

Contents

Contributors	viii
Introduction Mustafa F. Özbilgin and Ayala Malach-Pines	1
PART I CAREER CHOICE OF MBA STUDENTS FROM CROSS-NATIONAL AND INTERDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES
1. Convergence and divergence of influences on career choice: a comparative analysis of influences on career choices of MBA students in China, Ghana, Greece, Israel, Korea, North Cyprus, Turkey and the UK Barbara P. Dexter, Cynthia Forson, Gözde İnal, Mine Karataş-Özkan, Fatma Küskü, Mustafa F. Özbilgin, Ayala Malach-Pines, Cem Tanova and Jeongkoo Yoon	23
2. Culture and gender in the career choice of aspiring managers and entrepreneurs Ayala Malach-Pines and Oshrit Kaspi-Baruch	51
3. Collectivistic attitudes and solidarity with a focus on Hungary: value preferences of management students in Cyprus, the UK, Israel, Turkey and Hungary Agnes Utasi	75
PART II EARLY INFLUENCES ON THE CAREER CHOICE OF ENTREPRENEURS AND MANAGERS
4. Family influences on the career life cycle T. Alexandra Beaugard	101
5. Understanding the role of relationships in making career choices among Turkish MBA students Zahide Karakitapoğlu-Aygün and Kadire Zeynep Sayım	127
6. Serial high-tech entrepreneurs and managers in Israel: background and personality Gilat Kaplan	157

7.	Entrepreneurs and managers: a family portrait – family dynamics, language and modes of effective dialogue Orenia Yaffe-Yanai, Dov Yanai and Tamar Milo	172
PART III ENTREPRENEURS AND MANAGERS' CAREER CHOICE: CULTURAL DETERMINANTS
8.	Contrasting entrepreneurs and non-entrepreneurs among Canadian and Israeli MBAs Galit Chimo-Vugalter and Miri Lerner	189
9.	What motivates people from business-related careers to change to teaching? Paul W. Richardson, Helen M.G. Watt and Nicole M. Tysvaer	219
10.	The impact of foreign subsidiary managers' sociopolitical positioning on career choices and their subsequent strategizing: evidence from German-owned subsidiaries in France Christoph Dörrenbächer and Mike Geppert	240
11.	Determinants of career choice of Israeli high-technology entrepreneurs Dov Dvir and Ayala Malach-Pines	258
PART IV MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND MBA EDUCATION
12.	Career development and values change among MBA students: a theoretical perspective and practical avenues Eran Vigoda-Gadot and Shmulik Grimland	275
13.	Business students' views on jobs, careers and the job search process: implications for universities and employers Ronald J. Burke and Eddy S.W. Ng	292
14.	Business education as a career choice Yehuda Baruch and John Blenkinsopp	309
PART V EDUCATION, TRAINING AND LEARNING FOR MANAGERS AND ENTREPRENEURS
15.	The training and development of managers and entrepreneurs: the role of integrative capability Elizabeth Chell	327

16.	Age of opportunity? Career making and learning for mid-career entrepreneurs David Rae	349
17.	The engaging manager and the role of knowledge absorptive capacity: an organizational life-cycle perspective Laura A. Costanzo and Vicky Tzoumpa	379
18.	Career constraints in the creative and cultural industries in London: the case of work placement and training experience Mustafa F. Özbilgin and Ahu Tatlı	397
PART VI ENTREPRENEURS, MANAGERS, CAREER CHOICE AND DIVERSITY: MINORITY ISSUES
19.	The career reasons of minority nascent entrepreneurs Nancy M. Carter, William B. Gartner, Kelly G. Shaver and Patricia G. Greene	433
20.	Career choices of skilled migrants: a holistic perspective Jawad Syed	464
21.	A comparative study on career choice influences of Turkish Cypriot restaurateurs in North Cyprus and the UK Gözde İnal and Mine Karataş-Özkan	484
PART VII ENTREPRENEURS, MANAGERS, CAREER CHOICE AND DIVERSITY: GENDER ISSUES
22.	Gender and the MBA: intrinsic and extrinsic benefits Ruth Simpson and Jane Sturges	511
23.	The value of MBA education and its role in entrepreneurship for women and people of color Jennifer M. Sequeira and Myrtle P. Bell	527
24.	Intersectionality, context and 'choice': the career choice influences of self-employed black women Cynthia Forson	548
	Index	581