

Index

---

- 'absorptive capacity' 42
  - innovativeness 89
- accountancy methods 55, 57
- accreditation schemes, for eco-tourism 206–7
- 'achievement-based financing' of services
  - funding according to costs 118
- age composition of managers 249
- agricultural production reduction in Murray Darling Basin, Australia 191
- agro-food processes innovation
  - role of KISA 41–58
- agronomical research, Spain 47
- alliances, strategic
  - externalisation strategies of R&D 30
- 'Ambient Assistive Living' technologies 178
- aquaculture in Norway 11–12
  - KISA purchase regardless of location 34
  - KISA roles 23
  - most common firms, 'family firm' and 'coastal enterprise' 34
  - policy implications for KISA usage 35
  - research-based entrepreneurs 37
  - types of firms 26–7
- Association of Local Government and Regional Authorities, Norway 121
- Association for the Promotion of Ceramics Design (ALICER), Valencia, Spain 86
- Atlantic salmon and trout farmers, Norway 24, 25
- Australia National Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO) 10
- Australia, unsuccessful innovation
  - lack of knowledge workers, finance 148
- Australian Alpine region, destruction 191
- Australian Bureau of Agriculture and Resources Economics (ABARE)
  - funding of external R&D projects 67
  - survey on gross export sales revenue 64
- Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) 63
  - employment in ICT services 137–8
- Australian case studies, software firms 146–7, 153
- Australian Commonwealth Scientific and Research Organisation (CSIRO) 10
- Australian Information Industry Association (AIIA)
  - assistance offers 145
- Australian Institute of Marine Science (AIMS) 10
- Australian Mining Technology Services Action Agenda (MTSAA) 63
- Australian MTS companies
  - leading edge of technological innovation 67
- Australian perspective
  - on KISA and new green deal 186–210
- Australian Research Council (ARC)
  - investigation
    - case studies of Australian firms 68
- Australian software firms
  - assessment of external KISA 143
  - dynamic ICT sector 136
- Australian Technology Park, assistance offers 145
- autonomy
  - decentralised and user friendly 262
- banking and financial KISA 35
- banks, financial KISA provision 28
- Basic Agro-Food Processes Innovation, role of KISA
  - Orange Packers in Eastern Spain 12

- BASIX (New South Wales building Sustainability Index)
  - sustainable design into residential buildings 203–4
- Blue Mountains Business Advantage programme 206
  - (BMBA) 207
- Blue Mountains region
  - sustainable business activities 205
  - west of Sydney, Australia 196
  - World Heritage designated area 200–201, 204
- Blue Mountains Tourism 206
- branding development 57
  - citrus production, Spain 55
- Brazilian clusters, ceramic districts 86
- broking, proactive
  - aquaculture and external KISA 38
- Business and Public Service Associate Professionals 256
- business planning advice 229
- business process outsourcing 177
- business-related creative services
  - KIBS category 242–3
- California climate policy 192
- California Global Warming Solutions Act
  - Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emission target 192
- candidate short-listing 8
- 'care home' communities for elderly, Norway 112
- case handling for home-based services
  - professionalising of 118
- Castellon cluster
  - world-leading glazing industry 87
- Central Coast region, natural ecosystems
  - demands for employment generation 201
  - demands for maintenance of environment 201
  - growing base of SMEs 199–200
  - sustainable business activities 202–3
- Centre of Ceramics of Bologna (CCB) 87
- ceramic equipment
  - producers, Spain, from Italy 87
- ceramic tile cluster, Spain
  - KISA activities and firm performance increase 103
  - ceramic tile production
    - cluster of Castellon, Spain 86
    - worldwide, Spain, Italy, India, Brazil, Mexico, China 85–6
  - ceramic tile value chain, global
    - educational and training centres 89
    - institutional endowment in 89
    - other institutions 89
    - R&D institutes 89
    - trade associations 89
  - ceramic tiles in Spain 85–103
  - certification of service provider 8
  - chain governance 57
  - Chemical Engineering in Ceramics 86
  - 'chip innovator', 'thinker', 'creator'
    - key persons to absorb information 75–6
  - citrus firms
    - multivariate analysis 52
    - production to global export network 48
  - citrus fruits, as indigenous from Spain
    - from North Africa 47
    - from South America to Spain 47
  - citrus industry, global value chain 44, 46
  - citrus packers, sample, interviews with 48–9
  - citrus production, Spain
    - chemicals, equipment selection 46–7
    - exports and imports 2001–2008 45
    - fertilizer supply 46
    - grove care services 46
    - survey variables, meaning, range values, references 53–4
- city district of Oslo
  - Rota Scheme 118
  - SmartWalk software 118
- Classification of the Functions of Government (COFOG) 161–2, 176
- classification of public services 162
- climate change
  - environmentally orientated products and services 186
- cluster analysis
  - Spanish ceramic tile industry 99
- cluster linkage, role of, in upgrading firms 43
- cluster of Castellon, Spain
  - industrial district phenomenon 86

