

Index

- Aastrup, J. 17 action plan model, European development strategies 294–6 policy, European development strategies 298–9 see also planning actions European development strategies, for already taken 273–5 required to lift barriers 279–86 to be taken, as priority 291–4 actors
 EIT demand side 15–17
 supply side 17–21
 network design, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 153 terminal, container handling service quality and 93–3 transport, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 152 see also operators
Agile Port System (USA) technical approach 6, 135–6, 150 collection and distribution along trains, high-capacity box mover for 145–50 hub technology, innovative 140–45 marine terminal, efficient 137–40 storage facilities, outplacing from ocean harbours 136–7 see also hinterland development; port systems; USA air transport integration into intermodal chains, European development strategies 290–91
Alberghini, G. 80
Alexander, E.R. 253
Alicke, Knut 144
Anderson, W. 44
ATA (American Trucking Association) 314
Australian-European Conference 229–30
Austria
 interconnectivity and interoperability and 235
 NG concepts and 160
automation
 container handling future and 114 gate operations with increased, container handling system developments 128–9
 NG concepts implementation and 161, 163
 road services interface, of, container handling system developments 129–30 terminal handling system 125–7 see also technology
Avery, P. 137, 139, 142
Bailey, J.P. 256
Bakos, J.Y. 256, 257
Ballis, A. 30
barges see inland shipping
Barke, M. 74
barriers
 European development strategies, to, 275–8, 279–86, 287
 intermodalism 225
Bärthel, Fredrik 2–3, 14, 25
Bauer, R. 147
Belgium
 container bundling 81, 83, 84, 86
 EIT and 27
 hinterland development networks and 76–9, 82
Benjamin, R.I. 255, 256, 257

- Bereskin, C.G. 41
 Bergstrand, J. 30
 Berry, L.L. 89, 94
 Beuthe, M. 211
 Bodendorf, F. 255, 257
 Bontekoning, Y.M. 30, 69, 92, 208, 209–10, 276
 Boske, L. 303–4
 Bowersox, D.J. 93
 box mover high-capacity, for collection and distribution along trains, Agile port system 147–50
 Bradley, P. 51
 Breitzmann, K.-H. 213
 Britain see UK
 Brunn, E. 161
 Brynjolfsson, E. 256, 257
 BTS (Bureau of Transportation Statistics) (USA) 44, 46, 307
 Buchholz, J. 207
 Buis, J. 265
 Bukold, S. 14, 17
 bundling complex, principles and impacts of 155 container see container bundling container flows rail-bound inland, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45 freight flows 66, 69–72, 85, 87, 157 load unit exchange and 153, 154–9 networks, load unit exchange and 174, 175 bundling triangle cost function and economies of scale in network design relating to 180–82 qualitative elaboration 165–73
 Bürkl, M. 161, 173
 Buxmann, P. 252 capacity crane, container handling future and 120–23, 124 high- box mover, for collection and distribution along trains, Agile port system 145–50 loading, container line service 67–8 Carey, B. 80 cargo see freight CargoNet 18, 21 challenges
 development 2–10
 transport quality and efficiency improvement 152–3 US government innovation role 309, 318 characteristics
 container cranes 119–20
 continental terminals, container handling service quality in 100 coordination structures 254–5, 260–61
 freight flows, EIT 25–7
 future type container vessels 115 maritime terminals, container handling service quality in 95 service, container terminal handling quality and 96, 100 urban intermodal freight transport, Japan 59–61
 Charlier, J. 80
 Chatterjee, Latta 3–4
 Chircu, A.M. 255
 choice
 interconnectivity and interoperability and 225–6
 ports and terminals, of, container handling future 133
 Choong, S.T. 276
 Churchman, C.W. 14
 Clark, T.H. 256
 Clausen, U. 207
 Clinger, J. 40
 Closs, D.J. 93
 CNC (Compagnie Nouvelle de Cadres) 18, 21, 24 coastal shipping
 Japan 58, 59–60
 mainport development trends and 112
 see also shipping
 Cole, M.H. 276 collection along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile port system 145–50 communicability
 MEA and, system design 195, 196

- competition
 - container handling future and 109, 132
 - container handling service quality and 97, 103, 104
 - EIT 25, 27, 30
 - European development strategies and 273, 278
 - freight bundling and 69–71
 - hinterland development networks design and 73, 78–9
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 248–9
 - interorganizational coordination processes and 260
 - Japan 62
 - US intermodalism and 37, 39, 53, 55–6
 - see also* SSCA
- conditions
 - external, system design 197–8
 - working, safe, mainport development trends and 112
 - see also* quality conditions
- connectivity see interconnectivity
- consolidators
 - US intermodalism and 51
- Consortium (Germany) 147
- container bundling
 - concepts in multi-terminal container ports 76
 - hinterland development networks and 80–86
 - see also* bundling
- container flows
 - rail-bound inland, bundling of, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45
 - see also* flows
- container handling
 - future scale dilemma 5–6, 109–10, 132
 - choice of ports and terminals 133
 - container cranes, requirements for 119–23
 - cost-driven approach 132–3
 - increased scale, impact of 113–14
 - port and terminal development 110–13, 117–19
 - service-driven approach 132
 - system developments 123–31
 - vessel size 114–16
 - service quality 4–5, 89–90
 - continental terminals 98–104
 - costs 91
 - further research 94, 104
 - maritime terminals 94–8, 103–4
 - measurement 93–4
 - production process 90–91
 - terminal actors 92–3
- container line service
 - design 67
 - frequency 67
 - intermediate terminals, stops at 68
 - loading capacity 67–8
 - see also* services
- containerization
 - EIT and 17, 18
 - hinterland development networks and 66
 - hinterland transport and, modal split in 79
 - Japan 59
 - maritime, interconnectivity and interoperability development and 228–30
 - US intermodalism and 45–6, 50–51, 52, 53
- control
 - container handling future and 114, 125
 - see also* performance
- Cooke, J. 51
- cooperation
 - road services and terminals, container handling system developments 130–31
 - satellite and main terminals, container handling system developments 131
- coordination see interorganizational coordination
- Copacino, W.C. 91
- Corsi, T.M. 29
- cost advantage strategy
 - SSCA and, system design 192–3, 194
 - see also* strategies
- cost-driven approach
 - container handling future and 132–3

