Index

Aastrup, J. 17

action plan
model, European development strategies 294–6 policy, European development strategies 298–9 see also planning

actions European development strategies, for already taken 273–5
required to lift barriers 279–86 to be taken, as priority 291–4 actors

EIT
demand side 15–17
supply side 17–21
network design, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 153 terminal, container handling service quality and 93–3 transport, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 152 see also operators
Agile Port System (USA)
technical approach 6, 135–6, 150 collection and distribution along trains, high-capacity box mover for 145–50 hub technology, innovative 140–45 marine terminal, efficient 137–40 storage facilities, outplacing from ocean harbours 136–7 see also hinterland development; port systems; USA

air transport integration into intermodal chains, European development strategies 290–91

Alberghini, G. 80

Alexander, E.R. 253
Alicke, Knut 144
Anderson, W. 44
ATA (American Trucking Association) 314 Australian-European Conference 229–30 Austria
interconnectivity and interoperability and 235
NG concepts and 160
automation
container handling future and 114 gate operations with increased, container handling system developments 128–9 NG concepts implementation and 161, 163
road services interface, of, container handling system developments 129–30 terminal handling system 125–7
see also technology
Avery, P. 137, 139, 142

Bailey, J.P. 256
Bakos, J.Y. 256, 257
Ballis, A. 30
barges see inland shipping Barke, M. 74

barriers
European development strategies, to, 275–8, 279–86, 287
intermodalism 225
Bärthel, Fredrik 2–3, 14, 25
Bauer, R. 147
Belgium
container bundling 81, 83, 84, 86
EIT and 27
hinterland development networks and 76–9, 82
Benjamin, R.I. 255, 256, 257
Bereskin, C.G. 41
Bergstrand, J. 30
Berry, L.L. 89, 94
Beuthe, M. 211
Bodendorf, F. 255, 257
Bontekoning, Y.M. 30, 69, 92, 208, 209–10, 276
Boske, L. 303–4
Bowersox, D.J. 93
box mover
  high-capacity, for collection and distribution along trains, Agile port system 147–50 Bradley, P. 51
Breitzmann, K.-H. 213
Britain see UK
Brunn, E. 161
Brynjolfsson, E. 256, 257
BTS (Bureau of Transportation Statistics) (USA) 44, 46, 307
Buchholz, J. 207
Buis, J. 265
Bukold, S. 14, 17
bundling
  complex, principles and impacts of 155 container see container bundling container flows rail-bound inland, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45 freight flows 66, 69–72, 85, 87, 157 load unit exchange and 153, 154–9 networks, load unit exchange and 174, 175 bundling triangle
  cost function and economies of scale in network design relating to 180–82 qualitative elaboration 165–73
Bürkl, M. 161, 173
Buxmann, P. 252
cargo see freight CargoNet 18, 21
challenges
  development 2–10
  transport quality and efficiency improvement 152–3 US government innovation role 309, 318 characteristics
  container cranes 119–20 continental terminals, container handling service quality in 100 coordination structures 254–5, 260–61 freight flows, EIT 25–7
  future type container vessels 115 maritime terminals, container handling service quality in 95 service, container terminal handling quality and 96, 100 urban intermodal freight transport, Japan 59–61 Charlier, J. 80
Chatterjee, Latta 3–4
Chircu, A.M. 255
choice
  interconnectivity and interoperability and 225–6
  ports and terminals, of, container handling future 133 Choong, S.T. 276
Churchman, C.W. 14
Clark, T.H. 256
Clausen, U. 207
Clinger, J. 40
Closs, D.J. 93
CNC (Compagnie Nouvelle de Cadres) 18, 21, 24 coastal shipping
  Japan 58, 59–60
  mainport development tends and 112
see also shipping
Cole, M.H. 276
collection
  along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile port system 145–50 communicability
  MEA and, system design 195, 196
Index

