The editors would like to thank the Section coordinators for providing valuable support throughout the project with advice and comments, as well as for helping reviewing the chapters.

We would like to thank especially Alessandra Pini for her sterling work in formatting the volume. Many thanks also to Marina Melotti (Introduction to Section 4) and Monica Borg (Chapters 16 and 17) for their translations.

We would like to extend our gratitude to Iva, Chiara and David for their constant support, encouragement and patience.