- clustered firms
  - formed by strategic groups of firms 91
- coastal area, north of Sydney
  - Central Coast region, natural ecosystems 195
- 'coastal enterprise' respondents
  - KISA, not driving force for innovation 32–3
  - stimulation of internal KISA 36
  - vertical integration in market 36
- coastal enterprises, Norway
  - development KISA for innovation 29
  - external KISA suppliers 29
  - multinational with worldwide departments 29
- 'collaborative exercises'
  - MTS and external providers 72
- collaborators
  - long-term relationships with knowledge partners 146
- COMET programme
  - access to marketing research 142
  - Australia National Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO) 150
- commercial missions, shared 91
- commercialization, low rates
  - for MTS companies 67
- commissioning capacity
  - external support for 180
- Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization (CSIRO) 73, 197
- communications software company, 2005
  - founders, technology professionals 227–29
  - community partnerships, as KISA driving force 193
- companies, buying and selling of 35
- company competitiveness 79
- competence building
  - active use of external KISA 34
- competitive advantage as important business driver 204
- competitive aspects, variables 92, 96
- competitive tendering, Thatcher government 175
- computer design in three dimensions 68
- computer science at universities 151–2
- confidentiality agreements on technology 73
- construction services 177
- consumer acceptance
  - influence of health considerations 36
- 'contract cities', USA 160
- contract management 179
- control, centralised and user unfriendly 262
- conversation with clients
  - source of knowledge recorded 74
- cooperation, active, with local institutions 43
- cooperation in innovation processes 116
- co-production of knowledge, elements in 9
- core competences in organisations 73
- core knowledge in-house, retention of 72
- core technology sectors, Ireland 135
- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)
  - voluntary mechanism for industries 196–7
- correlation analysis, with KISA 55
- cost–benefit analysis of external KISA
  - Australian case study 143–4
- 'creative' workforces
  - employment in non-creative sectors 245
- CRITICALKISA variable 96
- cross-licensing agreements
  - Australia National Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO) 149
- customer as provider of knowledge 78
- customer feedback
  - in public service provision 171
- customer–software firm relation
  - fruitful collaborations 147
- customers, evolutionary process with 76
- data analysis 179
- data capture, automated 172
- deal flow and investment objectives 221
- decision support
  - centralised and user friendly 262
- decoration/design settings
  - Spanish ceramic tile industry 99
- Defense Science and Technology Organisation (DSTO) 10
- development activities 34

- development projects with suppliers, customers 32
- digital accessibility of firms 98
- discriminant analysis
  - permanent staff, education, firm agreements 56
- dual environment in mining cities, Australia 70
- due diligence process
  - venture capital (VC) cycle 222
- early stage venture capital investing 216, 217, 225–6
- ecological knowledge transfer, in SMEs, Australia 194
- ecological modernisation 192
- ecosystem services 198
- ecotourism in Blue mountains region, Australia 204
- education services, consumer spending 176
- education services, public and private 160
- education variable 93–6
- educational attainment 256
  - imperfect measure of knowledge 249
- educational tools
  - for increase of knowledge diffusion 198
- Efficiency Network project, Norway 126, 127
- elderly and disabled care, Norway
  - in home communities of individual 114
- emission standards regulation 203
- emissions trading schemes 198
- empirical study, variables 92
- employees' de-learning
  - home-care, in Oslo 119–20
- employment generation
  - educational institutes' response 15
- employment stability 256
- empowerment variable 93–6
- energy efficient regulations 198
- engineering backgrounds 75
- engineering consultancy services 141
- engineering professions, related to health work 115
- engineering-related KISA 13
  - importance of 153
- enterprise level KISA 27
- entrepreneurial home-based care 111–29
- entrepreneurial skills 260
- entrepreneurs as change agents 126
- entrepreneurship influence
  - management behaviour 127
  - organisation culture 127
- environmental education
  - environmental education role 208–9
  - for increased awareness 206
  - natural advantage 200
- environmental KISA
  - and regional economic strategies 208
- equity-based financing 218, 224
- equity market, private, in UK 225
- European Union (EU) RISE project 2000
  - mapping schema for innovation systems 10
- European Working Conditions Survey 170, 253–4
  - data, EU-27+ Croatia, Switzerland, Turkey, 2005 254–5
- expertise, growing importance 263
- expertise providers for KISA, interaction with 71
- expertise sources for Australian firms
  - decentralised and user unfriendly 262–3
  - private sector for staff recruitment 141
- exploration data integration, mining in Australia 71
- exports and imports of citrus production, Spain 45
- external expertise, cost-related decision 73
- externalisation strategies of R&D, outsourcing 30
- external KISA
  - access to 152
  - collaboration motives 125
  - for obtaining technology 139
  - price of service, performance standards 143
  - providers, subcontractors and collaborators 145
  - selection 143
  - sources 140
  - suppliers 28–9
- external providers or public services, UK 175

