

Contents

Preface	vii
Contributors	ix
PART I INTRODUCTION
1. Subsidiarity, Solidarity and Asymmetry: Aspects of the Problem Richard M. Bird and Robert D. Ebel	3
2. The Country Studies: Comparisons and Conclusions Richard M. Bird, Robert D. Ebel and Sebastiana Gianci	26
PART II FEDERAL INDUSTRIAL COUNTRIES
3. Reconciling Diversity with Equality: The Role of Intergovernmental Fiscal Arrangements in Maintaining an Effective State in Canada Richard M. Bird and François Vaillancourt	49
4. Germany at the Junction Between Solidarity and Subsidiarity Paul Bernd Spahn and Jan Werner	89
5. Accommodating Asymmetry Through Pragmatism: An Overview of Swiss Fiscal Federalism Bernard Dafflon	114
PART III NEW FEDERAL COUNTRIES
6. Belgium: A Unique Evolving Federalism Benoît Bayenet and Philippe de Bruycker	169
7. Fiscal Decentralization in Spain: An Asymmetric Transition to Democracy Teresa Garcia-Milà and Therese J. McGuire	208

PART IV COUNTRIES IN TRANSITION

8. Asymmetric Federalism in Russia: Cure or Poison? 227
Jorge Martinez-Vazquez
9. Ethnic Minority Regions and Fiscal Decentralization in China:
The Promises and Reality of Asymmetric Treatment 267
Christine Wong

PART V DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

10. Asymmetric Federalism in India 295
M. Govinda Rao and Nirvikar Singh
11. Intergovernmental Fiscal Relations and State Building:
The Case of Indonesia 320
Bambang Brodjonegoro and J. Fitz G. Ford
12. Subsidiarity and Solidarity: Fiscal Decentralization
in the Philippines 363
Christine Wallich, Rosario Manasan and Saloua Sehili

PART VI POSTCONFLICT

13. Fiscal Federalism in Bosnia and Herzegovina:
Subsidiarity and Solidarity in a Three-Nation State 399
William Fox and Christine Wallich

Index 435