

Tables

1.1	Logics and instruments of home care governance (1)	5
1.2	Distribution by type of cultural framework	10
1.3	Percentage of population aged 65 and over in different care settings	16
1.4	Per capita public expenditure on services for the elderly and disabled	17
1.5	Expenditures on long-term care as a percentage of GDP, 2000	18
1.6	Percentage of population aged 65 and over	19
1.7	Estimated age structure of proportion of the population aged 65 and over, OECD	20
1.8	Labour force participation rates of women, 1973–2003	21
2.1	Logics and instruments of home care governance (2)	31
3.1	Ideas underpinning the governance of home care	50
3.2	Institutions relating to the governance of formal care services	57
3.3	Institutions relating to the governance of support of informal care	63
4.1	Expenditure on long-term home care as a percentage of GDP, 2000	68
4.2	Public and private expenditure on long-term home care as a percentage of GDP, 2002	69
4.3	Delivery of formal care services	71
4.4	Funding of formal care services	76
4.5	Rules relating to formal care services	82
5.1	Support strategy and care regimes	97
5.2	Predominant mode of funding	105
5.3	Rules related to cash payments	111
6.1	Overview of characteristics of care workers delivering formal home care services	126
6.2	Regulation of salaries of care workers	132
6.3	Regulation of the qualifications and occupational territory of care workers	136
7.1	User influence: form and availability	152
7.2	User choice and funding	157
7.3	Areas and level of regulation	161