competition
container handling future and 109, 132
container handling service quality and 97, 103, 104
EIT 25, 27, 30
European development strategies and 273, 278
freight bundling and 69–71
hinterland development networks design and 73, 78–9
interconnectivity and interoperability and 248–9
interorganizational coordination processes and 260
Japan 62
US intermodalism and 37, 39, 53, 55–6 see also SSCA
conditions
external, system design 197–8 working, safe, mainport development trends and 112 see also quality conditions connectivity see interconnectivity consolidators
US intermodalism and 51
Consortium (Germany) 147
container bundling
concepts in multi-terminal container ports 76
hinterland development networks and 80–86
see also bundling
container flows
rail-bound inland, bundling of, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45 see also flows
container handling
future scale dilemma 5–6, 109–10, 132 choice of ports and terminals 133 container cranes, requirements for 119–23 cost-driven approach 132–3
increased scale, impact of 113–14 port and terminal development 110–13, 117–19 service-driven approach 132
system developments 123–31
vessel size 114–16
service quality 4–5, 89–90
continental terminals 98–104
costs 91
further research 94, 104 maritime terminals 94–8, 103–4 measurement 93–4 production process 90–91 terminal actors 92–3 container line service
design 67
frequency 67
intermediate terminals, stops at 68 loading capacity 67–8
see also services
containerization
EIT and 17, 18
hinterland development networks and 66
hinterland transport and, modal split in 79
Japan 59
maritime, interconnectivity and interoperability development and 228–30 US intermodalism and 45–6, 50–51, 52, 53
control
container handling future and 114, 125
see also performance
Cooke, J. 51
cooperation
road services and terminals, container handling system developments 130–31 satellite and main terminals, container handling system developments 131 coordination see interorganizational coordination Copacino, W.C. 91
Corsi, T.M. 29
cost advantage strategy
SSCA and, system design 192–3, 194
see also strategies
cost-driven approach
container handling future and 132–3
cost function economies of scale and, network design in relation to bundling triangle 180–82
costs
bundling triangle and 166, 168, 180–82
business economic, system design
and 203
container handling future and 109, 110, 112, 132
container handling service quality
and 91, 96, 97, 102, 103
differences per load unit 178–9
EIT and 30
exchange nodes and 173, 175
freight flows bundling and 66, 69
hinterland development networks
design and 72, 80
integral, load unit exchange and 175–80
interconnectivity and interoperability and 226, 229, 241, 248
Japan 60–61
load unit exchange innovation and 154, 156
mainport development trends and 112 MegaHub and 144–5
socio-economic, system design and 203
US government innovation role and 302
US intermodalism and 49, 50
see also price
Crainic, T.G. 208, 210
Cramton, P.C. 256, 257
cranes container, requirements for,
container handling future and 119–23
RMG (rail-mounted gantry) 125, 138
STS (ship-to-shore) 137, 139 see also equipment; infrastructure Crowston, K. 253, 254, 255, 256 Cullinane, K. 74
customs brokers
US intermodalism and 51
De Boer, J. David 233
De Witt, W. 40
definitions
coordination 253
intermodal freight transport 206–7
intermodal transport 189
intermodalism 35, 36
intermodality 189–90
supply chain 40
system components and, system
design 189–91
transport chain 207
uncertainty 257
demand side
market and actors, EIT 15–17
Demilie, C.L. 211
Denis, J. 163
deregulation
EIT and 23, 27
US government innovation role and 314
US intermodalism and 41
US railroads and intermodalism,
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 233
design
container line service 67
hinterland development networks 72–3
planning guidance and, public sector role in, US intermodalism 54 see also network design; system
design
design tools development challenge 2, 5–8
D’Este, G. 276
development
challenges 2–10
hinterland, networks design 72–3
interconnectivity and
interoperability 227–35
passenger and freight transport, US economic growth and 43
port and terminal, container handling future and 110–13, 117–19
terminal container handling system 123–4
gate operations, with increased automation 128–9
Index

gate process redesign with reduced inspection activities 131 landside operations 127–8 satellite terminals, cooperation with 131 train shuttles 131
truck interface, automated handling of 129–30 trucking and terminals, partnership between 130–31 waterside operations 124–7 development strategies Europe 9–10, 271–2, 296–7 action plan model 294–6 actions already taken 273–5 actions to be taken, as priority 291–4 air transport integration into intermodal chains 290–91
barriers 275–8, 279–86, 287
policy action plan for 298–9 railways, role of as traction providers 287–8 short-distance services 288–9 short-sea shipping services 291 small shipments services 289–90 differentiation strategy SSCA and, system design 192, 193–4
see also strategies
Dijkstra, E.W. 265
DIN (Deutsches Institut für Normung) 207 Dinwoodie, J. 13
distribution
along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile port system 145–50
diversity durability and, effects of institutional, US government innovation role and 305–9 price of, interconnectivity and interoperability 226–7 Donaldson, L. 252 durability diversity and, effects of institutional, US government innovation role and 305–9 efficiency fairness and, of pricing, as priority action, European development strategies 292
interconnectivity and interoperability and 225, 226–7 transport, improving, load unit exchange and 152–3 see also EMT; performance Eisenberg, E.M. 254
EIT (European intermodal road-rail freight transport) demand side market and actors 15–17 expectations unfulfilled 13–14 freight flows, size and character of 25–7 marketplace market and actors 21
overview 2–3
production system 21–5
solution to road and rail transport problems, as 13 supply side market and actors 17–21 synthesis and outlook 27–31 see also European Union Ekering, C.F. 256
EMT (Efficient Marine Terminal) 136, 137–40, 141, 147, 150
see also efficiency
ENO Transportation Foundation, Inc. 302 evironmen
t differentiation strategy and, system design 194
EIT and 30–31
Japan 60, 63, 65
mainport development trends and 112
system design and 204
US government role, innovation and 303 equipment
capital for, EIT and 28 cargo-handling, US intermodalism and improvements in 51–2
container handling future and 114
freight bundling 69
interconnectivity and interoperability and 245–6
see also cranes; infrastructure European Commission development strategies and 272, 275, 288, 290, 292, 293, 297
EIT and 13, 25, 30
interconnectivity and interoperability and 242–4 IQ (Intermodal Quality) 27, 89, 277–8
network modelling and 207 PACT programme 248, 250
PROMOTIQ 278, 287
STREAMS 209