- external relations expansions for coastal enterprises 36
- face-to-face interaction
  - necessity of, in schools, hospitals 163–4
- facilities management (FM) 177
- 'family firm'
  - external development KISA 32
  - limited scope of KISA search 32
- family firms in Norway
  - innovation through practical knowledge 28
- 'family firms' motivation needs
  - for employee training 36
  - internal KISA 36
- financial backing, inadequacy of for software firms 151
- financial resources, limited for external KISA 124
- financial resources for nursing and care, Norway
  - decrease creates need for innovation 119
- financial restraints on internal KISA 38
- financial restrictions, 'public goods suppliers' 125
- financial services, for family firms 32
- finite elemental analysis, done in 3D 68
- firm agreements with other bodies, 57
- firm competences and customer demand 98
- firm-context variables
  - accountancy methods 50
  - branding of firm 50–51
  - education of staff 50
  - firm agreements with other bodies 51
  - internal and external contacts 51
  - International Standards Organization (ISO) 50
  - marketing, link with branding 51
  - permanent staff 50
  - professional management 50
  - R&D, internal and innovation 51–2
  - R&D&I employment 51–2
  - size by average number of staff 50
  - temporary staff 50
  - training services for employees 50
  - years operating in market 50
- firm knowledge extent
  - final customer demand 93
- Firm MTS-A, internal–external expertise 74
- firm-specific human capital, learning on the job 256
- firms, interaction with universities, Australia 145
- firms as 'knowledge intensive' 117
- firms in regions
  - similar resources, cost structures, competitive behaviour 91
- firms with research activity 31
- first-order embeddedness, firm-to-firm relations 90
- fish farming in Norway
  - dramatic increase 24
  - export-orientation 25
- foreign direct investment (FDI)
  - Ireland from USA 140
- formal and informal communications 75
- formal training and learning
  - validation and certification 259
- formal training systems 256
- Framework for Procuring External Support for Commissioning (FESC)* 179
- funding system of RTOs 10
- fundraising 220–21
- Garnaut Climate Change Review, Australia, 2008 191
- gender composition of management 249
- general practitioners (family doctors)
  - allocation of funds 164
- 'Generic' Associate Professionals
  - required skills 257
- generic knowledge 7
- generic skills
  - emotional and aesthetic skills 250
  - literacy, numeracy, technical know-how 250
  - planning skills, problem solving, physical skills 250
- generic skills for KISA 264
- geoscience professionals 75
  - expertise in geophysical interpretation 71
- glazing firms, Italy, from Spain 87

- glazing industry, Spanish
  - Castellon, leading world industry 86
- glazing materials suppliers 85
- government departments
  - benefits to industry from 161
- government expenditure 163
- government financial support
  - external source of KISA 142
- government funding increase
  - for early stage venture capital 233
- government investment in VC activity 217
- government participation
  - as external KISA provider 142
- government policy and community action
  - in green issues 193
- Great Barrier Reef, destruction of 191
- Greater Blue Mountain World Heritage Area (GBMWA) Australia 196
- 'green collar jobs', Australia 197
- green economies
  - community and political engagement 187
  - response to global financial crisis 186
- 'green fund' China and USA
  - commitment 188
- green innovation boosting 210
- green investment and financial stimulus, global 189–90
- green KISA drives 14, 192
- green skills, little knowledge 264
- health care provision 112
  - by government level, Norway 113
- health care system, Norway
  - capacity shortages 112
  - for elderly, idealism, dedication to cause 124
  - major increase of expenditure in future 112
  - remote parts of country 112
- health regions, Norway 128
- health services development
  - 'health technology' assessment 172
- health services in UK 176
- health services, public and private 160
- health and social care sectors, Norway
  - employment in 115–16
  - expert professions in 115
  - Norwegian innovations 117–19
  - health, social, practical services in the home, Norway 112
- Higher Education Institutions (HEIs)
  - training services for employees 30, 264
- higher-educational qualifications, people in firms 5
- high knowledge occupation
  - computer scientist, engineer, geologist 65
- high speed broadband 232
- high tech industries 131–54, 264
  - impact on software services 42
- home-based care for elderly, Norway 111–28
  - city district of Oslo 117
- home-based service, impartial assignment of equality principle 118
- home-based service providers, shield from demands 118
- Hospital and Community Health Services
  - employee levels and qualifications 164–5
- hospital cleaning, poor levels, infection causing 160
- hosting cities for mining sites
  - accommodation services 70
- hotels, restaurants, catering (HORECA) 256
- House of Commons Health Committee
  - report 2010, detailed enquiry 179–80
- HR/Recruitment services 229
- human resources
  - older employees, prolonged working life 174
- 'hybrid' team work, interdisciplinary projects 75
- ICT see information and communications technologies
- imports to Australia, IT goods 137
- industrial machinery in Italy
  - for ceramic tile industry 87
- industry classifications, traditional 117
- industry clustering activity 192
- industry development advice 71