- cost function
 - economies of scale and, network design in relation to bundling triangle 180–82
- costs
 - bundling triangle and 166, 168, 180–82
 - business economic, system design and 203
 - container handling future and 109, 110, 112, 132
 - container handling service quality and 91, 96, 97, 102, 103
 - differences per load unit 178–9
 - EIT and 30
 - exchange nodes and 173, 175
 - freight flows bundling and 66, 69
 - hinterland development networks design and 72, 80
 - integral, load unit exchange and 175–80
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 226, 229, 241, 248
 - Japan 60–61
 - load unit exchange innovation and 154, 156
 - mainport development trends and 112
 - MegaHub and 144–5
 - socio-economic, system design and 203
 - US government innovation role and 302
 - US intermodalism and 49, 50
 - see also* price
- Crainic, T.G. 208, 210
- Cramton, P.C. 256, 257
- cranes
 - container, requirements for, container handling future and 119–23
 - RMG (rail-mounted gantry) 125, 138
 - STS (ship-to-shore) 137, 139
 - see also* equipment; infrastructure
- Crowston, K. 253, 254, 255, 256
- Cullinane, K. 74
- customs brokers
 - US intermodalism and 51
- De Boer, J. David 233
- De Witt, W. 40
- definitions
 - coordination 253
 - intermodal freight transport 206–7
 - intermodal transport 189
 - intermodalism 35, 36
 - intermodality 189–90
 - supply chain 40
 - system components and, system design 189–91
 - transport chain 207
 - uncertainty 257
- demand side
 - market and actors, EIT 15–17
- Demilie, C.L. 211
- Denis, J. 163
- deregulation
 - EIT and 23, 27
 - US government innovation role and 314
 - US intermodalism and 41
 - US railroads and intermodalism, interconnectivity and interoperability and 233
- design
 - container line service 67
 - hinterland development networks 72–3
 - planning guidance and, public sector role in, US intermodalism 54
 - see also* network design; system design
- design tools
 - development challenge 2, 5–8
- D’Este, G. 276
- development
 - challenges 2–10
 - hinterland, networks design 72–3
 - interconnectivity and interoperability 227–35
 - passenger and freight transport, US economic growth and 43
 - port and terminal, container handling future and 110–13, 117–19
 - terminal container handling system 123–4
 - gate operations, with increased automation 128–9

- gate process redesign with reduced
 - inspection activities 131
- landside operations 127–8
- satellite terminals, cooperation
 - with 131
- train shuttles 131
- truck interface, automated
 - handling of 129–30
- trucking and terminals,
 - partnership between 130–31
- waterside operations 124–7
- development strategies
 - Europe 9–10, 271–2, 296–7
 - action plan model 294–6
 - actions already taken 273–5
 - actions to be taken, as priority 291–4
 - air transport integration into
 - intermodal chains 290–91
 - barriers 275–8, 279–86, 287
 - policy action plan for 298–9
 - railways, role of as traction providers 287–8
 - short-distance services 288–9
 - short-sea shipping services 291
 - small shipments services 289–90
- differentiation strategy
 - SSCA and, system design 192, 193–4
 - see also* strategies
- Dijkstra, E.W. 265
- DIN (Deutsches Institut für Normung) 207
- Dinwoodie, J. 13
- distribution
 - along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile port system 145–50
- diversity
 - durability and, effects of
 - institutional, US government innovation role and 305–9
 - price of, interconnectivity and interoperability 226–7
- Donaldson, L. 252
- durability
 - diversity and, effects of institutional, US government innovation role and 305–9
- efficiency
 - fairness and, of pricing, as priority action, European development strategies 292
 - interconnectivity and
 - interoperability and 225, 226–7
 - transport, improving, load unit exchange and 152–3
 - see also* EMT; performance
- Eisenberg, E.M. 254
- EIT (European intermodal road-rail freight transport)
 - demand side market and actors 15–17
 - expectations unfulfilled 13–14
 - freight flows, size and character of 25–7
 - marketplace market and actors 21
 - overview 2–3
 - production system 21–5
 - solution to road and rail transport problems, as 13
 - supply side market and actors 17–21
 - synthesis and outlook 27–31
 - see also* European Union
- Ekering, C.F. 256
- EMT (Efficient Marine Terminal) 136, 137–40, 141, 147, 150
 - see also* efficiency
- ENO Transportation Foundation, Inc. 302
- environment
 - differentiation strategy and, system design 194
 - EIT and 30–31
 - Japan 60, 63, 65
 - mainport development trends and 112
 - system design and 204
 - US government role, innovation and 303
- equipment
 - capital for, EIT and 28
 - cargo-handling, US intermodalism and improvements in 51–2
 - container handling future and 114
 - freight bundling 69
 - interconnectivity and
 - interoperability and 245–6
 - see also* cranes; infrastructure

