Figures and tables

FIGURES

4.1 Wholesale market equilibrium below capacity constraint 105
4.2 Wholesale market equilibrium at capacity constraint 105
5.1 Universal service obligations in the EU25 member states, 2005 131
5.2 VAT exemptions in the EU25 member states, 2005 133
5.3 Private ownership of the USPs, 2005 133
5.4 USP revenues, prices and volume growth: (EU25 CAGR), 1998–2002 135
5.5 EU25 mail and parcel revenues, 2002 136
5.6 Concentration of postal mail volumes with key customers 137
5.7 EU25 USP market shares in domestic letter volumes, 2002 138
5.8 EU25 USP market shares in parcel volumes, 1999 138
5.9 Profitability of the EU25 USPs, 1999–2003 139
5.10 Blurring sector boundaries and new opportunities for postal operators 141
5.11 Economies of scale in postal services 151
5.12 Some influences on USP business strategies 152
5.13 Main competition cases in the European postal sector 153
5.14 Sweden Post: letters per employee, 1986–1999 155
5.15 Cost/infrastructure variance across (EU15) member states, 2002 155
5.16 Conglomerate superposts 157
5.17 A prospective model for future postal regulation 160
7.1 Gearing for individual utility companies 190
7.2 Trends in gearing over time for 15 utilities 191
7.3 Mistakes in investment appraisal when using a single-company WACC 199
8.1 Equality of access 210
8.2 Focus regulation on bottlenecks 211
8.3 Implication of IP: no longer one network/one service 222
TABLES

1.1 Residential customer switching in international electricity markets 15
4.1 Forward wholesale power prices, monthly contracts for January/February 2006 95
4.2 Theoretical net energy and ancillary services revenue for a new combustion turbine peaking plant 102
5.1 Remaining exclusive rights for the USPs (EU25), 2005 132
5.2 The postal sector compared to telecoms, electricity and gas, 2002 135
5.3 The main operations of companies acquired by EU USPs, 2005 142
5.4 DHL acquisitions, 1997–2002 142
5.5 TPG acquisitions, 1999–2004 143
5.6 Recent acquisitions in the European postal and logistics sectors 144
5.7 Finland Post’s business sectors, 2002 145
5.8 The increasingly business nature of mail volumes, 1970–2003 149
5.9 Development of competition in the EU mail market, 1998–2003 149
5.10 Impact of liberalisation on the efficiency of USPs 154
5.11 USP revenue percentages, 2003 158
7.1 Estimates of US industry costs of equity using the three-factor model 196
7.2 Cost of equity using CAPM and the three-factor model for 13 UK utilities, 1993–2003 197
7.3 Cost of equity using CAPM and the three-factor model for 13 UK utilities, with 4 per cent market equity premium, 1993–2003 198
8.1 Relevance of market failure in broadcasting 215
8.2 Spectrum award programme 219