- informal transactions from organisations
  - in 'network space' 10
- information and communication
  - technologies (ICT) 177
  - commercial information, contact
    - information 98
  - development services, external KISA
    - suppliers 29
  - on fish feeding and production 29
  - professions, skills requirements 257
  - role as KISA 98
  - systems services, for family firms 32
- information exchanges 7
- information flows within firms 78
- information for investment opportunities
  - bankers, accountants, lawyers 221
  - past experience of entrepreneur 221
  - portfolio potential 221
- information sharing and trust 90
- information technology (IT)
  - consulting
    - impact on company competitiveness 68
  - professionals
    - with geological sciences
      - background 71
    - with mining engineering
      - background 71
  - specialists, shortage of 174
  - training services 141
- Information Technology Outlook 2000*
  - on Ireland's software exports 135
- in-house expertise 72
- Initial Public Offerings (IPOs) 216
- innovation activity R&D 3
- innovation, barriers to
  - excessive economic risk 148
  - financial resources lack 148
  - lack of customer responsiveness 148
  - lack of information on markets 148
- innovation capability in aquaculture
  - firms
    - needs mapping 38
- Innovation Centre partnerships 72
- innovation dynamics in services
  - traditional, systemic, knowledge-based 41
- innovation, essential capability 88
- innovation of firms, significance of KISA 78
- innovation as interactive learning 116–17
- innovation process challenge
  - software industries, Ireland and Australia 148
- innovation process of software firms
  - major policy recommendations 150
- innovation processes of firms, funding of
  - by government, Ireland 142
- innovation processes, of national
  - software sector 131
- innovation research 1, 3
  - in aquaculture in Norway 23
- innovation services sources 68
- innovation skills 67, 74
- innovation in software industry 149
- 'innovation system' 116
  - tacit and explicit 10
- innovative capabilities, in-house, citrus
  - firms 52
- Institute of Ceramic Technology (ITC)
  - Valencia, Spain 86
- Instituto Agronomico de Tecnologia Alimentaria
  - agro-food research 47
- integrated telephone functions
  - customer relationship management (CRM) software 227
- integration of internal KISA,
  - generation of new knowledge 144
- Intellectual Property (IP) 74, 141
- Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)
  - copyright as Irish policy 149
  - patents 2
    - protection of inventions 3, 10, 30
- interactive learning 13
  - and collaboration amongst KISA
    - actors 122–3
- interactive learning process 32
- interface with industry 264
- inter-firm cooperation, active 43
- inter-firm relationships for KISA 42
- internal and external KISA combination 92
- internal content market 232
- internal entrepreneurship motivations
  - career path 124
  - genuine interest in innovative
    - measures 124
  - professional status 124
  - rewards 124

- internal expertise, difficulty of replacing 74
- internal KISA
  - for coastal enterprises 36
  - of customer relations 139
  - determinants
    - cost factors, time constraints, maintenance
  - Irish software sector, motives for 139
  - luxury 29
  - provision, motives for 124–5
  - ‘science-based process industry’ firms 31
  - service providers inside 27
- internal R&D 68
- international competitiveness 42
- international firms in aquaculture industry 37
- international market
  - external source of KISA 142
- International Standard Classification of Occupations (ISCO)
  - broad groupings of occupations 246
- International Standards Organisation (ISO) guidelines 144
- inter-professional and interdisciplinary knowledge 242
- investment in R&D, small mineral companies 66
- investments, negotiating 222
- Irish case study on surveyed software firms
  - institutions 153
  - Public Sector Research (PSRs) 141
  - small software companies interaction with larger customer 147
  - universities access for R&Ds 141
- Irish product development units
  - advice from higher levels (HQ) 144–5
- Irish software sector
  - ICT sector, large 134–5
  - innovation as competitive advantage 134
- Italian cluster
  - ceramic equipment industry focus 87
- Italy, ceramic tile production
  - Emilia Romagna region 87
- IT see information technology
- ‘jobbing’ relationship 6
- joint-ventures
  - externalisation strategies of R&D 30
- judicial advice, for family firms 32
- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) 72
- KIBS (Knowledge Intensive Business Service) 1, 41, 140, 142, 241
  - knowledge and innovation intermediaries 5
  - private sector firms, knowledge-providers 27
- KIBS firm Norway, development process 122
- KIBS providers, informal
  - competitors, from own industry sector 10
  - customers, from own industry sector 10
- KIBS sectors, graduate-intensive 5–6
- KIBS, services of
  - science and technology 5
  - social and institutional knowledge 5
- KIBS supplier, interactions with KIBS client 7
- KIBS, technical
  - computer support, R&D, engineering 242
- KIBS-type inputs by public sector 178
- KISA (Knowledge Intensive Service Activities) 1, 10–12, 140
  - availability, importance for innovation 102
  - and firm performance 41, 63
  - and informal learning 260
  - and innovation 117
  - and innovation process of software sector 131–2
  - and IT consulting and Computer Services 79
  - and Management Consulting 79
  - and manufacturing 41
  - and mature industries 63
- KISA absorption
  - firm’s internal capabilities for 88
- KISA analysis of public services 181
- KISA case study firm 1 229
- KISA case study firm 2
  - accounting and financial services 231
  - business planning advice 231

- founding from business angels/founders 229–31
  - HR/Recruitment services 231
  - marketing and promotion 231
  - medical diagnostic device firm, 2002
229
  - strategic development services 231
- KISA case study firm 3
  - business planning advice 233
  - HR/Recruitment services 233
  - marketing and promotion 233
  - software company, internet content market, 2003 231, 233
  - strategic development services 233
- KISA collaboration
  - customers and suppliers of firm 79
- KISA, core and non-core activity
  - innovation process of software firms
138
- KISA effect on citrus production Spain
55
- KISA, embedded
  - as external sources of innovation resources 90
- KISA external and internal used by software firms 139
- KISA external providers, cost-free home-based services to elderly 123
- KISA, firms' increasing need for 23
- KISA for innovation 32
- KISA for software firms
  - engineering-related, Ireland and Australia 138–9
- KISA for specialised, competitive knowledge 34, 242
- KISA implications
  - for skills, employment and management 241–65
- KISA, importance for MTS and Mining
Companies 79
  - design and engineering consulting 71,
79
  - exploration consulting 71, 79
  - IP-related services 71, 79
  - Occupational Health and Safety
(OH&S), 71, 79
  - R&D services 71, 79
  - technical consulting services 71, 79
- KISA in aquaculture, knowledge base 26
- KISA in family firm 28
- KISA in home-based services to elderly
116
- KISA in innovation
  - achievement-based financing 121–2
  - purchaser-provider model 119–20
  - rota scheme and SmartWalk 120–21
- KISA in innovations processes
  - home-based care for elderly, Norway
119–20, 123
- KISA in low-tech sectors 57
- KISA in Public Sector, public services
13–14
- KISA in the VC context 226
- KISA, informal way for skills acquisition 260–61
- KISA interaction and influence
  - proposed model, firm's performance
56
- KISA, internal and external combination of, by firm 143
- KISA, low importance for mining companies
  - industry related training services 71
  - marketing services 71
- KISA participation
  - five policy areas for improvement 150
- KISA performing by MTS firms
  - for innovation and competitiveness of firms 80
- KISA professionals
  - generic skills display 250
  - in health work 115
  - in KIBS, Finland in 1995, employee types 245
- KISA project 3
- KISA providers by categories of firms
  - family, coastal enterprises 33
- KISA research project 3, 5
  - co-production of knowledge 4
  - input and output variables 43
- KISA role
  - in aquaculture in Norway 23
  - difference for each nation's needs 153
  - in public service 111–28
  - role in innovation of mining industry
68
  - in software firms' innovation 138
  - in Tradition Manufacturing Industries
Ceramic Tiles in Spain 12–13