- European Commission development strategies and 272, 275, 288, 290, 292, 293, 297
 EIT and 13, 25, 30
 interconnectivity and
 interoperability and 242–4
 IQ (Intermodal Quality) 27, 89, 277–8
 network modelling and 207
 PACT programme 248, 250
 PROMOTIQ 278, 287
 STREAMS 209
- European Union
 barging network, container bundling in 83–6 development strategies see development strategies, Europe
 interconnectivity and interoperability and 227, 229–30, 231, 232–4, 239, 242, 245–50 rail networks, container bundling in 80, 82–3 SAIL Project 247 transport flows (1999) 28 transport growth in (1970–2000) 26 transported volumes of major operators (1990–2002) 26 see also EIT
- Eurostat 14
- evaluation
 SSCA 201–4
 system design 200–201, 205
- exchange hub, NG concepts implementation and 163–4 see also innovation, load unit exchange
- Fabel, P. 142
- fairness efficiency and, of pricing, as priority action, European development strategies 292
- feederling success of, interconnectivity and interoperability development and 234–5
- FHWA (Federal Highway Administration) (USA) 306–7
- flexibility
 container handling future and 109, 132
 container handling service quality and 89, 92, 104
see also performance
- Florian, M. 210
- flows container, rail-bound inland, bundling of, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45 freight, size and character of, EIT 25–7
 NG concepts implementation and 163
 open corridors, European development strategies and 278 transport, European intermodal (1999) 28
- Floyd, R.W. 265
- Flughafen/Cargo City, Frankfurt, Germany 275
- FMCSA (Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration) (USA) 307
- focus strategy
 SSCA and, system design 192, 194–5
see also strategies
- forwarders
 EIT and 15–17, 18, 29
 tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208
 US intermodalism and 50
- Foundation for Promoting Personal Mobility and Ecological Transportation (Japan) 64
- FRA (Federal Railroad Administration) (USA) 307
- France
 container bundling 80, 81, 83, 86
 EIT and 13, 17, 18, 21, 24, 27
 hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
 interconnectivity and interoperability and 232, 235, 240, 247
 MegaHub technology and 145
 network modelling and 210
 NG concepts and 159, 160

- non-technical network innovations and 165
- Franke, Klaus-Peter 6, 141, 143, 145, 173
- Frankel, J. 43
- Fränkle, A. 214
- freight
 - bundling, hinterland development networks and 66, 69–72, 87
 - commercial activity by mode of transportation 1997, estimate of total, USA 46
 - domestic transport, modal share of, Japan 59
 - flows, size and character of, EIT 25–7
 - growth by traffic modes 1970–95, USA 44
 - handling equipment, US intermodalism and improvements in 51–2
 - intensity, USA 45
 - intermodalism by commodities, form of, USA 48
 - shipments by value and tonnage, USA 35, 47
 - spatial concentration of, in port systems, hinterland development networks and 73–5
 - transport costs, Japan 61
 - transport development, passenger transport development and US economic growth and 43
 - value, by, USA 45
- freight concentration
 - level in port systems and hinterland, inland services configuration as function of 74
 - throughput and in H-LH range 77
- freight sector
 - US government role, innovation and, passenger sector compared 309–12
 - US intermodalism patterns and 42–5
- frequency
 - container handling service quality and 89
 - container line service 67
 - ICT impact on interorganizational coordination and 257, 261–2
 - volumes and unit capacity and 68, 167
 - see also* performance
- Frindik, R. 161
- Gadde, L.E. 14
- Galbraith, J.R. 257
- gasoline
 - transportation by inland river shipping, Japan 63
- gate
 - operations with increased automation, container handling system developments 128–9
 - process, redesign with reduced inspection activities, container handling system developments 131
- Gebauer, J. 252
- Germany
 - container bundling 80, 81, 82, 83–4, 85, 86
 - EIT and 13, 17, 18, 19, 27
 - European development strategies and 273–4, 275
 - hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 232, 234, 235, 249–50
 - LMTT and 47
 - MegaHub technology and 141, 142–3, 145, 150
 - network modelling and 212, 218, 219–20
 - NG concepts and 159, 160
- GHR 259
- Gifford, J.L. 19
- Gilman, S. 74
- globalization
 - container handling future and 109, 110
 - mainport development trends and 111
 - US government innovation role and 303
 - US intermodalism and 39, 40
 - US transport changes and 34
- Godlee, F. 303

