

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface and acknowledgements	ix
1 Introduction Francis G. Castles	1
2 Testing the retrenchment hypothesis: an aggregate overview Francis G. Castles	19
3 Data on the functions of government: where are we now? Neil Fraser and Paul Norris	44
4 The changing cost of government: trends in the state overhead budget Richard Parry	75
5 Sinking budgets and ballooning prices: recent developments connected to military spending Thomas R. Cusack	103
6 Expenditure on public order and safety Paul Norris	133
7 Testing the retrenchment hypothesis: educational spending, 1960–2002 Manfred G. Schmidt	159
8 The real race to the bottom: what happened to economic affairs expenditure after 1980? Herbert Obinger and Reimut Zohlnhöfer	184
9 A mortgage on the future? Public debt expenditure and its determinants, 1980–2001 Uwe Wagschal	215
10 Moving beyond expenditure accounts: the changing contours of the regulatory state, 1980–2003 Nico A. Siegel	245
Index	273