- KISA skills requirements, future
  - key influences 261–2
- KISA sourcing, in-house 71
- KISA, strengthening of, tools need 37
- KISA suppliers, external 125
- KISA survey
  - design services 102
  - employment training 102
  - IT services 102
  - management consultancy 102
  - marketing services 102
  - research and development 102
  - sales and distribution support 102
- KISA, tacit and informal components
  - crucial role of 148
- KISA types used 27, 33
- KISA usage findings
  - variety according to firm type 34
- KISA use in public sector 159–83
- KISA Utilisation in Resource Intensive Industries
  - mining in Australia 12 63–82
- KISA venture capitalists 14
- KISA work across economy 242
- ‘knowledge coordinator’
  - ‘dynamic library’ of solutions 76
- knowledge diffusion 77
- knowledge domains 241
- knowledge flows within firms 78
- knowledge intensive activities
  - design activities of firm 93–6
  - environmental certification procedures 93–6
  - external training of company 93–6
  - firm distribution system 93–6
  - group in seven variables 97
  - information and communication activities 93–6
  - marketing functions of firms 93–6
  - PR activities of firm 93–6
  - R&D relationships of firm 93–6
- knowledge intensive services, variables 92
- Knowledge Management 75, 181
  - formal training systems 171–2
  - importance of, transfer of knowledge 174
- knowledge network formation 152
  - equipment suppliers, components suppliers, data program suppliers 145
- knowledge, practical and experience-based 29
- knowledge production, link to innovative activities
- knowledge sharing 90
- knowledge transfer mechanisms 9
- knowledge variations 76
- KS Efficiency Network project, Norway 121
- laboratory and testing activities
  - use of R&D institutes 91
- labour force statistics, Norway 115
- Labour Force Survey 2001 128
- leadership, high quality
  - in human resource management 174
- legal KISA 35
  - for protection of inventions 30
- Legislators 250
- lifelong learning 263, 265
- linkage types 90
- Linux 149
- local associations of citrus firms 47
- local networking, role of
  - in upgrading firms 43
- location of external KISA
  - international market 142
- low carbon economy, transition to 191
- low education profiles
  - barrier for technology innovation 47
- lower-technology-based KISA
  - translation services, technical writing 146
- low-tech industries, agro-food processes
  - role of KISA 43
- low-tech industries, KISA relevance to 44
- Macarthur Regional Environmental Innovation Network (REIN)
  - Australia National Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO) 194
- maintenance services 79
- management services access, 102
- manuals of procedures 77

- manufacturers' cluster analysis
  - Spanish ceramic tile industry 102
- manufacturing sectors
  - use of inputs from KIBS 2
- marine expertise 25
- market challenges
  - external KISA demands 32
- market failure, perceived 224
- market intelligence 3
- market and sales for coastal enterprises 36
- marketing management 57
  - citrus production, Spain 55
- 'marketing' related activities 68
- marketing services 79
- market-like practices for public services 173
- medical service encounters 169–71
- medical specialisms
  - need for specialised knowledge (KISA) 163
- mergers and acquisitions
  - external KISA demands 32
- metallurgy skill
  - shortage of expertise 73
- mine-planning software 64
- mineral exploration in Australia 63
  - AMIRA International 66
  - cooperative research centres (CRCs) 66
  - CSIRO, research and technology development 66
  - Geoscience Australia 66
  - universities 66
- mineral industry, Australia, KIBS 63
- mineral-rich locations in Australia
  - long-term exploitations 70
  - permanent settlement formation 70
- mining companies
  - case study 69
  - interactivity in mining sites
    - skilled personnel finding, problem 73
    - weak city/regional innovation system 70
  - reliance on MTS firms 79
- mining company-E
  - management of knowledge 76
- mining company-F
  - 'formal quality documents system' 77
  - monthly seminars for technical staff 77
  - technology, mine design, metallurgy, plant equipment 77
- mining in Australia
  - coal and mineral processing 63
  - exploration, extraction, quarrying, 63
  - KISA use in resource intensive industries 63
- mining industry modernisation
  - Asia, Latin America 64
- mining processes 77
- mining sector R&D expenditure 66
- mining sites in Australia
  - knowledge-intensive hubs 70, 73, 79
- mining technology companies
  - New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria 80
- mining technology firms, survey 67
- Mining Technology Service (MTS)
  - Action Agenda 65
  - Australia National Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO) 63
  - contribution to Australia's economic growth 64
  - sector in Australia 65
- mix and match processes 74
- MTS-A case study
  - outsourcing on basis of costs 72
- MTS-B firm
  - internal and external expertise 74
- MTS-C
  - interdisciplinary teams 75
- MTS Companies
  - case study 69
  - transport of innovations to mining sites 78
  - seen as providers of service 77
- MTS-D
  - mix-and-match expertise 76
- MTS-D 'learning lunches'
  - speaker on innovation 76
- MTS firms, study
  - barriers to innovation process 68
- MTS headquarters
  - business centres, inner cities 80
- Multinational Corporations (MNCs) 140, 146
- Irish 149