- Golias, J. 28, 30
 Golob, T.F. 29
 Gooley, T. 51
 Gould, P.R. 73 government role in fostering innovation, USA see USA, government innovation role see also public sector
 Grimm, C.M. 29
 Guttman, R.H. 254
 Gwilliam, K. 53
- Ha Con 161
 Hagler Bailly, Inc. 52
 Haines, M. 55
 Håkansson, H. 14 hauliers see PPH Hayuth, Y. 74
 Helfferich, O.K. 93
 Hengst, Mariëlle den 9, 255, 256, 268
 Henstra, D. 14, 30
 Hickling, L. 37
 hinterland development networks
 container bundling 80–86
 design 72–3
 freight flows bundling and 66–72, 87 inland service configuration and,
 Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
 overview 4 port areas, concepts in 75–6 port systems, spatial concentration of cargo in 73–5
 see also Agile port system; networks hinterland traffic network modelling and 212–16
 Holguín-Veras, José 10, 303, 308, 310
 Hollingshead, A.B. 252 homogeneity interorganizational coordination and 256–7, 261
 Houtman, J. 30 hub exchange
 NG concepts implementation and 163–4 hub technology innovative, Agile port system 140–45
 see also technology
- human behaviour
 hinterland development networks
 design, impact on 73
 Hupac/Trans Alps Service 274–5
 Huth, E. 147
- ICF (Intercontainer-Interfrigo) 18, 21, 24, 25, 81
 ICT (information and communication technology)
 EIT and 17, 22, 29–30
 increased scale impact 114
 interorganizational coordination and 252–3, 255–8, 260, 261, 262, 266–8 mainport development trends and 112
 US intermodalism and 40–41, 42, 52, 55
 see also information system;
 technology
 IFEU and SKGV 30–31
 IIC (Intermodal Interface Center) 6, 136, 140–41, 150
 ILU (intermodal loading unit)
 EIT and 13, 14
 freight flows 27
 market demand side 15, 16
 market supply side 17, 18
 standardization, lack of 30 see also load unit implementation development challenge 8–10
 innovation, possible path for 320 realized, of NG concepts 161–4 IMPULSE 161 information availability of, network modelling 219–20 hinterland traffic alternatives and,
 network modelling 215–16
 network, interorganizational coordination processes and 260 structure of, interorganizational coordination system and 263–4 working practices and, rail services
 interconnectivity and interoperability and 241

- information system
 - improvement needed, Japan 64–5
 - see also* ICT; system
- infrastructure
 - EIT and 15, 22, 28–9, 30
 - freight bundling and 72
 - increased scale impact 114, 117
 - interconnectivity and
 - interoperability and 238–9
 - intermodal transport in, system design and 190
 - Japan 63, 64, 65
 - mainport development trends and 111
 - transport modes implications for, network modelling and 216–19
 - US intermodalism and 37, 39
 - see also* equipment; resources
- inland services
 - configuration as function of cargo concentration level in port systems and hinterland 74
 - direct versus indirect 71
 - see also* services
- inland shipping
 - continental container terminal
 - service quality and 100, 101–2, 103, 104
 - European interconnectivity and interoperability and 245–6
 - hinterland development networks and 76–9, 83–6
 - hinterland traffic alternatives 214–15
 - infrastructure implications, network modelling and 218–19
 - mainport development trends and 112
 - NG concepts and 160–61, 162–3
 - see also* shipping
- innovation
 - development challenge 2
 - government role in fostering, USA
 - see* USA, government
 - innovation role
 - hinterland development networks and 66
 - implementation path for 320
 - load unit exchange 6–7
 - bundling 154–9
 - bundling triangle 165–73, 180–82
 - costs, integral 175–80
 - exchange nodes 173–5
 - network design research 183–4
 - networks, best 183
 - NG (new-generation) concepts 159–64
 - non-technical network
 - innovations 164–5
 - PPH 183
 - transport quality and efficiency, improving 152–3
 - US intermodalism and 52
 - see also* technology
- inspection
 - mainport development trends and 112
 - reduced activities, gate process
 - redesign with, container handling system developments 131
- institutions
 - diversity and durability effects, US government innovation role and 305–9
 - US intermodalism and 35, 41, 49–51
 - see also* interorganizational coordination
- integration
 - European development strategies and 276–7, 278, 290–91
 - MEA and, system design 195–6
 - terminal and box projects, networks and 160
- interconnectivity
 - importance, Japan 59
 - interoperability and 8–9, 235–9, 250–51
 - barriers to 225
 - choice, making 225–6
 - development 227–35
 - diversity, price of 226–7
 - European Union and 227, 232–3, 245–50
 - railways 239–41
 - US intermodalism and 49–50
- intermodal freight transport
 - defined 206–7
 - future of, overview 1–2
- intermodalism
 - air transport integration into, European development strategies 290–91

