

Contents

Contributors	viii
Equality, diversity and inclusion at work: yesterday, today and tomorrow Mustafa F. Özbilgin	1
PART I SCHOLARS, SCHOLARSHIP AND INEQUALITY
1 Effects of the experience of inequality, exclusion and discrimination on scholarship Myrtle P. Bell	17
2 Subtle mechanisms: reproducing gender inequity in academia Patricia A. Roos	27
3 Cultural conflicts and commonalities: researching work–life balance for women university staff in the UK and Japan Diana Woodward	41
4 The unwanted body of man or why is it so difficult for women to make it in academe? A feminist psychoanalytic approach Marianna Fotaki	57
PART II REFRAMING EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION
5 Positioning workplace diversity: critical aspects for theory Judith K. Pringle	75
6 Reflections on researching inequalities and intersectionality Geraldine Healy	88
7 Contextualising diversity management Jawad Syed	101
8 Exclusion, inclusion and women entrepreneurs Miri Lerner, Ayala Malach Pines and Dafna Schwartz	112
9 Managing diverse social systems: diversity meets social systems theory – deconstructing binary and unfolding paradoxes Iris Koall and Verena Bruchhagen	120

- 10 The value of seeing gender as a ‘doing’ 136
Elisabeth K. Kelan and Julia C. Nentwich

PART III SOCIOLOGY OF EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

- 11 ‘Gender competence’: gender mainstreaming, managing diversity and the professionalisation of gender politics in Germany 149
Michael Meuser
- 12 Queering the principles: a queer/intersectional reading of Frederick W. Taylor’s The Principles of Scientific Management 159
Alexander Fleischmann
- 13 Critical sensemaking and workplace inequities 171
Jean Helms Mills and Albert J. Mills
- 14 Feminist psychosocial approaches to relationality, recognition and denial 179
Shona Hunter

PART IV PSYCHOLOGY OF EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

- 15 Challenging the status quo: diversity, employee voice and proactive behaviour 195
Johannes Rank
- 16 Reactions to discrimination: exclusive identity of foreign workers in South Africa 216
Kurt April and Amanda April
- 17 Sex differences in coping with work–home interference 229
T. Alexandra Beauregard
- 18 Affirmative action attitudes: more complex than we know 245
David A. Kravitz
- 19 Headcounts and equal opportunity: people accounting in the workplace 254
Stephen M. Garcia, Mitchell J. Meyle and Eric A. Provins

PART V LABOUR POLITICS, TRADE UNIONS, EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

- 20 Trade union perspectives on diversity management 265
Anne-marie Greene and Gill Kirton

21	Encounters between gender and labour politics: towards an inclusive trade union democracy Sue Ledwith	272
PART VI EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY INTERVENTIONS AND CHANGE
22	Inclusion and diversity as an intercultural task José Pascal da Rocha	289
23	Partners in policy: academic–practitioner collaboration for equity in education and skills training Mary Gatta	301
24	Putting words in our mouths: diversity training as heteroglossic organisational spaces Elaine Swan	308
25	Managing diversity: the virtue of coercion Alain Klarsfeld	322
26	Supporting the career development of managerial women: recent evidence Ronald J. Burke	332
27	Internal compensation discrimination: empirical and theoretical developments Daniel E. Martin	344
PART VII MEN, MASCULINITIES, EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY
28	Gender equality: not for women only Michael S. Kimmel	359
29	Men, diversity at work and diversity management Jeff Hearn and David L. Collinson	372
30	Men, gender equality and gender equality policy Jeff Hearn	383
31	‘Talking sports’: sports and the construction of hegemonic masculinities at work Michele Rene Gregory	399
	Index	413