- National Audit Office (NAO)
  - skills acquisition 178–9
- National Health Service (NHS) 172, 178
  - commissioning of services 179
  - employee levels and qualifications 165–6
  - Knowledge and Skills Framework, 2005 166
  - ‘liberation’ of hospital trusts from 180 reforms in hand 164
- National Innovation Systems 3, 4, 132
- National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE)
  - public sector organisation 172
- National Insurance Scheme, state-run, Norway
  - individual medical expenses 114
- national software sector
  - role of KISA in innovation 132
- nationalised industries 159–60
- native plants supply, innovation benefit 203
- Natural Advantage 194
  - environmental principles 196
- Natural Advantage KISA 14, 208
- natural advantage model, conceptual drivers for 198
  - role in regional sustainable development 199
- natural science professions
  - related to health work 115
- network KISA, 31
  - companies’ vertical linkages 27
- ‘new’ knowledge
  - scientific and technological knowledge generation 30
- new public management (NPM)
  - for improving public services 171, 173
- New South Wales, Australia
  - case studies of Australian firms 195
  - green innovation boosting 14
  - KISA supporting green innovation 186
- new technology-based firms (NTBFs)
  - active in R&D 214–17, 228
  - link with venture capital industry 224
- non-core technologies 135–6
- Norway, aquaculture firms 11–12
- Norway, care for elderly
  - KISA in innovation processes 13
- Norway, home-based care
  - organisational innovations 111
  - software innovations 111
- Norwegian Association of Local and Regional Authorities (KS) 125, 126, 127
- Norwegian fish farms
  - in Scotland, Faroe Islands, Chile 25
- Norwegian Seafood Export Council, 2008
  - markets for fish 25
- nursing homes for elderly
  - replacement policy for home care, Norway 112
- occupational distribution across sectors
  - EU 25, 2006 KISA 247
- occupational statistics
  - on sectoral distribution of KISA work 246
- occupations in UK, 2006, skills required 251
- Office for Standards in Education (OFSTED) 166
- OH&S knowledge 75
- O* Net system, USA 249
- ‘open book’ operating 74
- ‘open innovation’ 3
- ‘open source’ knowledge base 76
- Open Source software 149
- operating costs use of external KISA 31
- operational services, security, cleaning 244
- opportunity identifying 126
- orange packers in Eastern Spain 41–58
- oranges and lemons, inorganic, chemical-free
  - Internet, for direct distribution 46
- organisational and strategy development
  - KISA-related 29
- organisational development, for family firms 32
- Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 2, 219
  - on environmental technologies 187
  - funding by social and private insurances 112
- Oslo city districts, financial support from city 122
- Oslo governance structure 128

- outsourcing
  - externalisation strategies of R&D 30
- outsourcing partner selection
  - informed choice, necessity for 143
- outsourcing risks
  - loss of skills 178
  - motivation of staff, low 178
  - potential for headhunting of customers 72
  - potential loss of control 72
- ownership changes
  - external KISA demands 32
- partnerships, integration of KISA types 193
- patents, stronger protection 2, 149
- pay incentives 174
- performance diversity between firms 91
- performance measurement variables
  - export 49
  - growth 49
  - performance 49
  - process innovation 49
- performance-related pay
  - in public service provision 171
- Planning, Programming and Budgeting System (PPBS) 175
- policy considerations
  - government need to promote KISA 80
  - knowledge management, importance of 81
  - transport infrastructure, quality increase 81
- policy design, for KISA participation 150
- policy initiatives, differentiation
  - Norwegian aquaculture industry 39
- policy instruments to drive KISA 209
  - regulatory reform and policy integration 208
- policy targeting KISA 35
- practical/learning by doing 33
- Primary Care Trusts (PCTS) 179–80
  - proposed abolition 180
- primary health care in Norway 114
- Private Finance Initiative projects 177
- private provision of health care, Norway 112
- private sector sources
  - strategic development 141
- privatisation of public services 160
  - 'doctor-managers' 164
  - 'privatisation of war' 160
- proactive brokers 127
- problem-solving 7
- process design services 3
- 'Product Champions', project coordinators 75
- product design services 3
- product innovation 1
- production costs
  - influence of health considerations 36
- production variable 93
- professional associations 265
- professional KIBS
  - Accounting 256
  - Advertising 256
  - Legal services 256
  - Management consultancy 256
  - Market research 256
- professional occupations in Europe
  - sectoral distribution of 246
- professional services
  - consultancy and advisory 177
- professional skills, future
  - 'half-life' of knowledge 262
  - information, increasing amount 262
- professional workers 170
- Professionals 250
  - and KISA 72, 75
- project manager, evaluation by 73–4, 77
- project risk, early stage VC 224
- provider unit objective
  - increase amount of time spent with elderly users 121
- provider units on 'small integration principle' 119
- public and private sectors
  - comparison of employment 174
  - entrepreneurship focus 126
- public institutions 4
- public personnel expenditure 163
- public relations people
  - with information for staff 77
- public sector
  - employment 163
  - entrepreneurship for elderly at home, Norway 111, 124
  - innovation 1
    - barriers to innovation process 181

