

List of tables

3.1	The world's largest 500 multinational enterprises	26
3.2	Intra-regional trade in the triad, 1980–2002	33
3.3	Intra-regional FDI in the triad, 1986–2000	33
3.4	Bilateral stocks of US foreign FDI: Canada and the United States, 1985–2000	35
3.5	The intra-regional nature of Canadian MNEs	38
5.1	Expected signs of explanatory variables	75
5.2	Variables, definitions and data sources	81
5.3	Correlation matrix of FDI variables	82
5.4	Correlation matrix, independent variables	83
5.5	FDI and M&A inflows	88
5.6	FDO and M&A outflows	92
6.1	Definitions of the explanatory variables and their expected signs	107
6.2	Productivity regression results based on unbalanced sample (heteroskedasticity-consistent)	110
6.3	Productivity regression results based on balanced sample (heteroskedasticity-consistent)	112
6A.1	List of variables and data sources	121
8.1	Comparative excess capacity rates, C vs U inward bound FDI	164
8.2	Parameter sensitivity: sunk costs and market access: breakeven CDR for C -based FDI	166
8.3	CDR with extreme loss aversion	167
8.4	Benchmark FDI location alternatives: no C policy interventions	170
8.5	Alternative policy interventions to attract inward FDI	171
9.1	The Blomström and Kokko (1997) framework	185
9.2	Gravity model estimates for US bilateral outward FDI, 1970–2000	196
9.3	Gravity model estimates for OECD bilateral inward FDI, 1980–2000	199
10.1	Annual changes in product diversification of foreign- vs domestic-controlled plants	223
10.2	Determinants of plant diversification in 1990	229

10.3	Effects of tariff reductions on changes in product diversification, 1980–96	235
10B.1	Summary statistics of variables in the sample for estimating the determinants of product diversification	246
10B.2	Summary statistics of variables in the sample used for estimating the effects of tariff changes	246
13.1	1980s US locational tournament – low incentive values	308
13.2	1980s US locational tournament – high incentive values	309
13.3	1980s US locational tournament – competition, labor and capacity	310
13.4	Canadian locational tournament – low incentive values	312
13.5	Canadian locational tournament – high incentive values	313
13.6	Canadian locational tournament – competition, labor and capacity	313
13.7	1990s US locational tournament – low incentive values	314
13.8	1990s US locational tournament – high incentive values	315
13.9	1990s US locational tournament – competition, labor and capacity	316