- domestic, European
 - interconnectivity and
 - interoperability and 246–7
- modalism to, interconnectivity and
- interoperability development and 227–8
- see also* USA, intermodalism
- interoperability
 - promotion of as priority action, European development strategies 293–4
 - see also* interconnectivity, interoperability and
- interorganizational coordination
 - ICT and 252–3, 255–8, 266–8
 - overview 9
 - practice 258–62
 - system 262–6
 - theory 253–5
- IQ (Intermodal Quality) 27, 89, 277–8
 - see also* European Commission; quality
- ISO (International Standards Organization) 231, 236
- IT (information technology) see ICT
- Italy
 - container bundling in rail networks 80
 - EIT and 13, 17, 18, 27
 - European development strategies and 274
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 232, 234
- Jablin, F.M. 253
- Jahnke, B. 158
- Janic, M. 210
- Japan
 - urban intermodal freight transport 4, 58–9
 - characteristics 59–61
 - methods for promoting 64–5
 - rail, waste materials transportation by 61–2
 - shipping, inland river 62–3
- Jara-Diaz, S. 310
- Jensen, Arne 7, 187, 188–9, 200
- Jordan, J.M. 264
- Jourquin, B. 211
- Kalakota, R. 255, 256
- Kasper, H. 90, 91
- Kauffman, R.J. 255
- Khanna, M. 74
- Kombiverkehr 18, 27, 273–4
- Konings, J.W. 30, 76, 92, 276
- Kornelius, L. 256
- Kortschak, B.H. 142
- Kreutzberger, Ekki 6–7, 30, 92, 102, 135, 136, 207
- Kuhn, A. 212
- Kuipers, B. 92
- Kutanoglu, E. 276
- Lakshmanan, T.R. 3–4, 44, 47
- Lee, H.G. 256
- legislation
 - Decision 884/2004 (Trans-European Transport Network) 272, 287
 - Directive 91/440 (Railways Development) 287, 288
 - Directive 96/48 (Interoperability Harmonization) 272, 287
 - Directive 2001/12 (Access to Railway Infrastructure) 287, 288
 - Directive 2001/13 (Licences to Railway Operators) 287, 288
 - Directive 2001/14 (Railway Capacity) 237, 272, 287, 288
 - Directive 2001/16 (Interoperability for Conventional Rail) 239, 241, 243–4, 246, 272, 287
 - Directive 2004/50 (Interoperability for High-Speed Rail) 287
 - Directive 2004/51 (Railways Development) 287, 288
 - European interconnectivity and interoperability 242–4
 - Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act (ISTEA) (USA) 37, 53, 54, 238, 308, 312
 - Staggers Act 1980 (USA) 233
 - TEA 21 (USA) 53, 54, 238
 - Treaty of Rome 243
- Lemper, B. 212
- Lena, T.S. 303
- Levacic, R. 257
- Ljungemyr, H. 30
- LMTT (linear motor-based transfer technology) 138, 145–50

- load unit
 - exchange, technical concepts for
 - see* innovation, load unit exchange
 - system design definitions and 189
 - see also* ILU
- loading capacity
 - container line service 67–8
- logistics service providers
 - EIT and 16
 - tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208
 - US intermodalism and 51
- logistics system
 - European development strategies and 273
 - US intermodalism and 35–6, 41–2
 - see also* system
- Ludvigsen, J. 30
- Lutteskes, E. 120

- Macharis, C. 208, 209–10
- MacLean, Malcolm 229
- Maes, P. 254
- Magee, J.F. 91
- mainports see ports; terminals
- Malone, T.W. 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257
- management
 - container handling service quality and 89, 92
 - interorganizational coordination and 260
 - US intermodalism and 49–51
 - see also* performance
- market
 - demand side, EIT 15–17
 - supply side, EIT 17–21
- marketplace
 - EIT 21
- Matheja, A. 218
- Mayer, G. 180–82
- McGrath, J.E. 252
- MDS Transmodal 79
- MEA (market entry ability)
 - system design and 191–2, 195–6, 197–8, 200, 204–5
- MegaHub technology 141, 142–5, 147, 150
 - see also* technology
- megahub terminals
 - NG concept, load unit exchange innovation and 159
- Meyer, Peter 144
- Miller, D.W. 202
- Mintzberg, H. 253
- models
 - action plan, European development strategies 294–6
 - interorganizational coordination system 264–6
 - SERVQUAL, container handling service quality and 89, 94
 - system, intermodal chain and 15, 20, 21, 22
 - tools for, development challenge 2, 5–8
 - see also* network modelling
- Möller, K. 161
- Monge, P.R. 254
- Moore, N. 256
- Morlok, E.K. 15, 210
- Morrill, R.L. 73
- MPOs (metropolitan planning organizations) (USA) 308, 317
- Muller, Gerhardt 49, 233, 258, 314
- multimodalism
 - intermodalism distinguished 36–7, 58
- N.N. 136, 150
- Narver, J.C. 90
- National Commission on Intermodal Transportation (USA) 53
- National Research Council (USA) 53
- NCHRP (National Cooperative Highway Research Program) (USA) 307–8
- Nelldal, B.-L. 22
- Nemoto, Toshinori 4
- NERA 292
- Netherlands
 - container bundling 84, 86
 - EIT and 17
 - hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 234, 235

- interorganizational coordination and 259
- NG concepts and 160
- network design
 - actors, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 153
 - cost function and economies of scale in, relating to bundling triangle 180–82
 - EIT production system and 23–5
 - research 183–4
 - see also* design
- network modelling
 - future research tasks and 206
 - information, availability of 219–20
 - intermodal freight transport defined 206–7
 - overview 7–8
 - planning, strategic for operators 210–12
 - planning models 207–10
 - seaport hinterland traffic 212–16
 - transport modes, infrastructure implications 216–19
 - see also* models
- networks
 - best 183
 - bundling, load unit exchange and 174, 175
 - complex bundling 156–8
 - European bargaining, container bundling in 83–6
 - European development strategies and 278
 - information, interorganizational coordination processes and 260
 - integrated terminal and box projects 160
 - non-technical, innovations 164–5
 - rail, container bundling in 80–83
 - system analysis applying network approach, results of 29
 - see also* hinterland development networks
- Newman, A.M. 210
- Niérat, P. 15
- Nijkamp, Peter 4, 210
- NG (new-generation) concepts
 - load unit exchange innovation and 153, 159–64
- NODUS 210–11, 212
- Noell Crane Systems GmbH 137–9, 140, 142, 147
- Norris, B. 55
- Norway
 - EIT and 18
- Notteboom, Theo 4, 79
- Nozick, L. 210
- NSF (National Science Foundation) (USA) 306
- objectives
 - national economic,
 - government–private industry dynamics, US government innovation role 315–16
 - system design 191–2
- OECD (Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development) 58
- Ohnell, S. 16
- oil see gasoline
- O’Kelly, M.E. 180
- operations
 - development challenge 2–5
 - gate, with increased automation, container handling system developments 128–9
 - landside, container handling system developments 127–8
 - waterside, container handling system developments 124–7
- operators
 - intermodal, EIT and 18–21, 28
 - maritime terminal, quality importance according to 96
 - rail, EIT and 17–18
 - strategic planning for, network modelling and 210–12
 - tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208–9
 - see also* actors
- organization see management
- organizations see institutions
- Paaswell, Robert 10
- Parasuraman, A. 89, 94
- partnership see cooperation
- Patterson, K.A. 29

