This book arises out of an international workshop held in the University of Manchester in November 2003. We are very grateful to fellow university colleagues Rod Coombs and Richard Whitley, who did not present papers but contributed to discussions on many of the issues presented in the book. We are also grateful to Leslie Willcocks who made a presentation and contributed to the debates. We would also like to thank Nirit Shimron and Mary O'Brien for their help in preparing the book.

Finally, we are grateful for permission to reproduce two chapters which appear in similar form in journals. Chapter 4 is published in similar form as M. Miozzo and D. Grimshaw (2005), 'Modularity and innovation in knowledge-intensive business services: IT outsourcing in Germany and the UK', Research Policy, 34 (9), 1419–39. We gratefully acknowledge permission from Elsevier. Chapter 6 is published in similar form as Grimshaw, D. and Miozzo, M. (2006), 'Institutional effects on the market for IT outsourcing: analysing clients, suppliers and staff transfer in Germany and the UK', Organisation Studies, forthcoming. We gratefully acknowledge permission from Sage Publications Ltd.