European Union
barging network, container bundling in 83–6 development strategies see development strategies, Europe
interconnectivity and interoperability and 227, 229–30, 231, 232–4, 239, 242, 245–50 rail networks, container bundling in 80, 82–3 SAIL Project 247
transport flows (1999) 28
transported volumes of major operators (1990–2002) 26

see also EIT Eurostat 14
evaluation
SSCA 201–4
system design 200–201, 205
exchange
hub, NG concepts implementation and 163–4 see also innovation, load unit exchange

Fabel, P. 142
fairness efficiency and, of pricing, as priority action, European development strategies 292 feedering success of, interconnectivity and interoperability development and 234–5 FHWA (Federal Highway Administration) (USA) 306–7 flexibility
container handling future and 109, 132
container handling service quality and 89, 92, 104
see also performance
Florian, M. 210
flows
container, rail-bound inland, bundling of, innovative hub technology and, Agile port system 140–45 freight, size and character of, EIT 25–7 NG concepts implementation and 163
open corridors, European development strategies and 278 transport, European intermodal (1999) 28
Floyd, R.W. 265
Flughafen/Cargo City, Frankfurt, Germany 275 FMCSA (Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration) (USA) 307 focus strategy
SSCA and, system design 192, 194–5
see also strategies
forwarders
EIT and 15–17, 18, 29
tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208
US intermodalism and 50
Foundation for Promoting Personal Mobility and Ecological Transportation (Japan) 64
FRA (Federal Railroad Administration) (USA) 307 France
container bundling 80, 81, 83, 86
EIT and 13, 17, 18, 21, 24, 27
hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
interconnectivity and interoperability and 232, 235, 240, 247
MegaHub technology and 145
network modelling and 210
NG concepts and 159, 160
non-technical network innovations and 165 Franke, Klaus-Peter 6, 141, 143, 145, 173
Frankel, J. 43
Fränkle, A. 214
freight bundling, hinterland development networks and 66, 69–72, 87 commercial activity by mode of transportation 1997, estimate of total, USA 46 domestic transport, modal share of, Japan 59 flows, size and character of, EIT 25–7 growth by traffic modes 1970–95, USA 44 handling equipment, US intermodalism and improvements in 51–2 intensity, USA 45
intermodalism by commodities, form of, USA 48 shipments by value and tonnage, USA 35, 47 spatial concentration of, in port systems, hinterland development networks and 73–5 transport costs, Japan 61 transport development, passenger transport development and US economic growth and 43 value, by, USA 45
freight concentration level in port systems and hinterland, inland services configuration as function of 74 throughput and in H-LH range 77 freight sector US government role, innovation and, passenger sector compared 309–12 US intermodalism patterns and 42–5 frequency container handling service quality and 89
container line service 67
ICT impact on interorganizational coordination and 257, 261–2 volumes and unit capacity and 68, 167
see also performance
Frindik, R. 161
Gadde, L.E. 14
Galbraith, J.R. 257
gasoline transportation by inland river shipping, Japan 63 gate operations with increased automation, container handling system developments 128–9 process, redesign with reduced inspection activities, container handling system developments 131 Gebauer, J. 252
Germany container bundling 80, 81, 82, 83–4, 85, 86
EIT and 13, 17, 18, 19, 27
European development strategies and 273–4, 275
hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9 interconnectivity and interoperability and 232, 234, 235, 249–50
LMTT and 47
MegaHub technology and 141, 142–3, 145, 150
network modelling and 212, 218, 219–20
NG concepts and 159, 160
GHR 259
Gifford, J.L. 19
Gilman, S. 74
globalization container handling future and 109, 110
mainport development trends and 111
US government innovation role and 303
US intermodalism and 39, 40
US transport changes and 34
Godlee, F. 303
Index

human behaviour
  hinterland development networks
design, impact on 73
Hupac/Trans Alps Service 274–5
Huth, E. 147