- performance
- container handling future and 110
 - container handling service quality and 96–7, 98, 100–101, 103–4
 - exchange nodes and 173–5
 - focus strategy and, system design 194–5
 - load unit exchange innovation and 154
 - mainport development trends and 111
 - MegaHub 143–4
 - NG concepts implementation and 163
 - relationships, system design 198–9
 - SSCA and 202–4
 - total, and per unit, system design and 195
 - see also* efficiency
- Perl, Anthony 10, 305
- Perreault Jr., W.D. 95
- Persson, P.-Å. 30
- Peterson, B.E. 211
- Planco GmbH 214, 219
- planning
- container handling future and 125
 - guidance, public sector role in design and, US intermodalism 54
 - long-term 89, 117–19
 - models, network modelling and 207–10
 - strategic, for operators, network modelling and 210–12
 - US government innovation role and 304, 316–17
 - see also* action plan; performance
- policy
- development challenge 8–10
 - European development strategies and 272, 277–8, 298–9
 - US government innovation role and 303, 310, 317–21
 - US intermodalism issues 52–6
- policy makers
- tasks of, planning and, network modelling 209
- Port of Gioia Tauro, Medcenter Container Terminal 274
- Porter, M.E. 255
- ports
- choice of, container handling future and 133
 - connectivity importance, Japan 59
 - deep-sea, mainport development trends and 111–12
 - development, container handling future and 110–13, 117–19
 - EIT and 19
 - hinterland development networks and 73–6
 - hinterland traffic, network modelling and 212–16
 - improved access needed, Japan 64
 - US government innovation role and 315
 - see also* terminals
- PPH (pre-and post-haulage by road)
- EIT and
 - competitiveness 30
 - ICT importance 29
 - market demand side 15, 16, 17
 - market supply side 18
 - marketplace 21
 - production system 24
 - hinterland development networks and 79
 - interconnectivity and interoperability development and 230–32
 - load unit exchange innovation and 154, 156, 180, 183
 - see also* road services
- practice
- interorganizational coordination 258–62
 - working, information and, rail services interconnectivity and interoperability and 241
- price
- diversity, of, interconnectivity and interoperability 226–7
 - handling, container handling service quality and 89, 93, 101, 103
 - see also* costs; performance
- pricing
- fair and efficient, as priority action, European development strategies 292
 - policy, European development strategies and 277

- private sector
 - government–private industry dynamics, US government innovation role and 309–17
 - US intermodalism as public good and 53
- privatization
 - mainport development trends and 111
- process
 - gate, redesign with reduced inspection activities, container handling system developments 131
 - interorganizational coordination practice 260
 - interorganizational coordination theory 253–4
 - production, service, container handling 90–91, 95
- production process
 - service, container handling 90–91, 95
- production system
 - EIT 21–5
 - maritime containerization as, interconnectivity and interoperability and 228–9
 - MegaHub 142
 - US intermodalism and 40
 - see also* system
- productivity trends
 - 1955–97, US intermodalism and 41
- PROMOTIQ 278, 287
 - see also* European Commission
- Proper, A. 52
- prototype
 - interorganizational coordination system 265–6
 - see also* models
- public policy
 - US intermodalism issues 52–6
 - see also* policy
- public sector
 - role in planning guidance and design, US intermodalism 54
 - see also* government
- Quadrante Europa/Verona Freight Village 273
- quality
 - bundling triangle and, load unit exchange 165–73
 - differentiation strategy and, system design 194
 - European development strategies and 271
 - service see container handling, service quality
 - see also* IQ; transport quality
- quality conditions
 - continental terminals, container handling in 100–101
 - maritime terminals, container handling in 95–7
 - see also* conditions
- quality judgements
 - continental container terminals 102
 - history
 - continental terminals, container handling in 98–100
 - maritime terminals, container handling in 94–5
- rail services
 - bundling of container flows bound inland by, innovative hub technology and, Agile Port System 140–45
 - bundling triangle and 168–73
 - collection and distribution along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile Port System 145–50
 - continental container terminal service quality and 98, 100, 101, 103, 104
 - EIT and 21, 22–3, 29–30
 - European development strategies and 271–2, 287–8
 - exchange nodes and 173–5
 - hinterland development networks and 79
 - hinterland traffic alternatives 214–15
 - increased scale impact 113
 - infrastructure implications, network modelling 217–18
 - integral costs 175–6
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 213, 232–4, 237, 239–41, 242

