

Contents

Table of cases	xiii
Table of international instruments	xvii

PART I ANTI-DUMPING

1 General introduction	3
A. Dumping: an unfair (?) trade practice	7
1. Dumping is price discrimination	7
2. Price discrimination in antitrust statutes	8
3. Price discrimination in economic theory: three stories	10
(a) Predation	11
(b) Discriminatory pricing	13
(c) Strategic dumping	17
4. Anti-dumping enforcement: lessons from an economic perspective	18
(a) Determinants of anti-dumping complaints	19
(b) Determinants of anti-dumping investigations	20
(c) The direct costs of anti-dumping measures	23
(d) The magnified costs of anti-dumping protection	24
B. Thou shall not discourage dumping (other than through duties)	25
2 Section I: dumping	30
A. Normal Value (NV)	30
1. Ordinary course of trade	31
(a) Sales below cost	32
(b) Sales otherwise outside the ordinary course of trade	34
2. No sales or insufficient volume of sales	40
3. Constructing NV	41
(a) Constructing the cost of production	41
(b) Constructing SG&A and profits	45
4. Determining the normal value in the case of imports from non-market economies	51
B. Export price	52
C. Establishing the dumping margin	55

(a)	The obligation to compare prices at the same level of trade	56
(b)	Due allowances: an indicative list	57
(c)	Due allowances: a reasonableness standard	59
(d)	Due allowances: the burden of proof issue	60
(e)	The end result	62
2.	Three alternative methods for comparing NV and export price	62
D.	Zeroing and its discontents	65
1.	Zeroing – the practice	66
2.	Overview of the case-law	67
(i)	The original cases: EC – Bed Linen and US – Softwood Lumber V : establishing the principle	68
(ii)	The second generation of cases: US – Softwood Lumber V, Article 21.5 and US – Zeroing (EC), US – Zeroing (Japan) : the Panels’ defiant stance	72
3.	Conclusion	86
4.	Commentary	87
3	Section II: injury and causality analysis	95
A.	General introduction	95
B.	Findings of injury must be based on positive evidence and involve an objective examination	97
1.	Positive evidence	97
2.	Objective examination	98
C.	Substance of an injury determination	99
1.	Volume of dumped imports	100
(a)	No increased dumped imports, no injury?	100
(b)	An increase in ‘dumped imports’	102
2.	Price effect of dumped imports	104
3.	Factors evidencing the impact of the dumped imports (injury indicators)	106
(a)	All factors reflected in Art. 3.4 AD must be examined	106
(b)	The need to evaluate all relevant factors	109
(c)	No need for a causation analysis under Article 3.4	111
4.	Threat of injury	112
5.	Cumulation	117
D.	The causation requirement	119
1.	Causation and non-attribution	119
2.	Other known factors must be examined as well	123
E.	The domestic industry producing the like product	126

4 Section III: procedural obligations – the tasks of the domestic investigating authority	130
A. The overarching obligation: an objective and unbiased investigation with respect for due process	131
1. The need to conduct an objective and active investigation	131
2. Respect for due process	132
B. Initiating the investigation process	134
1. Two tracks: ex officio , upon request	134
2. A proper application for initiation	135
3. Standing requirements	138
4. Sufficient accurate and adequate evidence to justify initiation	142
(a) Sufficient evidence of what?	143
(b) What is sufficient as evidence?	145
C. The investigation – choosing the period of investigation (POI)	150
1. General	150
2. POI-related questions	154
(a) The need for an accurate and unbiased picture	155
(b) The end of the POI – the recent past?	159
D. The investigation: defining the subject product and the like product	162
E. The investigation: information gathering and due process	166
(a) The information gathering process	166
(b) Publication and notification requirements	176
(c) Specific aspects of the investigation: recourse to best information available (BIA)	177
(i) The conditions for recourse to best information available ('BIA')	178
(ii) Necessary information	183
(iii) Submitted within a reasonable period of time	186
(iv) Which information to use as best information available	189
(d) The need for a company-specific margin calculation – and the sampling exception	198
(i) An individual margin of dumping – collapsing	199
(ii) The exception to the rule – sampling	200
F. The investigation – the end	203
1. Termination for reason of de minimis margin or negligible volume of dumped imports	203
2. Price undertakings	205

3.	Imposing and monitoring AD duties	207
(a)	Imposing duties is a right, not an obligation	207
(b)	Non-discrimination	208
(c)	Ad valorem , fixed or variable duties	208
(d)	The level of the duty	209
(e)	Prospective and retrospective imposition of duties	225
(f)	No retroactive AD duties	227
(g)	Provisional duties	230
4.	Duration and review of AD duties	231
(a)	The necessity principle	231
(b)	Sunset clause	231
5.	Administrative review of AD duties	251
G.	Remedies against illegally imposed AD duties	258
1.	Reimbursing definitive duties?	258
2.	Alternative ways of implementation	260
3.	Which AD measures can be challenged before Panels	262
4.	The standard of review that WTO adjudicating bodies will adopt in disputes under the AD Agreement	265
(a)	The relationship between the generic and the specific standard	265
(b)	No de novo review	268
(c)	Reviewing an investigating authority's determination – neither de novo review, nor total deference	272
(d)	Proper establishment of facts	274
(e)	Permissible interpretations	277
H.	Provisions specific to developing countries	280
1.	What are constructive remedies?	280
2.	The obligation to explore possibilities of constructive remedies in Article 15	282
5	Conclusions	286
A.	Actions in the short term	287
B.	Action in the medium run	288
C.	Anti-dumping as a safeguard	288
PART II SUBSIDIES
6	General introduction to the agreement on subsidies and countervailing measures: 'thou shall not subsidize'	293
A.	Export subsidies	293
B.	Production and other subsidies	294
C.	From the GATT to the WTO	297