- knowledge-intensive fields 160–61
- money
  - venture capital (VC) funds 217
- organisations 141
  - recruitment of KISA employees 174
- research organisations 145
- schools in England
  - employee levels and qualifications 166
- public sector definition
  - economy control by governments 159
- public service industries 160
- Public Service Industry (PSI) 174–180
- public service provision
  - end-users and services providers 168–70
- public services
  - Classification of the Functions of Government (COFOG), 162
  - innovation deficit 173
  - KISA 14
    - and sufficiency of capable employees 173
- Public Services Industry (PSI) in UK 176–80
  - services on behalf of government 175–6
- public services, privatisation 160
- public support system 127
- pupil–teacher ratios in England 168
- ‘purchaser-provider’ model
  - city district in Oslo 118
  - employee training in new roles 120–21
  - two roles, purchaser and provider 118
- purchaser-provider split 179–80
- purchaser unit establishment Oslo
  - multidisciplinary group of employees 119
- quality of service-provider 8
- R&D centres and universities
  - key elements for new knowledge 42
- R&D policy KISA input
  - ‘science-based process industries’ 37
- R&D services by Irish government 150
- R&D units, foreign-owned software 140
- R&D&I agreements 55, 57
- RAND-Europe 263
  - future of professional work 262
- regional absorptive capacity (RAC)
  - limitations 70
- regional economic strategies
  - environmental KISA 208
- Regional Environmental Innovation Network (REIN) 199
- regional innovation 192
- regional partnerships 194
- regional sustainability governance 192
- regional vegetation
  - knowledge database on 203
- regression analysis
  - brand, accountancy, R&D&I, firm agreements, local contacts 56
- rehabilitation and care unit of city
  - District of Oslo 117
- relationship character 9
- remote-control systems, in mining 64
- remote locations of mining sites 81
- reputation of service-provider 8
- research activity from external R&D 30
- research activity, focus 31
- Research and Technology Organisation (RTO) 1, 140, 147
  - intermediary role in innovation systems 9
  - overlap with KIBS 10
  - specialist providers 27
- research as tool for product development 36
- research-based entrepreneur 30, 33–4
  - biotechnology firms 30
  - commercial knowledge from KIBS 36–7
  - internal KISA lack 36
  - radical innovation projects 35
- research hypotheses 44
- research KISA 35
- research methods on KISA innovations
  - software firms, Australia and Ireland 152–3
- Resource Based Value mainstream 88, 91
- Return on Assets (ROA) 93–6
- Return on Equity (ROE) 93–6
- risk managing 126
- safety and hygiene written procedures 77
- sales variable 93
- salmon and trout fishing, Norway
  - employment in Norway 24

- scale related costs, early stage VC 224
- schools as ‘academies’
  - freedom from local authority control 180
- schools in England
  - employee levels and qualifications 167
- science and technology development 262
- ‘science-based process industries’
  - uncommon in Norwegian aquaculture 37
- science-based process industry 34
  - fish farming in Norway 33–4
- ‘science-based process industry’ firms
  - international KIBS 32
  - use of internal and research KISA 31
- scientific knowledge 34
  - KISA provision 38
- ‘scientific process industry’
  - radical innovation projects 35
- screening for investment opportunities 221
- search for general information on suppliers 8
- second-order embeddedness
  - firm relations with social and economic institutions 90
- secrecy to protect inventions 30
  - Irish-owned firms 149
- seminars 77
- seniority 256
- service industries 13
- service innovation 1
- service personnel in roster, home-care, in Oslo 118
- service providers
  - reputation in industry and recommendations 143
- skill composition of economic sectors in EU-15, 2000 243
- skill content within jobs
  - survey studies 249–50
- skill requirements
  - educational institutes’ response 15
- skills acquisition 79
- skills across occupational categories, UK, 2006 252–3
- skills involved in KISA 259
  - formal training systems 248–59
  - learning-by-doing 248
  - on-the-job training 248
- skills of project managers 76
- small and medium enterprises (SMEs)
  - entrepreneurial skills 260
  - generic, routine, technical/advanced 260
  - KISA as innovation driver 187
  - limited participation in training and skills 148
  - management, social, language and cultural 260
  - potential benefits of Natural Advantage 197
- SmartWalk software
  - for best allocation of resources 121
  - planning tool for head nurses 118
- social and health service for elderly public provision in Norway 112
- social care provision, Norway 114–15
- ‘soft innovation’
  - and family firms 36
  - inputs focus 35
  - organisational and strategy development 30
- software applications, to mining 67
- software backgrounds 75
- software-education-related policies
  - for needs of industry 151
- Software Engineering Australia data application developers 136–7
- software exporter, major, Ireland 131
- software firms, external KISA
  - avoidance of capital outlay 140
  - customer service improvement 140
  - flexibility maintenance 140
  - lack of in-house expertise 140
  - reduction of cycle times 140
  - reduction of operating costs 140
  - technology obsolescence, avoidance 140
- software firms innovation process
  - role of KISA 138
- software in Australia and Ireland
  - KISA support for innovation 13
- software industry in Australia 131–54
  - innovation awards received, state location, innovation processes 134
  - market focus, size, ownership, annual turnover 133
  - online survey of two firms 133