- Japan 58, 59–60, 61–2, 64
- load unit exchange innovation and 158–9, 160
- mainport development trends and 112
- networks, container bundling in 80–83
- NG concepts implementation and 162, 163
- non-technical network innovations and 164–5
- operators, EIT and 17–18
- shuttles, container handling system developments 131
- US government innovation role and 314
- US intermodalism and 47, 49, 52
see also services
- Regan, A.C. 29
- Reggiani, A. 210
- regulator
 - pan-European, establishment of as priority action, European development strategies 292–3
- Reinhardt, F. 194
- Reinheimer, S. 255, 257
- relationships
 - supplier–buyer, interorganizational coordination and 253, 254, 257, 261
- reliability
 - container handling future and 132
 - container handling service quality and 89
 - continental terminals 98, 100, 101, 104
 - maritime terminals 95, 96, 97, 103
see also performance
- RENFE (Spain) 98
- research
 - container handling service quality, further 94, 104
 - future tasks, network modelling and 206
 - intermodal transport 276, 277–8
 - network design 183–4
 - task and design, system design 188–9
- resources
 - competitive, interorganizational coordination and 253–4
 - cost advantage strategy and, system design 192–3
 - economic, public sector role in channelling, US intermodalism 54
 - EIT, for 21–2
 - hauliers' 17
see also infrastructure
 - Ridolfi, G. 80
 - Rietveld, Piet 4
 - Rijnsbrij, Joan C. 5–6, 114, 120, 124, 125
 - road services
 - container handling system developments 129–31
 - European development strategies and 276
 - hinterland development networks and 79
 - hinterland traffic alternatives 214
 - infrastructure implications, network modelling 216–17
 - Japan 58, 59
 - increased scale impact 113
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 230–32, 237–8, 249
 - load unit exchange innovation and 160
 - mainport development trends and 112
 - US government innovation role and 303, 313–14
 - US intermodalism and 46–7
see also PPH; services
 - robotization see automation
 - Rockart, J.F. 252, 256
 - Rodrigue, J.-P. 75
 - Roloff, M.E. 264
 - Rosenfield, D.B. 91
 - Rosenchein, J.S. 256
 - Roy, M.-J. 194
 - Russ, F.A. 95
 - Rutten, B.J.C.M. 27, 180
 - Saanen, Y.A. 114
 - safety
 - security and, public sector role in, US intermodalism 54–5

- working conditions, of, mainport
 - development trends and 112
- Sarres, D. 142
- satellite terminals
 - cooperation with, container handling system developments 131
 - increased scale impact and 119
 - see also* terminals
- Schermer, K.J. 264
- Schuh, G. 214
- Schwarz, Florian 7–8, 214
- SCUSY (Simulation von Containerumschlag-Systemen) 147–9
- seaport see ports
- Seidelmann, C. 161
- service-driven approach
 - container handling future and 132
- service quality see container handling, service quality
- services
 - container line 67–8
 - rationalization strategies, European development strategies and 273–5
 - short-distance, European development strategies and 288–9
 - see also* inland services; rail services; road services; shipping
- shippers
 - EIT and 15, 30
 - requirements of, hinterland development networks design and 72–3
- shipping
 - container, volumes, mainport development trends 110
 - increased scale impact 113
 - inland river, Japan 62–3
 - maritime terminals and 95, 97
 - short-sea services, European development strategies and 291
 - small shipments services, European development strategies and 289–90
 - vessel size, container handling future and 114–16
 - see also* coastal shipping; inland shipping; services
- SIMET 161
- Simons, J. 168
- size
 - freight flows, EIT 25–7
 - geographic factors and industry structure and, US government innovation role 312–15
 - vessel, container handling future and 114–16
- Slack, B. 31
- Slater, S.F. 90
- software
 - European interconnectivity and interoperability and 247–9
 - see also* technology
- Sol, H.G. 255, 256
- Southworth, F. 211
- Spain
 - continental container terminal service quality and 98–9
 - EIT and 17, 25, 27
- Spasovic, L.N. 15
- specificity
 - ICT impact on interorganizational coordination and 257, 261
- SSCA (significant, sustainable competitive advantage)
 - system design and 191–5, 197–8, 200, 201–5
 - see also* competition
- Stalebrink, O.J. 19
- STAN 210, 211
- standardization
 - cost advantage strategy and, system design 193
 - lack of, ILU and EIT 30
- standards
 - establishment of as priority action, European development strategies 293
- Standifer, G. 211
- Starr, M.K. 202
- statistics
 - freight sector, US intermodalism patterns and 42–5
- Stone, Bryan 8–9
- storage facilities
 - outplacing from ocean harbours, Agile Port System 136–7

- strategies
 - cost advantage, SSCA and, system design 192–3, 194
 - development see development strategies
 - differentiation, SSCA and, system design 192, 193–4
 - focus, SSCA and, system design 192, 194–5
- STREAMS 209
 - see also* European Commission
- structures
 - coordination, characteristics 254–5, 260–61
 - industry, size and geographic factors and, US government innovation 312–15
 - information, interorganizational coordination system and 263–4
 - interorganizational 254–5, 258, 260–62
 - US trucking industry 313
- Study team ME&P and others 209
- subsidies
 - cost advantage strategy and, system design 193
- supply side
 - market an actors, EIT 17–21
- sustainability
 - European development strategies and 277
- Sweden
 - EIT and 17, 18, 20, 25, 27
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 247
 - intermodal operators and their activities 20
 - NG concepts and 160
- Switzerland
 - EIT and 24, 27
 - European development strategies and 274–5
 - NG concepts and 160
- system
 - analysis applying network approach, results of 29
 - container handling, developments 123–31
 - information, Japan 64–5
 - interorganizational coordination 262–6
 - model, intermodal chain and 15, 20, 21, 22
 - port 73–5
 - port equalization 74
 - see also* logistics system; production system
 - system design
 - definitions and system components 189–91
 - designer 187–8
 - evaluation 200–201, 205
 - external conditions 197–8
 - MEA (market entry ability) 195–6, 204–5
 - objectives 191–2
 - overview 7
 - performance relationships 198–9
 - research task and research design 188–9
 - SSCA 192–5, 201–5
 - Taaffe, E.J. 73
 - Taniguchi, Eiichi 4, 58
 - Tax, H. 122
 - Taylor, G.D. 15
 - technology
 - conventional, interorganizational coordination and 260
 - European interconnectivity and interoperability and 247–9
 - hub, innovative, Agile Port System 140–45
 - LMTT (linear motor-based transfer technology) 138, 145–50
 - MegaHub 141, 142–5, 147, 150
 - US intermodalism and 34–5, 40, 51–2
 - see also* automation; ICT; innovation
 - terminals
 - choice of, container handling future and 133
 - container, handling future see container handling, future scale dilemma
 - container, handling quality see container handling, service quality