ICF (Intercontainer-Interfrigo) 18, 21, 24, 25, 81
ICT (information and communication technology)
  EIT and 17, 22, 29–30
  increased scale impact 114
  interorganizational coordination and 252–3, 255–8, 260, 261, 262, 266–8
  mainport development trends and 112
  US intermodalism and 40–41, 42, 52, 55
  see also information system; technology IFEU and SKGV 30–31
IIC (Intermodal Interface Center) 6, 136, 140–41, 150
ILU (intermodal loading unit)
  EIT and 13, 14
  freight flows 27
  market demand side 15, 16
  market supply side 17, 18
  standardization, lack of 30 see also load unit
implementation
devvelopment challenge 8–10 innovation, possible path for 320 realized, of NG concepts 161–4 IMPULSE 161
information
  availability of, network modelling 219–20 hinterland traffic alternatives and, network modelling 215–16 network, interorganizational coordination processes and 260 structure of, interorganizational coordination system and 263–4 working practices and, rail services interconnectivity and interoperability and 241

Golias, J. 28, 30
Golob, T.F. 29
Gooley, T. 51
Gould, P.R. 73
government
  role in fostering innovation, USA see USA, government innovation role see also public sector
Grimm, C.M. 29
Guttman, R.H. 254
Gwilliam, K. 53
Ha Con 161
Hagler Bailly, Inc. 52
Haines, M. 55
Håkansson, H. 14
hauliers see PPH Hayuth, Y. 74
Helferich, O.K. 93
Hengst, Mariëlle den 9, 255, 256, 268
Henstra, D. 14, 30
Hickling, L. 37
hinterland development networks
  container bundling 80–86
design 72–3
  freight flows bundling and 66–72, 87 inland service configuration and, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
  overview 4
  port areas, concepts in 75–6 port systems, spatial concentration of cargo in 73–5 see also Agile port system; networks hinterland traffic network modelling and 212–16
Holguín-Veras, José 10, 303, 308, 310 Hollingshead, A.B. 252
homogeneity
  interorganizational coordination and 256–7, 261
Houtman, J. 30
hub exchange
  NG concepts implementation and 163–4
hub technology innovative, Agile port system 140–45
  see also technology
information system improvement needed, Japan 64–5 see also ICT; system infrastructure
EIT and 15, 22, 28–9, 30
freight bundling and 72
increased scale impact 114, 117
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 238–9
intermodal transport in, system design and 190
Japan 63, 64, 65
mainport development trends and 111 transport modes implications for,
network modelling and 216–19
US intermodalism and 37, 39
see also equipment; resources inland services configuration as function of cargo concentration level in port systems and hinterland 74 direct versus indirect 71
see also services
inland shipping
continental container terminal service quality and 100, 101–2, 103, 104
European interconnectivity and
interoperability and 245–6
hinterland development networks
and 76–9, 83–6
hinterland traffic alternatives 214–15
infrastructure implications, network
modelling and 218–19
mainport development trends and 112
NG concepts and 160–61, 162–3
see also shipping
innovation
development challenge 2
government role in fostering, USA see USA, government innovation role
hinterland development networks
and 66
implementation path for 320 load unit exchange 6–7
bundling 154–9
bundling triangle 165–73, 180–82
costs, integral 175–80 exchange nodes 173–5 network design research 183–4 networks, best 183
NG (new-generation) concepts 159–64
non-technical network innovations 164–5
PPH 183
transport quality and efficiency, improving 152–3
US intermodalism and 52
see also technology
inspection
mainport development trends and 112
reduced activities, gate process redesign with, container handling
system developments 131
institutions
diversity and durability effects, US government innovation role and 305–9
US intermodalism and 35, 41, 49–51
see also interorganizational
coordination
integration
European development strategies
and 276–7, 278, 290–91
MEA and, system design 195–6 terminal and box projects, networks
and 160
interconnectivity importance, Japan 59
interoperability and 8–9, 235–9, 250–51
barriers to 225
choice, making 225–6
development 227–35
diversity, price of 226–7 European Union and 227, 232–3, 245–50
railways 239–41
US intermodalism and 49–50
intermodal freight transport defined 206–7
future of, overview 1–2
intermodalism
air transport integration into,
European development
strategies 290–91
domestic, European interconnectivity and interoperability and 246–7 modalism to, interconnectivity and interoperability development and 227–8 see also USA, intermodalism interoperability promotion of as priority action, European development strategies 293–4 see also interconnectivity, interoperability and interorganizational coordination ICT and 252–3, 255–8, 266–8 overview 9 practice 258–62 system 262–6 theory 253–5 IQ (Intermodal Quality) 27, 89, 277–8 Index

load unit exchange, technical concepts for see innovation, load unit exchange system design definitions and 189 see also ILU
loading capacity
  container line service 67–8 logistics service providers
  EIT and 16
tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208
US intermodalism and 51
logistics system
  European development strategies and 273
  US intermodalism and 35–6, 41–2
    see also system
Ludvigsen, J. 30
Luttekes, E. 120

