
Acknowledgments

The editors would like to acknowledge the many people who have contributed to the compilation of this volume. First, of course, our wonderful list of authors, who have contributed brilliant chapters – sometimes at late notice – that cover the full domain of this burgeoning field. But then there are the ‘unsung’ heroes, without whose assistance, the volume would never have been published. These include our senior research assistants (Gerry Wood at Lancaster and Kaylene Ascough at Queensland) and the Edward Elgar team, led by Karen McCarthy and Jennifer Wilcox. Special mention should be made of the contributions of Marissa Edwards, who has been largely responsible for managing the editorial process, and Marie Dasborough, who helped to compile the original list of contributors.
