

Figures and tables

FIGURES

| | | |
|--------|---|-----|
| 1.1 | The basic properties of goods: a conventional approach to public goods | 16 |
| 1.2 | The socially determined status of goods: an expanded concept of public goods | 17 |
| 1.3 | Building blocks of food safety | 24 |
| 1.4 | The de facto mix of national goods and global public goods | 30 |
| 1.5 | Schematic description of the provision of transnational (global or regional) public goods | 31 |
| 4.1 | Euro zone: yield curve | 107 |
| 4.2a–c | ROE of the large banks | 109 |
| 4.3 | Euro zone: non-financial corporate debt (as % of GDP) | 109 |
| 4.4a | Bank loans to non-financial companies (% GA) | 110 |
| 4.4b | Euro zone: bank loans to non-financial companies (% GA) | 110 |
| 4.5 | Credit institution opinion poll on overall corporate treasury requirements | 111 |
| 4.6a | Balance and gross issuance of Pfandbriefe (billions of euros) | 112 |
| 4.6b | Balance and gross issuance of Cédulas (billions of euros) | 112 |
| 4.6c | Balance and gross issuance of mortgage bonds (billions of euros) | 113 |
| 4.7 | PPP structure | 114 |

TABLES

| | | |
|-----|--|----|
| 2.1 | The extent of violation by for-profit firms of the optimality conditions for consumer well-being in selected industries | 48 |
| 2.2 | How government and non-profit organizations perform in comparison with for-profit firms that violate optimality conditions | 55 |
| 2.3 | Governance, agency and access to capital in government and non-profit organizations relative to for-profit firms | 59 |

| | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 2.4 | Proposed allocation of economic activities among the three sectors, in various industries | 60 |
| 4.1 | Liability structure of commercial banks (% , 2002) | 106 |