MacLean, Malcolm 229
MacLear, Malcolm 208, 209–10
Maes, P. 254
Magee, J.F. 91
mainports see ports; terminals Malone, T.W. 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257 management
  container handling service quality and 89, 92
  interorganizational coordination and 260
  US intermodalism and 49–51
    see also performance
market demand side, EIT 15–17 supply side, EIT 17–21
marketplace
  EIT 21
Matheja, A. 218
Mayer, G. 180–82
McGrath, J.E. 252
MDS Transmodal 79
MEA (market entry ability)
  system design and 191–2, 195–6, 197–8, 200, 204–5 MegaHub technology 141, 142–5, 147, 150
    see also technology
megahub terminals
  NG concept, load unit exchange innovation and 159
Meyer, Peter 144
Miller, D.W. 202
Mintzberg, H. 253
models
  action plan, European development strategies 294–6 interorganizational coordination system 264–6 SERVQUAL, container handling service quality and 89, 94 system, intermodal chain and 15, 20, 21, 22 tools for, development challenge 2, 5–8 see also network modelling Möller, K. 161
Monge, P.R. 254
Moore, N. 256
Morlok, E.K. 15, 210
Morrill, R.L. 73
MPOs (metropolitan planning organizations) (USA) 308, 317 Mulder, Gerhardt 49, 233, 258, 314 multimodalism
  intermodalism distinguished 36–7, 58
  National Commission on Intermodal Transportation (USA) 53
  National Research Council (USA) 53
  NCHRP (National Cooperative Highway Research Program) (USA) 307–8 Nelldal, B.-L. 22
Nemoto, Toshinori 4
NERA 292
Netherlands
  container bundling 84, 86
  EIT and 17
hinterland development networks, Hamburg–Le Havre (H-LH) range 76–9
interconnectivity and interoperability and 234, 235
interorganizational coordination and 259
NG concepts and 160
network design
actors, quality and efficiency improvement challenges and 153 cost function and economies of scale in, relating to bundling triangle 180–82 EIT production system and 23–5 research 183–4
see also design
network modelling
future research tasks and 206 information, availability of 219–20 intermodal freight transport defined 206–7
overview 7–8
planning, strategic for operators 210–12 planning models 207–10
seaport hinterland traffic 212–16 transport modes, infrastructure Implications 216–19 see also models
networks
best 183
bundling, load unit exchange and 174, 175 complex bundling 156–8
European barging, container bundling in 83–6
European development strategies and 278 information, interorganizational coordination processes and 260 integrated terminal and box projects 160 non-technical, innovations 164–5 rail, container bundling in 80–83 system analysis applying network approach, results of 29 see also hinterland development networks Newman, A.M. 210
Niérat, P. 15
Nijkamp, Peter 4, 210
NG (new-generation) concepts
load unit exchange innovation and 153, 159–64
NODUS 210–11, 212
Noell Crane Systems GmbH 137–9, 140, 142, 147
Norris, B. 55
Norway
EIT and 18
Notteboom, Theo 4, 79
Nozick, L. 210
NSF (National Science Foundation) (USA) 306
objectives
national economic,
government–private industry dynamics, US government innovation role 315–16
system design 191–2
OECD (Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development) 58 Ohnall, S. 16
oil see gasoline
O’Kelly, M.E. 180 operations
development challenge 2–5
gate, with increased automation, container handling system developments 128–9 landside, container handling system developments 127–8 waterside, container handling system developments 124–7 operators
intermodal, EIT and 18–21, 28 maritime terminal, quality importance according to 96 rail, EIT and 17–18
strategic planning for, network modelling and 210–12 tasks of, planning and, network modelling 208–9
see also actors organization see management organizations see institutions Paaswell, Robert 10
Parasuraman, A. 89, 94 partnership see cooperation Patterson, K.A. 29
performance
container handling future and 110
canter handling service quality and 96–7, 98, 100–101, 103–4 exchange nodes and 173–5
focus strategy and, system design 194–5
load unit exchange innovation and 154
mainport development trends and 111
MegaHub 143–4
NG concepts implementation and 163
relationships, system design 198–9 SSCA and 202–4
total, and per unit, system design and 195
see also efficiency
Perl, Anthony 10, 305
Perreault Jr., W.D. 95
Persson, P.-Å. 30
Peterson, B.E. 211
Planco GmbH 214, 219
planning
container handling future and 125
guidance, public sector role in design and, US intermodalism 54 long-term 89, 117–19
models, network modelling and 207–10 strategic, for operators, network modelling and 210–12
US government innovation role and 304, 316–17 see also action plan; performance policy development challenge 8–10
European development strategies and 272, 277–8, 298–9
US government innovation role and 303, 310, 317–21
US intermodalism issues 52–6 policy makers
tasks of, planning and, network modelling 209
Port of Gioia Tauro, Medcenter Container Terminal 274 Porter, M.E. 255
ports
choice of, container handling future and 133 connectivity importance, Japan 59 deep-sea, mainport development trends and 111–12 development, container handling future and 110–13, 117–19
EIT and 19
hinterland development networks and 73–6 hinterland traffic, network modelling and 212–16 improved access needed, Japan 64
US government innovation role and 315
see also terminals
PPH (pre-and post-haulage by road)
EIT and
competitiveness 30
ICT importance 29
market demand side 15, 16, 17
market supply side 18
marketplace 21
production system 24
hinterland development networks and 79
interconnectivity and interoperability development and 230–32
load unit exchange innovation and 154, 156, 180, 183
see also road services practice
interorganizational coordination 258–62 working, information and, rail services interconnectivity and interoperability and 241 price
diversity, of, interconnectivity and interoperability 226–7 handling, container handling service quality and 89, 93, 101, 103 see also costs; performance pricing fair and efficient, as priority action, European development strategies 292 policy, European development strategies and 277 private sector
Index