- development, container handling
 - future and 110–13, 117–19
 - efficient marine (EMT) 136, 137–40, 141, 147, 150
- EIT and 19, 22–3, 28–9
- increased scale impact 114
- infrastructure implications, network modelling and 219
- intermediate, stops at, container line service 68, 69, 72
- Japan 60
- marine and intermodal, mainport development trends 111
- NG concepts and, load unit exchange innovation 159–60, 162
- road services and, partnership between, container handling system developments 130–31
- safety and security, public sector role in, US intermodalism 54–5
 - see also* ports; satellite terminals
- TERMINET 89, 142, 143, 161, 207
- TFK 161
- theory
 - interorganizational coordination 253–5
- Thompson, G.J. 254
- Thompson, J.D. 253
- Thompson, R.G. 58
- Thorson, E. 303
- Thuong, L.T. 80
- time
 - container handling future and 127–8, 132
 - container handling service quality and 89, 94–5, 97, 100, 101, 103, 104
 - ICT impact on interorganizational coordination and 257, 261
- trains see rail services
- transport flows
 - European intermodal (1999) 28
 - see also* flows
- transport quality
 - improving, load unit exchange and 152–3
 - system design and 204
 - see also* quality
- TRB (Transportation Research Bureau) (USA) 312
- triangle see bundling triangle
- Trip, J.J. 30, 102, 207, 276
- Troche, G. 22
- trucks see road services
- Tsamboulas, Dimitrios 9–10
- TSIs (Technical Standards of Interoperability) 243–4, 247, 248
 - see also* technology
- Tulp, F. 265
- UIC (Union Internationale des Chemins de Fer) 240, 243
- UIRR (International Union of combined Road-Rail companies) 18, 25, 27, 220, 248
- UK (United Kingdom)
 - interconnectivity and interoperability and 228, 232–3, 240
 - network modelling and 209
- UN/ECE 207
- uncertainty
 - ICT impact on interorganizational coordination and 257
- UNICONSULT and ISL 213
- US Office of Management and Budget 306
- USA (United States of America)
 - container bundling in rail networks 80
 - EIT and 18, 21
 - government innovation role 302–4, 321
 - challenges 309
 - government–private industry dynamics 309–17
 - institutional diversity and durability, effects of 305–9
 - overview 10
 - systematic policy, towards 317–21
- interconnectivity and interoperability and 230, 213, 233–4, 239
- intermodalism
 - evolution, definition and elaboration 36–9
 - forces propelling 40–42
 - history 38–9
 - institutional and organizational factors 49–51

- overview 3–4, 34–6
- patterns 42–9
- public policy issues 52–6
- technological factors 51–2
- network modelling and 211
- see also* Agile Port System
- USDC (US Department of Commerce) 313
- USDOT (US Department of Transportation)
 - European development strategies and 273
 - US government innovation role and 302, 303, 310
 - US intermodalism and 34, 52, 54, 55
- van de Bos, W. 120
- van den Berg, G.C. 25, 276
- van Duin, R. 212
- van Ham, H. 212
- van Helsdingen, P.J.C. 90, 91
- van Klink, H.A. 25, 276
- van Schijndel, W.-J. 13
- van Zuylen, H. 276
- Vastag, A. 207
- Verbraeck, A. 114
- vessels see shipping
- Vézina, R. 194
- Vickerman, M.J. 135, 136
- Vleugel, J. 30
- Vries Jr., W. de 90, 91
- Wajzman, J. 2
- Walton, C.M. 211
- waste
 - transportation by inland river shipping, Japan 63
 - transportation by rail, Japan 61–2
- Weber Matthias, J. 276
- Wenger, H. 18
- Whinston, A.B. 255, 256
- Wiegman, Bart 4
- Wigand, R. 255
- Williamson, O.E. 255, 257
- Winkelmans, W. 79
- Woitschütze, C.P. 213
- Wölper, A. 147
- working conditions
 - safe, mainport development trends and 112
 - see also* conditions
- working practices
 - information and, rail services interconnectivity and interoperability and 241
 - see also* practice
- Woxenius, Johan 2–3, 14, 16, 25
- Yannis, G. 28
- Yano, C.A. 210
- Yates, J. 256, 257
- Zapp, K. 14
- Zeithaml, V.A. 89, 94
- Zeta-Tech Inc. 247
- Zimmermann, C. 218
- Zlotkin, G. 256

