

Acknowledgements

The writing of this book benefited from comments, suggestions and discussions coming from all the colleagues that took part to the series of seminars on the 'Evolution of industrial districts', held in 2006 and 2007 by EntEr (Centre for research on entrepreneurship and entrepreneurs), Bocconi University. We are also grateful to all our colleagues of ERDC (Entrepreneurship and Regional Development Center) of LIUC University, to the colleagues of the Department of Marketing and Management of IULM University and to those of the University of Valle d'Aosta, whose financial support is also gratefully acknowledged. Our gratitude also goes to the entrepreneurial and managerial team of Alessi, Geox, Illycaffè and Luxottica. Finally we would like to thank Terry Bland for language revisions and Francine O'Sullivan, editor of Edward Elgar Publishing, for her patience and support.