D.	Unilateral and multilateral avenues for counteracting subsidies	298
7	Conditions for imposition of countervailing measures	300
A.	Subsidized imports	300
1.	Financial contribution by a government or public body	302
(a)	Financial contribution sensu stricto – direct or potential direct transfer of funds or liabilities	304
(b)	Financial contribution by omission – forgoing government revenue otherwise due	305
(c)	Financial contribution ‘in kind’ – government provision of goods or services other than general infrastructure	311
(d)	Financial contribution by the government or a public body	314
2.	Any form of income or price support	323
3.	Benefit	324
(a)	Benefit: the private investor benchmark	325
(b)	Benefit is not ‘cost to government’	328
(c)	Benefit in terms of cost of production – agricultural subsidies	329
(d)	Benefit to the recipient	333
(e)	The market benchmark – but which market?	343
(f)	Distinguishing between the existence of a benefit and the calculation of the amount of benefit	347
4.	Specificity	350
(a)	Specific to ‘certain enterprises’	352
(b)	De iure and de facto specificity	354
B.	Injury and causation	356
1.	Injury	357
(a)	An objective examination based on positive evidence	357
(b)	Volume of subsidized imports	359
(c)	Price effect of subsidized imports	362
(d)	Consequent impact on the state of the domestic industry	362
2.	Causation and non-attribution	363
3.	Threat of injury	367
C.	The domestic industry producing the like product	369
8	Procedural requirements relevant to the countervailing duty investigation	373
I.	Initiation	373

2.	Evidence gathering/conduct of the investigation	375
(a)	Due process in the investigation	375
(b)	Facts available	378
(c)	Consultation requirement	380
3.	Provisional measures	381
4.	End of the investigation and imposition of measures	382
(a)	Undertakings	382
(b)	Imposition and collection of countervailing duties	383
5.	Duration and review of countervailing measures	388
(a)	Sunset reviews	389
(b)	Administrative reviews or changed circumstances reviews	393
9	Counteracting subsidies – a two-track approach	399
A.	Countervail as a unilateral remedy	399
B.	Multilateral approach – using the WTO dispute settlement mechanism	400
1.	Multilateral disciplines on prohibited subsidies	401
(a)	Illustrative list of export subsidies – annex I	402
(b)	Prohibited subsidies (Article 3.1): contingency on export performance or import substitution	412
(c)	Remedies in case of prohibited subsidies	420
2.	Multilateral disciplines on actionable subsidies	430
(a)	Injury	430
(b)	Nullification or impairment	431
(c)	Serious prejudice	433
(d)	Remedies in case of actionable subsidies	451
10	Thou shall not be punished in any other way	453
11	Special and differential treatment	456
A.	Export subsidies	457
1.	Annex VII countries including least developed countries	457
2.	Other developing countries	457
B.	Import substitution subsidies	458
C.	Additional special and differential rules	458
1.	Serious prejudice	458
2.	De minimis levels of subsidization	459
3.	Privatization-related subsidies	459
12	Standard of review	460

PART III SAFEGUARDS

14	The rationale for safeguards	465
	A. Safeguards as a ‘safety valve easing adjustment’?	466
	B. Safeguards as an insurance scheme	471
	C. Drawbacks	474
	D. Safeguards and voluntary export restraints (VERs)	476
	E. Safeguards and unfair trade	477
	F. Injury and causation in the safeguard context	478
15	The regulation of safeguards in the WTO	481
	A. A typology of safeguard measures	481
	B. Who can impose safeguards and against whom?	482
	1. Who can impose measures?	482
	2. Against whom are measures to be applied?	483
	(a) Application on an MFN basis	483
	(b) The special case of customs unions or free trade areas – the parallelism principle	483
	3. Exclusion of developing countries	489
	C. The conditions for a lawful imposition of safeguards	490
	1. Due process	490
	(a) Initiation	490
	(b) Article 3.1 and the general due process requirement	491
	(c) Publication and notification	494
	2. Distinguishing the right to safeguard action, and its application	498
	3. The right to impose safeguards – the conditions	500
	(a) Condition 1: unforeseen developments	500
	(b) Condition 2: increased quantities of imports	511
	(c) Condition 3: serious injury or threat of serious injury to the domestic industry	523
	(d) Condition 4: existence of a causal link between increased imports and serious injury	534
	4. A safeguard to protect the domestic industry producing the like or directly competitive product	547
	(a) Like or directly competitive products	547
	(b) Representativeness of the data concerning the ‘domestic industry’	552
	5. Panel’s standard of review when evaluating injury and causation	554
	D. The application of safeguards	555
	1. Strictly to the extent necessary	555

2. Safeguard measures: the special case of quantitative restrictions	560
(a) Minimum quantity of imports in case of QRs	560
(b) Quota allocation and quota modulation	563
(c) Measures other than quantitative restrictions	564
3. Provisional safeguards	564
4. The need ‘to pay’ for safeguards: maintaining an equivalent level of concessions	565
5. The duration of safeguards	567
6. Standard of review	569
7. Special safeguard regime with respect to China	572
(a) China-specific transitional safeguards	573
(b) Textile-specific safeguards	575
16 Conclusions	577
References	579
Index	587