–3, 122
- mutual obligations 96–7
- mutually supportive work identities 40

- narcissistic coping strategies 113
- narrative processes of self-identity
  - construction 3–4
- narratives
  - forms of 6
  - relegation of 90
- narratives of enterprise 113–15
- natural attitude 21–2
- natural fit 101
- natural science 7–8
- naturalistic narrative 117
- negative identity 66, 88
- negotiable resources 59–60
- new technologies 61, 64
- non-entrepreneurial narratives 73
- ‘not me’ 22

- observation 121–2
- occupational identification 59, 65
- occupational socialisation 58
- office talk 76–7
- ontological narratives 6, 19
  - changes in 12
  - mixing of 103
- oppositional differentiation 88
- oppositional narratives 66, 102, 103, 112

- ordinariness, avoidance of 98–9
- organisation studies 14
- overlapping narratives 77

- Paine, R. 44
- paradigms 15
- parody 79
- partial narratives 116
- Partridge, E. 104
- paternal management control 46
- ‘personality’ 21
- personality theories 16–17
- pluralism 17, 45
- political implications of enterprise culture 18
- political relevance of enterprise 115
- portability, limits of 79–81
- portable identities 77–9
- positioning 25, 66
- positive functions of clichés 87–8
- positive renditions of enterprise 114
- post-structural analyses 25–7
- power
  - inequalities 72
  - techniques 26
- practice, mutual engagement in 64
- pragmatism 27, 28, 118
- pre-modern consciousness 110–13
- private time/space 56
- professional narrative 117
- professional socialisation, equipment of 128
- project sites 71–3
- prototypical constructs 44
- proverbs 87–8
- psychic satisfaction 44
- psychological identity 21
- public narratives 6, 19, 22, 25, 88, 89, 102–3, 107–8
- pure relationships 44–5

- radical social-constructionists 26–8
- rational considerations 90
- real time observation 121–2
- realists 26–8
- reality 94, 97
- recognition, need for 112
- Reed, M.I. 12
- reflexive ordering 66
- reflexive relationships 35, 39–40

- rehearsed selves 123
- relational affinity/similarity 36 attributes/routines 39–40, 41–2 insularity 51–2
- relationships 33–52, 109, 110
 effects of interviews 123
- repetition 110–13
- replacement 65–6
- research conclusion of 126–7 deficiencies/omissions 7 limits to 125–6
 as writing/constructing identity 127–8
- researchers bond with subjects 120–21 management of self-identity 124
- risk 89–91
- rituals 76–7
- role distance 81, 82–3
- Rorty, Richard 1, 27, 31, 112
- Rose, N. 51
- Roth, Philip 105, 116, 126
- routine 93
- sameness, identity as 23–4, 64
- Sartre, Jean Paul 13
- Scase, R. 97
- Schumpeter, J.A. 5, 112, 114
- security 89–90
 pursuit of 99
- 'self' 20
- self-absorption 48, 52
- self-identity agency/structure 24–8 consolidation 64 control of 98–9 deficiencies/opportunities 14–18
 definitions of 8–9, 18–24
 descriptive terms 23
 disclosure 73, 74–5
 fragile/robust feelings 103–4 and friendship/research 124–5 parameters of 22
 re-casting of 107 strategies 83–4 theorists 13–14 theory in practice 28–30
 transience of 23, 114
- self-narrative see ontological narrative
- self-referentiality 113
- self-regard 48
- self-reliance 99–100
- self-space 116–17
- self-sufficiency 95–9
- Sennett, Richard 50–51, 65, 70, 83, 84, 98–9, 107, 108, 112
- Shapiro, A. 63, 65
- Shapin, S. 87–8
- 'similarity' 22–4
- smoothing functions of clichés 87–9
- social agency, conceptualisation of 24–8
- social autonomy 98–9
- social categories/roles 9
- social forces 6, 115
- social functions of clichés 87
- social identities, blurring of 74–5
- social implications of enterprise culture 18
- social power 78
- social processes of self-identity
 construction 3–4
- social relevance of enterprise 115
- social roles 22–3
- social science 7–8 terms 28–9
 theory 10
 vocabulary of 111–12
- social sensibilities 122
- social structures 10–11
 conceptualisation of 24–8
 engagement with 91
- social-constructionists 17, 26–8
- socially open areas 75–81
- socio-technical artefacts 61–2
- sociological orthodoxy of narrative identity 21–2
- sociotemporal order 56
- Sokol, L. 63, 65
- Somers, Margaret 6–7, 19–20, 22, 26, 30–31, 55, 111
- spaces 81–4, 109, 110
 boundary spaces 73–5
 socially open areas 75–81
 work spaces 68–73
- spatial fragmentation 84
- spatial practice 79
- specialisation of professional practice
 7–8
- static theories 4–5

- stories, identity as 20, 55–6 strategic approaches 42, 48–9 strategic mobilisation of narrative resources 11–12 Strauss, Anselm 13, 31, 56 strong identities 108 structure 10–12, 24–8 subjectivity 24–8 subordinate roles, parodying 79
 subordination 96–7 subservience 71–3
 substitute intimacy 48, 50
- Taylor, Charles 3, 20, 50, 81, 82, 112, 116 temporal narrative resources 55–6, 65 temporally based identity 59, 66
 tensions 42–3
 ‘them’ 60 theoretical deficiencies 14–18 theoretical purity 7–8 theory existing 29–30 in practice 28–30 in use 62
 thick description 120
 Thompson, P. 82–3 time 55–6
- traditional relationships 44
 truthful knowledge 27–8 Tsoukas, H. 27
- unconscious patterns 62
 unequal relationships 50 ‘unit counting’ approaches 16 upbringing, similarities in 35 ‘us’ 60
- value neutrality 51
 Van Maanen, J. 121
- weak identities 108
 Wenger, E. 64
 Western society 5, 115
 Wilson, Colin 117 words, meaning of 18–19 work identities
   blurring of 74–5
   creation of 81–4
 work spaces 68–71, 82–3
 work, institutional structure of 96 work-based friendship 36 writing 127–8
- Zerubavel, E. 56
 Zijderveld, A.C. 91, 94, 102