government–private industry dynamics, US government innovation role and 309–17 US intermodalism as public good and 53 privatization mainport development trends and 111 process gate, redesign with reduced inspection activities, container handling system developments 131 interorganizational coordination practice 260 interorganizational coordination theory 253–4 production, service, container handling 90–91, 95 production process service, container handling 90–91, 95 production system EIT 21–5 maritime containerization as, interconnectivity and interoperability and 228–9 MegaHub 142 US intermodalism and 40 see also system productivity trends 1955–97, US intermodalism and 41 PROMOTIQ 278, 287 see also European Commission Proper, A. 52 prototype interorganizational coordination system 265–6 see also models public policy US intermodalism issues 52–6 see also policy public sector role in planning guidance and design, US intermodalism 54 see also government Quadrante Europa/Verona Freight Village 273 quality bundling triangle and, load unit exchange 165–73 differentiation strategy and, system design 194 European development strategies and 271 service see container handling, service quality see also IQ: transport quality quality conditions continental terminals, container handling in 100–101 maritime terminals, container handling in 95–7 see also conditions quality judgements continental container terminals 102 history continental terminals, container handling in 98–100 maritime terminals, container handling in 94–5 rail services bundling of container flows bound inland by, innovative hub technology and, Agile Port System 140–45 bundling triangle and 168–73 collection and distribution along trains, high-capacity box mover for, Agile Port System 145–50 continental container terminal service quality and 98, 100, 101, 103, 104 EIT and 21, 22–3, 29–30 European development strategies and 271–2, 287–8 exchange nodes and 173–5 hinterland development networks and 79 hinterland traffic alternatives 214–15 increased scale impact 113 infrastructure implications, network modelling 217–18 integral costs 175–6 interconnectivity and interoperability and 213, 232–4, 237, 239–41, 242
Index

