
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Introduction Robert Bradley MacKay and Laura A. Costanzo	1
PART I PROBING THE FUTURE: CULTIVATING STRATEGIC FORESIGHT
1 Redefining strategic foresight: ‘fast’ and ‘far’ sight via complexity science Bill McKelvey and Max Boisot	15
2 Anticipating critique and occasional reason: modes of reasoning in the face of a radically open future David Seidl and Dominik van Aaken	48
3 Strategic foresight Ajit Nayak	66
4 The symbolism of foresight processes in organizations Jan Oliver Schwarz	82
5 Strategic foresight: counterfactual and prospective sensemaking in enacted environments Robert Bradley MacKay	90
6 Modal narratives, possible worlds and strategic foresight Charles Booth, Peter Clark, Agnès Delahaye-Dado, Stephen Procter and Michael Rowlinson	113
7 Scenarios as knowledge transformed into strategic ‘re-presentations’: the use of foresight studies to help shape and implement strategy Thomas Durand	128
8 Researching the organization–environment relationship George Burt	144
PART II FORESIGHT AND ORGANIZATIONAL BECOMING: STRATEGY PROCESS, PRACTICE AND CHANGE
9 Strategizing as practising: strategic learning as a source of connection Elena P. Antonacopoulou	169
10 Improvisational bricolage: a practice-based approach to strategy and foresight Miguel Pina e Cunha, João Vieira Da Cunha and Stewart R. Clegg	182

11	Micro-political strategies and strategizing in multinational corporations: the case of subsidiary mandate change Christoph Dörrenbächer and Mike Geppert	200
12	How organizational DNA works David Weir, Craig Marsh and Wilf Greenwood	219
13	Making sense of organizational becoming: the need for essential stabilities in organizational change Ian Colville	234
14	Agency in management of change: bringing in relationality, situatedness and foresight Ahu Tatli and Mustafa F. Özbilgin	249
15	The role of resources in institutional entrepreneurship: insights for an approach to strategic management that combines agency and institution Julie Battilana and Bernard Leca	260

PART III SHAPING THE FUTURE: STRATEGIZING AND INNOVATION

16	The role of middle managers in enabling foresight Laura A. Costanzo and Vicky Tzoumpa	277
17	Hollow at the top: (re)claiming the responsibilities of leadership in strategizing C. Marlene Fiol and Edward J. O'Connor	297
18	Visions and innovation strategy Jonathan Sapsed	309
19	Innovation through ambidexterity: how to achieve the ambidextrous organization Constantinos Markides and Wenyi Chu	324
20	Fast cycle capability: a conceptual integration V.K. Narayanan	343
21	Interactions with customers for innovation C. Annique Un and Alvaro Cuervo-Cazurra	362
22	Organizational innovation of the Toyota Group Faith Hatani	380

PART IV RESPONDING TO THE FUTURE: INTUITION, INERTIA AND STRATEGIC FLEXIBILITY

23	The role of intuition in strategic decision making Marta Sinclair, Eugene Sadler-Smith and Gerard P. Hodgkinson	393
----	---	-----

24	(Un) great expectations: effects of underestimations and self-perception on performance Rodolphe Durand	418
25	Strategic foresight and the role of organizational memory within a punctuated equilibrium framework Stelios C. Zyglidopoulos and Stephanie W.J.C. Schreven	435
26	Adaptation, inertia and the flexible organization: a study of the determinants of organizational flexibility in an emerging economy Andrés Hatum and Andrew M. Pettigrew	453
27	Addressing path dependency in the capabilities approach: historicism and foresight meet on the 'road less travelled' Swapnesh K. Masrani and Peter McKiernan	485
28	Dynamic knowledge creation Taman H. Powell and Howard Thomas	505
29	Foreseeing the problem of conformity in strategy teaching, research and practice Gregory B. Vit	518
	Index	529