

Contents

Contributors	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Series editors' preface: Evaluating Sustainable Development – topics, trends and target groups of this new book series Peter Hardi, André Martinuzzi	xvii
Editors' preface	xxv
1 Evaluation of sustainable development in Europe: context and introduction Eckhard Störmer and Uwe Schubert	1
PART I SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT: MAKING THE CONCEPT OPERATIONAL FOR EVALUATION
2 Evaluation of sustainable development: a social science approach Wolfgang Meyer	33
3 Systems of reference for evaluation of sustainable development: diversity and harmonization Markus Langer and Aloisia Predota	51
4 An evaluation framework for sustainable development in multi-level government Thiemo W. Eser	63
PART II METHODS OF EVALUATING SD
SECTION II.1 Methods and tools: multi-regional and national context
5 Strategic Environmental Assessment and Sustainability Impact Assessment: two participatory assessment tools for sustainability Kerstin Arbter	83

- 6 Applications of sustainability evaluation at the national strategic policy level 97
Clive George
- 7 Sustainability in practice: a case-study on the reorientation of the Common Agricultural Policy in Austria 109
Erwin Schmid, Franz Sinabell and Markus F. Hofreither

SECTION II.2 Methods and tools: regional and local context

- 8 An evaluation framework of quality management of projects for regional sustainable development 125
Alain Thierstein and Manfred Walser
- 9 A thematic evaluation of the contribution of Structural Funds to sustainable development: methods and lessons 143
James Medhurst
- 10 Sustainable Development oriented local projects: making the game worth playing 165
Marc Münster, Tourane Corbière-Nicollier and Peter Knoepfel
- 11 Local Authorities' Self-Assessment of Local Agenda 21 (LASALA) 177
Naomi Luhde-Thompson
- 12 Peer review for cities: experiences from the PRESUD project 187
Jan Dictus

SECTION II.3 Methods and tools: focus on individual institutions

- 13 Sustainability of foreign aid: evaluating governance-related technical assistance projects for civil servants in Central and Eastern Europe 201
György Hajnal
- 14 How to develop a simple self-evaluation methodology for research projects and teams 217
Gudrun Lettmayer and Ingrid Kaltenegger

PART III NATIONAL EVALUATION CULTURE

SECTION III.1 State of the art in European countries

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 15 | Institutionalized evaluations of sustainable development in Belgium: the future of a federal Sustainability Impact Assessment process
Tom Bauler | 237 |
| 16 | Tracing the evaluation of sustainable development in Italy
Alessandro Bonifazi, Antonio Nicoletti and Carmelo M. Torre | 245 |
| 17 | Sustainable development and evaluation of public policies in France
Benoît Simon | 259 |
| 18 | Evaluation of sustainable development in Finland
Janis Aizsalnieks | 283 |
| 19 | The evaluative aspects of sustainability in rural development programmes in Poland
Pawel Bryła | 293 |

SECTION III.2 State of the art in another industrialized country

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 20 | A snapshot depicting mixed signals on the state of the art of evaluating sustainable development in the USA
Gerlinde Struhkamp | 307 |
| 21 | Outlook: future research questions and policy issues
André Martinuzzi, Uwe Schubert and Eckhard Störmer | 321 |
| | Index | 327 |