Japan 58, 59–60, 61–2, 64
load unit exchange innovation and 158–9, 160
mainport development trends and 112 networks, container bundling in 80–83
NG concepts implementation and 162, 163
non-technical network innovations
and 164–5
operators, EIT and 17–18 shuttles, container handling system developments 131
US government innovation role and 314
US intermodalism and 47, 49, 52
see also services
Regan, A.C. 29
Reggiani, A. 210
regulator pan-European, establishment of as priority action, European development strategies 292–3 Reinhardt, F. 194
Reinheimer, S. 255, 257 relationships
supplier–buyer, interorganizational coordination and 253, 254, 257, 261
reliability
container handling future and 132
container handling service quality
and 89
continental terminals 98, 100, 101, 104
maritime terminals 95, 96, 97, 103
see also performance
RENFE (Spain) 98
research
container handling service quality, further 94, 104
future tasks, network modelling and 206 intermodal transport 276, 277–8
network design 183–4
task and design, system design 188–9 resources
competitive, interorganizational
coordination and 253–4
cost advantage strategy and, system
design 192–3
economic, public sector role in channelling, US intermodalism 54
EIT, for 21–2
hauliers’ 17
see also infrastructure Ridolfi, G. 80
Rietveld, Piet 4
Rijsenbrij, Joan C. 5–6, 114, 120, 124, 125
road services
container handling system European development strategies
and 276
hinterland development networks
and 79
hinterland traffic alternatives 214
infrastructure implications,
network modelling 216–17
Japan 58, 59
increased scale impact 113
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 230–32, 237–8, 249
load unit exchange innovation and 160
mainport development trends and 112
US government innovation role and 303, 313–14
US intermodalism and 46–7 see also PPH; services
robotization see automation Rockart, J.F. 252, 256
Rodrigue, J.-P. 75
Rollof, M.E. 264
Rosenfield, D.B. 91
Rosenchein, J.S. 256
Roy, M.-J. 194
Russ, F.A. 95
Rutten, B.J.C.M. 27, 180
Saanen, Y.A. 114
safety security and, public sector role in,
US intermodalism 54–5

Rob Konings, Hugo Priemus and Peter Nijkamp - 9781848441392 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 12/29/2018 10:30:52AM via free access
working conditions, of, mainport development trends and 112 Sarres, D. 142
satellite terminals cooperation with, container handling
system developments 131
increased scale impact and 119
see also terminals
Schmer, K.J. 264
Schuh, G. 214
Schwarz, Florian 7–8, 214 SCUSY (Simulation von Containerumschlag-Systemen) 147–9
seaport see ports Seidelmann, C. 161
service-driven approach
container handling future and 132
service quality see container handling, service quality
services
container line 67–8 rationalization strategies, European development strategies and 273–5 short-distance, European development strategies and 288–9
see also inland services; rail services;
road services; shipping shippers
EIT and 15, 30
requirements of, hinterland development networks design
and 72–3
shipping container, volumes, mainport
development trends 110
increased scale impact 113
inland river, Japan 62–3 maritime terminals and 95, 97 short-sea services, European development strategies and 291 small shipments services, European development strategies and 289–90
vessel size, container handling future
and 114–16
see also coastal shipping; inland shipping; services
SIMET 161
Simons, J. 168
size
freight flows, EIT 25–7
geographic factors and industry structure and, US government innovation role 312–15
vessel, container handling future and 114–16
Slack, B. 31
Slater, S.F. 90
software
European interconnectivity and
interoperability and 247–9
see also technology
Sol, H.G. 255, 256
Southworth, F. 211
Spain
continental container terminal
service quality and 98–9
EIT and 17, 25, 27
Spasovic, L.N. 15
specificity ICT impact on interorganizational
coordination and 257, 261 SSCA (significant, sustainable competitive advantage)
system design and 191–5, 197–8, 200, 201–5
see also competition
Stalebrink, O.J. 19
STAN 210, 211
standardization
cost advantage strategy and, system
design 193
lack of, ILU and EIT 30 standards establishment of as priority action, European development
strategies 293
Standifer, G. 211
Starr, M.K. 202
statistics
freight sector, US intermodalism patterns and 42–5
Stone, Bryan 8–9
storage facilities
outplacing from ocean
harbours, Agile Port System 136–7
strategies
cost advantage, SSCA and, system
design 192–3, 194
development see development strategies
differentiation, SSCA and, system
design 192, 193–4
focus, SSCA and, system design 192, 194–5
STREAMS 209
see also European Commission structures coordination, characteristics 254–5, 260–61
industry, size and geographic factors and, US government innovation 312–15
information, interorganizational coordination system and 263–4
interorganizational 254–5, 258, 260–62
US trucking industry 313 Study team ME&P and others 209 subsidies
cost advantage strategy and, system
design 193
supply side
market an actors, EIT 17–21 sustainability European development strategies
and 277
Sweden
EIT and 17, 18, 20, 25, 27
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 247
intermodal operators and their activities 20
NG concepts and 160
Switzerland
EIT and 24, 27
European development strategies
and 274–5
NG concepts and 160
system
analysis applying network approach, results of 29
container handling, developments 123–31
information, Japan 64–5 interorganizational coordination 262–6
model, intermodal chain and 15, 20, 21, 22
port 73–5
port equalization 74
see also logistics system; production system
design definitions and system components 189–91
designer 187–8
evaluation 200–201, 205
external conditions 197–8 MEA (market entry ability) 195–6, 204–5
objectives 191–2
overview 7
performance relationships 198–9 research task and research design 188–9
SSCA 192–5, 201–5
Taaffe, E.J. 73
Taniguchi, Eiichi 4, 58
Tax, H. 122
Taylor, G.D. 15
technology
conventional, interorganizational
coordination and 260
European interconnectivity and
interoperability and 247–9
hub, innovative, Agile Port System 140–45
LMTT (linear motor-based transfer technology) 138, 145–50
MegaHub 141, 142–5, 147, 150
US intermodalism and 34–5, 40, 51–2
see also automation; ICT;
innovation
terminals
choice of, container handling future
and 133
container, handling future see container handling, future scale dilemma container, handling quality see container handling, service quality development, container handling future and 110–13, 117–19
efficient marine (EMT) 136, 137–40, 141, 147, 150
EIT and 19, 22–3, 28–9
increased scale impact 114
infrastructure implications, network
modelling and 219
intermediate, stops at, container line service 68, 69, 72
Japan 60
marine and intermodal, mainport
development trends 111
NG concepts and, load unit exchange innovation 159–60, 162
road services and, partnership between, container handling
system developments 130–31
safety and security, public sector role in, US intermodalism 54–5 see also ports; satellite terminals TERMINET 89, 142, 143, 161, 207 TFK 161
theory
interorganizational coordination 253–5
Thompson, G.J. 254
Thompson, J.D. 253
Thompson, R.G. 58
Thorson, E. 303
Thuong, L.T. 80
time
container handling future and 127–8, 132
container handling service quality
and 89, 94–5, 97, 100, 101, 103, 104 ICT impact on interorganizational
coordination and 257, 261
trains see rail services
transport flows European intermodal (1999) 28
see also flows
transport quality improving, load unit exchange and 152–3
system design and 204
see also quality
TRB (Transportation Research Bureau) (USA) 312
triangle see bundling triangle Trip, J.J. 30, 102, 207, 276 Troche, G. 22
trucks see road services Tsamboulas, Dimitrios 9–10 TSIs (Technical Standards of Interoperability) 243–4, 247, 248
see also technology
Tulp, F. 265
UIC (Union Internationale des Chemins de Fer) 240, 243 UIRR (International Union of combined Road-Rail companies) 18, 25, 27, 220, 248
UK (United Kingdom)
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 228, 232–3, 240
network modelling and 209
UN/ECE 207
uncertainty
ICT impact on interorganizational
coordination and 257
UNICONSULT and ISL 213
US Office of Management and Budget 306
USA (United States of America) container bundling in rail networks 80
EIT and 18, 21
government innovation role 302–4, 321
challenges 309
government–private industry dynamics 309–17
institutional diversity and durability, effects of 305–9
overview 10
systematic policy, towards 317–21
interconnectivity and
interoperability and 230, 213, 233–4, 239
intermodalism
 evolution, definition and elaboration 36–9
forces propelling 40–42
history 38–9
institutional and organizational factors 49–51
Overview 3–4, 34–6
Patterns 42–9
Public policy issues 52–6 Technological factors 51–2
Network modelling and 211

