Tables

2.1 A comparison of the positions of Popper and the Vienna Circle 40
3.1 Adl (justice) and Ihsan (benevolence) 70
3.2 Philosophical commitment and size of the public sector 86
4.1 The classical Islamic taxation scheme – core items 102
4.2 The nature of public expenditure and the principles of taxation 120
4.3 Redistribution of wealth by zakah 123
4.4 Types of broad-based taxes 125
4.5 Objectives and structure of a wealth tax 131
5.1 Selected Muslim countries – central government finance (as percentage of GDP), 1995 145
5.2 Comparative composition of tax revenue (as percentage of GDP), 1995–97 average 146
5.3 Types of revenue as percentage of total revenue 147
5.4 A ranking of Middle Eastern and North African countries according to their level of financial development, 2000–I 154
5.5 Causes of tax evasion/pilferage 155
6.1 The public debt in selected developed countries (percentage of GDP) 169
6.2 Ricardo’s comparison of debt and taxes 191
7.1 Some Islamic money market instruments 229
7.2 Illustrative PLS capital structure when dividends on shares are not expensed 245
7.3 Illustrative PLS capital structure when dividends on shares are tax deductible 248
8.1 Alternative approaches to corporate governance 269
9.1 Views on the impact of corruption 289
9.2 Performance indicators of governance for OIC member countries, 2006 304