- software industry in Ireland 131–54
- software sector, importance
  - KISA-related policies, need for 150
- software services, high-tech industries 42
- source codes 149–50
- Spain, orange packers, 12, 41–58
- Spanish ceramic tile industry
  - catalogues for product exhibition 99
  - firm and product information from manufacturers and distributors 100–101
  - online orders and payment options 99
  - sample of manufacturers and distributors 98
  - website use, unsophisticated 102
  - websites as ‘business cards’ 102
- ‘sparring’ relationships 6, 8
- specialised service outputs 6
- specialist knowledge, new sorts 262
- staff size profile of interviewed firms 49
- state-of-the-art knowledge 263
- statistical analysis
  - critical variables, identification 93–6
- Statistics Denmark 161–2
- Statistics Norway 128
- strategic development services 229
- strategic group membership
  - associated to performance level 92
- ‘strategic groups’ analysis 91
- strategic heterogeneity between groups 91
- structural holes, bridging through KISA 90
- sub-contracting
  - externalisation strategies of R&D 30
- subcontractors 146
- suboptimal information 143
- supplier-driven innovations, ceramic tiles 85
- sustainability strategies and green KISA Australia 196
- sustainable business activities
  - Blue Mountains region 204
- Sustainable Business Activities (SBAs)
  - on Central Coast, Australia 203
- sustainable business networks
  - knowledge transfer mechanisms 208
- sustainable development
  - New South Wales, Australia 195
- sustainable industries 198, 200
- systemic and structural competence, internal 124
- tacit knowledge
  - informal methods for transmission 144
- tax-financed public provision
  - Norwegian health care 112
- teaching service encounters 169–71
- technical know-how, refusal to transfer
  - Australian firms 149
- technical knowledge capture, writing in manual 74
- technical papers presentations to mining groups 77
- technical skill in ICT Integration and Administration 258–9
- Technical Skills 179
  - in ICT business and project management 258
  - in ICT infrastructure and installation 259
  - in ICT marketing 258
  - in ICT support and systems service 259
  - in ICT systems and application development 258
- technicians 250
- technological innovation 227
- technology, advancing 263
- technology-based, new firms
  - innovation processes of firms, funding of 227
- technology change rate 141
- technology-related KIBS 2
  - specialised service outputs 6
- technology transfer 9
- temporary labour for citrus production
  - education profile of staff, low 47
- tenders, evaluation of 8
- testing simulations 68
- third-order embeddedness
  - firms indirectly related 90
- trade association (ASCER) 92
- trade association of ceramics in Italy
  - Assopiastrelle 87
- trademarks 149
- ‘Traditional’ Associate Professionals
  - high level of technical skills 257
- traditional industries 11–12

- traditional manufacturing industries
  - KISA role in 85–103
- transactional content on web 98
- transfer of knowledge, informal 74
- transformative measures
  - for cleaner production processes 199
- 'Transitional' Associate Professionals
  - required skills 257
- underground communications in mining
  - 64
- United Nations (UN) Framework
  - Convention on Climate Change
    - regulation of carbon pollution 191
- unit price variable 93–7
- universities and colleges targeting KISA
  - needs 151
- university Jaume I, Castellon, Spain
  - chemical ceramic engineering degree
    - 88
  - courses on ceramic tile production 86
- university research for software industry
  - 152
- user referral 231
- Valencia, Spain
  - citrus production 44
  - packing firms 47
- Valencian Community Region, Spain
  - Network of Technological Institutes 86
- value-chain analysis 43
- venture capital (VC)
  - as financial asset class 218
  - as supporting new technology-based
    - firms (NTBFs) 218
- venture capital (VC) activity
  - and public policy 224
  - screening for investment opportunities
    - 221
  - supply and demand sides 218–21
    - in UK 1997–2008 225–6
- venture capital firms, contributions
  - few for marine sector 31
- venture capital (VC) funds 214
  - non-financial inputs 215–16
  - relations with portfolio firms 215
- venture capital (VC) investment
  - exit as final stage 222–23
  - monitoring phase 222
  - as a percentage of GDP 220
  - technology-based, new firms 223
  - for top OECD member countries 219
- venture capital (VC) monitoring
  - activities 216
- venture capital (VC) non-financial inputs
  - 233
- venture capital/portfolio firm
  - relationships, case studies 227
- venture capital (VC) portfolio model 216
- venture capitalists as KISA providers 14,
  - 214–36
- viral marketing 231
- Vocational Education systems 264
- web-based service
  - growing market demand 46
- web presence, accessibility
  - speed, importance of 98
- wheel, problem of reinventing
  - resolution of 76
- workers, unskilled
  - retail, hotels, catering 241
- workforce mobility 265
- workplace developments
  - increased/decreased centralisation 262
- World Class Commissioning* initiative
  - 179
- World Heritage listing
  - of Blue Mountains region 206
  - business driver 207