

Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xiii

PART ONE THEORETICAL DEVELOPMENTS IN INTERCULTURAL AND INTER-INSTITUTIONAL KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT

1. Introducing knowledge management in developing economies 3
Kate Hutchings and Kavoos Mohannak
2. Social institutions and knowledge management 13
J.C. Spender

PART TWO KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT IN THE TRANSITION ECONOMIES

3. Survival by subversion in former socialist economies: tacit knowledge exchange at the workplace 35
Gerhard Fink, Nigel Holden and Maren Lehmann
4. Fostering learning to build new competencies in times of deconstruction: lessons from Polish ex-socialist firms 52
Renata Kaminska-Labbé and Catherine Thomas
5. Re-examining knowledge sharing in an intercultural context: findings from the transition economies of China and Russia 72
Kate Hutchings and Snejina Michailova

PART THREE KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT IN ASIA

6. Knowledge management among Taiwanese high-tech industries and SMEs 93
Te Fu Chen
7. Religion, caste, language and region: contributions to knowledge management in India 111
Simon Best and Rajni Kakkar

PART FOUR KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT IN AFRICA, THE MIDDLE EAST AND LATIN AMERICA
8. Mauritius: towards a knowledge hub and society Mehraz Boolaky, Mridula Gungaphul and David Weir	135
9. Managing knowledge in the Middle East and North Africa David Weir	156
10. Latin American cultural values and their impact on knowledge management Luis Felipe Calderón-Moncloa	173
PART FIVE CONCLUSION
11. Conclusion: towards a cross-cultural and institutional framework Kavoos Mohannak and Kate Hutchings	193
Index	203