
Tables

1.1	Multi-level EU policy cases examined in Part II	15
1A.1	Combined numbers of interviews, meetings, events and fora	20
3.1	Third sector policy development in France	48
3.2	Main horizontal third sector bodies	52
3.3	Key events and legislation over the last ten years	57
5.1	An overview of the non-profit sector in Italy (1999)	96
5.2	Actors and coalitions in the Italian third sector policy community	108
5.3	Public sector orientation towards the Italian third sector	110
5.4	Interlocking and intersectoral processes amongst Italian third sector policy actors	111
5.5	Stable parameters and external events in the Italian third sector policy community	112
6.1	The Spanish non-profit sector: an overview	120
6.2	The Spanish political and welfare systems and the third sector	124
6.3	Reform proposals agreed between the government and PSANGO	131
8.1	Number of employees in the welfare domain	161
8.2	Collective nouns in published materials in Sweden	166
8.3	The uneven geographical distribution of collective noun usage	168
9.1	A typology of Czech NGOs by their interest orientation and type of activity	189
12.1	The inclusiveness of the NAPincl process	259
12.2	The level of involvement of the third sector in the NAP process	261
12.3	The influence of the third sector on social inclusion policy through the NAP	264
12.4	The development of links between national and European third sector organizations	267
12.5	The impact of the NAP on national third sector policy communities	268
12.6	The results of the empirical research on the impact of the NAPincl	270
12.7	Fit/misfit and the impact of the NAP	272
15.1	Selected actions undertaken in the TSEP countries for IYV	326
16.1	Forms of legitimacy and the third sector	346
16.2	Key EU actors' orientations relating to dimensions of legitimacy	370
16.3	Amsterdam and beyond as the beginnings of a third sector policy community	372