see also Agile Port System

USDC (US Department of Commerce) 313
USDOT (US Department of Transportation)
European development strategies and 273
US government innovation role and 302, 303, 310
US intermodalism and 34, 52, 54, 55

van de Bos, W. 120
van den Berg, G.C. 25, 276 van Duin, R. 212
van Ham, H. 212
van Helsdingen, P.J.C. 90, 91 van Klink, H.A. 25, 276 van Schijndel, W.-J. 13
van Zuylen, H. 276
Vastag, A. 207
Verbraeck, A. 114
vessels see shipping Vézina, R. 194
Vickerman, M.J. 135, 136
Vleugel, J. 30
Vries Jr., W. de 90, 91

Wajsman, J. 2
Walton, C.M. 211

Waste
Transportation by inland river shipping, Japan 63 Transportation by rail, Japan 61–2
Weber Matthias, J. 276
Wenger, H. 18
Whinston, A.B. 255, 256
Wiegmans, Bart 4
Wigand, R. 255
Williamson, O.E. 255, 257
Winkelmans, W. 79
Woitschützke, C.P. 213
Wölper, A. 147

Working conditions
Safe, mainport development trends and 112 see also conditions Working practices
Information and, rail services interconnectivity and interoperability and 241 see also practice
Woxenius, Johan 2–3, 14, 16, 25

Yannis, G. 28
Yano, C.A. 210
Yates, J. 256, 257

Zapp, K. 14
Zeithaml, V.A. 89, 94
Zeta-Tech Inc. 247
Zimmermann, C. 218
Zlotkin, G. 256